Wm. Blake, vs. E. S & J. G. Belknap.—This was an action brought by the Plff. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate, granted 28th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Plff; thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to application to disturb the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 16th of June, 1853, for $1,022 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been sustained by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article.—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. New York, Nov. 1853.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.
It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable
SANCHO PANZA
Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer?"

RELEASE OF PRISONERS.—The venerable but unjust and cruel law of imprisonment for debt was erased from the statutes of this State at 12 o'clock last night, and imprisonment for debt, except in actual cases of fraud, is now forever abolished. There were nine poor debtors set free by the new law, to enjoy their freedom and celebrate the anniversary of their country's independence. Besides the above freed ones, over two hundred captives, imprisoned for non-payment of fines and costs, were set free this morning, by orders from the Police Court.—Boston Times, 4th.

ECONOMY OF THE STEAM FIRE ENGINE. The supervisors of the Fire Department in Cincinnati have reduced for this year the regular expenses of that department $15,000 per annum. It has been done by disbanding one hand engine company, and reducing the number of men in each company, and the salary of the engineers of the steam engines. It is found that six steam engines are as effective as thirty hand engines, and the City Councils have now under consideration whether they shall not abolish the hand engines altogether. This is the experience of the steam fire engine in Cincinnati after two years' trial.

CIRCUS.

GRAND CONSOLIDATION

OF two of the largest and most popular Equestrian Exhibitions in the world, viz.—

WELCH'S NATIONAL CIRCUS,
LENT'S NEW YORK CIRCUS,

Comprising TWO TROUPES OF TALENTED ARTISTS, TWO STUDS of trained Horses and Ponies, and all the appointments and paraphernalia appertaining to

TWO LARGE COMPANIES
Combined in
ONE MONSTER EXHIBITION,

Given in one mammoth pavilion, for a single price of admission, the reports of inferior companies to the contrary, notwithstanding.

☞ In consequence of the engagements of this ☞ Establishment in Boston, where the city authorities have granted it the use of the Public Garden for the whole of the Fourth of ☞ July week, it

WILL NOT VISIT PORTSMOUTH UNTIL
MONDAY, JULY 16th,

When it will perform, afternoon and evening for one day only. Doors open at 2 and 7 o'clock—Performance will commence half an hour after opening. Admission 25 cents.

THE PERFORMANCES

Of the combined Companies will include nearly every imaginable variety of

EQUESTRIAN, GYMNASTIC AND ACROBATIC FEATS,

In which the entire strength of the Double Troupe of Male and Female Performers Will appear, the whole enlivened by the inimitable drolleries of

THE THREE GREAT CLOWNS,
WORRELL, the Wit,
WALLIS, the Musical,
WHITTAKER, the Stump Orator.

The Proprietors confidently refer to the thousands who have visited "Welch's Circus" in former years, as to their reputation it has invariably sustained for attractiveness, and the fulfillment of the promises held out in its advertisements; and now that it has been augmented by the addition of ANOTHER COMPLETE CIRCUS, it is believed that facilities are afforded by the management for the amusement and gratification of their patrons without parallel, and beyond the approach of rivalry.

Very Particular Notice.—A novel and attractive feature in the entertainments of the combined companies consists in the presentation of the GRAND MAGIC PANTOMIME,

THE MISER OF BAGDAD,

which was originally produced by Welch & Lent, in Philadelphia, last winter, at great expense, and after many weeks of labor, and which has been performed from the commencement of the season.

NO OTHER COMPANY has ever even attempted to imitate it, unless within a very few days.

In the after piece the management would beg the public not to judge of the character of this mirth-provoking pantomine, by any paltry imitation which may be got up at a moment's notice, in hopes of taking advantage of the well-earned popularity of the original piece.

THE MISER OF BAGDAD can only be witnessed as originally produced in Philadelphia, with all its magical changes and transformations, at the Exhibition of

Welch & Lent's Combined Circuses,

At Portsmouth, Monday, July 16, 1855.

LEGISLATIVE FUN.

The Committee on Military affairs in the New Hampshire Legislature presented the following report, on Thursday last. It was received with shouts of laughter.

Mr. George of Hopkinton, from the committee on Military affairs, presented the following, which was read amid the most hilarious demonstrations:

The committee on Military Affairs, to whom was referred the bill entitled "An act to prohibit the sale of India Crackers," having considered the subject, have instructed me to submit the following report for the consideration of the House.

In England, by chapter 7 of statute 9 and 10, of William Third, it is made unlawful for any person to make or cause to be made, or sell or expose for sale, any squibs, rockets, serpents or other fireworks, or any cases, moulds or other implements for making the same, or to permit the same to be cast or fired from any house or other place thereto belonging, into any public street, house, shop or highway; and every such offence was adjudged to be a common nuisance. A law, to be effectual, must include not only India crackers, but serpents, sardons, petards, saxons, fixed suns, Mosaic glories, fans, cascades, lances, revolving suns, waving or double, caprices, spirals, and a vast multiplicity of other like combinations of gun powder. In common parlance, crackers are understood to be composed mostly of flour and water, made into a paste or dough and baked in a hot oven; and thus compounded are very extensively used for food.

Ure's Dictionary of the Arts and Sciences defines the cracker as a round or square box pasteboard, filled with granulated powder and hooped all around with twine. The crackers of India, however, are a very different article from that in ordinary use as food, and essentially different from that described by Dr. Ure, being a combustible material confined within a circular tube about two inches in length, and of about the diameter of the American cigars, usually denominated "long nines," and liable to and designed for explosion, a result which is invariably accompanied by a noise resembling the discharge of small fire arms.

According to the inquiry and observation of your committee, India crackers are employed to a very great extent to express the exuberant feelings with which "Young America" has been taught to hail the recurrence of each anniversary of the nation's redemption from the thraldom of British tyranny. Your committee believe the use of this explosive material is confined almost exclusively to the aforesaid purpose; and when thus employed, under such restraints as maybe imposed by the prudence of parents and guardians, and the ordinary municipal regulations provided for by existing laws, the use of India crackers is not deemed by your committee in any essential degree dangerous to the moral condition of the community, the public safety, or the liberties of the American people.

Your committee are of the opinion that the 4th of July is an "institution"—one which should be held in veneration by all sons of patriotic sires; that a reasonable demonstration of public joy, upon each recurrence of that day, should not be discouraged; that the explosion of India crackers is as cheap as it is harmless, and as noisy a means of celebrating the nation's jubilee as the ingenuity of man has yet devised.

Therefore, your committee have come to the conclusion that India crackers are "institutions" inseparably identified with the propriety or observance of this great national holiday.

Your committee have also taken into thoughtful consideration the probable effect of the use of India crackers upon the military spirit of the rising generation, which was the real cause of the reference of this bill to the committee; and as the country must look for support, in times of peril, upon the military ardor which pervades both the present and future generations, and as they suppose the explosion of India crackers would tend to increase that ardor, and to accustom "Young America" to the use of firearms, they believe any attempt discouraging the use of this combustible material on the national holiday to be unwise and antagonistical to the manifest spirit of the age.

Your committee have therefore instructed me to report the accompanying resolution in favor of the indefinite postponement of the bill submitted to them.

Your committee have further instructed me to report the accompanying bill, which provides a more rational as well as more useful amusement for young people on our national birthday, by encouraging them to devote their time and exercise, their military propensities in the destruction of that pest of farmers, the lamb and corn-devouring crow.

The committee indulge the confident expectation that the accompanying bill for the destruction of this noxious bird, the passage of which they earnestly recommend, may receive the favorable consideration of the House.

P. R. GEORGE, for the Committee.

After a few words from Mr. Kittredge of Canaan, who stated that his object in presenting the fire cracker bill was suggested by a communication relative to the many accidents which had occurred from the use of crackers on the 4th of July—the report of the committee was accepted.

The Crow bill, recommended by the committee, was read and laid on the table, on motion of Mr. Brown of Manchester.

A TRIP TO GERMANY.—No. 2.

BONN, Germany, May 25, 1855.

Messrs. Editors:—After stopping at Dover two hours,—only a sufficient time to obtain breakfast, have my baggage examined, and take a very short walk about the town—I took passage in a small steamboat for Calais, France.

We crossed the Strait in one hour and a half, a distance of twenty three miles. This was the jollyest steam boat excursion I ever made. The sea was very rough that day, and the rapidity with which we seemed to skip from wave to wave, produced in the mind a sensation of flying, rather than of sailing.—To a stranger, Calais presents a very peculiar appearance. The houses are mostly built of brick and covered with red tiles, and at a distance they look more like a vast assemblage of brick kilns than a city. It is a very old town, and is said to contain very little that is of special interest to the traveller. On entering the harbor, the attention is soon attracted from the strange appearance of the town to the still stranger appearance of the multitudes of soldiers that are every where to be seen. Half the men who were standing on the shore awaiting our landing, were dressed in uniform and armed with guns or swords—the greater part with swords. No porters screamed in our ears, as we landed, "Quillac's Hotel," "Hotel Maurice," "Hotel Paris," or any other Hotel. Quite another reception awaited us. These soldiers were not all for nothing. They were stationed at short intervals from each other, forming two ranks, between which the passengers were marched, like so many prisoners of war, to the passport office. The baggage, meanwhile, was conveyed to the Custom House, in the same building. About this time I began to "guess" I was not in the United States.

As soon as my passport was examined and signed, a stranger said to me in English, "follow me." Of course I followed him. Who, in a strange land, and surrounded for the first time in his life by armed men, would dare do otherwise? He led the way through two or three doors, at each of which stood an armed guard, and brought me at length into the baggage room. Here was a large number of men engaged in the interesting employment of examining other peoples' trunks. Mine was soon found, but as I was going directly through France, without any delay whatever, it was permitted to pass without examination. In this respect they were certainly more consistent than the English, who examined my trunk at Dover, although it was not conveyed fifty rods on British soil, and was opened by the Custom House officer only. It was then weighed and I was charged for every pound to Cologne, after which I was not allowed to touch it until it reached its destination. My guide, called there "commissioner," next proceeded to the ticket office, and having obtained a ticket for me, charged four francs, about seventy six cents, for his attendance and the porter's fee, and left me.

Becoming by this time a little accustomed to blue coats with shining buttons and scarlet trimmings, as there was still half an hour before the cars would leave, I thought I would take a short walk through the streets, and, if possible, obtain a view of the "lions" or "elephants" or whatever else might be on exhibition. With this intent I approached one of the doors leading from the depot into the street, when the guard who stood there inquired where I was going. I replied, it was my intention to leave in the next train for Cologne, but, as there was half an hour before it would leave, I thought of taking a hasty look at the city. He shook his head and said I could not go. This deepened the conviction in my mind that I was not in the United States.

Having been for three weeks confined to the narrow limits of a packet ship, I felt an irrepressible desire for locomotion, so I commenced promenading the long and beautiful depot. No crowd was gathered there, nor were any persons at work who might be interfered with by my walking. Soon, however, another man in uniform approached and demanded where I was going. I showed him my ticket. He said I might take a seat in the car, or go into the sitting room, but could not be allowed to walk there. I made no remonstrances, but walked into the sitting room, perfectly convinced that I was in a country where but little was known of freedom.

Yours, &c., T. H.

LOTTERIES AT WASHINGTON.—Fourteen lottery ticket venders have been indicted in Washington City for a violation of the law of Congress. The penalty for infraction is imprisonment and a heavy fine, one half of which goes to the informer. The complaint was made to the Grand Jury by strangers.—The statute heretofore has been a dead letter.

A NEW DISCOVERY IN MOTIVE POWER. The bag factory in fourth street, near J street, says the San Francisco State Tribune, is driven by a power heretofore known as "laughing gas." It is said not to be so dangerous as steam, and being more easily controlled, is better adapted to the propelling of light machinery. A patent will no doubt be applied for, by the proprietor, who claims the discovery as original.

HORRIBLE BRUTALITY.—A Baltimore dispatch of the 13th instant, informs us that at Fort Mc Henry, on Wednesday night, a soldier named Louis Loupe, while in a state of intoxication, was gagged by order of the sergeant of the guard, and then whipped to death. Loupe was a Swiss by birth, and had been in the American army seventeen years, and served throughout the Florida and Mexican wars.

GOOD TIME.—The last train over the Eastern Railroad, last evening, ran from Newburyport to Boston (40 miles) in one hour and twenty minutes, including the time in making 8 stops. Allowing an average of three minutes to each stop, and we have the running time between these two cities in less than an hour. From Newburyport to Ipswich (12 miles) the locomotive ran in fifteen minutes; from Ipswich to Beverly (about 11 miles) it occupied the same time. We do not speak of this as an extraordinary run; indeed if we are not mistaken, the distance between the two cities is sometimes made in ten or fifteen minutes' less time. Yet it must be regarded as very good every day work, to run 40 miles and make eight stops in 70 minutes.—Boston Traveller, of the 13th.

We think it is rather too good—but the papers will praise this speed till some accident happens in consequence,—and then, wonder at the providential dispensation,—and blame the engineer whom they now praise.

A COMPLIMENT FOR SOMEBODY.—The Dirigo Fire Company, with Chandler's Brass Band, all from Portland, last week made a visit to Newburyport—stopping at the Ocean House. The Herald says:

The visitors attracted much attention as they marched our streets. The music was fine, indeed; and the company were of the "bone and sinew," ready for service. We don't know as the Maine law has any effect upon the Portland people; but it is seldom that a company comes to this city where no member becomes fatigued, so as to take an occasional misstep; but when here previously and now, this company were as gentlemanly and straightforward men as could be found.—No one would have detected, from their appearance, that they were absent from home.

HUNG.—At Rock Island, Wisconsin July 13th, Stoddard, the murderer of his wife, was executed in the presence of about 8000 persons. At the scaffold he acknowledged his guilt, and attributed it to liquor.

ACQUITTED.—The German Schlegel, on trial for several days in Philadelphia, on the charge of murdering his wife, has been acquitted.

ORTHOGRAPHY.—One of our advertisers complained to-day of the erroneous spelling of the word Sirup in his advertisement, contending that the proper spelling should be Syrup. We are aware that the latter form of spelling is in common—we might say almost universal—use, but it is a singular fact that neither of the standard lexicographers of this country authorise this spelling. Both Webster and Worcester spell the word Sirup.—In fact, we have not been able to find any authority for the common mode of spelling this word. Walker, Sheridan and Jones spell it surrup. In Perry the word is spelt sirrup, and in Fulton, Knight's and Jameson's dictionaries the orthography is serrup. Yet all these authorities have been set at defiance, and common custom has established an orthography of its own.—Boston Journal.

☞ Common custom is stronger than seven dictionaries. We always spell it syrup, and pronounce it surrup.

DROWNED.—A private letter from Panama states that Lieut. Mooney, of the U. S. ship Independence, was drowned on the night of 3d of June, after the vessel had left the harbor of Callao. He jumped overboard in a fit of temporary insanity. Lieut. Mooney was a native of Maine.

EXPLOSION.—The powder mills of Mr. Carkin, at Bennington, blew up on the 9th inst., killing one man, Mr. Thomas West, who was at work in the kerneling mill. About 200 kegs of powder were destroyed.—N. H. Patriot.

A man and woman arrived at the Ocean House, Newport, and registered their names as "J. H. Buchanan and lady." They drank wines, took rides, &c., and on Tuesday left in French style, leaving a trunk and a sealed package, which had been carefully deposited in the safe. On examining the trunk about a dozen old newspapers were found; and in the sealed package, instead of $280 as represented, a lot of paper in strips.

FEAR OF FACING THE TRUTH.—The reason why photographs are not generally liked, (excepting amongst ladies) is because there is no flattery about the sun—he's an artist that will not be blinded, for he's up to every wrinkle.—Punch.

OLD BROOMS FOR NEW.—It's all very well to talk about new brooms sweeping clean, but there's an old Brough'm in the House of Lords that sweeps away rubbish like a new 'un.—Punch.

An arrival at New York brings advices from Port Au Prince to 1st ult., at which time fever was prevailing to an alarming extent among the shipping.

LOCAL.

A VISIT TO STAR ISLAND.—On Saturday last, we embarked in the steamer Silver Star, for the Shoals; and although the wind was southerly when we started from Portsmouth, there was very little of any sort outside the harbor, and not enough "swell" to sink an egg shell. The steamer made the passage in very good time, against a strong tide.

The boat stops first at "Appledore," but having recently visited that Island, for the sake of variety we this time went to Star Island, off which the steamer lies during her stay at the Shoals, and where, during a storm, the "big waves lash the frighted shore," with tremendous fury. In rambling over the rocks, "where the nibbling flocks do stray," we came upon the church, and seeing the door open, walked up in the cupalo to take a bird's eye view of the surrounding waterscape. Here we found the pastor, Rev. Mr. Mason, who had gone up there for the same purpose; and after a pleasant conversation of half an hour, accepted a polite invitation from him to go to his house and partake of some refreshments. A shrill whistle from the steamer soon cut short our stay, and we scrambled down to the boat, determined to improve the first opportunity that offers of again going to the Shoals in so good a craft, and of visiting such polite and hospitable people as Mr. Mason and lady.

The fishermen at the Shoals have taken a large quantity of mackerel, during the last fortnight. We saw, on Saturday, a huge "horse mackerel," suspended from the side of a vessel at Star Island; the monster would probably weigh at least three hundred pounds, and reminded us somewhat of a young whale. It is seldom the horse mackerel is taken in these waters. T.

☞ Died, in Utah, March, 1853, Mr. Wm. Cushman, aged 27, son of the late Hon. Samuel Cushman, of this city. Mr. Cushman was formerly a Midshipman in the U. S. navy, and at the time of his death was on his way overland to California with a party of emigrants. He went out alone on a gunning excursion, but not returning, his companions went out, and found him frozen to death. The intelligence has just reached his friends here.

THE CIRCUS TO-DAY.—Everybody will wish to see the grand entree of Welch & Lent's Equestrian Troupes into Portsmouth, this forenoon, especially, as while it will be a pleasing, it will be an entirely gratuitous display. The performances will take place both afternoon and evening, and will include all manner of feats,—equestrian, gymnastic, acrobatic, comic and pantomimic! The three clowns are said to be excellent; the public will have an opportunity of seeing the horses before the exhibition is opened, and among the riders and vaulters are those who are known, the world over, to stand at the very head of their profession. *

FIGURATIVE COMPLIMENT.—A correspondent of the Boston Herald writing from Portland, says,

The traveller to this city by the Salem and Portsmouth route, will be attended to by two conductors of whom any road might well be proud. Those who are accustomed to the route will bear me out in saying that no road in the United States can produce better men for the office than Messrs. A. H. Rowe and E. A. Towle. They are the brightest gems in the crowns of glory which rest upon the brows of their respective roads.

SMALL DEFALCATION.—On the tenth page of the printed report of the Directors of the Eastern Railroad, it is stated that T. D. Dalton, formerly general freight agent of the road, is a defaulter in the sum of $5,386,-50. We hear that this person was discharged from the employment of the Boston and Maine Railroad for the reason that his accounts were not satisfactory, being short of about a hundred dollars. He was at once employed by the Eastern Road, from whom it now appears, he took upwards of $5000.—Boston Transcript.

A MISER.—A prisoner, seventy-three years of age, in the Indiana Penitentiary at Jeffersonville, died on the 6th inst., leaving property to the amount of $200,000. He was at the time undergoing a sentence of two years' confinement for having committed forgery to the amount of twenty-five dollars. It is said that at the time of his arrest he was tendered counsel who promised to clear him of the charge for a fee of $500. The characteristic reply was, that, "if convicted, the sentence would only be for two years, and he didn't think he could make his expenses and $250 a year out of the penitentiary, and it would cost him nothing to live there, and he would save that much, anyhow!"

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—A patriotic individual, who, in order to fill the vacuum caused by his ebullitions of enthusiasm last Wednesday, found it necessary to introduce a quantity of the "forbidden," was seen standing for a long time, gently swaying to and fro, in earnest contemplation of the great telescope on Boston Common. Finally, mustering his powers of locomotion, he approached the operator, and said, persuasively, in an under tone—"See 'ere you—a' say—w-wen you gone to touch her off? More'n a dozen people's sighted the dare thing—now why don't you touch her off?" A few of the bystanders maintained a composed countenance, but not many.—Boston Courier.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The steamer Hermann sailed for Bremen to-day at noon, with 150 passengers and $242,000 in specie.

DR. L. V. BELL is prevented from acting at present upon the commission for the location of the Lunatic Hospital, by a severe and alarming hemorrhage of the lungs.—Boston Transcript.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from the impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

Price 25 cts. per Box—5 Boxes for $1.

Yacht Sea Ranger,

FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPTAIN JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate Fishing Parties on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE.

The strong anti-slavery resolves, offered by Mr. Tappan, passed the House on Saturday morning at two o'clock, after debate. The substance of the resolutions were published about a fortnight since, when first presented to the House.

The pro-slavery resolutions were rejected.

We learn from Concord, that the Legislature finished the business before the two Houses, and adjourned on Saturday.

THE CROPS.—The reports from the West, so far as we can collect them from our exchanges, are very promising as to the crops of all kinds.

In Indiana, it is said that so abundant and excellent a crop of wheat was never raised.—Corn looks well, and oats also promise an abundant yield.

In Alabama, what is better than ever before, and there is a prospect for the largest cotton and corn crops ever grown in the State.

In Georgia, more wheat has been raised this year than in any previous year since the settlement. It is selling in Murray County at $1 and $1.25 per bushel. The tendency is downward. In some parts of Georgia, the rye and oats were never better, and in others oats are not so good. Corn is looking remarkably well.

In Mississippi, the prospects of harvest are very fine—better than for several years past. Corn and wheat very good. Cotton better than usual.

In Louisiana, the crops have been injured by the drought. In one parish—Natchitoches—provisions of every kind are extremely high. Corn is worth $3 per bushel. Flour $20 to $25 per barrel. Pork 15 to 18 cents lb., and the proceeds of the plantation this year will be consumed in provisions.

In Texas, the crops vary. In some parts they are injured by drought, and in others they were never finer, and the heaviest crops ever raised are anticipated.

In Missouri, Buchanan and neighboring Counties, more wheat and of a better quality is now ready for the harvest, than at any previous year. Corn every where good. Hemp, the long drought has injured. Oats fine every where.

In Arkansas, the grain crop is a good one. Cotton and Corn look well.—Boston Telegraph.

The news of the crops from all quarters of the Union is most cheering. A letter from a gentleman at Little Rock, Ark., dated June 22d, says: "We have had plenty of rain, and there will be raised in this region more than five times as much wheat as was ever made here before, and I think three times as much corn." The P. M. at Armstrong, Ill., writes to us that the crops at Wabash Valley promise most bountiously. He says: "The oldest citizens say that the Wabash Valley will yield more abundantly this year than ever before. Every one has an unusual quantity of ground under cultivation." There is no mistake but the grain grown in all parts of the Union will be beyond all calculation.—The wheat, rye, barley and oats, at least, are secure, and the corn and potatoes promise an extraordinary yield. This is a great country and there is a good time coming.—Cin. Com.

CINCINNATI, July 12.—Gen. Sargent yesterday made a formal demand of each of the military companies forming the Irish Battalion, to deliver up forthwith all arms and accoutrements in their possession.

This order being obeyed by only one company, the General subsequently served out writs of replevin, and took possession of the entire equipment of the other companies. A similar demand is to be made on all the German companies. The cause of this movement is the insubordination evinced by these companies on the 4th of July. There is much excitement on the subject.

MILWAUKIE, July 13.— Yesterday, at Janesville, Wisconsin, during the trial of a man named Mayberry, for the murder of a raftsman named Alger, a defect in the proceedings occasioned by the impeachment of the principal witness, so exasperated a crowd of Pock River raftsmen, that they took the prisoner from the sheriff and hung him.

LOUISVILLE, July 13.—During the present week, the Board of School Trustees, by a vote of seven to five, have dismissed from the public schools teachers of foreign birth and Catholic proclivities. The measure has caused much excitement.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE AND A MOTHER'S LOVE.—On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Daniel Warren, of 528 Commercial street, Boston, missed her little son, eighteen months old, and found him at the eaves of the roof, sitting in the gutter with his feet hanging over the outer edge. The little fellow was screaming with all his might, and without for a moment thinking of the danger to which she was exposed, she slipped down the roof to the eaves, and seizing her darling boy, bore him in safety to the attic, when she instantly fainted, and it was with much difficulty that she was restored to consciousness.—Telegraph.

REMOVAL.
Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,
(FROM LONDON,)
Has arrived at the
WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.
Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. july16 3w

THIS extraordinary substance has now been tested nearly nine years, and its Fire and Water Proof qualities are most extraordinary. IMPORTANT DECISION.

April Term, U. S. Court, New York.

Wm Blake, vs. E. S & J. G. Belknap.—This was an action brought by the Plff. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate, granted 29th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Plff; thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to application to disturb the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 15th of June, 1853, for $1,029 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been sustained by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article.—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. DEAD SHOT FOR RED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
70 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1836) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS thousand of our dollars are saved by others, will be remitted by Him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and in Infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; the time being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There was no better, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR.—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully,

CIRCUS.

GRAND CONSOLIDATION

WELCH'S NATIONAL CIRCUS,
LENT'S NEW YORK CIRCUS,
Comprising TWO TROUPES OF TALENTED ARTISTS, TWO STUDS of trained Horses and Ponies, and all the appointments and paraphernalia appertaining to
TWO LARGE COMPANIES
Combined in
ONE MONSTER EXHIBITION,
Given in one mammoth pavilion, for a single price of admission, the reports of inferior companies to the contrary, notwithstanding.

☞ In consequence of the engagements of this Establishment in Boston, where the city authorities have granted it the use of the Public Garden for the whole of the Fourth of July week, it

WILL NOT VISIT PORTSMOUTH UNTIL
MONDAY, JULY 16th,
When it will perform, afternoon and evening for one day only. Doors open at 2 and 7 o'clock.—Performance will commence half an hour after opening. Admission 25 cents.

THE PERFORMANCES
EQUESTRIAN, GYMNASTIC AND ACROBATIC FEATS, in which the entire strength of the Double Troupe of Male and Female Performers
Will appear, the whole enlivened by the inimitable drolleries of
THE THREE GREAT CLOWNS,
WORRELL, the Wit,
WALLIS, the Musical,
WHITAKER, the Stump Orator.

The Proprietors confidently refer to the thousands who have visited "Welch's Circus" in former years, as to the reputation it has invariably sustained for attractiveness, and the fulfillment of the promises held out in its advertisements; and now that it has been augmented by the addition of ANOTHER COMPLETE CIRCUS, it is believed that facilities are afforded by the management for the amusement and gratification of their patrons without parallel, and beyond the approach of rivalry.

Very Particular Notice.—A novel and attractive feature in the entertainments of the combined companies consists in the representation of the GRAND MAGIC PANTOMIME, which was originally produced by Welch & Lent, in Philadelphia, last winter, at great expense, and after many weeks of labor, and which has been performed from the commencement of the season.

THE MISER OF BAGDAD,

NO OTHER COMPANY has ever even attempted to imitate it, unless within a very few days.

In self defence the management are constrained to beg leave politely to judge of the character of this mirth-provoking pantomine, by any paltry imitation which may be got up at a moment's notice, in hopes of taking advantage of the well-earned popularity of the original piece.

THE MISER OF BAGDAD can only be witnessed as originally produced in Philadelphia, with all its magical changes and transformations, at the Exhibition of

Welch & Lent's Combined Circuses,
which will take place

DEAD HEADS.

In the meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern Railroad, several excited individuals ventilated their ideas of reform in railroad matters, and, among other things, one gentleman seemed possessed of a notion that deadheadism is the chief bane of railroad corporations. He stated, with loud emphasis, that he had learned that editors were passed over the road free! We don's know what these persons who talk about dead-heads mean to include and imply in the term, but we are slightly inclined to deny the soft impeachment.

Editors do not pass "free" over railroads, and they are not "deadheads" in any true sense of the term. They pay more for their railroad fares than other class of people.—Not in money, for they never have any, but in something better.

Just look at it. By means of the press the public are made acquainted with the desirableness and feasibility of a railroad route, and by means of the press the capitalists are, to a great degree, prepared to embark in the enterprise. When the project has been well started by the aid of the press, that aid is called into requisition to procure a charter from the legislature, and throughout every step of the enterprise the corporation is largely indebted to the press. This has been the case with every railroad in the United States, and must ever be. And after the completion of the road it is still indebted to the press in countless ways.

The newspapers are continually giving railroads gratuitous advertisements. In chronicling the doings of railroad corporations, the passage of individuals and parties over the roads, and even the accidents which befall them, the papers necessarily advertise their business. Is there to be a convention, or great public gathering at any point, the fact is announced in the papers, and multitudes are drawn together who must necessarily pass over the railroads. The public journals in these cases generally give special publicity to the time and manner of the running of the trains for the occasion. The editor of a paper may avail himself of a free pass over some of the railroads half a dozen times in the course of a year, and he then, in each instance, advertises the road to double the amount of the fare.

The charge of dead-headism ought to be reversed. The railroads are dead-heads upon the press, receiving gratuitous favors from us in the proportion of 100 to 1.

When, therefore, men talk of abolishing the dead-head system, we feel perfectly unconcerned in the matter, for, on the one hand, the railroad corporations are only too happy to purchase favors of the press at so cheap a rate as an occasional free ticket, and, on the other, if the system should be abolished, and advertising paid for, the press would be greatly the gainers, and newspaper publishers and editors could afford to travel much oftener than before.—Boston Herald.

THE CAREER OF A VILLIAN.— Mayor Smith of Boston, has received a letter dated Louisville, Ky., July 5, from Margaret C. Hunter, who states that she is a poor widow; that two years ago, she had a young daughter named Eliza Ellen, an only child, who was induced to marry a young man at Louisville, who went under the name of George Wentworth, and who, after his marriage took his wife to Philadelphia, where he started a paper, but afterwards left for Boston, taking with him his wife—where, after starting a paper called the Ladies' Enterprise, he collected a considerable amount and went off with another woman, leaving his wife behind.—The mother writes affectingly of her young and innocent daughter, penniless and alone in a strange city, her fears being heightened by a report that Wentworth had a wife and children previous to his marriage at Louisville. The letter was handed to a police officer, who learned that the man left about three months since. His wife, who appeared to be much depressed in spirits, left the city some time since, and her present residence is unknown.

NO SABBATH.—In a Prize Essay on the Sabbath, written by a journeyman printer in Scotland, there occurs the following passage:

Yoke fellow! think how the abstraction of the Sabbath would hopelessly enslave the working classes, with which we are identified. Think of labor thus going on in one monotonous, continuous, and eternal cycle—limbs forever on the rack; the fingers forever playing, the eye balls forever straining, the brow forever sweating, the feet forever plodding, the brain forever throbbing, the shoulders forever drooping, the loins forever aching, and the restless mind forever scheming.

Think of the beauty it would efface; of the merry-heartedness it would extinguish; of the giant strength it would tame; of the resources of nature that it would exhaust; of the aspirations it would crush; of the sickness it would breed; of the projects it would wreck; of the groans it would extort; of the lives it would immolate; and of the cheerless graves that it would prematurely dig!

See them, toiling and moiling, sweating and fretting, grinding and hewing, weaving and spinning, sowing and gathering, mowing and reaping, razing and building, digging and planting, unloading and storing, striving and struggling—in the garden and in the field, in the granary and in the mill, in the warehouse and in the shop, on the mountain and in the ditch, on the roadside and in the wood, in the city and in the country, on the sea and on the shore, on the earth, in days of brightness and of gloom. What a sad picture would the world present if we had no Sabbath?

EVERY DAY A SABBATH.—By different nations, every day in the week is set apart for public worship, viz.:—Sunday by the Christians. Monday by the Grecians, Tuesday by the Persians, Wednesday by the Assyrians, Thursday by the Egyptians, Friday by the Turks, and Saturday by the Jews.

TRIP TO GERMANY.—No. 2, Concluded.

BONN, Germany, May 25, 1855.

Calais is a fortified town of the second class, and on leaving it by railway the travel er has a very good view of its walls. The portion of the country through which the railway lies, from Calais to Lille, is very low and wet. No fences or hedges are seen. The land is divided by ditches, and in these the water seemed to be nearly level with the surface of the ground. Women were seen every where working in the fields, while crowds of men were always gathered at the railway stations, the greater part of them in uniform.—The men of France fight her battles and perform her public services—the women till her soil. To an American every thing seems constrained and unnatural. Oppression has left, or rather has made and is still deepening, its footprint upon every thing the eye beholds. Their accommodations for traveling, it is true, are very good, and the traveler is made very comfortable, provided he does not stir. But woe to the restless Yankee who wishes to see and hear what is transpiring. At one of the way-stations, where we stopped for a few moments only, I undertook to step out of the car to get a breath of fresh air, and quicken the circulation in my limbs a little, but, before I had fairly set foot upon the ground, the blue coat was by my side, and I was made to understand that I must keep my seat. In two hours and three quarters after leaving Calais we arrived at Lille. This is the most important town in the north of France. Its population is about 68,000, and it is a fortress of the first class, forming the chief point of defence on the northern frontier. The railroad is not permitted to go inside the fortifications, but passes near them, affording the traveler some idea of its strength. The broad ditches that surround it are filled with water from two streams, the Haute and Basse Deule, both of which traverse the city, turning the wheels of numerous mills engaged in the manufacture of lawns, linens and cambrics of the finest qualities; also Lille thread and the fabrics formed from it. Sugar is also made here from beet roots. These streams are connected by a canal, by means of which the country for a mile and a half around the walls, can be laid under water. The city also contains a citadel, "furnished with all the accessories which engineering skill can suggest," and deemed impregnable. Murray, in his "Hand Book," says—"At different periods, and under different masters, it has stood seven distinct seiges. The most memorable for an Englishman was that by the allied armies of Marlborough and Eugene, in 1708, of three month's duration, during which the war was not merely waged above ground, but the most bloody combats were fought below the surface, between the miners of the opposite armies." A railroad runs from here to Paris, and all the travel between London and Paris is by this route.

This was our last stopping place in France. On approaching the line into Belgium, a change was noticeable immediately. Soldiers were not so numerous. That wonderfully strict surveillance seemed withdrawn, and there was also a great improvement in the look of the country. The land is more elevated, and appears to be in a higher state of cultivation. There were neither fences, hedges nor ditches, to mark the boundaries of different estates, nor their sub-divisions. The whole seemed one vast garden, laid out in "beds" appropriated to the several productions to which the soil is devoted. Each subdivision appeared to me to contain not far from a quarter of an acre, and it was rare to see two adjoining sub-divisions bearing the same kind of grain. The effect of this constant change is very beautiful and striking, as each check presents a different color. Occasionally the ruin of some ancient castle is pointed out, and a legendary tale related concerning it.

My letter, I see, is growing lengthy, and I will postpone the account of the remainder of my journey until another time.

Yours, &c., T. H.

ONE OF THE LIQUOR CASES.—In the Boston Police Court, Friday afternoon, Wm. Blackwood, grocer, No. 134 Federal street, was arraigned, charged with selling a glass of brandy to Thomas W. Leland, a "disclosing" witness. Leland was put upon the stand, but could not swear that he had bought any liquor of Blackwood. When we was brought up in the morning for getting drunk, he manifested a willingness to "disclose," and when sworn, stated that he had bought some brandy of Blackwood. Blackwood was discharged, and Leland was held in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the Municipal Court to answer to a charge of perjury.

The Norfolk Herald says the spring crop of sweet potatoes has turned out uncommonly well, and immense quantities are being shipped to the northern cities.

FIRE AT MANCHESTER.

The Manchester Daily American Extra, gives an account of the most disastrous fire ever known in that city, which occurred on Sunday morning. There were indeed two separate fires. The first took in the south end of No. 1 mill on the Manchester corporation, at 20 minutes before 1 o'clock. It took in the Carding room. The watchman was passing through the room with the lantern in his hand, and the bottom dropped off and rolled into a pile of roping, which immediately took fire. He attempted to extinguish it before giving the alarm, and the alarm was not given until the flames had reached the ceiling. The water from one of the hydrants was soon brought to bear upon the fire, and it was somewhat checked, but it was found impossible to arrest the progress of the fire, and it was not checked until about four o'clock.

The Mill is 500 feet long, and about 250 feet of it were burned, comprising about one quarter of the machinery of the manufacturing department of the corporation. The loss is between $200,000 and $250,000, and the mill was insured.

This mill is a part of the same Corporation as the Print Works, but its partial destruction does not effect materially the operation of those works. The remaining half of the mill can be put into operation in a short time, as the wheel, though under the part burned, was so protected by an arch that it is not apparently injured. Without doubt, the portion of the mill destroyed will be immediately rebuilt.

The other fire was in Elm street. The Fire Department were all at the Manchester Mills, and some one on top of the burning mill first told the crowd that there was "a fire on the street," and soon the bell confirmed the fact. It was about three A. M. when it was first discovered in a small building between Manchester and Hanover streets. The flames immediately spread, and reached Manchester street on the one side, Hanover on the other, with Elm on the west end, extending east as far as Rundlett Block, on Manchester street, and McCrillis' blacksmith shop, on Hanover street—the Barnes & Putney Block and Post Office building, at the corner of Elm and Hanover streets, only being saved.

The buildings burned were mostly of wood and so quick were the flames in accomplishing their work, that at sunrise the ruin was completed.

The loss on the south side of Manchester street was slight. The Franklin House, owned by J. Mitchell and leased to Marden & Avery, was injured to the amount of about $200.

About thirty families have been driven from their dwellings, and one hundred and fifty persons are obliged to seek other homes.

Two acres of densely populated territory is now covered with ruins.

The loss falls where it could best be borne, and we understand that new blocks are projected on Elm street, as soon as the rubbish can be cleared off.

The origin of the fire on the street is pretty generally thought to have been the work of an incendiary. But this is conjecture.

The loss on the street was estimated by good judges to be about $40,000.

ANOTHER WARNING.—Dr. Charles Grant, of Cincinnati, an ex-minister of the gospel, a practicing lawyer, and an eloquent temperance lecturer, has been convicted of the crime of adultery.

A warning, truly,—and a high crime, also. We presume it does not mean that temperate men are less chaste than drunkards. This disclosure, however, suggests to our mind the idea, that the man's temperance was a sham, and that his eloquent lectures were as dishonest as his former sermons. He is one of a class of clerical scoundrels altogether too numerous, who possess a plausible tongue, and present a fair exterior as the cover of a rotten heart.

Pass him round.

MORE THAN "HALF SEAS OVER."—Yesterday afternoon a drunken fellow reeled off Custom House wharf. He was promptly rescued by a person near by, and was so happy over his salvation that, for the next half hour, he shook hands with every body who passed by. We did not learn where he got his liquors; perhaps at the city Agency.—Portland Argus, of Saturday.

Quite a perhaps, that; but perhaps it is more likely he got it on board the smuggling craft from Portsmouth.

END OF THE LOWELL SEIZURE CASE.—The case of Jeremiah Dempsey and James Johnson for a violation of the new liquor law was tried in the Court of Common Pleas at Concord, Mass., on Thursday, and resulted in the discharge of the defendants. They were arrested a few weeks since near the American House, Lowell, having in their possession quite a large quantity of liquors, which were seized, together with the horses and the wagons in which it was being carried.

ICE AT SEA.—Vessels arriving from Europe just now, report encountering or seeing immense islands of floating ice, accompanied by very dense fogs. Icebergs do not usually make their appearance in our latitude till August.

LOCAL.

IMPORTANT ARRIVAL.—The Pilot boat Linda, which was formerly owned in this city, and another boat without a name, arrived here from Portland on Sunday evening, having returned from a successful trip of running cheap liquor into Portland. Three or four small crafts of from 8 to 20 barrels capacity have been purchased here by Portland people, and are now engaged in this smuggling business.

The business is about as lucrative as the slave trade, the profits of one trip paying for the boat and leaving something for the risk.

☞ Steamer Silver Star is to make an excursion Down River, This Evening, leaving Pier wharf at 1-½ past 6. Tickets for the evening's excursion only 25 cents.

The Silver Star, since she has been running to the Shoals, has proved herself not only to be a good safe boat, but very fair for speed—making her trips to the islands regularly in about an hour each way.

LITERARY COWS.—Riding into the suburbs, a few days since, we observed a number of animals grazing in the front yard of a beautiful school house. On inquiry into the matter, we were informed that the yard was used as a cow pasture, by tacit permission of the school-committee men.

Cattle damage young trees, and make dirt. The play ground should be mowed, or if there were no shrubs, it might be grazed closely by sheep. T.

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.—Sheriffs.—For Rockingham, John S. Brown; For Hillsborough, Chas. P. Danforth; For Cheshire, Bolivar Lovell; For Grafton, John H. Thompson.

Trustees Insane Asylum.—Chas. Burroughs of Portsmouth; Hon. Warren Lovell of Meredith; Rufus Clement of Concord; Alvah Smith of Lempster.

Bank Commissioners.—John L. Rix of Haverhill; Geo. C. Peavey of Strafford; Chas. Amidon of Hinsdale.

Insurance Commissioners.—Geo. W. Conant of Enfield: Albert S. Scott of Peterborough; Jacob H. Ela of Rochester.

A POPISH BELL.

The following inscription is upon the bell used at the East Boston Ferry:

"Maria Mater Dei ora pro nobis, Anno Dni. 1673."

What will the K. N.'s say to this? Will they submit to be summoned on board the boat by a popish bell—one, too, which is covered with crosses?—Boston Pilot.

Uncle Toby cannot answer for the K. N's., whether or not they are foolish enough to care about the inscription on the Ferry Bell. But he has the distinct impression that this holy bell, so covered with cresses and so piously inscribed, is about as poor a piece of sounding brass as he ever heard jingle. He has, let him say, however, no more prejudice against this bell, than against the brazen, or wooden or golden cross, or against a house of wood or stone called a church: he cherishes none at all against any of them. Nor does he deem them any more or any less holy, because consecrated by the Roman Church, than by any other.

He would shock no man's prejudices, by desecrating his holy house,—or by interrupting or scoffing at his worship. When present, he would be respectful and attentive, and if he could, devout. His occasional attendance at a Roman Church, is no exception to this rule.

TWIN BIRTHS EXTRAORDINARY.—On the 7th inst., her own birthday, Mrs. Mary Russell Clarkson, of Leeds, (wife of Mr. Edward Clarkson, teacher of dancing and deportment,) gave birth to twin boys, being twins of the fifth generation. On the parental side the great great grandfather was a twin, the great grandfather a twin, the grandfather a twin, and the father a twin.—English Paper.

WHY GOD PERMITS EVIL.—The Chicago Evangelist says: "We think it was Jonathan Edwards who once said that one part of the divine purpose in sparing the lives of wicked men, is to develope and confirm the patience of the saints. And it has occurred to us that kindred to this is his design in permitting the existence of the N. Y. Independent."

In the Circuit Court of Lewis county, Ky., a suit of slander—Miss Eliza Burkley vs. William Giddings—was tried, and a verdict rendered for $10,000 damages. It appeared on trial that Giddings had paid his addresses to Miss Barkley, and had been rejected, previous to making the slanderous charges which the jury has so signally punished in damages.

STRIKE, BUT HEAR.—The editor of the Rochester Union says, speaking of the Printers' Strike in that city: "During all the time the writer owned the Advertiser, his compensation, both as proprietor and editor, was less than that of the journeyman printer, though his investment ranged from $10,000 to $17,000 cash."

MINISTERIAL INVITATIONS.—We understand that the North Society in this city have invited the Rev. Charles E. Lowe, now associate pastor with Rev. John Weiss, of the Unitarian society in New Bedford, to become their pastor, as successor to the Rev. O. B. Frothingham.—Salem Observer.

It has been decided, we learn, to suspend operations in half the woolen mills in this village.—Amesbury Villager.

A child of Owen Murray, of Albany, three years of age, while crossing the railroad track on Saturday, was knocked down by a locomotive, and had both of his feet cut off in an instant. In attempting to save the child, a young man named Richard Scully had all his toes severed from one foot.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand of thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchits, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs from more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for disease we should die before our time. The antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

The Boat is fitted with all the modern improvements for a Passenger Boat; and her double Engines are of the most approved pattern, and all her appointments are superior.

Towing done on reasonable terms. For particulars apply to the captain, or to Capt. Marshall at Pier wharf.

The boat can be chartered for sea Parties, upon application to the captain on board, giving reasonable notice.

je28 THOMAS MAKINNEY, Captain.

Yacht Sea Ranger,

FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

SANDY HOOK, 16th.—The steamship Arago, from Havre 4th inst., has arrived, bringing London dates to the 4th inst.

The most important feature of the news is the announcement that Lord Raglan died on the 28th of June. He is succeeded in the command of the allied forces in the Crimea by Gen. Simpson.

Further than the above, there is no news of moment from the seat of war.

There had been some disturbances in London, on account of the proposed bill to abolish Sunday trading, and the obnoxious measure was subsequently withdrawn in the House of Commons.

London Money Market firm, and consols closed at 91 1-4 a 91 3-8.

The Liverpool cotton market was dull, but quotations, although easier, had not been altered.

Breadstuffs dull and slightly lower, while buyers were demanding a still further reduction.

Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint.

THIS extraordinary substance has now been tested nearly nine years, and its Fire and Water proof qualities are most extraordinary. Instead of the action of the weather destroying the coating as it does ordinary Paints, it only serves to turn it to a perfect Stone or Stone, protecting whatever covered from the action of Fire or Weather.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

April Term, U. S. Court, New York.

Wm. Blake, vs. E. S & J. G. Belknap.—This was an action brought by the Plff. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, for a Artificial Slate, granted 28th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Plff; thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to application to disturb the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 16th of June, 1853, for $1,029 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been sustained by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article.—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. New York, Nov. 1853.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it ends them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "Hired Nature's sweet restorer."

CONNECTICUT WINE.—The Hartford Times says that good native wine is made in Connecticut. We copy the following on the subject from that paper:

Among others, Salmon D. Case, Esq., of Canton, has made 43 barrels of wine during the past two years. Last year he used in pressing juice, one of the portable cider presses, sold by Alfred Clark, of this city.—He found it to be the best thing he ever used, as he could do the work rapidly and well. He says the seed of the grape is bitter and of bad flavor. It should not be mashed with the pulp. He found that he could set the cylinder of the new press so nicely as to mash the pulp and leave the seeds whole. He made a quantity of what he calls the 'mother of wine.' It is the pure juice of the grape, and he is able to get only one gallon of this from a bushel of grapes. By adding water he can get about six quarts more from the same pulp which makes a good article. He puts the pomace into casks and lets its remain from 24 to 36 hours—then presses out the juice. This he considers of advantage. He uses about one pound of sugar to a quart of wine, and uses new casks, or the best brandy casks.—Into these he puts the wine, as soon as it is pressed out, and leaves only a small vent.

We have a specimen of his 'mother of wine,' which has peculiar grape flavor, and is certainly the best wine we ever tasted. We think his manner of making it, and not mashing the seeds and of letting the pumice stand in the barrel 24 or 36 hours, greatly improves the wine. At any rate, it is far superior to any we ever tried. It was made from the common black grape, found in swamps.

MAINE POLITICS.

The Portland Expositor of July 4, has the nomination of Samuel Wells for Governor,—and speaks very favorably of the strait Whig Convention. We always liked the plainness of the Expositor's speech. It says:

Mr. Reed of Waldoboro', was renominated for the office of Governor, and resolutions condemnatory of the Maine Law were passed, no less open, decided and manly, than the resolutions of the democratic party's convention. * * * *

Now, the two old parties are in open and concurrent opposition to the Maine Law, and two gubernatorial candidates are presented bearing this opposition as the chief banner of the political battle field. Each of these candidates is most worthy of the support of his political associates—and although it may be that neither will command votes enough to win an election over the common adversary of the two, their united votes will far outnumber * * * *

Let the same discreet policy be pursued by both the Democratic and Whig parties in the selection of candidates for the two branches of the Legislature, as has thus far distinguished their respective movements, and the State of Maine will be herself again, in character and freedom in a few short months.

Now the reader will please to bear in mind that we have not made this programme of a Grand Triple Alliance, or Holy League, but that we find it in the Expositor, the organ of the "Liberal" party in Maine.

The Expositor's party is in favor of the free, abundant sale of liquors, as free as the sale of corn or meat; deeming it as useful and as honorable.*

And the Expositor claims the two old parties, as its allies, in the coming election. No one must suppose, however, that all the men of the old democratic, or of the old whig parties, are in favor of this new Expositor fusion in favor of liquor. On the contrary, thousands of both have joined in the other fusion, which goes against rum and against slavery.

But it is true, that the Expositor Liberals, the Reed Whigs, and the Wells Democrats, are leagued in one coalition, against the Maine Law; and that the Republicans, as they call themselves, or the fusionists, as their opponents call them, are leagued in another coalition to uphold it. Thus there are in Maine, two new parties; and the old names are of no use except for mere clap-trap.

The Triple League above noticed, to break down the law, puts us in mind of a sign which was erected in Congress street, Portsmouth, five and twenty years ago, bearing the full length figures of three men; one of them was drinking out of a quart pot; another was smoking a pipe; and the third held a roll of pigtail tobacco: under the whole there were the following delectable lines:

"We three unite in one cause;
One smokes, one drinks, and t'other chews!"

The Chief Banner is Drink!

*We perceive the Expositor of July 11, denies that any party in Maine, ever advocated free trade in liquor.

We have misapprehended them greatly, if it be true that they desire restraint which can amount to any thing. Something that would make the trade respectable, they may desire, but nothing beyond.

DIED.—In South Kingston, N. H., Mr. Samuel Hall, aged about 73 years.—Amesbury Villager.

Where is South Kingston?

A REMARKABLE MAN.—There is a gentleman residing in this city, who came here 23 years ago from England, and brought with him some three hundred guineas of his own hard earnings, with which he commenced business as grocer on a small scale. Little by little he increased his trade, and at the present time he is probably worth more than any other man in Massachusetts in the same line of business. During the period of 23 years, he never gave a note of hand or took one; he never sued a man, and was never sued himself, nor ever called on to the witness stand in any court during the whole period. He was never naturalized, and of course never voted, although he has paid thousands of dollars for State and County taxes. He has been known to buy a cargo of West India goods amounting to $90,000, for which he paid cash on delivery. He never deals in or drinks intoxicating liquors; never gives a dollar for a charitable purpose where he thinks his name will appear in the newspapers, although he has distributed thousands to relieve the distresses of his fellow men. Can such another man be found in this or any other country? Reader, perhaps you would like to know his name; but you cannot from us, as we would not for our right hand do anything to offend him. "When he is gathered in, and sleeps with his fathers," then, but not till then, will his name be emblazoned and read by the world.—Boston Times.

He is a remarkable man; we commend him for a model, and as he has served a 21 years' apprenticeship, he might easily be naturalized—but probably does not desire it, being satisfied as he is.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1855.

INCENDIARIES.

The barn of Dr. Durfee, at Fall River, Mass., was burnt, two or three nights ago; and the Fall River News has little doubt the fire was the work of an incendiary. The fact that the watch dog belonging to Dr. Durfee was found, when the alarm was given, in a dying condition, from the effects of poison supposed to have been administered on pieces of meat, which had probably been thrown into the yard but a short time before, appears sufficient to prove this. Efforts were made to save the noble animal, but without success.—Mr. Hawkins, near by, also lost a dog from the same cause on the night of the fire.

Mr. Durfee has been generally known as an active and prominent supporter of the temperance movement, and this dastardly outrage upon his property, it is believed, has been committed in a spirit of revenge.

The same spirit was present in that most amicable mob of saints and martyrs in Portland.

Explosion and Arrest.—We learn from the Providence Tribune, that on Saturday night Henry M. Tucker was arrested on the charge of being the author of a terrible crime at the house of his father, John Tucker, Esq. The crime was no less than blowing up the father's house, by placing two kegs of powder beneath his bed, in his absence, and firing a train which led to them, in the night, when he was in bed. The explosion alarmed the city and destroyed the house; but neither the old gentleman, nor two young women, who were asleep in the house, were greatly injured. The old gentleman has been many years a highly respected police officer. He had no idea that any one owed him such ill will; but circumstances pointed to his son.

This son, the Tribune says, was for several years a constable, and more recently a deputy sheriff. He was a very efficient officer, and but for rum, would have been one of the best officers in the State. His early experience in legal matters gave him an advantage over most officers of his age, which, combined with good education, uncommon natural ability and promptness of action, would have secured for him any position he might have desired.

But alas! that destroyer of virtue, intelligence, and fraternal regard, early fastened its iron grasp upon him, and under its influence, he has been at times a raving maniac in our streets, and if it should appear that he had any agency in the inhuman deed, for the criminal of which he now stands charged, it was the maddening influence of rum, and that alone, led him on to conceive the thought and moved the hand to commit the act.

George Sanborn has been arrested in Boston, as we learn from the Chronicle, for burglaries, committed recently, on several genteel houses in that city. Large quantities of stolen goods, clothing, jewelry, and varieties were found on him and his premises. He is 28 years old, and has a wife and one child. He is said to be of prepossessing appearance and smooth tongue; but he must go to the State Prison for a long day.

Choked.—On Saturday, at Portland, Mr. Abner Whitney, aged 65, was choked to death by a piece of beefsteak, two inches long, and half an inch thick—one paper says three fourths of an inch thick—but no one says how wide. We don't wonder the poor man was choked, especially as the post mortem examination showed the mucous membrane lining the throat, to be ulcerated.

Yankees! who hurry your beefsteaks down your throats without previous cutting and chewing—take care—or you'll be choked likewise.

DOESTICKS.

The publisher, Howard Livermore, of New York, has sent us, per mail, a copy of Doesticks's Book, which is very handsomely got up.

It has not great literary merits,—the style is extravagant—but the writer "shoots at folly as it flies," and often hits it. Not a few, indeed, of the more fashionable follies and crimes, are hit harder in this way, and in this seemingly trashy book, than they could be by a grave argument or a formal appeal.

The book will sell by thousands, and be read by multitudes. The illustrations are comic and graphic: and the preface, or dedication (we hardly know which to call it) is so plain and so true, that we copy it entire.

This is neither a History, Romance, Life-Drama, Biography, Autobiography, nor Post Mortem Examination, but a series of Unpremeditated Literary Extravaganzas, written without malice aforethought by the single hero thereof, purely for his own glorification, and printed by the publisher solely for his own profit.

We need make no comment on this report, [of the Portland Investigating Committee] but simply state that the Committee who drew it up were appointed solely by the friends and partners of Mayor Dow.—Boston Chron.

And is, in regard to pressed impartiality, as valuable as the verdict of the coroner's jury who were appointed solely by earnest and vindictive opponents of Neal Dow.

LEGISLATIVE NONSENSE.

The following is the report on the petition to lay a tax on dogs:

The committee on military affairs, to whom was referred the petition of Joseph Sawyer and others, having carefully considered the subject, instruct me to make the following report for the sober and humane consideration of the House:—

Dogs are of doubtful origin. There is a great variety of species. Of these, the mastiff, St. Bernard and Newfoundland, are among the best that walk on their four legs, and are the only dogs of martial bearing in the days of battle that history gives any account of. The snappish cur is, perhaps, the most disagreeable. All varieties of species intervene, viz.: Hound, Pointer, King Charles, Spaniel, Poodle Dog, and the Jeddo puppies, just arrived in this country by the last steamer, Hester Blast, a present from the emperor of Japan to the President of the United States.

Your Committee find upon inquiring, that one of the Jeddo puppies, soon after their arrival at the President's House, was found to be in the condition in which the Queen of England, Victoria, is most of the time, to wit, a very interesting situation.

Your Committee, however, upon further inquiry have ascertained that one of the Jeddo puppies has some time since been safely delivered of an heir. And your Committee are happy to inform the House that this distinguished foreigner is doing well.

Your Committee have reason to believe that the Emperor of Japan has been informed upon this subject, by a statement carefully drawn up by the Secretary of State, Mr. Marcy, and handed to Cæsar Napoleon Augustus Dodge, our Minister to Spain, by whom they have been communicated to his most august Majesty, the Emperor of Japan—and the Emperor has signified by a wink of his third great toe, that he is satisfied with the attention the Jeddo puppies have received at the hands of the President of the Great Free People.

Your Committee are satisfied that there is no danger of Foreign war or Foreign invasion in consequence of this Dog Alliance with the Emperor of Japan.

Your Committee, after diligent research, are of confident opinion that no tangled alliance exists with any other foreign power, potentate or monarch, save with the one above alluded to.

Your Committee have examined the Virginia Resolutions of '98, and they find that the conduct of Dogs is clearly taken up by implication in those resolutions. They do not find, however, that this Dog Question so clearly, to our minds, embodied in said resolutions, has ever been treated of by any Legislature of either of the old 13 States.

Therefore your Committee have instructed me to discriminate in the fines put upon dogs. The Jeddo is not a sheep-eating dog, whilst the Wolf dog is said to be.

Your Committee find Dogs that go about upon their hind legs, the most dangerous pests of society—more dangerous and far greater nuisances than those that go upon all fours.

The late day of the session, the great press of business upon the short time of the House, and the importance of the question referred, have induced the Committee to instruct me to ask the passage by the House of the following resolution:

P. R. George, for the Com.

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioners, together with this report, be postponed to the next session of the Legislature.

Snake Fascination.—Two or three weeks ago, a little girl, near six years of age, named Collista Hill, of Gilmanton Centre, was searching for berries in the field, when her attention was arrested by a peculiar singing noise, and on looking up, she perceived two large black snakes, one of which was in an erect attitude and gazing fixedly upon her, accompanying its vibratory motions by, as she says, "a most beautiful singing." She first attempted to run, but found herself utterly incapable of so doing. She then looked at the snake until she became so pleased with it, that she took it into her lap, and held it until she thought it asleep, and then fled to the house. For a number of days she visited the snake, unknown to her parents, who finally discovered her feeding it from her hands. She continued feeding it regularly every day, becoming more and more attached to it, until it would wind itself about her arms and neck, and even take food from her mouth. Finally she was prevailed upon to place it in a box on condition it should not be hurt, and in that it is still kept, except when being fed. Hundreds in the vicinity have been to see it, and it is the opinion of the medical men who have seen her, that she is completely fascinated, and that the death of the reptile would prove fatal to her.

The little girl and her snake have visited Concord, and been seen by the legislators and others;—and they are now on exhibition at Manchester.

The Boston Bee says that Barnum is after them.

☞ We learn from the Salem Gazette that Rev. Charles E. Lowe of Exeter has accepted the invitation extended to him by the North Society in that city, to become their pastor, as successor to Rev. O. B. Frothingham, lately removed to Jersey City.

Meeting of the Kansas Legislature. The Kansas Legislature was organized on the 2d of July. Thomas Johnson, a pro-slavery Methodist Minister, was elected President of the Council.

Will some distinguished friend of the clergy, some advocate for the purity of the sacerdotal robe from all political grease spots,—be so kind as to get up a small howl of virtuous indignation over the case of Parson Johnson? Can the Church be safe? What will become of the Union?

☞ The Boston Advertiser says, the Grand Jury, on Monday, brought in thirty-eight new indictments, about twenty-five of which were against liquor sellers.

LOCAL.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONER.

Rev. S. S. Fletcher, of Exeter, formerly of this city, is appointed School Commissioner for Rockingham County. His was the only application for the place.

This is an office of responsibility and of great moral importance, as will be seen by consulting the Constitution and Laws of the State. It is remarkable therefore that there should be but a single applicant; especially as the pay is ample for the service rendered. The salary is $175—and the Commissioner's duty is to spend at least one day in a year in each of the 38 towns in the county, in addressing schools, making enquiries, &c. For attendance on the board of education, per diem allowance and mileage the same as Representatives, &c.

The Statutes make it the duty of all engaged in the instruction of the young, diligently to impress on their minds the principles of piety and justice; a sacred regard to truth, sobriety, chastity, and all other virtues which are the ornament and support of human society. Teachers, then, and all school officers, especially the highest, should be chosen for their learning, aptness to teach, weight of character, and moral and social influence.

Keep Cool.—How shall we keep cool, this sweltering weather, is now a solved problem; the q. e. d. being a short sojourn at the Shoals, with the King Solomon of Appledore, Hon. T. B. Laighton. We call him Solomon, for he is the wisest man in the whole kingdom, over which he reigns with a sway undisputed. Were it not for sea-sickness which seizes upon many who go upon the water but seldom, Mr. L's capacious house would no longer be large enough to supply the demand.

After a continued but unsuccessful trial for nearly a dozen summers, to taste the beauties of sea-sickness, we have come to the conclusion that sea-sickness is in most cases the results of imagination. When you put your foot on the deck of the boat—say you will not be sick, and the chances are improved three fold that you will not.

The Steamer Silver Star makes regular trips each forenoon after the arrival of the cars from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The prejudice entertained by some against this boat should be overcome immediately. The steamer does her work well and promptly.

Later in the day, the fast sailing yacht Sea Ranger, Capt. J. W. Goodwin, leaves Pier Wharf for the Shoals. The Ranger, since she has been on this river, has proved herself a very fast sailer, and a short voyage with her pleasant captain, is a never-to-be-forgotten happiness.

Almost an Accident.—A young man who works in this office, having ventured too far out on the limb of a cherry tree, in his eagerness to grasp the tempting fruit, the limb broke, and he was suddenly precipitated head foremost to the ground, a distance of eighteen or twenty feet. A "bung" over one eye, both elbows "barked," one wrist and one hip considerably sprained, and one wrist cut, by his fall, will serve to make him more cautious in future. T.

Toronto, 15th.—An attack was made last night by a mob upon a company of circus performers, in consequence of an assault committed by them upon certain persons the previous evening.

The circus wagons were all smashed up, or tumbled into the bay, and an attempt was made to burn the tent. Fire-arms were freely used, and two or three persons badly hurt.—The disturbance was finally quelled by the police.

Buffalo, 16th.—Yesterday morning, the dwelling house of Joseph Thompson, a farmer in the village of Brant, was fired by incendiaries in four places, and six of the inmates, consisting of Mr. Thompson, three daughters, and two grand-daughters, perished in the flames. The remainder escaped with much difficulty.

Washington, June 15.—Col. Samuel Kinney, of the First Regiment of Artillery, stationed at Fort McHenry, Baltimore, died in this city yesterday. He graduated at West Point, and was a native of Bristol, R. I.

Baltimore, June 15.—The steamship Magnolia has been destroyed by fire, near Baton Rouge, with a cargo of 1000 bales of cotton.

Philadelphia, 16th.—This afternoon, as the workmen engaged in the erection of the bridge over Ridley's Creek, on the Winchester and Philadelphia Railroad, were about commencing work, the temporary framing gave way, and falling, carried away the whole superstructure. Five workmen employed on the upper chord, and the foreman, and two workmen on the lower chord perceiving something giving way, sprang for the nearest pier, a distance of fifteen feet. Three escaped uninjured, three were killed, and two are so badly injured as to leave no hopes of their recovery.

Not True.—The story going the rounds of the papers, that the "fat woman" who lately died in Ohio was insured in Hartford for $16,000. The offices here are not quite so green as all that. She weighed 6 or 8 hundred pounds.—Hartford Times.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pills have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

Yacht Sea Ranger,

FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate Fishing Parties on reasonable terms.

Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint.

THIS extraordinary substance has now been tested nearly nine years, and its Fire and Water Proof qualities are most extraordinary. Instead of the action of the weather destroying the coating as it does ordinary Paints, it only serves to turn it to a perfect Stone or Stone, protecting whatever covered from the action of Fire or Weather.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

April Term, U. S. Court, New York.

Wm. Blake, vs. E. S. & J. G. Belknap.—This was an action brought by the Plff. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate, granted 28th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Plff., thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to application to disturb the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 15th of June, 1853, for $1,029 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been tried by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article.—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. New York, Nov. 1853.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of every tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

MEMORY.—The New Hamphire Statesman of Saturday says :—

There has been an amusing and remarkble circumstance at the State House this session showing possession of the power of memory, as developed in some minds far more fully than in others. Mr. Kent, the Assistant Clerk, has usually called the yeas and nays, —the Chief Clerk recording the responses.—Recording Clerks have generally sat while calling the roll; but this officer took a standing posture, the roll lying on the desk before him, and in a voice that filled the Hall, went, like a hero, through his task during the trying sessions of the last days. and when in one half day the yeas and nays were demanded no less than fourteen times. But the noticable is, that Mr. Kent called the roll without looking upon it, except occasionally—sometimes going, from memory, through the entire county. The factious proceedings of some men in the minority, during the last three days of the session, sorely tried the patience of the House; but the Assistant went through his labor in the best spirit, and with the display of powers f memory really surprising.

A MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH WITHOUT WIRES.—An Italian gentleman at Turin has just discovered and shown by numerous successful experiments, as is reported, that the railroad track makes an excellent substitute for the telegraph wires, and that any train carrying along with it a small battery and apparatus can communicate to and fro with the stations before and behind while going at full speed. This application of the telegraph will probably be immediate, universal and of immense value. One train meeting with another can communicate directly with it, and though both approaching each other at the rate of sixty to one hundred miles an hour, they can herald their coming to each other at an infinitely greater speed, converse backward and forward, and make arrangements for stopping or passing as they draw near.—If anything detains a train they can telegraph its whereabouts; if an incident or obstruction occurs it can send for assistance, and warn trains approaching or overtaking.

Morning Chronicle.

In a farm-house near Liberty, Missouri, the mistress of the house became ill one morning, having, according to symptoms, been attacked by cholera. Her husband had left her at daybreak, and her only daughter, who was then with her, sent for a physician. After a few hours the latter arrived, but was already met at the door by the sobbing girl, with the cry, "She is dead!" He was conducted into the room where the corpse lay, examined it, and directed the daughter not to allow the interment until twenty-four hours had elapsed. He had scarcely done so when the corpse nodded significantly. The daughter saw this motion, and was so horrified that she fell down dead upon the spot. It is a well known fact, that persons who die of cholera retain the warmth of the blood for a long time, frequently alarming bystanders by contraction of the muscles.—Eastern Argus.

CELEBRATING.—The Albany Knickerbocker tells of a Schenectady man who went in for a "high old fourth of July:"

Mr. S. left home for Albany with a new suit of clothes and forty dollars in money.—He returned with no money at all, and a pair of 9 shilling breeches, which somebody got him to put on to "run a race with." Mr. S. being, as his friend alleged, "too heavy for speed" with his own pantaloons. Mr. S. says he does not care for his money, but he should very much like to see "them trowsers again" —cause why, in the right pocket is a letter from his "Betsey Ann," which he would not loose for a "world of gold framed in with alabaster."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A frightful accident occurred last Saturday at Camp Worth, near Kingston, N. Y., where the National Guards of that city, while in regiment, were being drilled. A bullet from one of their muskets struck a woman in the breast, and glancing, passed through the head of her infant. The child was killed, but the woman, it is thought, is not fatally wounded. The sad occurrence caused much feeling among the soldiers, and $1000 were raised on the spot for the unfortunate woman. The grand review was also dispensed with, and the military ball which was to have taken place in the evening, given up.

LARGE SEIZURE.—Yesterday, the 12th, eighty-one packages of liquor were seized by the police from the schooner Tyro, which had just arrived. These packages contained from five to twenty gallons each, neatly put up, but not supposed to be "original." Indeed they were suspected of containing the vile stuff. They were said, with what truth we know not, to belong to P. Moran and a Mr. McCann. Some persons may be curious to know how the police find out that liquors are on board vessels arriving here. Spies frequent the wharves in Boston where eastern vessels load and communicate information to the police here by mail or telegraph. The police are frequently on the look-out for vessels a day or two before their arrival.—Bangor Journal, July 13th.

The fashionable watering places are not nearly as full as they were a year ago at this season. One reason for the falling off is, that thousands who have hitherto summered at these resorts have gone to Europe; and another is, that the hard times of last autumn and winter have left their pinching reminiscences in many men's purses.—N. Y. Mirror.

The same remarks will apply to the watering places in this vicinity.

A LARGE RATTLESNAKE CAPTURED.—Yesterday, Messrs. Connell and Robie of Charlestown, captured a large rattlesnake on the Blue Mountain, in Milton. His snakeship measured four feet and one inch in length, four inches in circumference, and has 12 rattles. The "oldest inhabitants" of Milton say that it is the largest snake ever brought from the hills.—Herald, 16th.

The Harrisburg Herald of the 7th inst. says that a school teacher, named John Kilwell, residing in East Hanover, in that neighborhood, who has a wife and two children, has eloped with a young girl 15 years of age, named Mary Rauch, daughter of Wm. Rauch a respectable farmer of the same township.—Mary had been going to school to Kilwell for some two years during which time he had gained her affections to that degree as to have almost entire control over her.

Teachers of all grades, should be men of sound principle and blameless life.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—As the venerable Dr. Kendall of this town, now in his 86th year, was riding in a carriage towards Kingston, on Monday last, the reigns parted, whereby the horse became unmanageable. No person being near to render assistance, Dr. K. leaped from the carriage over the wheel, and seized the horse by the head while on a brisk trot! Few young men could have performed the feat in a more admirable manner, or with greater agility.—Plymouth Memorial, 14th.

ACTION FOR LIBEL AGAINST A GRAND JURY.—Judge Culver, of the Superior Court, Brooklyn, has entered an action for libel against some of the Grand Jury, which recently presented him and his court as being guilty of gross negligence and partiality.—The Maine Law lies at the Bottom of the affair, Judge Culver being one of the leading temperance men.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1855.

☞ The Investigating Committee, appointed by the City Government of Portland, on the death of John Robbins, have made their Report, which is published in the Advertiser. The Argus, and the "State of Maine" newspaper, have not yet published it.

The Report carefully reviews the testimony given before the Inquests and elsewhere,—and sustains and approves the action of the Mayor, Sheriff and other officers, in putting down the mob.

The report closes thus:

The committee, on a careful and laborious investigation of the whole case, are satisfied that the Mayor and other executive officers of the city, did no more in the emergency, than their duty or the public service required; and that they would have proved unfaithful to their trust, had they done less.

(Signed) WM. WILLIS, Chairman.

W T Dwight,	J C Churchill,
Joshua B Osgood,	Samuel Chase,
Nath'l F Deering,	W F Farrington,
Byron Greenough,	Samuel R. Leavitt,
Wm Woodbury,	Thomas Chadwick,
Daniel Hood,	Wm Goodenow,
H H Balch,	Samuel Cobb,
Henry B Hart,	Wm Kimball.

One of the absentees, Mr. C. S. Davies, in a note, expresses his concurrence in the general sentiment of the Report. So that the public now has the assurance of eighteen such men as are here named,—to uphold the Mayor and Police, with the majority of the City Government.

In the Court of Public Opinion, their moral force must be set over against the moral power of the mob, of the men who got it up, and of those who are now apologizing for it and striving to crush out those who put it down.

Those who know the men, can easily make their choice between the two.

☞ Wednesday, July 18th, was Commencement at Harvard University. The graduating class numbers eighty-two members, of whom forty had "parts." In the order of exercises, as published, we notice an oration upon "The Schoolmaster of the Future," by Franklin Benjamin Sanborn, of Hampton Falls, N. H., and an essay upon the "Ancient Greek Settlements in the Crimea," by Charles Cushing Hobbs of South Berwick, Me. The first named is the only one mentioned as from New Hampshire.

On Monday last one hundred and two applicants for admission to the College this Autumn presented themselves at the examination and ninety-four were admitted. There were ninety-six last year.

PERJURY.—The Boston Courier's Court Record informs us that—

In the case of Samuel C. Cheney before Commissioner Edward G. Loring, for perjury, further arguments were made on Saturday by Mr. Henry L. Hallett for government, and by Mr. Goodrich for defendant. The Commissioner held that the matter of the deposition, under which the charge was made, could not be entertained, the deposition being simply an agreement between the parties, and not authorized by the U. S. Circuit Court, neither was it in accordence with the laws of Indiana, the court having made a rule that the taking of depositions should be subject to the laws of that state. The court being about to order a discharge, Mr. Hallett wished further delay for additional argument, urging that the government would otherwise be under the necessity of making a new complaint to meet the case. This was not granted. On the representation of Mr. Hallett, that he believed the defendant intended to leave the state, time was allowed to produce evidence to that effect.

Mr. Hallett ought to have learnt, long ago, that an extra judicial oath can have no more legal binding effect than a profane oath in a dram shop or the street. It may be less gross—but it is of no higher obligation. The action which violates such an oath may be fraud, or falsehood, but it cannot be perjury.

THE FIRST CONVICTION BY A JURY.—The case of Chas. Henson, in Syracuse, charged with selling liquor, has terminated in a verdict by the jury of "guilty." This is the first case under the prohibitory law, resulting in conviction. In the case of the trial, James R. Lawrence, Esq., counsel on the part of the defendant, said he was himself a law-abiding citizen, and expressed his gratification at seeing some persons present whose conversion to the principal of obedience to all laws of the land, he had reason to believe, was quite recent. He hoped that there would be no backsliding from the faith. A letter from Syracuse informs us the case "made quite a stir in the city, and generally in the interior of the state they are very shy about selling liquor.—Doctors, however, have been known to write prescriptions for a quart of rum or brandy, for bathing, with twenty drops of water.—Boston Courier.

Is any living man green enough to be deceived by a prescription like that?

☞ Rev. J. B. Davis, of Manchester, has been invited to the pastoral charge of the F. W. Baptist Church in Lowell. He accepts.

On Sunday evening last a woman was found wandering about the streets of Philadelphia in a state of mania e potu, who was at one time the wife of one of the most distinguished citizens of New York.

THE FRIGATE CONGRESS.

This ship sailed from New York, (below) on Tuesday morning. She goes out to the Mediterranean as flag-ship of the squadron, to replace the Cumberland.

The New York Herald speaks of the Congress in the following terms:

The Congress is a first-class frigate—indeed, she is the largest vessel of that class in the service. For model and finish she is pronounced by competent judges to be the best ship in the Navy.

Though rated as a 44 gun ship, she in reality carries 50 guns—ten 68 pounders and forty 32 pounders. The deck presents a formidable appearance, the larger guns being ranged along the centre of the frigate, in the spot technically known by men of war's men as the "slaughter house," while the quarter deck and gun deck look equally warlike, the cannon being thickly studded from stem to stern. The frigate carries 53,000 gallons of water, and is provisioned for a six month's cruise.

The Congress was built at Portsmouth, N. H., in the year 1841. This frigate is somewhat famed for having performed the nautical feat of running through the Gut of Gibraltar against wind and tide.

FROM THE BRITISH PROVINCES.—St. John, N. B., papers to the 16th, and Halifax to the 13th inst., are received at Boston.

The St. John New Brunswicker says:

An order having been sent out from England for fifty artillerymen serving in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to proceed to the Crimea, the requisite number volunteered their services. It is said that many more than were required were anxious to proceed to the scene of conflict.

It is to be regretted, says the New Brunswicker, that the government ever undertook to raise recruits from among the outcasts in the United States, the very scum of all nations. If the honor of the British flag depended upon such beings, we fear it would not long maintain its present proud position. The expenses of these worthless hirelings will be more than they are worth—far more, indeed, than the best subjects at home could be enlisted for. We hope to see an end to this mode of obtaining recruits. It is derogatory to the character of the first nation in the world. The sons of Britain everywhere are willing to share in the dangers and glories of the present contest with the barbarous power, and there is no need of subsidising mercenary soldiers.

We learn from the Miramachi Gleaner that an inquest was recently held at Chatham on the body of a female whose death was caused by a fall while in the act of chastising her daughter. Verdict of the jury—"Accidental death by deceased falling on the broken spoke of a rocking chair."

THE BRANT FIRE.—The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, of the 16th, gives the following account of the particulars of this dreadful incendiary act.

About one o'clock yesterday morning one of the most horrid calamities that has ever occurred in this section, took place in the town of Brant, in this county. The house of Mr. James Thompson, in the south-east corner of the town, was entirely destroyed by fire, and six persons, Mr. Thompson, and three of his daughters and two grand children, perished in the flames. There were twelve in the house, and those who were saved escaped with the greatest difficulty. Mr. T. was the father of Mrs. Thomas P. Howe of this city.

Yesterday afternoon parties were in town endeavoring to make the arrest of the person who it is said fired the place, and what is worse, who is supposed to be connected with the family by marriage.

The ladies were between eighteen and twenty-four years of age. Mr. T. was quite elderly.

ROME, June 21st, 1855.—There is a prevailing rumor, which needs confirmation, that the ex-King Louis, of Bavaria, now an old man of 70, made matrimonial propositions during his late visit here, to the widow of his former Minister at this Court, (Count Spaur) a lady of 50, renowned not less for personal accomplishments than for having arranged the memorable flight of Pius IX to Gaeta. It is scarcely supposable that she can now be ambitious to figure in the same history of Lola Montes. It is noticable that the Pope did not return the call of the ex-King during his visit. The omission of a courtesy due to crowned heads, is ascribed to a pique, that his son, the reigning monarch, when here last year, received His Holiness at the top instead of the bottom of the palace stairs!—Tantane animis cœlestibus iræ, &c.

The excavations now in progress in Ostia, the theatre of the poetical history of Rome, and of the last six books of the Æneid, have revealed near an antique valla, a rich marble sepulcher highly ornamented; a marble stairway leads to a hall covered and lined with various colored marbles, which appears to be the ante-chamber of a greater marble apartment containing two sarcophagi, covered with inscriptions, bas-relief, angles, &c. Gibson, the British sculptor, finds confirmation of his favorite theory in the fact that these sculptures are painted. It is certain that, the old Romans, at least, did sometimes paint their marbles. Numerous bronzes, and other antique fragments of no great value, have also been brought to light in the same region within a few days. The excavations are performed by a bevy of prisoners under police superintendance.

CHARADE.

In olden time my First was call'd
The music of the wheel,
When ladies spun their stocking yarn,
And exercised the reel.
But now—pianos all the go—
They spin street yarn both to and fro.

Or some green tree, or bush, maybe,
My next is found in spring;
With plumage gay, in grand array,
I do glad tidings bring:
I'm not a Robin, Dove, nor Lark—
My Whole was caged in Noah's Ark.

OUR NEW SCHOOL-HOUSE.

It was with some surprise and more regret that I read the recent doings of our City Government in regard to the new school house. I cannot but think the public sentiment of the city would urge the government to go forward and carry out the plans which have already been matured.

After much discussion, a site has been fixed upon, the land has been purchased, and I understand plans for the building procured. There may be a few of our citizens who doubt whether the building contemplated is needed. But the majority, it is believed, have long been agreed on this point. One can scarcely conceive of a school more uncomfortably located than is our Boys' High School. A visit to it in one of these hot days of Summer, or in one of the cold days in Winter, would convince any one that the necessity is a very urgent one. The room for the Girls' School, though less uncomfortable, is far from being a suitable room. And after all that has been said and written on the subject, it may be safely concluded that the judgement of our citizens has been reached. The voice of nearly our entire population is that a new building for the high schools is needed.

In regard to the location, there are objections in the minds of some. But it is to be considered,

1. That it was chosen after a very deliberate discussion and a full examination of all the available lots in the city. It can hardly be believed that a longer delay would have shed any new light on the matter. The vote to purchase was as unanimous as could have been expected. But

2. Wherever the lot should be chosen, it could not be free from objections. A building to accommodate the scholars from every quarter of the city, could hardly be located so as to suit the convenience of all. Wherever it is located, it must be more favorable, easier of access to some sections of the city than to others. But

3. It is seriously doubted, if the whole city were assembled, whether as many votes would be given for any other lot that can be had, as would be given for the one already purchased. To hesitate in regard to the location, is, in fact, to hesitate in regard to the whole question of building. And while we are delaying, the season for building is wearing away, and our excellent high schools have the dreary prospect of passing another year with the same wretched, uncomfortable and unhealthy accommodations which they now have.

In conclusion, therefore, let us express the wish, which, notwithstanding the petition that has been presented to the city Government, we believe to be the wish of a very large majority of our citizens, that at their next meeting the government will decide, without farther delay, to go forward and build.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS.—Early on Wednesday morning, some of our city watchmen picked up and took care of a woman, who being drunk over night, had lodged out of doors. Will it not be dreadful outrage and a cruel wrong, to deprive this poor woman of a privilege so precious as sleeping on the ground?

THREE DAYS LATER NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADA.

HALIFAX, July 18.

The steamship Canada arrived here this forenoon, with dates to the 7th inst.

The news consists mainly of details of the recent repulse of the Allies in their attempt to storm Sebastopol. Further evidence of mismanagement on the part of the Allied Generals is revealed.

Affairs before Sebastopol remain without change, and no indication of new movements were apparent at the latest dates.

The Canada brings no political news of consequence from any part of Europe.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchite, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only write it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no idle statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

SUICIDE IN DANVERS.—South Danvers, July 16th.—About four and a half o'clock P. M., on Saturday last, a portion of the inhabitants of this village were rather suddenly apprized of the death of Anthony Corey, by suicide. Corey has been intemperate for a number of years. His business was that of a wooden ware dealer. He owned a neat and comfortable situation, had a fine intelligent wife, and two small children. The sufferings of the wife are entirely known to God only and herself. She has been obliged to fly from her home for safety several times, until at last, about three or four weeks since, she had to leave him entirely, although I believe it was by consent of both parties. Taking her two children, she went to her native home in the country. Since that time, Corey has indulged more freely in his cups than ever, and, notwithstanding we would be called a law-abiding people, he could find in places all about him the fire which consumed his reason. I was an eye-witness to the scene after the deed was committed; God forbid that mortal eye may ever witness such another.

The deed was committed in the front room of the house. He probably sat on the side of the bed and fell directly back and died without a struggle. A pistol lay on the floor by his feet. The charge, probably two balls, went in directly over his left eye and out the side of his head, blowing his brains literally out. About half of his head was blown off.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE FITCHBURG RAILROAD.—On Friday morning last, a brakeman, named W. M. Sullivan, on the ten o'clock ice train from Boston, on the Fitchburg Railroad, was killed in consequence of coming in contact with the bridge at Prospect street (Somerville) depot, while standing on the top of the car, in the performance of his duty. He lived about half an hour after being taken up. Deceased was a worthy man, resident of Charlestown, and unmarried. Coroner Moore, of Somerville, summoned a jury of inquest, who returned in accordance with the above facts; and the jury further returned, that in their opinion, the said bridge is not high enough for the safety of men employed on the freight trains of said road.—Boston Times.

ST. LOUIS, July 17th.—Missouri Convention.—The Lexington, Mo., Convention met on the 12th. A large number of delegates were present. After a temporary organization, Senator Atchison and Col. Dumpshan were called upon to address the Convention, but declined. Other gentlemen addressed the meeting, and expressed themselves in favor of establishing slavery in Kansas by all lawful means. The Convention was permanently organized by the choice of W. T. Wood as presiding officer. Resolutions were introduced, requesting the Legislature of Missouri to pass acts retaliatory upon, and discriminating against, the products of the States of Massachusetts, Vermont and Michigan.

President Shannon, of the University, by invitation, delivered an address, setting forth the Bible argument in favor of slavery. His speech was very ultra and inflammatory. There was much excitement, and some of the propositions offered at the meeting were strongly objected to. The convention is still in session at last accounts.

A FATAL AFFRAY.—The Vermont Journal states that in Lisbon, N. H., on the 13th. ult., an affray occurred between Mr. Daniel Priest and a young man by the name of Quimby, which resulted in the death of the former. It seems that the two had quarreled, and upon Quimby's attempting to enter the shop in which Priest worked, in defiance of the threats of Priest, he was seized by the latter, who was much the most powerful man, and held in such a manner as to occasion the most excruciating pain. Quimby endured the agony as long as he could, and then threatened to stab his tormentor unless released, Priest only tightened his grasp, and Quimby drawing a knife stabbed him in four places.—

Priest died in about a week. Quimby has been bound over for trial in the sum of $1500. The Vermont Journal states that public opinion justifies him for the commission of the deed.

ENGLISH EXPEDITION DEFEATED.—The brig Judge Blaney Sierra Leone, with dates to June 3d, brings an account of the disastrous defeat of an English expedition against a native chief on the Mallagher river. The British lost fifty men in killed and prisoners. Some of the prisoners were afterwards put to death by the natives in the most barbarous manner. Among the killed was Quartermaster Andrews, of Her Majesty's steamer Teazer. At last accounts, the Chief, anticipating a retaliatory visit from the English, was obstructing the river with stones to prevent the passage up of vessels. Several British subjects had also been seized by the natives on the Rio Mundez, and Her Majesty's ship Ferret had been despatched to look after them.

ANOTHER MILL BURNT.—The Providence Journal of Thursday morning says a despatch was received yesterday afternoon from the President of an insurance office in that city, stating that the first class mill owned by the Agawam Canal Company, at Springfield, was burnt yesterday morning. No particulars were communicated.

There was an insurance on the property at offices in Providence amounting to $47,000.

A CLOWN KILLED BY A FALL FROM A ROPE.—James Myers, the clown, and one of the proprietors of Myers & Madigan's circus company, met with an untimely death while performing on the slack rope at Geneva, a few days since. The ring by which the rope was fastened gave way, throwing him to the ground with so much force as to dash his brains out.—Buffalo Republic.

Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint.

THIS extraordinary substance has now been tested nearly nine years, and its Fire and Water Proof qualities are most extraordinary. Instead of the action of the weather destroying the coating as it does ordinary Paints, it only serves to turn it to a perfect Slate or Stone, protecting whatever covered from the action of Fire or Weather.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

April Term, U. S. Court, New York.

Wm. Blake, vs. E. S & J. G. Belknap.—This was an action brought by the Pltf. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate, granted 28th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Pltf; thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to application to disturb the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 15th of June, 1853, for $1,029 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been sustained by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. New York, Nov. 1853.

DEAD SHOT FOR RED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it cures them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

REMOVAL.
Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,

(FROM LONDON,)
Has arrived at the
WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.
Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. jly16 3w

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

PATENT CHIP BAKER.

Three Sizes, for Summer or Winter. $5.00, $5.50 and $9.00.

A complete Relief from the Oppressive Heat of a Stove or Range.

THE Merits of this Article are too well known to require a lengthy description. It performs the work of Stove or Range, and Baker quicker than either and requires but one quarter the fuel. It has a Large Oven, and by an ingenious arrangement the Hot Air is carried around it at pleasure, so that it bakes in the most perfect manner, while at the same time the Doors are placed directly over and close to the fire. On the top, which is flat, Irons are heated admirably, if required, and kept clean. It is made entirely of Iron, consequently is very durable; requires but little room, may stand in the open fireplace, (in Summer) or be placed parallel with the Range, and work it. It burns either Wood, Bark, Chips or Charcoal, and may be adapted to almost any place. Try it: it is sure to please.

Morning Chronicle.

ARREST OF J. C. NICHOLS.—We learn through a letter to a gentleman in this city, that J. C. Nichols, who became notorious several months ago for certain swindling operations, has at last been overtaken and arrested at Brussels, in Belgium. It will be remembered that, purchasing and shipping certain small lots of cotton to Liverpool, he had the bills of lading so ingeniously drawn as to be able to insert other terms, (as the word hundred, for instance,) and so as to show a shipment of as many hundreds as he had units.—By this means, he succeeded in selling exchange to the value of seventy or eighty thousand dollars, and put off to Havana.

Mr. Henry Conner, jr., was sent in pursuit of him, and his experience would form an interesting chapter of detective history. Arriving in Cuba, Mr. Conner learned that Nichols was the owner of a vessel with which he was operating in that quarter, and had assumed the name of J. N. Crayton. Having reason to believe that the fugitive was somewhere in the vicinity of Trinidad, he prepared himself with such authority as he thought would be sufficient, and followed on the Southern coast of the Island. Arriving there, he overtook the vessel, but Nichols had escaped to Jamaica. He seized the vessel, but the captain not recognizing his authority, he was under the necessity of again returning to Havana, for an order from the Captain General; but in the meantime, the master of the vessel had chartered her to certain parties, and was freighting her for another voyage. To make his order perfect, it was necessary for Mr. Conner to get further authority from the officer in charge of that particular district. This required another voyage in an open boat by sea, of about 200 miles. The officer heard his application the first night, and was taken down with the yellow fever next morning, and thus delay after delay, through the inefficiency of the authorities, were interposed, until both Nichols and the vessel had time to escape from the West Indies. Mr. Conner had prepared the necessary evidences of his right to arrest the delinquent, and having them properly authenticated by the British Consul, had them forwarded to Messrs. Brown, Shipley & Co., with instructions to put a detective officer on track of Nichols as soon as he should arrive in England. Brown, Shipley & Co., learning that a man answering to the description, had taken passage for the continent, the officer took his track, and brought him to bay at Brussels, where he has been put in prison, and now awaits such further proceedings as may be had against him.—Charleston Standard.

TUSCAN LIBERTY.—The Newburyport Herald says,—a person named Cecchetti was recently imprisoned in Tuscany for possessing and reading the Bible, which in giving rise to some newspaper discussion and the charge that his priest violated the secrets of the confessional and betrayed him to the police, has led to an insight into priestism in Italy, and its connection with despotism there. The priest through a French paper, denied that he violated his obligations, but says that a Tuscan priest "is obliged, annually, to report the state of the souls in his Parish, and that in pursuance of that order he reported Cecchetti. Any individual who ceases to attend the confessional, finds himself placed under the surveillance of the police."

This is a very fine system to be placed upon a credulous people under the name of religion. They are compelled to attend confession once a year, and if they do not, the priest denounces them to the police, and their houses are subject to search and themselves to punishment. It is common in Italy for the police to ask a man for his ticket of confession, that he may be allowed to pass the streets about his business, just as his ticket would be demanded, if he wanted to pass into a theatre; and if he cannot produce it, he may be sent to the Convent to do penance, or to the prison to suffer for contempt.

ENCOURAGE YOUR OWN.

Encourage your own is a very good motto—worthy of remembrance by all classes. It is only by encouragement that we can have anything worth calling our own; and wherever there is proper encouragement, there you can have good mechanics, good laborers, worthy merchants, and a prosperous, happy town. There are many people who talk of protection to home industry, who never give practical protection, as they might, by patronizing the people of their own neighborhood and their own town. All our mechanics and traders ought to have, and might have, more profitable employment than they do, if one half the population did not prefer to carry their money abroad for everything they want, to benefit others at the expense of their own.

Encourage your boys to learn some useful trade or business, with the view, if they are sailors, that they will become shipmasters; if clerks, that they will some day be merchants; if "bobbin" boys in the mill, that they will be overseers and agents; if mechanics, that they will be master of their business.

Encourage your townsmen who produce, manufacture, or trade in those things you need, by your patronage; where they are worthy and industrious, loan them money on good security, rather than invest it in rotten concerns whose stock will not sell on any terms. The capitalists of this city have lost five times as much by investments out of the place, as they ever did in it: and by sending their names abroad, have sunk their real estate and increased their taxes, till they are not worth half as much as they would have been otherwise; and in their misfortunes they do not even receive the sympathies of their neighbors.

If we want a good neighborhood—a live town—a prosperous place; if we want to raise our own merchants, agents, shipmasters, scholars and professional men, all we have to do is to use the means that are at hand for the encouragement; and if we don't do that, we deserve to be lean and poor and miserable, and certainly shall be.—Newburyport Herald.

FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1855.

SUNDAY IN LONDON.

In the contest noticed in the following letter from London, we are compelled to take sides with the Common People, with the Mob, if any body pleases. If the great men of a nation make laws, let them keep those laws—if they lay down a principle, let them abide by it.

If they break the laws, punish them exactly as you do the smaller rogues—only a little more so. And if they violate their principles, blow them up—in the newspapers.

A mob, almost a riot but not quite, was indulged in, by the London populace, on the 18th, to evince their disapprobation of a bill pending in Parliament to suppress all Sunday trading. The Times and other papers half justify the views of the populace, and the opposition thus expressed will probably cause the defeat of the bill.

LONDON, June 20.—Next to the war, the most exciting subject in London is the Sunday law, which has strengthened the array of the popular forces against the privileged classes. The law, which forbids trading and closes the shops, beer houses, &c., except during certain hours of Sunday, is an excellent one in principle; but, while it operates seriously against the lower classes, it interferes not at all with the Sunday occupations and amusements of the aristocratic and wealthy. So, on Sunday afternoon last, an immense crowd of people assembled in Hyde Park, about the hours when the nobility turn out to drive. They lined both sides of the great drive on the right of the Serpentine, and as the carriages arrived, their occupants were greeted with shouts of 'Go home!' 'Go to church!' 'You have no business out of doors on Sunday, along with derisive cries of 'Does your mother know you're out?' 'Have you got the key?' and other good humored absurdities. At length they became so violent that carriages were actually stopped, and noble ladies in sumptuous dress were compelled to alight, send home their equipages, and walk quietly back to their residences like common people.

The crowd at one time is said to have reached to fifteen or twenty thousand. About 6 1-2 o'clock, when I, not knowing of the commotion, walked down towards Hyde Park to see the stylish turn-outs, I found a crowd of several hundred policemen at Hyde Park Corner, one of whom told me the meaning of the gathering. They were stationed there as a corps of reserve. I hastened up to the Park, and found still a crowd of many thousands, but the carriage way was absolutely vacant. Not a carriage was near it, but occasionally an adventurous horseman (but not a fashionable) dashed through the gauntlet, and was hailed with all sorts of good humored shouts.

The police on the spot were numerous, but as there was then no breach of the peace, there were no arrests. But the nobility and gentry had been taught a severe lesson, and it was demonstrated that in England, in this age, there can be no law enacted controlling social customs, which is not made equally applicable to rich as well as poor. If the petty shops are to be closed, and if working people are to be deprived of their Sunday recreation, the great club-houses of Pall Mall must also be closed, and the nobility must cease their Sunday driving and their grand Sunday dinners. The titled gentlemen who have been urging these restrictive measures against the lower classes, have been much alarmed by the Hyde Park demonstration.—Government has disavowed Lord Robert Grosvenor's plans, and it seems likely that Sunday will soon be a day of as much license as ever, simply because noble lords and members of Parliament have not the self denial to bring themselves within the operation of a law which is offensive to the people at large. The firm stand taken by the people, is but one of the many signs of a great social revolution now going on, which alarms the privileged classes, since it threatens to break down the barriers of rank and make England more truly republican than it has ever been.

By the late arrival, since the above was in type, we see that the populace made another demonstration in Hyde Park, on Sunday, July 1, which exceeded in numbers and riot the one which took place the week previous. According to the reporter of the Morning Herald, the scene was beyond description. At the lowest computation, upwards of 100,000 men, women and children were present.

In the House of Commons, the next day, Monday, July 2, the Bill was withdrawn by its author, Lord Grosvenor, who thus explains.

I beg to say that I am in rather an awkward predicament. Nobody likes to be mobbed and bullied out of a measure which was introduced with feelings and intentions so dissimilar from those which have been so industriously attributed to me. I hope that the House and the country will recollect that this is not a measure for the better observance of the Sabbath; and that it interferes with no man's recreations or religious convictions, but that it was brought in for the purpose of procuring as large an amount of holyday as possible during one day of the week, for the overtaxed thousands of the metropolis. But considering that this is one of those measures which are peculiarly liable to misrepresentation and ridicule, and that such ridicule and misrepresentation have been most unsparingly exercised with regard to it; considering, also, the late period of the session, and the formidable opposition I am threatened with, I think it would not be right to keep up the irritation that at the present moment exists for the bare chance of passing this measure during the present session of Parliament. I therefore, if the House, which has so cordially supported me in the progress of this measure, will permit me, will move that the order of the day which stands for Wednesday next for the further progress of the Sunday Trading Bill, be now discharged.

We would like very much to see the bill, or a fair abstract of its provisions. It may be, after all, that the London populace have been deceived and imposed upon by crafty rascals who fatten on the follies and vices of the poor.

POLICE SPORTS.—The Portland Advertiser of July 19, tells the story of a police enterprise in that city the night before.

In a house in Exchange street, one Collins, it appears, was crazy drunk, and had made threats that he would shoot his children—in fact, he discharged one pistol, but without doing any damage. Having armed himself with a double barrelled gun, two pistols, and two sabres, he stationed himself at the head of a flight of stairs and bid defiance to everybody, threatening to shoot the first one who approached to take him. The Mayor, with some of the police, effected an entrance into the house through one of the upper windows, by the use of a ladder, when the former, watching his opportunity, threw himself upon Collins, who is a stout, muscular man, and seized his gun. The police then took him, and having handcuffed him, carried him off to the lock-up. The wife of Collins was very much alarmed about her children, fearing that her husband would carry his threats into execution. There were other families in the house, who were also well frightened.

Was not the Mayor very rash, cruel and cowardly? Does not everybody know that he ought to have stood at the bottom of the stairs, and advised this amiable Collins to go to bed? Why didn't he read the riot act?

Why didn't he march up in front, instead of going round behind the man to grab his gun?

Don't he know that every good citizen has a right to bear arms? And finally, why didn't he and all the police, go to their homes like good citizens, leaving the amiable Collins to bear rule in his own house? Are not our houses our castles?

ANOTHER MARTYR.—The New Haven Journal has an account of a horrible death by intoxication in the town of Bethany, Conn. It appears that Mr. David Carrington, of Bethany, being troubled with a disagreeable scent about his premises, made search for the cause, and found behind some brush, in a sitting posture, the dead body of a man, in a state of decomposition. It was ascertained to be the body of Henry Collyer, of Woodbury, who left his home on the 4th, to have a good time. He went to the town of Seymour, on the morning of that day, where he procured a tin pail which he filled with liquor, stolen at the distillery of Mr. Chatfield.

On the evening of the 4th of July, he was seen in that vicinity, and he probably made his way into the brush, where he drank so freely of the liquor that he died. His body was not found until Friday, July 13th. When discovered, the body was in a sitting posture, with the pail of liquor before him, and his head leaned forward so as to completely immerse his face in the pail of liquor! A more terrible death than this, from the effects of liquor, was probably never recorded. Away from his family—from home and friends, he perished helpless and alone, on our national birthday, as a true disciple or devotee of Bacchus.

SAD ACCIDENT AT SOUTH BERWICK.—A son of Mr. James Wilkinson, aged 10 years, was drowned on Thursday, while bathing, at South Berwick Landing. Mr. Evans Guptil went in to rescue the boy, and was drowned in the attempt. Mr. Guptil has a wife and two small children, and his death will be a great loss to his family. c.

COMMENCEMENT ORATORY.—The Boston Times, speaking of the Commencement at Harvard, says:

Of the quality of the productions by the graduates it is entirely unnecessary to speak individually or collectively. There was nothing extraordinary, and there was nothing decidedly bad in any of the compositions. The generally received idea of a Demosthenes or Cicero was not embodied in either, for it might be observed that those who showed the most thought, had a bad delivery, and those whose words amounted to but little, made it up by good voices and gestures. The one which seemed most to please the audience in reality, was the oration of Theodore Lyman, of Boston, upon the influence of the passion for the marvellous on the truth of history.—Considerable sarcasm and originality were manifested, and in the course of his remarks he alluded to the mummy of Mr. Gliddon, as a sample of "what is fame," which, when unrolled, had every appearance of being a red hot abolitionist, who had travelled South, and been tarred, but not feathered. The two valedictories, were very good compositions, as was also the Latin Salutatory, though the majority of the audience took the subject of the latter to be an advocacy of the "omnibus" system, in preference to the horse railroad.

The Boston Mail says,

The Oration of Franklin Benjamin Sanborn of Hampton Falls, N. H., was a meritorious and pointed production, awarding to the teacher greater merit than the lawyer, the doctor, the minister, or any other professional class.

The story that the Agawam mill in Springfield had been burned, is not true.—Boston Telegraph.

LOCAL.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—Nothing of importance was transacted in the Board of Aldermen, on Thursday evening, except the passage of the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, After much discussion, a lot of land has been purchased, plans matured and adopted, and an appropriation made by a concurrent vote of both branches of the City Government for the erection of a new High School House; and

Whereas, it would be impossible to select any any other location against which there would not be in the minds of some, strong objections; and

Whereas, it is of the highest importance that the Building be commenced as soon as possible; therefore,

Resolved, That the Building Committee chosen to carry out the plans adopted by the City Council for a new High School House, be instructed to remove such obstructions as may be found necessary, and proceed in the erection of said building with all reasonable dispatch.

Resolved, That the Building Committee be instructed to procure the materials and labor for the erection of said New High School House, in such way and manner as shall seem to them best for the interest of the city.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONER.—Messrs Editors:—One reason why no more than one application was made for this office, was, that Mr. Webster, the present Commissioner, gave general satisfaction, and I believe universal satisfaction to those persons in this city who interest themselves to any great degree about educational matters. On this account they would have been glad to see him re-appointed,—and therefore proposed no candidates. Q.

☞ Capt. Clark, from his saloon under the Chronicle office, refreshed our fainting systems during the heat of yesterday, with a large dish of beautiful blueberries—nearly the first we have seen in the market; and quant. suff, of "the royal pep," which is acknowledged to be as good as any in the city.—"Verily he shall have his reward."

ADVENT PREACHERS.—Elder Hines preached at the Advent Chapel on Wednesday evening, a quiet, modest discourse. This evening a sermon by F. H. Berick,—next Sunday by J. Couch.

BRING FLOWERS.—Great Boquets begin to arrive from the Lady's Flower Garden in Hanover street.

THE NEW JUDICIARY of New Hampshire, will, it is understood, (says the Manchester Demo.) be constituted as follows:

Superior Court.—Chief Justice, Ira Perley, Concord; Associate Justices, Samuel D. Bell, Manchester; George Y. Sawyer, Nashua; Asa Fowler, Concord; William P. Wheeler, Keene.

Court of Common Pleas.—Jonathan Kittredge, Canaan; Edmund L. Cushing, Charlestown; Henry F. French, Exeter.

MENHADEN.—For a week past, the Merrimac has been swarming with Menhaden. A vessel from Cape Ann seined on Saturday last, at one haul, five hundred barrels. The seine broke, however, before one half of them could be taken care of. There appears to be a great mortality among these fish, the surface of the water being covered with dead "pogies," and we are informed that the same fact has been noticed on the river along shore, where they have been schooling. Formerly, this river was a great resort for these fish, and it was a common occurrence to see a school extending for half a mile. So numerous had they become, that extensive try-works were set up on Black Rocks, and also at the Isles of Shoals, to extract the oil from them. This summary manner of extermination rather gave offence to the fish, and to show their displeasure, they have abstained from visiting our waters for a period of ten years. —Newburyport Herald.

HEAD ACHE KILLER. — This effectual medicine, of Dr. Poland, as appears by the inventor's advertisement, is successful and valuable beyond expectation. Within three months, seven tons of it have been sent off to fill orders!

"A TOAST TO DEAR WOMAN."—At a Fourth of July celebration in Orangeburg, S. C., the following toast brought down the house and considerable crockery:

Woman: Omnipotent, when she seeks not "Woman's Rights"—powerless when she advocates them.

THE MAINE LAW IN NEW YORK.—In New York, Tuesday morning, the Recorder having before him certain cases under the new liquor law, decided that the selling of imported liquor, in any quantity, was allowable; and on that ground he dismissed the complaints. He maintained that the law does not apply to imported liquors, and that any person may sell such liquors in any quantity without license.

The first object selected by the French Emperor for purchase at the Paris Exhibition, was a magnificent sabre, chased in steel, with incrustations in gold, representing on one side the portrait of the Emperor Napoleon I., and the battles of Marengo, Austerlitz, and the Pont d'Arcole, and on the other side the portrait of Napoleon III., and the battles of the Alma and Inkermann.

ELECTIONS IN AUGUST.—The States of Alabama, Arkansas, Iowa, Kentucky, Missouri and Texas, hold their State elections on the first Monday in August; Tennessee on the first Thursday in the same month, and North Carolina on the second Thursday.

NAVAL.—The Rev. Mr. Lambert has been relieved from duty on board the United States frigate Potomac, the flag ship of the home squadron, by Rev. Moses B. Chase.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchits, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole mucoral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

NEW YORK, July 18th.—Another Missouri Outrage.—A quarterly meeting of the Methodist church, North, was broken up a few days ago in Platte county, Missouri, by a mob of Atchison and Stringfellow ruffians, led by a Dr. Walker. The Rev. Mr. Morris was seized, while preaching, amid shouts of "hang him!" He was finally released on a promise to leave the place. The other preachers escaped the disturbance. The mob brought tar, feathers and hemp along with them.

The Whig State Committee met to day at the Astor House, and adopted a resolution, calling a State Convention for September 6th—the same time and place at which the Republican Convention is to be held. A strong fusion sentiment prevails.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY.—On Wednesday July 18th., the inhabitants of the North End, in the neighborhood of Page's yard (opening on North Street,) were startled a little after 1 o'clock in the morning, by the screams of a woman, named Mary Brown, wife of Peter Brown, living in Page's yard, Boston. She was heard to say, "Don't do it Brown."—Capt. Tarlton of the Harbor Police, and Officer Cilley immediately repaired to Brown's house, where they found Brown and his wife in bed together, although the wife was dead and Brown was bleeding profusely. Upon a remark of the officer that the woman was dead, Brown said "Yes, and I killed her, and I shall soon be dead myself." A three cornered file, ground to a very sharp point, was found sticking by the bedside, and upon examination two deep wounds were found inflicted in the left breast of Mrs. Brown, and three stabs on the breast of Brown himself.—It is supposed by those who know him that he was influenced to the deed by jealousy.—He is a Swede about forty years of age, and his wife was an Irishwoman of about thirty years of age. Brown is now in custody.

NOT DEAD.—The woman Cassel and her child, who were shot at the encampment of the Seventh Regiment of the N. Y. State Militia are doing well, and hopes are entertained of their recovery. The regiment raised by subscription the sum of $1500 for the unfortunate sufferers, which amount was placed to their credit in the bank at Kingston. At a meeting of the Board of Officers of the Regiment, it was resolved to adopt the mother and child and provide for them as long as they lived.

ANOTHER FIRE IN MANCHESTER, N. H.—A slip from the Union Democrat says that a violent thunder shower passed over that city Wednesday morning, during which the stable at the City Farm buildings was struck by lightning and entirely consumed. About one hundred and fifty bushels of corn were consumed in it, also a large quantity of farming tools. The stock, except a large lot of poultry, was saved. The entire loss is estimated at about $4000.

ANDREW JACKSON AUTHOR OF THE MAINE LAW.—Gen. Cary of Ohio, says that Neal Dow is not the originator of the Prohibitory Law, authorizing the seizure and the destruction of liquor in this country. The honor or imprecations should be heaped upon another head—no less a one than that of General Andrew Jackson, who as President of the United States, "took the responsibility" to approve a law of Congress which authorized, empowered and commanded all United States officers to seize, confiscate, and destroy all spirituous liquors, whether in "original packages" or not, or whether domestic or imported, if found upon Indian territory; and that "tyrannical, oppressive, unconstitutional, abominable law," passed by a Democratic Congress, and approved by a Democratic President, is still in force in those United States.

FOREIGN CITIZENS AND SLAVERY.—Four fifths of the foreigners who have arrived in this country within the last fifty years have cast their lots in the Northern States and Territories, and have thus helped to swell the preponderance of the North in population and power. Otherwise, how happens it that the comparative ratio of increase of the North has been so much greater than at the South? The natural increase of our species is as rapid here as at the North, while the climate and soil are more attractive; yet the North, by this stream of foreign immigration, has gone on gaining upon the South, and now has an effective majority in both branches of the National Legislature. The Tribune is right.—"The South has nothing to lose by arresting the tide of immigration," but everything to gain.—Savannah Repub.

THE EJECTMENT CASE.—The Boston Mail says:—"Every statement made in the Mail of Monday is correct respecting the Railroad ejectment case, notwithstanding certain papers have chosen to deny them. We only wait till the case comes to court, and then it will be seen whether we have made a mistake." [The item referred to may be found on the outside of to-day's Chronicle.]

BOSTON DAILY JOURNAL.—The exclusive control and management of this valuable establishment is now under the direction of Charles O. Rogers, Esq., who has for some years been its master business spirit, and who has just purchased the entire establishment.

REMARKABLE FREAK OF NATURE.—The brig Isabella, from Humacos, P. R., has on board a horse full grown and having but three legs, two hind legs and one fore leg, there being no appearance of any joint or place for the other leg. The beast is very small, and remarkably active, and manages to get along at a respectable gait.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

The Waukegan Gazette chronicles a heroic act by a boy near that place, who was carrying the mail. As he was driving along the road, in the edge of the evening, a man rushed out and took hold of his horse, ordering him to leave the mail. The boy with great presence of mind, seized a hammer he had by him, (with which he had been fixing the telegraph wires,) and pointing it towards the man, told him if he did not leave in double quick time he would blow out his brains, when the chap put for the bushes in a way that showed he was in a hurry.

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, internal or external? HAYES'S Alited Ointment and Humor Syrup will cure you just as sure as you use it. Take not our assertion for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it wants is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred in a single town. Reader, do you ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any of our agents, get a circular, select any name you please, address a line to that individual—they will speak—they are living witnesses. It will cost but a trifle, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself:

LAWRENCE, June 12, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy results, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as rare article, and the only one known to us, as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER, A. W. STEARNS,
S. I. THOMPSON, ASA T. SANBORN.

It cures Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly,) Barber's Itch, Fever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In no case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves the skin wonderfully, where the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

THE OCEAN HOUSE,
ON RYE BEACH, N. H.

IS now open for Company. Great improvement has been made at this beautiful place this season. The Stable has been enlarged and fitted up in the best manner, and will be kept by the Proprietors in the same liberal manner that the house has always been kept in. The bar will in no case be opened on Sunday.

Take the Eastern Railroad, and stop at the Greenland Depot.

je19 1m JOB JENNESS & CO.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.

THIS House is now open for public accommodation. As everybody is practically acquainted with the natural advantages of this purely OCEAN RETREAT, the public will not be bored with real or imaginary descriptions. Suffice it to say that every facility for the promotion of the happiness and quiet enjoyment of visitors may be found here.

A STEAMER will make daily trips between the Islands and Portsmouth, accommodating itself to the arrival and departure of the several trains.

je16 2m THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

SAGAMORE HOUSE,
FIDDLE'S POINT, 3½ miles from Portsm. Depot.

THE Proprietor of the above House respectfully announces to the pleasure-seeking public that he will open for the season on WEDNESDAY, June 20th.

To those familiar with the locality of the Sagamore House, not a word is necessary in regard to its beautiful and healthful situation.—To strangers seeking rest and recreation by the seaside it affords attractions unequalled. Situated on a point of land on the Atlantic shore, near the Harbor of Portsmouth, the windows on three sides overlook the salt water. From the beach, the broad Atlantic, the Isles of Shoals, the beautiful Piscataqua, and the City of Portsmouth form a charming prospect, and in the background the green fields and leafy woods present a relieving contrast.

The House will be kept in the best manner, and every endeavor will be used to give satisfaction to its guests. The more effectually to do this, the proprietor has secured the services of MR. JOHN MACE, formerly of the Rockingham House, Portsmouth, whose experience and skill in hotel keeping will be a sufficient guarantee to all who know him that the management will be all that could be desired. The Table will be supplied with all the seasonable luxuries of the sea and land, and every effort used to render a sojourn at the Sagamore agreeable.

A Coach, in charge of an experienced driver, will run between the Sagamore House and the City of Portsmouth, leaving the Hotel at 8½ A.M. and 5½ P.M. Returning, leaves Portsmouth at 10½ A.M. and 7½ P.M., or on arrival of cars from Boston and Concord. Fare 25 cents. All orders left at WM. R. PRESTON'S, in Portsmouth, will receive prompt attention.

THOS R. CLARK, Proprietor.
Portsmouth, May 29. 1awliw JGS

PAVILION,
WOLFEBOROUGH, N. H.

THE undersigned beg leave to inform their friends and the public that they have leased the above spacious Public House, which contains over one hundred well furnished rooms, which have been put in good order, for permanent and transient boarders. The House commands a good view of Lake Winnipiseogee, together with the beautiful hills which surround it—from one of which the prospect is said to excel that of Mount Washington—making many beautiful rides in the vicinity, on land as well as on the beautiful lake.

Good horses and carriages are connected with the house, and the beautiful steamboats "Lady of the Lake" and "Dover" make several trips each day up and down the lake. Gentlemen who delight in angling and gunning will find here ample field for their favorite enjoyment. Meals at all hours, without extra charge, for sportsmen.—Good carriages and accommodating porters in attendance on the arrival of each boat.

Steamboat Notice.

THE fine and commodious Steamboat SILVER STAR will run regularly every day from Portsmouth to Appledore Island, (Isles of Shoals,) in connection with the morning trains from the South, leaving Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, directly after the arrival of the Cars, and will return in season for the Evening Trains from Portsmouth.

The Boat is fitted with all the modern improvements for a Passenger Boat; and her double Engines are of the most approved pattern, and all her appointments are superior.

Towing done on reasonable terms. For particulars apply to the captain, or to Capt. Marshall at Pier wharf.

The boat can be chartered for sea Parties, upon application to the captain on board, giving reasonable notice.

je23 THOMAS MAKINNEY, Captain.

Yacht Sea Ranger,
FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate Fishing Parties on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The Captain of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.

jy4 JAMES W. GOODWIN.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it carts them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills flies.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "Tired Nature's sweet restorer."

THE EJECTED EMIGRANT.—The Mail says that the emigrant who was ejected from the Stonington train was an Irishman named Farrell. "He was found on Wednesday about daybreak, in a helpless condition near a crossing on the Boston & Providence Railroad, this side of Providence, by a farmer, who conveyed him in a wagon to the nearest village. He was very much bruised on his side, legs and arms, and was wholly incapable of helping himself. In reply to the questions put to him, he stated that he came from Ireland, arrived in New York, paid his fare, gave up his ticket, and was thrown from the cars while they were going at a most rapid rate, agreeing in every particular with our account of it on Friday."

He was sent to Manchester, N. H., to which place he was going when hurled out of the cars. The Mail adds:

The Conductor of the train was Mr. S. W. Wilson. He, and the corporation which employ him, will soon be called upon to answer for one of the greatest outrages ever committed in the annals of Railroad despotism.—Mr. Wilson should be grateful to Divine Providence that he will not be obliged to stand at a bar of justice on a charge of murder. Railway Presidents, Directors and Treasurers have at times been arraigned before the public for misdeeds; it now remains to pass judgment upon a Railroad Conductor. A poor man has been foully abused without reason, but there is something even greater than a corporation official, as will hereafter be proved.

The Providence Post denies this story in toto; and says that no person was put out of the Stonington cars last week, and that Mr. Wilson is the last person to be suspected of such an act.

REMOVAL.
Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,
(FROM LONDON,)
Has arrived at the
WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.
Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected, without much pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. july16 3w

A complete Relief from the Oppressive Heat of a Stove or Range.

THE Merits of this Article are too well known to require a lengthy description. It performs the work of Stove or Range, and Bakes quicker than either, and requires but one quarter the fuel. It has a Large Oven, and by an ingenious arrangement the Hot Air is carried around it at pleasure, so that it bakes in the most perfect manner, while at the same time the Boilers are placed directly over and close to the fire. On the top, which is flat, Irons are heated admirably, if required, and kept clean. It is made entirely of Iron, consequently is very durable; requires but little room, may stand in the open fire-place, (in Summer) or be placed parallel with the Range, and work it. It burns either Wood, Bark, Chips or Charcoal, and may be adapted to almost any place. Try it. It is sure to please.

"JUDGING OF THE LAW AND EVIDENCE."—Steamer Crescent City, on her last trip from New York via Havanas to New Orleans, was boarded in the last named port by the quarantine physician, who gave a clean bill of health, but told the captain that by the laws of Louisiana his boat and passengers must be detained below until ten days had elapsed since he left Havana: but Capt. McGowan immediately steamed up to the city, where he was summoned before Court. The facts were admitted, and it was contended that there was no contagious disease at Havana. The State was represented by three eminent lawyers who contended with great ability for the constitutionality of the quarantine law, and the legality of the action of the Board of Health; while Mr. Hunt, for the defendant, maintained that the action of the Board of Health, and its functionaries, and the proclamation of the Governor, not only did not comply with the quarantine law, but went directly in the teeth of its provisions; that the quarantine law, as thus administered, would be a violation of the Constitution of the United States, giving to Congress the exclusive authority to regulate commerce. The Judge charged the jury in support of the law, and upon the duty of enforcing its provisions as long as it continued to be the law. He thought the action of the Board of Health had been in conformity with the law. The jury after an absence of two or three minutes, returned into the court with a verdict of acquittal.—Courier.

BEWARE OF SNAPPING TURTLES!—A friend relates to us rather a singular incident which occurred at Country Pond, in Newton, N. H., on the fourth. This pond, it is well known, is much frequented by lovers of the piscatory art, where they are sure of "good bites" and a large catch. On this occasion the party was composed of "high young bloods" from the town of H., who carried their anti-maine law with them, the effects of which in their ludicrous action and "antics"—by being particular in purchasing either of the above Oils, of the persons named, can rely upon pure oils and will not be disappointed in their light.

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, internal or external? HAYES'S

Allied Ointment and Humor Syrup

will cure you just as sure as you use it. Take not our assertion for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it wants is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred in a single town. Reader, do you ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any of our agents, get a circular, select any name you please, address a line to that individual—they will speak—they are living witnesses. It will cost but a trifle, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself:

LAWRENCE, June 12, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to that of the doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy results, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as the article, and the ONLY one known to us, as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER, W. W. STEARNS,
S. I. THOMPSON, ASA T. SANBORN.

It cures Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly,) Barber's Itch, Fever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In no case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves the sight wonderfully, where the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

Price of the Ointment, $1; Syrup 50 cents.

CHARLES H. KENT, General Agent for the United States and Canadas, Lawrence, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed.

Sold in Portsmouth, by Jos. H. Thacher, at the Good Samaritan Store, and W. H. Preston; and by Agents everywhere.

WIT AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

The reporter of the Boston Traveller has furnished its readers with a brief report of the recent Commencement at this venerable seat of learning. The various themes of the young gentlemen are named, and some of them are accompanied with an analysis of the orations &c., delivered, with criticisms upon the performances. There seems to have been but little in most of the pieces which the reporter thought fit to give to his readers, and he despatches the larger number with a very few words. But the Oration on "Influence of the Passion for the Marvellous on the Truth of History" is an exception. Smitten with admiration for that, he devotes to it a larger space and gratifies the public with a sight of a few of its beauties. We are assured—"This was one of the wittiest and most successful of all the compositions"—and are then furnished with a few quotations by which we may judge for ourselves. Among these quotations is the following precious morceau,—

A few years ago, a mummy was to be unrolled here, and great was the excitement.—The mummy was that of an Egyptian princess, several thousand years old, and in a wonderful state of preservation. People expected to see a paragon of beauty, 8 feet in height, and covered with jewels. But the blanket of their expectation was doomed not only to be damped, but positively wet. A real live Yankee approached with saw in hand, and disclosed—enveloped in no end of long rags, and smelling like a piece of rosin—an object which looked like a petrified abolitionist, which had been tarred but not feathered. (Applause.) Oh, ye lovers of the marvellous in history! be said, when you know half a thing, you must needs think the other half ten times as big. (Laughter and applause.)

Now it is presumed this composition received the revision of some Professor and had his approval before it was exhibited in public. But the wonder is that any one of the learned professors there should permit such a passage to remain in an oration to be delivered on the day of Commencement. It must have occurred to him that there were grave objections to it, which even its excruciating "wittiness" did not compensate for.

In the first place—It was a mean and sorry fling at a large, increasing and respectable class of our northern citizens. Indeed we hope the great majority of us are "abolitionists"—that there are few in New England, excepting the race of office-seekers, who would be deemed anything else. Most certain it is that many of the most honored sons of Harvard, both among the dead and the living, have been and are of this number, and many of them were no doubt in the audience at Cambridge that day. Was such a reference respectful? Was it becoming in a young man, just entering upon life, thus to attempt to hold up to ridicule a class of men among whom are enrolled many of the most honored, learned, and devout of the nation, or to pour contempt on a cause which is attracting to it the sympathies of the good of all lands? Still more; was it becoming in a learned professor to permit such a sentence to remain in a theme to be spoken?

But secondly—It was treating with lightness a species of outrage, which is becoming more frequent every day, and which ought to be regarded and spoken of only with the deepest abhorrence. In the very last issue of your paper, is the account of one of these outrages, the reading of which is sufficient to cause every lover of liberty to burn with indignation, and every lover of his country to blush with shame. A quarterly meeting of the Methodists in Missouri was broken up by a mob of slaveholders who brought tar, feathers and hemp along with them, and the preacher of the occasion was seized in the midst of his sermon, dragged from the pulpit, and hurried off amid shouts of "hang him! hang him!"

Now it must be exceedingly pleasant to the base and wicked perpetrators of such deeds, to read that at the most venerable seat of learning in the land, a young man was permitted to stand up in the midst of reverend divines, learned professors, grave judges, and eloquent lawyers, and hold up the object of their cruelty to their ridicule; set the audience into laughter by an allusion to a "tarred and feathered abolitionist"—and still more, to read that he was applauded. I should have been glad to have read that the indignation of the audience did not permit the young man to proceed—that having uttered this sentence, he was compelled to leave the stage.

It may seem that I am making too much of a trifling matter. I cannot think so. Such an utterance in such a place and in such a manner and under such circumstances is not trifling. It goes forth not as the expression of the boy who spoke it, but as having, at least, the countenance of his instructors and the approval of the audience who heard it.—It is just one of those things, of which there are too many at the North, which go to encourage the reckless spirit of mobocracy at the South. ALIQUIS.

SNAKE STORY SPOILED—ALMOST.—A gentleman from Gilmanton informs the Concord Statesman, that the public are grossly ly imposed upon in the affair of the girl and snake, by Hill, the father of the little girl.—The gentleman lives near Hill's residence, and says, that instead of there being a spontaneous and friendly feeling between the child and the reptile, there was the utmost repugnance between the two, at the time the father commenced his work. People there entertain no doubt whatever that he caught the snake some time ago; that he obtained it for the purpose of training the child to handle and control it; and that the exhibition of the two for money is the consideration had in view from the first by the inhuman parent.

The assertion that Dr. Wight, who is a highly respectable and widely known physician, gave it as his opinion that a separation of the child and the snake would be fatal to the former, is a falsehood; there is no foundation whatever for it.

The people of the neighborhood in which Hill lives, being full in the belief that he trained the child to the hideous duty to which he seems inclined to subject her, were inclined to move in the matter, and by force frustrate his cruel design. He is reported to be a criminal, debased, and sottish man.

Some paper said, a day or two ago, "the snake is idolized by the girl. She has a wild look, and fears are entertained that she will languish and die, in consequence of the magnetic power over her of the snakes."

If the statement of the gentleman from Gilmanton be correct, it is more probable the child's wild look arises from the fears which she has suffered, and from the severity of her training in deception.

SOLOMON NORTHUP has lectured in Manchester, N. H., and other places, lately, on his own experience. Northup is a mulatto of education and intelligence, who in early life lived in Saratoga, N. Y.

He was kidnapped in the city of Washington in 1841; conveyed in a merchant slave brig to New Orleans; thrown into the slave pens of that city; afterwards purchased by a cotton planter, and carried to the Red River country, where he endured the horrors of slavery for twelve years, until released by a legal requirement of Hon. Washington Hunt, then Governor of New York.

His lecture describes slavery as he found it in those dreary years,—of course as it is,—not the South side view, but the inside.

This puts us in mind of Sojourner Truth, another New York slave, whose lecture or talk we did not hear—but whose book we bought and have read with varied emotion, and with renewed hatred of soul-withering oppression.

PHI BETA KAPPA.—The topic of Henry Ward Beecher, who was the Orator at Cambridge on Thursday, was, the Value of Mirthfulness. The Boston Advertiser says he discussed it in an address full of point and spirit, illustrating the necessity to our community, and indeed to every community, of the management or encouragement of the native "faculty of mirth." This he did, in no general harrangue on the severity of Puritan customs, but in a curiously accurate analysis of human powers, which involved him in a discussion of those prejudices which suppose that mirth is low, or unmanly, or dangerous, or in itself wicked.

STILL ANOTHER MARTYR.—On Wednesday afternoon, the body of a man, supposed to have been in the water three or four days, was found near the Chelsea Ferry landing.—It was identified as that of Dyer F. Huntress, of Northwood, N. H., a farmer of intemperate habits. He has a family.

HABEAS CORPUS CASE.—A writ was issued in New York city on Monday, requiring the Superintendent of the Bloomingdale Lunatic Asylum to produce the person of Miss Sarah Halstead, who, it is alleged, is unjustly deprived of her liberty. It is said that the young lady some months since eloped with a married man; that her father pursued them to the West and brought her back, and placed her in the Asylum on a certificate of moral insanity. It is now alleged that she is not insane, and hence the proceedings for her release. Mr. Halstead is one of the oldest and most respected merchants in New York.

If the story is correctly told here, the sheriff ought to have a precept all ready, and arrest the young lady for adultery, at the moment when the Court decides she is not insane.

FIRE IN MASON.—The house and barn of David Robbins, in Mason, near the old depot, were destroyed by fire on Friday last. The fire was probably occasioned by the spontaneous combustion of new hay in the barn. The barn was in ashes, and the house was on fire before the family in the house were aware of it, though it was at mid-day and the mother and four children were in the rear part of the house. A neighbor gave the alarm and the family escaped through a window. There was no insurance.—Manchester Amer.

LOCAL.

☞ A distinguished gentleman of Maine, who made a grand speech the other day at the Wells convention, came over to New Hampshire shortly afterwards, and left this city for home, "as tight as a drum." He had been in some of our tippling shops, and was "quite disguised," as people used to say 40 years ago. He had better sign the pledge and stay at home; he can't take care of himself in a place so dangerous as this.

Another gentleman, not quite so distinguished, but just about as sober, came hither the day after, and went into one of our lower groceries to refresh himself. Presently we saw him on the outside, with his face bathed in blood, which he wiped out of his hair by handfuls.

He and the shopkeeper had managed so as break a tumbler or two,—and the shopkeeper in his drunken rage had thrown one at his customer's head and then pushed him out of doors. The poor fellow, however, was not half as tipsy as he would have been had there been no quarrel. But the shopkeeper is digging his own grave by drinking at his own tap.

EXCURSION.—Steamer Silver Star will make an excursion to the Isles of Shoals this evening at 8 o'clock, or on arrival of the last train from Concord, and return on Monday morning, early. Fare for the excursion, out and back, 75 cts.

Passengers over the Concord Railroad, who wish to make the trip to the Shoals at that time, will be brought over the road for one fare only—return tickets free.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Rev. J. P. Thompson of New York, will preach at the Temple tomorrow.

Elder Couch will preach at the Advent Chapel to-morrow.

☞ Rev. Mr. Helman will deliver a temperance address on Sunday evening, at the Methodist Church.

HANDSOME PRESENT.—On the counter of Mr. Clark's Jewelry store is a two-quart Silver Pitcher of elegant workmanship, with the inscription—"Presented to Wm. Pettigrew by the owners of Ship Midnight." The Midnight was built at the yard of Fernald & Pettigrew a year since, for Messrs. Hastings and others of Boston. She has proved an excellent vessel, as this handsome testimonial of the owners shows, as well as the fact that the same firm have now in construction another ship of 1100 tons, for the same company.—Journal.

No humbug e'er was found;
But, now, like Egypt's frogs and flies,
We swarm on every ground.

HUMBUG.

☞ The author of the Charade described the Humming Bird—but Humbug comes so near the mark, and is so good beside, that we can't afford to lose it.

THE OFFICERS OF THE LATE LEGISLATURE.—The legislature in this state has never been more fortunate than the last in the selection of its presiding officers and its clerks. The presiding officers of both branches won the approbation of all who observed them, and facilitated the business by their ability and promptness. Mr. Haile in the Senate is a practical man, and he brought to the duties of presiding officer legislative experience, and more than met expectation. Since the late Senator Norris filled the Speaker's chair, it has not been so well filled as at the last session. The clerks of both branches, too, were untiring in their labors and uniformly accommodating. Our neighbor, Mr. Goodale of The Democrat, as Clerk of the House, was on several days put to severe tests, owing to the amount of labor performed; but by methodical business habits, and facility, as well as by the aid of his energetic assistant, Mr. Kent, he pushed through it with ease. So acceptably did all these officers perform their duties, that we apprehend the complimentary words at the close of the session were something more than mere form.—Manchester Amer.

PARIS.—Horace Greeley in a recent letter from Paris says:—Voltaire is embodied Paris—acute, satirical, selfish, cynical, sensual, irreverent, valuing everything as it may be turned to a present use, and believing in nothing that it cannot bite. Paris has probably produced more libertine novels than all the world beside, and nowhere else are the intellectual classes so profoundly, inveterately irreligious.

MAN DROWNED.—George Sargent, a Clerk in the Northern Railroad Office, in Concord, was drowned near Free Bridge, in the Merrimack river, Tuesday evening. He was bathing with several other young men from the same office. He was seen to go down the second time, and all efforts to find his body have been unavailing. He was about 18 of age, and the only son of a widowed mother.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, 20th.—On the Vermont Central Railroad last night, near Milton, the engine of the passenger train burst, completely demolishing it. Among the ruins have been found the engineer and firemen, and Mr. Bush the conductor, who are recognized. Number of killed unknown.

MADEIRA WINE.—To eight cockroaches add a gill of alcohol, a pint of water and a spoonful of cider vinegar. If you want a heavier body add more cockroaches. For other recipes, address Knickerbocker Office.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause. There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchits, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Every body needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

CAUSES OF FAILURE.

Accounts by telegraph have already stated the main facts of the unsuccessful attack on Sebastopol on the 18th of June.

The papers per the Canada contain despatches from Lord Raglan and Gen. Pelissier, giving the full details. These and camp correspondence make plain the causes of the repulse.

Gen. Mayran's French Division, to attack the fort on the extreme right, by the Careening Harbor, commenced the action prematurely, before the other divisions had taken up their ground. Gen. Mayran fell mortally wounded, and his division having been thrown into disorder, the Russians turned their concentrated fire upon the next division as it came up, under the command of Gen. Brunet, and shattered it badly. Gen. Brunet also fell, and orders were then given to withdraw the troops into the trenches, although Gen. Autewane had in the meantime reached the Malakoff tower. The retreat was effected in good order, but with great loss.

When Lord Raglan saw the defeat of the first French Division, he hastily ordered an attack on the Redan to effect a diversion in favor of the French, although it was previously intended that the British should not attack until the French should have captured the Malakoff, inasmuch as the Malakoff guns quite command the Redan. So far civilians at a distance can judge, Lord Raglan's order to attack was a great error, for the British storming party not being sufficiently strong to carry the works, were repulsed with much slaughter. A curious incident is that Gen. Eyre, with 2000 British, penetrated into the very suburbs of Sebastopol itself, and held possession of the houses of one street for 17 hours, but being totally unsupported, retired at nightfall. The inference is, that, had the assault been general or systematically planned, the city would have fallen, or at least its first line of defence might have been carried.

French letters of June 3d, say the army was full of confidence—approaches were being pushed forward to the Malakoff tower, and a French battery of thirty guns was nearly completed on the point of Careening Bay, to keep off the Russian ships, their fire having caused much loss on the 18th.

A Vienna paper says that Gortschakoff has sent for 24,000 additional men, and has reinforced Liprandi's army with another division.

Mr. Stow, Commissioner sent by the London Times to the Crimea, to administer the balance of the Hospital Fund, fell sick from over exertion. Routine excluded him from the very hospitals he was aiding. He was carried in a scorching sun to a church at Balaklava, where he died, a victim to official inhumanity.

The Turco British contingent, now numbering about 6000 men, is in camp near Domusdero.

Careful estimates show that this war has already cost one half a million lives, and yet no decisive battles.

CONVICTION OF MURDERERS IN INDIANA.—The Indianapolis Journal of the 11th inst. says:—"Justice has been busy in Lafayette this spring. Such a flood of criminal business was probably never known in the State before as has recently inundated the Lafayette Court. Three men have been sentenced to death for murder, two have been sentenced to the State Prison for life, and a number, we forget how many, for terms of greater or less length. The last man sentenced to death was Stocking, for the murder of John Rose.—The verdict was returned on Saturday night, about nine o'clock, as we learn from the Lafayette Journal. It will be remembered that last winter a very destructive fire occurred in Lafayette, in which Mr. John Rose, a highly esteemed citizen, was burned to death, as was supposed. Since the commencement of the trial of the Farenbaugh murderers, suspicion got abroad that Rose had been murdered, and his store robbed and set on fire to destroy the evidence of the crime. Probably some such suspicion was entertained at the time of the occurrence, but it assumed no definite shape or object till recently. The confessions of the Fahrenbaugh murderers gave the clue to an investigation, which has resulted in Stocking's conviction. Rose was murdered.

SAGAMORE HOUSE,

FROST'S POINT, 3½ miles from Postsm. Depot.

THE Proprietor of the above House respectfully announces to the pleasure seeking public that he will open for the season on WEDNESDAY, June 20th.

To those familiar with the locality of the Sagamore House, not a word is necessary in regard to its beautiful and healthful situation—To strangers seeking rest and recreation by the seaside it affords attractions unequalled. Situated on a point of land on the Atlantic shore, near the Harbor of Portsmouth, the windows on three sides overlook the salt water. From the beach, the broad Atlantic, the Isles of Shoals, the beautiful Piscataqua, and the City of Portsmouth form a charming prospect, and in the background the green fields and leafy woods present a relieving contrast.

The House will be kept in the best manner, and every endeavor will be used to give satisfaction to its guests. The more effectually to do this, the proprietor has secured the services of MR. JOHN MACK, formerly of the Rockingham House, Portsmouth, whose experience and skill in hotel keeping will be a sufficient guarantee to all who know him that the management will be all that could be desired. The Table will be supplied with all the seasonable luxuries of the sea and land, and every effort used to render a sojourn at the Sagamore agreeable.

A Coach, in charge of an experienced driver, will run between the Sagamore House and the City of Portsmouth, leaving the Hotel at 8½ A. M. and 5½ P. M. Returning, leaves Portsmouth at 10½ A.M. and 7½ P.M., or on arrival of cars from Boston and Concord. Fare 25 cents. All-orders left at WM. R. PRESTON'S, in Portsmouth, will receive prompt attention.

FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with whole cabin, fitted and prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will be found in any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire a safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.
jy4 JAMES W. GOODWIN.

ALL new and popular Sheet Music to be found at H. READ'S Bookstore, 15 Exchange Buildings, Pleasant street.

Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint.

THIS extraordinary substance has now been tested nearly nine years, and its Fire and Water Proof qualities are most extraordinary. Instead of the action of the weather destroying the coating as it does ordinary Paints, it only serves to turn it to a perfect Stone or Stone, protecting whatever covered from the action of Fire or Weather.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

April Term, U. S. Court, New York.

Wm Blake, vs. E. S & J. G. Belknap.—This was an action brought by the Plff. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate, granted 28th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Plff; thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to application to disturb the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 16th of June, 1853, for $1,029 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been sustained by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article.—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. New York, Nov. 1853.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a preparation of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

REMOVAL.
Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,
(FROM LONDON,)
Has arrived at the
WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.
Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears more singular (if that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who were represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. july15 3w

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, Internal or external? HAYES'S

Allied Ointment and Humor Syrup

will cure you just as sure as you use it. Take not our assertion for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it wants is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred in a single town. Reader, do you ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any of our agents, get a circular, select any name you please, address a line to that individual—they will speak—they are living witnesses. It will cost but a trifle, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself:

LAWRENCE, June 12, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy results, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as THE article, and the ONLY one known to us as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER, A. W. STEARNS,
S. I. THOMPSON, ASA T. SANBORN.

It cures Salt Rheum, Scrotula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly,) Barber's Itch, Fever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In no case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves the sight wonderfully, where the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

Price of the Ointment, $1; Syrup 50 cents.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That it shall be unlawful and criminal for any person to sell or keep for sale any spirituous or intoxicating liquor, or any mixed liquor, any part of which is spirituous or intoxicating, contrary to the provisions of this act; provided that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent the sale or keeping for sale, by any person, of domestic wine or cider unmixed with spirituous liquor, except when sold to be drank on or about the premises where sold, or the sale or keeping for sale, by the importer thereof, in the original casks or packages in which it was imported, of foreign spirituous or intoxicating liquor imported under the authority of the laws of the United States.

SEC. 2. If any person not being an agent of some city, town or other place, appointed to sell liquors as hereinafter provided, shall sell or keep for sale any spirituous or intoxicating liquor, or any mixed liquor, any part of which is spirituous or intoxicating in any quantity, he shall, on conviction be punished for the first offence, by a fine of fifty dollars; for the second offence, by a fine of fifty dollars and imprisonment for thirty days in the common jail; and for every subsequent offence by a fine of one hundred dollars and imprisonment for ninety days in the common jail, and the costs of prosecution in each case.

SEC. 3. If any person shall be a common seller of spirituous or intoxicating liquor, or of mixed liquor any part of which is spirituous or intoxicating, without being duly appointed as provided in this act, he shall forfeit and pay, on the first conviction, fifty dollars and costs of prosecution, and shall be imprisoned in the common jail one month; and on the second and every subsequent conviction, he shall [pay] one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, and shall be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than six months; and in default of payment of fines and costs imposed by this section for the first offence the convict shall not be discharged until he shall have been imprisoned one month beyond the term for which he was sentenced; and in default of payment of fines and costs imposed by this section for the second and every subsequent conviction, he shall not be discharged until he shall have been imprisoned two months beyond the term for which he was sentenced.

SEC. 4. If the complainant, in his complaint against any person for keeping any liquor for sale contrary to the provisions of this act, or for being a common seller of such liquor contrary to the provisions of this act, shall allege in his said complaint that he has reason to believe and does believe that any such liquor or any vessel, implements or fixtures usually connected with such traffic, specially designating the same, are to be found in or upon the premises where said liquor is alleged to be kept in violation of the provisions of this act, or where the offence of being a common seller of such liquor is alleged to have been committed, and that an examination of the premises would in his belief furnish evidence to sustain the allegations of said complaint, and that he desires to have the premises, the same not being a private dwelling no part of which is occupied as a tavern, public eating house, shop, grocery or other place of common resort, searched, the magistrate or police court before whom such complaint is made, shall issue his or their warrant commanding any competent officer who may serve the same, to arrest the person complained against, and, in the daytime, in the presence of the complainant or any other person or persons that the court or magistrate may designate, to search the premises described therein for the purpose of finding the articles described in said warrant, and if any of the objects of search are found in or upon the premises, to make an inventory of the same in the presence and with the aid of said complainant or other person or persons designated as aforesaid, and return the same with his said warrant to said magistrate or police court—and the said officer, complainant or other persons designated as aforesaid may be examined as witnesses on the trial of the person so arrested as to any matters alleged in said complaint or connected with said search.

SEC. 5. Whenever upon proceedings had before a justice of the peace or police court for the violation of any of the provisions of this act, such justice or police court shall be of opinion that the person complained against is guilty of the offence charged, such justice or court shall order such offender to recognize with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in a sum not less than two nor more than five hundred dollars to appear at the next court of common pleas for the county, and abide the order of said court, and in the meantime to keep the peace and be of good behavior, and especially not to violate any of the provisions of this act, and to stand committed until such order be complied with.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the solicitor for each county, upon receiving the written statement of any person of good character under oath, setting forth that he knows, or that there is good reason to believe, and he does believe, any person, in said county designated in said statement, has been or is guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this act, and reciting the probable source of proof of such violation, as soon as may be, if such person or any other person of good character will make the complaint required by law, to institute or cause to be instituted, a prosecution against such person for the offence; and if any solicitor shall refuse or unreasonably neglect to draw said complaint, or institute, or cause to be instituted, such prosecution, after receiving such statement, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars for every such neglect or refusal, to be recovered in an action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction, to the use of the person who may first sue therefor.

SEC. 7. The mayor and aldermen of any city, or the selectmen of any town or place, within thirty days after this act shall take effect, and in the month of April annually thereafter and whenever a vacancy may occur, shall appoint one or more suitable persons, not exceeding three, agents for such city, town or place, for the purchase of spirituous and intoxicating liquors, and for the sale thereof within such city, town or place, to be used in the arts or for medicinal, mechanical and chemical purposes, and wine for the commemoration of the Lord's Supper, and for no other use or purpose whatever. And the appointing power may remove any such agent at pleasure, and appoint another in his stead. No inn-keeper, or keeper of any place of public entertainment shall receive such appointment. Every agent so appointed shall hold his office for one year, or until another is appointed, unless sooner removed; he shall sell such liquor only, and in the place only, designated in writing by the mayor and aldermen or selectmen appointing him; he shall, in the purchase and in the sale of such liquor, conform to such rules and regulations as said mayor and aldermen, or selectmen shall prescribe, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act; he shall keep an accurate account of all his purchases, and of all his sales, specifying in such account the kind, quantity and price of the liquor bought by him, the date of each purchase made by him, and the name of the person of whom such purchase was made, the kind, quantity and price of the liquor sold by him, the date of each sale made by him, the name of the purchaser at every such sale, and the use for which the liquor at every such sale was sold as stated by the purchaser, which account shall be at all times open to the examination of the mayor and aldermen of the city or the selectmen of the town or place, or any magistrate within the county; he shall, when required by the board appointing him, account with them regarding all his dealings as such agent, and exhibit to them all receipts, bills, books and papers of every kind relating to such dealings or to his accounts; he shall sell such liquors at such a profit as the board appointing him shall determine, and shall pay over the proceeds of the sales, whenever required by the board by whom he is appointed, to the treasurer of the city, town or place; he shall at every annual meeting of the town or place, and once every year to the mayor and aldermen of the city, make a report verified by oath or affirmation, of all his purchases and the cost thereof; and of all his sales and the proceeds thereof, specifying the number of sales, the respective quantities and kinds sold for each of the purposes for which he is authorized to sell, and the quantity, kind and cost of all liquors remaining on hand at the time of such meeting, and no other particulars. He shall receive for his services such fixed and stipulated compensation as the board appointing him shall prescribe, but the amount of such compensation shall not be increased or diminished by reason of any increase or diminution of the sale of such liquor by such agent; and he shall not be, in any way, except as one of the inhabitants of the city, town or place, interested in said liquor, or in the purchase or sale thereof, or in the profits thereof. And if any person purchasing any spirituous or intoxicating liquor of such agent, shall intentionally make to such agent any false statement regarding the use to which such liquor is intended by the purchaser to be applied, such person so offending shall, for the first offence, upon conviction thereof before any court competent to try the same, pay a fine of ten dollars to the treasury of the city, town or place, with the costs of prosecution, and a fine of twenty dollars and costs for any subsequent offence.

SEC. 8. Every agent appointed under the provisions of this act shall receive from the mayor and aldermen or selectmen, a certificate of his appointment, which shall be recorded by the clerk of the city, town or place, together with the rules and regulations prescribed for his observance; and if any such agent shall knowingly sell any spirituous or intoxicating liquor, or any mixed liquor, any part of which is spirituous or intoxicating, for any other purpose than those for which he is authorized to sell the same by the provisions of this act, or shall knowingly and intentionally violate any of the rules in this act prescribed for his observance, or any of the rules and regulations of the mayor and aldermen or selectmen appointing him, he shall on conviction be punished, for the first offence by a fine of fifty dollars; for the second offence by a fine of fifty dollars and thirty days imprisonment in the common jail; and for every subsequent offence by a fine of one hundred dollars and ninety days imprisonment in the common jail, and costs of prosecution in each case.

SEC. 9. If any person shall be found in a state of intoxication in any highway, street court-house, town-house, or other public building or place, or shall be found in a state of intoxication in his own house or other private building or place, disturbing the public or domestic tranquility, any competent officer may, upon complaint under oath and a warrant for that purpose, and it is hereby made their duty to apprehend such person so found intoxicated, and take and retain him in custody, in any watch-house or other suitable place, at the expense of the city or town in which he is found, until the person so detained is so far recovered from his intoxication as to render it proper to convey him before a court of justice, when a trial may be had before any justice of the peace or police court, and if found guilty of being intoxicated in the streets or highways, or in any public building or place, or of being intoxicated in his own house or other private building or place, and disturbing the public or domestic tranquility, he may be punished by imprisonment in the common jail or house of correction thirty days, and shall pay costs of prosecution; but if before conviction the respondent shall disclose under oath, the place or places at which, and the person or persons of whom, the liquor so producing intoxication was obtained, and the circumstances attending it, and it shall thereupon appear to the magistrate or court before whom the trial is had, that the furnishing of such liquor was in violation of the provisions of this act; if said person so arrested shall file his complaint for the commission of such offence or offences, before the said magistrate or police court against the person or persons, who, upon such disclosure being made, shall appear to the said magistrate or court to have been guilty thereof; and, if upon the examination of such offender or offenders, the person so taken intoxicated shall freely and fully testify what he knows relative to the complaint or complaints made as aforesaid, against the said offender or offenders, the said magistrate or court shall thereupon discontinue the said prosecution for drunkenness, and the person so arrested shall be discharged, and shall not be liable to be prosecuted again for the same offence, and the county shall pay the costs of the said prosecution. Justices of the peace and police courts are authorized to hear and determine prosecutions for intoxication under this section arising within their jurisdiction, subject to appeal as in other cases, and if no appeal is taken, may issue warrants to carry their judgments into effect.

SEC. 10. If any person, of full age, and competent to testify, resident within the county within which the complaint is made, shall make complaint upon oath or affirmation, before any justice of the peace or judge of police court, within the county that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that any intoxicating liquor, designated in the complaint, is kept or deposited in any store, shop, warehouse, or in any steamboat or other vessel, or in any vehicle of any kind, or in any building or place in any city, town or place, within the county, by any person named in said complaint, or by some person unknown, not authorized by law to sell the same, within the city, town or place where they are alleged to be so kept or deposited, and that said liquor is intended for sale within the State, in violation of law, said justice or judge, upon its appearing that there is probable cause to believe said complaint to be true, shall issue a warrant of search to any officer competent to serve such process, commanding him in the day time to search the premises designated in the complaint, and if any such liquor is found upon such search, to seize the same, with the vessels in which it is contained, and to keep the same until final action be had thereon, and to return the warrant with his doings thereon, as soon as may be, to the justice or judge that issued the same, or to some other justice or judge of police court, having jurisdiction in the place where such liquor is alleged to be kept or deposited. If the place to be searched be a dwelling house such warrant shall not be issued, unless the complaint is signed and sworn to by two persons, of full age, competent to testify, and resident within the county within which the complaint is made, and unless one of said complainants shall make oath or affirmation, that he has probable cause to believe, and does believe, that intoxicating liquor has been sold therein, or taken therefrom for the purpose of being sold by the occupant thereof, or by his consent, contrary to law, within the time of one month next before making such complaint, and is then kept therein for sale, contrary to law, and shall state the facts and circumstances on which such belief is founded, which facts and circumstances shall be sufficient in the judgment of the magistrate before whom complaint is made, to reasonably induce such belief; and in all cases the complaint shall specially designate the building, structure or place to be searched, the liquors to be seized, and the person by whom they are owned or kept, if known; and the warrant issued on said complaint shall allege that probable cause has been shown for the issuing thereof; and the place to be searched, the liquors to be seized, and the person named in the complaint as the owner or keeper thereof, if any such person be named therein, shall be set out in said warrant by special designation.

SEC. 11. Whenever any liquor shall have been seized upon any such warrant, the justice or court before whom it is returned, if the value of the liquor seized, with the vessels containing it, shall not exceed thirteen dollars and thirty-three cents, shall cause informal notice to be given to the owner or keeper thereof, if known, to appear at some time and place designated, which shall be within three days next following that on which such seizure was made, and show cause, if any he has why said liquor and the vessels containing it should not be forfeited. If at the time appointed for trial, no claimant shall appear, or if the owner or keeper of such liquor be not known, and such notice be not issued, such justice or court shall forthwith issue a written notice, to be signed by the said justice, or the judge or clerk of said police court, commanding the owner or keeper of the liquor seized, if known, and all other persons claiming any interest therein, or in the casks or vessels containing the same, to appear before the said justice or court, at a time and place to be therein named, to show cause, if any they have, why such liquor, with the vessels containing it, should not be forfeited. Said notice shall contain a description of the number and kind of vessels, and quantity and kind of liquor seized, as nearly as may be, and when and where they were so seized, and shall be served by some officer competent to serve such notice, upon the person of the owner or keeper thereof, if known, either by leaving an attested copy of the same with him personally, or at his usual place of abode, if he be a resident of the State, and shall also be served by posting up another attested copy of the same on the building in which the liquor was seized, if it was found in any building, or in some public place in the town or city where the liquor was seized, and also by publishing another attested copy of the same, at least twice, in some newspaper printed in the county where such seizure is made, if there be any such newspaper; and the posting up of said notice, and the serving the same on the owner or keeper of such liquor, and the first publication in said newspaper, shall be not less than fourteen days before the time appointed for the trial; and if, at the time of trial, said notice has not been duly served, or for other sufficient cause, the trial may be postponed till some other day and place, and a new notice issued to be served anew, so as to supply any defect in the service of the previous notice; and time and opportunity for trial and defence shall be given to persons interested.

SEC. 12 At the time and place appointed by the notice, any person or persons claiming an interest in the liquors and vessels seized, or any part thereof, may appear and make their claims respectively, and the justice or court shall keep a record of his or their appearance and claims, and he or they shall be admitted as a party or parties on the trial, and issues may be joined; and whether any person shall enter any claim or not, the justice or court shall thereupon proceed to try, hear and determine the allegations of said complaint, and whether said liquor and vessels, or any part thereof, be forfeited; and if, upon the evidence presented at the trial, it shall appear to the said justice or court, that the said liquor or any part thereof was, when the complaint was made, kept by any person with intent to sell the same, in violation of this act, the said justice or court shall render judgment that such and so much of the liquor so seized as was so unlawfully kept, and the vessels in which it is contained are forfeited to the county in which they were seized; and all such liquors so forfeited, shall, by the authority of the written order of said justice or court to that effect, with the vessels containing it, be delivered to any agent appointed for the sale of intoxicating liquors, within the county under the provisions of this act, to be sold by him, and the net proceeds paid over to the county treasurer; and any officer to whom such order is directed, shall make return thereon of his doings. But if any such liquors, in the opinion of said agent and the authorities appointing him, should be unfit for any of the purposes for which said agent is authorized to sell liquors under the provisions of this act, the said agents shall under the direction of said authorities, destroy the same. If no person shall appear and be admitted as a party as aforesaid, or if judgment be rendered in favor of all the claimants who appear, then the costs of the proceedings shall be paid from the county treasury, on the certificate of the court of common pleas. If any party shall appear as claimant for all the property seized, and judgment be rendered against him, he shall pay all the costs of the proceedings including the expense of seizing and keeping such property; and if any party shall appear as claimant for a part of the property seized, and judgment shall be rendered against him, he shall pay such equitable share of such costs as shall be adjudged by said justice or court; and for all such costs, executions shall be issued against the party or parties liable for the same, and if any such execution shall not be fortwith paid, the defendent therein named, shall be committed to the common jail, and shall not be discharged therefrom until he shall have paid such execution and the costs of his commitment, or until he shall have been imprisoned thirty days.

SEC. 13. If, upon the trial, it shall appear to the said justice or court, either in regard to all the liquor seized, or in regard to some part thereof, that it has not been proved that the same was kept or deposited, with intent to sell the same contrary to law, the said justice or court shall issue a written order to the officer having the same in custody, to return such and so much of the said liquor as has not been proved to be kept or deposited for sale contrary to law, with the vessels in which it is contained, to the place from which it was taken, as nearly as may be, or to deliver the same to the person entitled to receive it; and in case it shall appear that none of the liquors so seized were kept or deposited with intent to sell the same contrary to the provisions of this act, the claimant shall be allowed his costs, to be paid out of the county treasury.

SEC. 14. Any person claiming any intoxicating liquors seized as aforesaid, whose claims shall not be allowed under the provisions of the twelfth section of this act, shall have the right to appeal to the next court of common pleas holden in the county, upon giving security for the payment of costs that may be ultimately recovered against him; and in case of such appeal, any question of fact shall be tried by jury, and on the judgment of the court, after verdict, whether of forfeiture or otherwise, of the whole or any part of the liquor and vessels seized, the same proceedings substantially shall be had as are directed in the twelfth and thirteenth sections of this act.

SEC. 15. If the value of the liquor so seized, together with the vessels containing it, exceeds thirteen dollars and thirty-three cents, the justice or court before whom such warrant was made returnable shall issue a formal notice, in the same manner and form as directed in the eleventh section of the act, except that instead of making the same returnable before said justice or court he shall make the same returnable to the term of the court of common pleas, holden in the same county, next after the expiration of fourteen days from the time of issuing said notice, which notice shall be served in the manner directed in said eleventh section: and the court of common pleas before which such notice is made returnable, shall have jurisdiction of the case, and may issue new notices in the manner directed in said eleventh section, if necessary, and shall proceed to try the case by a jury and render judgment and issue orders in the manner directed in the twelfth and thirteenth sections as nearly as may be.

Sec. 16. If any justice of the peace or judge of the police court before whom any person shall have been held to answer before the court of common pleas for any violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall knowingly accept insufficient sureties in the recognizance taken for his appearance, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by an action of debt, to the use of the person who may first sue for the same in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 17. No clerk, servant or agent, in the employment of any person engaged in the traffic aforesaid, shall be excused from testifying against his principal, on the ground or for the reason that he may thereby criminate himself; but no testimony so given by him shall in any prosecution be used as evidence, either directly or indirectly, against said clerk, servant or agent, nor shall he thereafter be prosecuted for any offence so disclosed by him.

Sec 18 The delivery of intoxicating liquors, except as provided in this act, in or from any store, shop, warehouse, steamboat or other vessel, or any vehicle of any kind, or any shanty or tent, or any building or place used for purposes of traffic, or any dwelling-house or dependency thereof, if any part of the same be used as a public eating-house, grocery, or other place of common resort, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of a sale.

Sec. 19 In any proceeding against any person for a violation of any of the provisions of this act, other than the first offence, it shall not be requisite to set forth particularly the record of a former conviction, but it shall be sufficient to allege briefly that such person has been convicted of a violation of any particular provision of this act, as the case may be; and such allegation, in any civil or criminal process, in any stage of the proceedings, before final judgment, may be amended without terms and as a matter of right; and any process under this act, civil or criminal, legally amendable, may be amended, on motion, in any stage of the proceedings, at any time before final judgment.

Sec. 20. It shall be the duty of the mayor and aldermen of every city, and the selectmen of every town or place to prosecute, at the expense of such city, town or place, every person guilty of a violation of any of the previous provisions of this act, of which they can obtain reasonable proof; but nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any person from making complaint and instituting and carrying on prosecutions under this act, and police officers are hereby authorized to serve all warrants and notices issued under the provisions of this act

Sec 21 If the husband, wife, parent, child, brother, sister, or other near relative, guardian or employer of any person who has the habit of drinking intoxicating liquors to excess, shall give notice in writing, signed by him or her, to any person not to furnish any intoxicating liquors to the person who has such habit, if the person so notified shall furnish any intoxicating liquor, for a consideration or otherwise, to the person who has such habit, at any time within one year after such notice given, the person giving such notice may, in an action of tort, brought by him or her, recover of the person so notified, any sum not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, which may be assessed by the jury as damages; and any married woman may bring such action in her own name, notwithstanding her coverture, and all damages recovered by her shall go to her separate use.

Sec. 22. The court of common pleas for any county may order the proceeds arising from the sale of any liquor seized and forfeited under the provisions of this act, and which have been paid into the county treasury, or such part thereof as they shall see fit, to be paid over to such suitable person as said court may appoint, to be expended under the direction of said court, for the benefit of the wife or children of the owner thereof when seized, provided it shall appear to said court that such owner is poor and that his wife and children need the same.

Sec. 23. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the sale of spiritous or intoxicating liquors to agents appointed for the sale thereof under the provisions of this act, for the space of three months after this act shall go into effect; nor to prohibit the sale of such liquors by one such agent to another, to be sold under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 24. The 5th, 6th and 7th sections of chapter 123 of the Compiled Statutes and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed; but any person who has violated or who may, before this act takes effect, violate the said sixth section, may be prosecuted and punished as if this act had not been passed.

Sec 25 This act shall take effect and be in force in thirty days from and after its passage.

Apples.—Reports from all quarters indicate that the crop of apples the present year, will be very large. The Rochester Union says that they are to have the largest crop of apples ever gathered in Western New York. It also says:—"We need not expect to see Eastern men, and fruit speculators, buying the products of all the orchards about, long before the apples are ready to gather in the fall; they will not dare, invest this year, and if they do we need not fear that they will carry all away to distant markets."

Taur—The Journal of Commerce says "swimming is, to a certain extent, an art of faith; it is scarcely possible to acquire the art till you can place some confidence in the power of the water to support you."

NEW HAMPSHIRE LAW.

We publish to-day, for the information of all our citizens, An Act for the Suppression of Intemperance. This act passed both houses of our Legislature by very large majorities,—and is doubtless in accordance with the wishes of the great body of good citizens.

The New Hampshire Phenix, temperance organ, says it is "A bill which, though not just what we should like, probably embodies the sentiments of a majority of the people at the present time, and will go far towards putting a stop to the traffic in intoxicating drinks. We think it is emphatically a good law."

It is the mildest liquor law in New England; and so far as we can judge, as little liable to objection as any.

It begins by allowing the sale of pure domestic wine and cider in any quantity, but not to be drank on the premises where sold. And also allowing importers, but no others, to sell original packages of foreign liquor.

Sellers are fined $50 for the first illegal sale; $50 for the second, with 30 days in jail; $100 for the third, with 90 days in jail, and costs in every case. Common sellers are fined $50 for the first offence, with thirty days in jail; $100 for the second, with from three to six months in jail, &c.

Cities and towns must establish agencies, not exceeding three in each, for purchase and sale of liquors, for medicinal, mechanical, chemical and sacramental purposes. [The latter had better been placed on the Domestic Wine Platform.]

Trial by jury is well secured, and the search and seizure clauses well guarded against abuse.

In case of seizure, where the defendant prevails, he is to receive costs from the county. Liquors are confiscated; if good, sold by the agent; if bad, destroyed.

The provisions for taking up drunkards, and defining evidence, are easily understood and applied.

The act is to take effect in 30 days from July 14; and will, we presume, be executed faithfully.

Law is—Law.—In Friday Morning's Chronicle we published a decision by the Recorder in New York City, in which he discharged a liquor complaint, on the ground that imported liquors of all sorts might be sold in any quantity, as the new law did not apply to them.

Per contra,—On Wednesday, in Brooklyn the proprietors of Toynbee's Hotel were tried before Judge Smith for selling liquors. It was a test question, submitted to by the defendants by previous arrangement with the Mayor. The defendants were convicted of a misdemeanor and fined $50, and the seized liquors declared forfeited.

In Buffalo, on the same day, the Court of Sessions held that imported liquors cannot be sold after the original package is broken.

We might fill a paper with such contradictory ruling.

The new law, in New Hampshire, appears to be plain and simple, compared with most others.

Proposal.—The New York City Temperance Alliance has proposed to Coleman & Stetson of the Astor House to acknowledge the sale of liquor, waive a jury trial, and to go before the Supreme Court and test the constitutionality of the prohibitory law. Coleman & Stetson state in reply that they are acting under the advice of eminent jurists, who believe the law which authorizes the destruction of their property to be unconstitutional, and although confiding in the justice of the bench, they do not feel called upon to depart from the course already adopted.—Boston Courier.

The "Alliance" must be exceedingly green to expect or even ask such a thing. Coleman & Stetson are advised by their lawyers that there are at least half a dozen small holes out of which a shrewd lawyer will try to let them escape—and if these small holes all prove too small, then the great Constitutional Hole may be tried at last.

This process will take a year perhaps,—and all this time they are staving off the operation of the law.

Peter Brown, the Murderer.—Peter Brown, the sailor who murdered his wife in North street, Boston, on Tuesday night, is not a Swede by birth. He was born in Ireland, his mother being Irish and his father a Swede. He lived in Sweden for a few years, but obtained scarcely a smattering of the language. There is not at the present time a single Swede, either in the Boston Jail, House of Correction, or State Prison, nor has there been for some time past—a fact which speaks well for the morality of this industrious class of our foreign population.

The Coroner's jury find a verdict of wilful murder against Brown.

The Newburyport Herald states that some 5000 volumes have been obtained for the new City Library, in that city, and 3000 more are to be added thereto. It is expected that the books will be prepared for public use by the 1st of October.

LOCAL.

Bring Flowers.—The time was when Portsmouth could boast of her Horticultural Exhibitions, at which excellent specimens of flowers, fruit and vegetables were often displayed. But of late years these pleasant exhibitions have been discontinued,—for what reason we know not. Cannot we have one this year? Let only the right spirits engage in the matter and the thing is done. Who will take an interest in it and grant us such a display as shall still retain that honor and praise which were once justly given to the well-cultivated farms and gardens in and around our city! For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors:—In the Chronicle a few days since there appeared a Charade, which was answered on Saturday,—or rather some writer gave what he supposed was the true answer. But actually we were surprised to see that you permitted this to go into your paper. Does the writer of that answer wish us to believe that the account of Noah's ark is all "humbug?" For so we must understand him if we consider the last line of the original charade—"my whole was caged in Noah's ark." And we grieved also to find that you endorsed the whole by saying that you "could not afford to lose it."

We care the more, thinking that it does not go forth as the opinion of the person who wrote it (for he is anonymous) but as that of yourselves. It is to be supposed that it was seen by the editors before it appeared, especially as some remarks were made under it and you declared that as "it came so near the mark and was so good besides, that you could not afford to lose it." We will charitably think that you must have forgotten that last line or you would not have permitted us to see the latter piece.

Hoping that we have misjudged the motive of "Humbug" we would affectionately advise him to be more careful in future and not suffer the impression to go forth that any one in this enlightened age and among this refined people considers the Bible's account of Noah's ark to be all "humbug." Quis.

Tracking a Rascal.—The Lowell Courier gives the following account of the arrest in that city of a burglar, and the discovery of the place where he concealed his stolen goods:—

Yesterday a man named George B. Sanborn, went into the jewelry store of Mr. Amos Sanborn, and offered to sell a large lot of silver ware for old metal; a considerable part of the lot consisted of forks, spoons, &c., of different marks. Mr. Sanborn instead of making a profitable bargain and melting down the ware without question, as too many have done in like cases, with commendable promptness and skill introduced deputy sheriff E. L. Shed, who, with the aid of officer Fuller, arrested the man, and on searching him found various counterfeit bills and a receipt from Oliver Ditson for rent of a piano.

This receipt was the only clue, but Mr. Shed securing his prisoner here, went to Boston and with the Boston officers found the cartman who had delivered the piano, and through him found the house in East Boston at which it had been left; there it was found that the prisoner had removed to 10 Nashua St. in the main city.

At that place, his wife, a very prepossessing woman, was found; the premises being searched the officers found an immense assortment of stolen articles, and have as our readers know, got the rascal safe in prison.

Portland Gas Co.—The following are the directors chosen at the annual meeting held on the 18th:

Charles Jones, Neal Dow, Thomas Cummings, Charles Holden, Lemuel Cobb.—Portland Argus.

The Gas Co. must be insane, to put a mum—no, a mans—no, we don't know what—on their list of directors. Are they not afraid their gas works will be blown up by a dispensation, for such wickedness?

Laconia.—This is the name by which that portion of the town of Meredith near the Bridge is hereafter to be known. The act was passed between the time when the outside and the inside of the N. H. Democrat was printed, so the outside was printed in Meredith and the inside in Laconia.

Mr Andrew Haymaker of Charleston, Va., who has been blind in one eye for 51 years, in consequence of a film growing over it, was suddenly restored to sight a few weeks since in the following manner:—He was standing on the steps of the Court House, in that village, while a number of men and boys were playing ball. The ball, projected with great force, struck him in the blind eye, completely removing the film, and restoring sight. Considerable inflamation followed, but it is now getting better, and the sight is good.

Sir John Bowring had also negotiated a very advantageous commercial treaty with the same government.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pills have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchits, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge he bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

COUNTERFEITER ARRESTED.—For some weeks past, mutilated $5 bills of the Claremont Bank have been in circulation in this vicinity. On Friday last, two or three were returned to the Bank, when it was discovered that a fraud had been practiced upon the institution, by tearing up several bills and then pasting them together so as to increase their number. The bills that we have seen were just one seventh short, so it appears that the rogue had made seven bills out of six. Suspicion rested upon a young laboring man named Herman Bell, and he was finally arrested by Deputy Sheriff Blodgett, when in the act of trying to conceal the evidence of his guilt. He was not quite soon enough, and after finding that he was like most rogues, very unwise in his operations, he confessed all, and tried to settle the matter with the officer. He was taken before T. J. Harris, Esq., who after hearing his story, bound him over for appearance at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas, in the sum of $300, and for want of sureties he was committed to Newport jail. Bell commenced his operations in this line sometime in April, and was instigated thereto by an account which he read in the Eagle, of the manner in which some notorious counterfeiter altered bills so as to make eleven out of ten, in a similar way. If he had been content to multiply at this rate, he would probably not have been detected so soon. But he was too craving for large profits, and too bungling in his attempts to obtain them. He kept a careful account of his operations, which he showed the officer who arrested him. He had cut up about $300 worth of bills on Claremont Bank, mostly fives, and some on Sugar River, Connecticut River, Windsor, and Springfield, Vt., Banks. The Claremont Bank will redeem all these bills at their true value. Bell is about twenty-five years old, single, and is a native of Plainfield. This will give him a somewhat protracted residence at the capital.—Claremont Eagle.

HORRIBLE.—The burning of the house of James Thompson, of Brant, Erie county, N. Y., with himself and six persons, has been mentioned by telegraph. The house was fired at midnight, with twelve persons in it. Two sons of Mr. T., sleeping in the upper part of the house, awakened under feeling of suffocation created by heat and smoke, and hastened to make their escape from the flames which were crackling around them, and in doing so, fell down the stairway, thereby waking Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who were sleeping below. They escaped, taking with them a little boy aged about five years. Two sons also made their escape. The entire building was soon enveloped in flames, and Mr. T., prompted by a father's devotion, returned to the burning premises to save his daughters and grand-children. He was not seen again until his charred remains were found within three feet of the door at which he entered.—Three daughters, aged twenty-eight, thirteen and eleven years, were consumed, as were also two grand-children, aged four and two years. These were the children of the eldest daughter, and their father is suspected of the crime of setting fire to the house which contained his wife and children.

WASHINGTON, July 20th.—Judge Gilchrist, of the Court of Claims, is prostrated by diarrhœa, and his court is closed in consequence to day.

Gen. Echinique, ex-President of Peru, arrived here to-day.

CUSTOM HOUSE ACCOUCHEUR.—Madame Augustine R——, a pretty blonde of from 20 to 25 years, embarked lately from Calais to Dover. Her invalid appearance excited the interest of the passengers, who felt great anxiety lest sea-sickness should bring on a crisis which evidently could not long be deferred. She crossed the Straits, however, safely, and upon landing was placed in an arm chair, and salts were held to her nose, while an occasional groan went to the hearts of all her travelling companions. On the wharf, a custom house officer observed the disembarkation, and seemed to feel a warm interest in the pretty French woman. He approached and offered his assistance, informing her that he had some knowledge of medicine, and, though the lady assured him that she felt better, and begged to be carried immediately to a hotel, he protested that it could not be done without danger, and by his philanthropic authority she was taken to an apartment of the custom house officer, and a midwife sent for. As the officer had foreseen, after begging to be released for a quarter of an hour, she was safely delivered of two pelerines, fifteen scarfs, seventeen pieces of lace, twelve pairs of silk stockings, thirty eight pieces of cotton, six reticules, and forty eight Lyons handkerchiefs. The mother and child are doing well.—English paper.

RECEIPE FOR AN ECONOMICAL PLUM PUDDING.—Preserve and try it. Thoroughly mix one pint of milk with one pound of flour and one pound of raisins, then add six ounces of sugar, six ounces of suet, one teaspoonful of saleratus, flavor with nutmeg; (the extract of nutmeg is best for this purpose.) After they are thoroughly incorporated together, put the compound in a quart bowl, tie a cloth over the top, and put the whole in boiling water, and boil three hours. A Sauce flavored with Extract of Vanilla is preferable.

ICE CREAM.—In a very clean brass kettle put two quarts of sweet milk, and one pound of powdered sugar. Stir them well until dissolved; then put it over the fire until it attains a boiling heat, when the kettle should be removed from the fire. Now add eight good eggs, being careful first that they are sweet, and very thoroughly beaten; stir the mass well together until it is well compounded; and then, while hot, pass the whole through a fine hair seive. Now add two quarts of sweet cream, and flavor with any Extract. Vanilla, Lemon, Raspberry, and Pineapple are generally preferred; and of these, only one should be used. The quantity added must be according to taste. To the ice used for freezing, one quarter in quantity of salt should be added.

A boarding school miss, deeming "eat" a word too vulgar for refined ears, defines it thus: "To insert nutritious pabulum into the denticulated orifice below the nasal protuberance, which, being masticated, peregrinates through the cartilaginous cavities of the larynx, and is finally domiciliated in the receptacle for digestible particles."

THE Proprietor of the above House respectfully announces to the pleasure seeking public that he will open for the season on WEDNESDAY, June 20th.

To those familiar with the locality of the Sagamore House, not a word is necessary in regard to its beautiful and healthful situation.—To strangers seeking rest and recreation by the seaside it affords attractions unequalled. Situated on a point of land on the Atlantic shore, near the Harbor of Portsmouth, the windows on three sides overlook the salt water. From the beach, the broad Atlantic, the Isles of Shoals, the beautiful Piscataqua, and the City of Portsmouth form a charming prospect, and in the background the green fields and leafy woods present a relieving contrast.

The House will be kept in the best manner, and every endeavor will be used to give satisfaction to its guests. The more effectually to do this, the proprietor has secured the services of Mr. JOHN MOCK, formerly of the Stockingham House, Portsmouth, whose experience and skill in hotel keeping will be a sufficient guarantee to all who know him that the management will be all that could be desired. The Table will be supplied with all the seasonable luxuries of the sea and land, and every effort used to render a sojourn at the Sagamore agreeable.

A Coach, in charge of an experienced driver, will run between the Sagamore House and the City of Portsmouth, leaving the Hotel at 8½ A.M. and 5½ P.M. Returning, leaves Portsmouth at 10½ A.M. and 7½ P.M., or on arrival of cars from Boston and Concord. Fare 25 cents. All orders left at WM. E. PRESTON'S, in Portsmouth, will receive prompt attention

Yacht Sea Ranger,
FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will accompany any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire a safe conveyance thither; and when the beauty of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.

Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint.

THIS extraordinary substance has now been tested nearly nine years, and its Fire and Water Proof qualities are most extraordinary. Instead of the action of the weather destroying the coating as it does ordinary Paints, it only serves to turn it to a perfect Slate or Stone, protecting whatever covered from the action of Fire or Weather.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

April Term, U. S. Court, New York.

Wm Blake, vs. E. S & J. G. Reiknap.—This was an action brought by the Piff. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate, granted 28th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Piff; thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to set aside the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 15th of June, 1853, for $1,029 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been sustained by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article.—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is inscalculable

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such tolerable and not to be endured tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

WHAT LAWS CANNOT DO.

Not long since we met with the following questions and remarks in the Eastern Argus:

"When will reformers become wise, and favor the enactment of reasonable laws, such as will be obeyed or can be enforced?

When they can point to a single person reformed or made better by compulsion, they will have an argument which we have never yet met with, for that mode, but which are thick and strong in favor of the Washingtonian doctrine of moral instead of legal power."

There is some reason in the question, and some truth in the remark—yet in both there is a mixture of fallacy, which, to many minds is more palatable than the truth, and more convincing than the reason,—chiefly because their habits of thought and life render them unable to discuss any moral or legal question on its own merits, without mixing some foreign matter with it. We now propose a brief and simple analysis of one moral principle, and of the laws made to protect that principle, or to prevent its violation. We take one which is the most easily understood, viz., the principle, or moral virtue, of Honesty.

The scriptural or divine law to protect this principle is, simply, Thou shalt not steal.—No particular penalty is affixed in that passage; but in the Mosaic laws, for Israel, there are a variety of penalties for stealing. These penal laws of Moses are the foundation for our penal statutes against theft, and against all sorts of dishonesty about property.

Now we ask, following the language of the Argus above quoted, "Can we point to a single person reformed or made better by" the penal laws against theft? The writer of the question will perceive, that a simple no or yes, will not answer this question to his own satisfaction!—because the question really conveys two meanings, and therefore demands two answers.

A man steals $5000 from my possession; and he goes to the State Prison for 10 years, on compulsion. Does this compulsion reform or make him any better? The Argus would say No; and we suppose in very many cases we must admit it to be so. Let us admit that it does not make him honest in the least degree, nor even make him afraid to steal; but he steals again, goes into the State Prison and dies there.

Do we therefore repeal the law, because it is not observed by him, and did not make him honest? Not at all. We keep it up, as a terror to evil doers,—to make other men afraid to do the like, lest they suffer the like punishment. Well, some men, who would steal if they dared, are afraid, and so do not steal; thus our property, we think, is safer than if we had no penalty for theft.

Now, does this law make these latter men honest? Not at all: they are just as good as the rat who longs for the cheese but fears the trap,—and no better.

What the law does here, is the prevention of a positive evil in one case, by the infliction of a penalty in another. And this is all that a human statute can do in the premises. It does not, and it cannot, create or implant a principle of moral honesty in any man—but it doubtless prevents many overt acts of theft, and so makes our part of the world a better place to live in.

Let us come now to moral power, or the Washingtonian doctrine, as the Argus terms it. The world has a maxim, that "honesty is the best policy,"—by which people commonly mean no more than, it is most politic to appear honest. This is the lowest kind of morality. A higher kind of morality is that which induces some men, whom we know and honor, to do right, and to act honorably, in pecuniary matters, because they love honesty. Now, the law does not make these men honest,—when they pay or give, they do not feel the law against theft, nor think of it,—but shall we therefore repeal it?

The Argus will say, No: we need this law for dishonest men.

Apply the same thing to the principle of Truth. We put a man in the State Prison to punish him for Perjury. Does that make him love the truth? Does it make any body love it? The Argus will say No. Shall we therefore repeal the law against Perjury? Again the Argus will say No. But there are other men whose word every body believes, because they are known to be men of truth, and their characters in this regard are fully established. These men do not feel the law against perjury—they do not fear it. In one sense it does them no good. It does not make them tell the truth. Shall it therefore be repealed? No. Why not? Because the fear of the State Prison may prevent some rascal from telling lies in Court.

Human Laws cannot create Moral Principle—but they can punish overt acts, and abate positive nuisances.

EFFECT OF THE STUDY OF ART ON LADIES.—Mr. Chadwick, speaking of the female school teachers of the Government School of Art, in his last pamphlet, says:—"The females have so far advanced in mental power and influence as to have been lost to the service by matrimonial engagements obtained with exceeding rapidity. To avoid these losses, plainer candidates were elected for training, but they, too, have obtained preference as wives to a perplexing extent."

THREE SLAVES FORCIBLY LIBERATED.—Mr. J. H. Wheeler of North Carolina, American Minister to Nicaragua, arrived at Philadelphia on Thursday with three slaves, a mother and two sons, who were to proceed with him to Nicaragua, where Mrs. Wheeler is residing. He was on board the steamer for New York, with the slaves, when a crowd of negroes, headed by a white man named Passmore Williamson, came on board, seized the slaves, threatened to cut Mr. Wheeler's throat, and dragged them off, in spite of their entreaties and cries. They were pushed up the street, and taken into a cab and driven away. The testimony of a policeman, who refused to interfere after he had been told they were slaves, was, that all of them were crying, and were pushed forcibly by the negro mob. Williamson was brought before Judge Kane of the U. S. District Court on Tuesday. He was held to bail in $5000 for perjury and contempt, in denying that he had the slaves in his custody.—Boston Courier.

We take the above account of the matter, partly because is is one of the shortest, but chiefly because it is the strongest statement we have seen against the abolitionists, black and white. It is the same affair noticed in a silly telegraphic despatch from Philadelphia, about kidnapping, which we published on Monday morning.

The report of the examination before Judge Kane, has come along; we have read it carefully, especially the testimony of Wheeler, the claimant of the slaves.

It is quite clear from his statement, that the brought the slaves into a free state, and that they are therefore free.

It is probable that he or the state of Pennsylvania may have an action against two or three negroes for threats or assault.

It is not probable he will see the slaves again very soon.

This action, or that of the U. S. against Williamson, is not worth a straw. Williamson, is an intelligent Quaker; he has broken no law; and has plenty of friends and troops of friends to defend his rights in court.

Wheeler's own testimony does not charge Williamson with any act approaching to illegality—but shows his keen sense of a slaveholder's legal rights to carry and hold slaves in Philadelphia or any where he pleases.

This, however is not law—and on this point the case will break down.

The account in the Philadelphia Bulletin says that the slaves were unwilling to go to their master when they learned that it was in their power to leave, and states that no violence was used.

The Philadelphia Ledger says that a colored man informed the woman Jane, of her rights and those of her two boys, Daniel and Isaiah, in a free state.

The woman stated that she did not know she was free, and expressed a desire to be at liberty. The Virginian then said that she could do as she pleased; if she wished to leave him she could go ashore. He then reminded her of the three children in Virginia, and asked her if she wished to be separated from them? 'No, massa,' was the reply, 'but I wants to be free.' The slaves were then seized by the negroes present and hurried ashore. This proceeding was, however, not accomplished without a scuffle.

The Virginian seized the colored man who had first accosted the woman, and also collared a well-known citizen and prominent abolitionist, who had taken an active part in the matter. The latter threw off the slave owner, who demanded of him whether "he would be responsible for those people." The Philadelphian replied: "I will be responsible for every shadow of legal claim you have upon them," and handed him his card.

The case was postponed for a week.

PHILLIPS ACADEMY, ANDOVER, MASS.—A student, Mr. Charles Walker Pickering of Greenland, N. H., has sent us the Catalogue of this Academy for the year 1854-55. The Institution is in a flourishing condition. In the Classical department, the senior class numbers 53; middle 74, junior 95; total, 222. English Department, 174. Grand total, 396. There are five teachers.

IS LAGER BIER AN INTOXICATING DRINK? At the late trial of Philip Birbeck, of Poughkeepsie, for violating the new liquor law in the selling of intoxicating liquor, to wit: lager bier, the defence put in the plea that this bier is not intoxicating; and among the witnesses brought forward to prove it, there was one Christian Clause, who testified as a saving clause, that lager bier was not intoxicating, for said he, "I drank sixty glasses in one day. The glasses I drank held a pint each, and I swear I drank sixty glasses in one day, in the space of twelve hours, and felt no effects from it."—N. Y. Herald.

We should think that for a Christian, the above is both hard swearing and drinking.

SPIRITUALISM AMONG NEGROES.—The Petersburg Express records a case occurring in that city on Thursday, of a negro man, who several weeks ago thought he received a communication from his father, who is dead, to come to him. On Thursday night he got up, saying he was going to his father, and after walking about the streets some time, laid down, saying, "Father, I'm thar." A woman who had been watching him, went up and found him dead.—Richmond (Va.) Enq.

Health and beauty are promoted by physical exercise in the open air.

THE CROPS.—I [illegible] in riding through the towns of Rochester, Farmington, Strafford and Barrington, a few days since, we made casual inquiry as to the prospects of the crops for the coming season, and learned, that as a general thing the appearance was good. Of hay, the crop in the [illegible] section will be light. Owing to the latter [illegible] of the spring, and the dry weather in May, the grass did not get a good start until late, but from the recent good weather has received an impetus which will cause it to recover to some extent what it lost earlier in the season. Mowing has not been commenced generally, though the farmers are making preparations to cut from the high ground. The hot weather of July will ripen the grass, and cause a necessity for mowing, before the thick undergrowth reaches a height to affect the quantity to any great amount.

Corn looks finely—coming up rank and fast. Some fields are in spindle. Should the frost hold off, the prospect is good for a large crop.

Potatoes promise well, and as yet show no sign of rot. We saw some large and promising fields in full blossom. We have not seen so many potato blossoms for forty years. The farmers have great hopes of this excellent the coming season.

Notwithstanding the late and dry spring, the appearance of the country round about us, is fine; and the reports from the West are so favorable, that we cannot but believe that the supply of breadstuffs will be large. From these considerations, it may reasonably be expected that the fall in prices which has already commenced, will continue; and that the staff of life will be sold at a more reasonable price than has been the case for a year or two past. It is, however, not reasonable to expect breadstuffs to be so low this year as in some former years. But that there will be enough for all, an abundant supply, can hardly be doubted.

IRON PASSENGER CAR.—A very handsome iron passenger car has been placed on the Sixth Avenue Railroad, in New York city. The Evening Post says:

It is the invention of Dr. B. J. La Mothe, a French resident of this city. The car is somewhat in the shape of a coach-body, with an entrance for passengers at either end.

It is made of hoop-iron, banded together like lattice work, and weighs about 3500 lbs. It is considerably lighter than the ordinary wooden car, and is easily drawn by two horses. There is no rattling noise to be heard from the windows, as they are securely fastened, and the car runs along very smoothly. The cost of this car, being the first of the inventor's efforts, has been about $1500. It was built at the New York Locomotive Works in Jersey City. Dr. La Mothe, however, says that as soon as he can get his plans fairly in operation, these cars, for city railroads, can be built for from seven hundred to a thousand dollars each.

INSTALLATIONS.—Rev. John Haven was installed pastor of the Congregational Church and Society of Charlton, Mass., on the 12th inst.

Rev. U. W. Condit, late of Lynnfield Centre, Mass., was installed over the Congregational Church at Deerfield, N. H., on the 10th inst.

SLAVE CASE IN ARKANSAS.—The Van Buren Intelligencer says that it has recently been decided by Judge Ringo, of that State, that slaves are not recognized as property by the laws of the United States. The case upon which his decision is based, is briefly thus:

"Two negroes had been convicted of larceny in forcibly rescuing and taking away a slave woman from two gentlemen in the Creek nation. A motion was made by counsel for the accused in arrest of judgement, on the ground that slaves were not known to the United States laws as property, which motion was sustained by the judge, and consequently the two negroes were turned loose.

Another negro, indicted in the same case, was also turned loose, a nolle prosequi being entered in this case after the decision of the judge had been given.

The Intelligencer says that this decision "is undoubtedly law, but it is a bad state of affairs for those owning slaves in the Indian country, because there is no law to prevent the stealing of all the negroes in the Indian section, if men are disposed to do so."

A YOUNG MAN SAWN IN TWO.—At Dunham, on Friday last, at E. O. Brigham's sawmills, a young man, named John Spooner, was sawn in two by a circular saw. The saw was going very fast and is about two feet in diameter. The young man was stooping to pick something up, and fell on the carriage moving towards the saw. Before he had time to recover himself, the saw caught him and cut him in two instantly.—Montreal Transcript.

A MAN OF SORROWS.—It will be remembered that at the time of the great fire in South Boston some weeks since, among the sufferers was Mr. James S. Burton, proprietor of the rope walk, who was left penniless. A strong sympathy was felt for him by the citizens of South Boston, and a purse of $500 was raised for his benefit. Thursday night, Mr. Burton met with a still more severe loss in the sudden death of his wife, leaving him eight motherless children, the eldest about 16 years of age.—Boston Mail.

LOCAL.

A SMASH UP.—The freight train on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad on Monday morning, was run off the track about two miles above New Market Junction. A stick of cord wood fell from a platform car, on a descending grade, and the wheels, as they passed over acquired such a wrong direction and irregular action as to get off the track and tear it to pieces for a number of rods; the coupling broke, and the engine did not run off; but the train landed in the fields, and the wood landed any where. The passenger car was in the rear, and the passengers, 10 in number, including two ladies, were not injured. Several of the cars were broken in pieces. The through passengers came to the city on the engine. The trains run regularly as usual.

DR. BOYNTON'S LECTURES.—It will be seen by the advertisement in another column, that this distinguished lecturer commences his course upon Geology in this city on next Thursday Evening. This bare announcement will secure the attendance of many who heard him two years since, and those who did not, are assured that rarely if ever has any lecturer in Portsmouth so instructed and delighted his hearers, as Dr. Boynton. The course tickets are placed at so low a figure, that all who desire can attend.

A NEGRO'S EXCUSE FOR STEALING.—I conclude this long rambling letter with an amusing instance I heard in Virginia of an excuse made by a negro for stealing.

"Tom," said Dick, "you've been stealing massa's turkey."

'Taint no such a thing; who say I tuk massa's turkey."

"I say so," said Dick, "for I seed you go into de turkey-house and come out with de turkey head sticking out of the bag."

"Oh, well," replied Tom, "if you did see sure enuff, Dick, den I did take it, and if you won't say nothing 'bout it, I'll give you the drum stick, dat's all dat's left."

Dick made no promise, but the master, who overheard the conversation, soon had the delinquent Tom before him.

"Tom," said he, "I've just heard you confess having stolen my turkey."

"Well, massa, says Tom, "since I'se cotched, I'll jest own I tuk it; I wan't going to deny it, no how."

'Now, Tom, you know I don't allow stealing on my land, and I must punish you for this.'

'Pray, massa, don't let the overseer flog me; for massa, (a new thought seeming to strike him;) you hain't lost nothin if I did steal dat turkey.

'Why, you rascal, did'nt you admit you had stolen and eaten it?'

'Dat's true, massa, said Tom, yet still you haint lost nothing.'

'How's that,' said his master.

'Well, you see, massa, I tuk de turkey, and I done eat it up. When I tuk de turkey and eat it, it got to be part of me—it went into me and made me more nigger for you, massa. So you see what you lost in turkey, you made up in nigger.'

Tom was excused for his wit. M.

PARTY PREJUDICE.—A good anecdote is told of a countryman from New York who was visiting Washington at the time Mr. Van Buren was Vice President. Our friend was a red hot Democrat, and of course held Mr. Van Buren in the highest reverence. He sat in the circular gallery of the Senate, gazing at the Vice President with a mingled feeling of awe and state pride, when suddenly a tall and majestic form appeared at the side of the hall and beckoned to Mr. Van Buren. There was little business doing, and the Vice President, calling a Senator to the chair, joined the person mentioned, when both seated themselves on a sofa, both snuffed from the same box, the hand of the Vice President was laid playfully upon the knee of his companion, and every now and then a hearty laugh would escape them, showing that whatever might be the topic they were discussing, it was one which was agreeable to both of them.

'Is that Mr. Calhoun with the Vice President?' asked our country friend, turning to a person near him.

'No sir.'

'Is it Mr. Benton?'

'No sir.'

'Is it Gen. Wall?'

'No sir.'

'May I ask who it is?'

'Why, that is Mr. Clay.'

'Mr. Clay!' almost shrieked the man; 'and does Mr. Van Buren speak to him! Not me if ever I vote for him again!' and the countryman stalked from the hall, firmly believing the country was lost.

THE MUCH-TALKED-OF ILLUMINATION.—A friend in Baltimore writing to us, en passant, "The papers, I notice, are making quite a breeze over the pretended illumination of the residence of Mr. Winans, in token of his joy in defeat of the allies. Now, I happen to be acquainted with the fact that Mrs. Winans, who is of French extraction, gave out an invitation for a party, previous to the receipt of the news of the disastrous defeat of the allies, and the display of variegated lamps in the garden was for the purpose of allowing her guests to enjoy a promenade through the conservatory and walks connected with her splendid mansion. Some officious telegraph operator, lacking an item, gave a false interpretation to the display, and sent the idea abroad, which has called forth in some quarters very severe comment upon the propriety of such a display." We are happy to be able to make public this explanation.—Boston Jour.

The Albany (N. Y.) Knickerbocker says "They have just opened a public reading-room in Schenectady, N. Y. The contents consist of two almanacs and an old dictionary. The Mayor thinks it will have a tendency to check immorality in the young."

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchits, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding testimonies of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

B. P. ROBERTS.

New Market, July 21, 1855. 1w*

New York, 20th.—A violent tornado, accompanied with rain and vivid lightning, swept over the city last evening, doing considerable damage. During the storm, the roofs of several of the bonded warehouses at the Atlantic Docks, were blown off, and some damage done to the shipping there, including the ships St. Lawrence and Brewer, and the barque Mary Elizabeth. The boiler and machine shop of Henry Elsler & Co., was blown down; a large candle factory was also prostrated. Several stores on Commercial wharf near the docks were unroofed. The Palmie Oil Works, a large new building at Red Hook, owned by Gwine & Co., was struck by lightning, which tore the roof off, and soon afterwards the whole building was prostrated. This building was erected upon the ruins of one demolished by the tornado in April, 1853, and was a costly structure. The Composite Oil Works on the same premises, and belonging to the same proprietors, were also badly damaged.

Syracuse, N. Y., July 20th.—Railroad Accident.—The night express train going West ran off the track last night, here, owing to the displacement of the rails by some miscreants. Many persons were injured, but none very seriously. Mr. Dyer, of Springfield, Mass., had his shoulder broken. Mr. Harrison's (engineer) arm was broken. The conductor, Mr. Stearns's, head was badly cut. A reward of $5000 has been offered for the apprehension and conviction of the perpetrators of the outrage. The trains are running as usual.

Albany, July 21st.—The case involving the question of the unconstitutionality of the prohibitory liquor law, between the people and Wm. Landon, proprietor of the City Hotel, which has created such great interest in this city, terminated this evening. The jury promptly returned a verdict of not guilty.—The verdict was received with general acclamation by the immense auditory who were at the City Hall, and is the subject of congratulation among the business classes of our citizens.

Another Death.—On Sunday, says the Providence Tribune, a man named Spencer Kinney, belonging to Griswold, bought liquor of some one in the neighborhood of Thomas T. Hazards, who keeps just over the line in Rhode Island. Returning home, he went into the river to bathe, while in the state of intoxication, and was drowned. Kinney was 34 years of age, and leaves a wife and children.

Drowned.—On Tuesday P. M., Timothy Cronin, one of the carriers of the Lowell Advertiser, was drowned in Concord river, near Whipple's Mills, in Lowell; he went in for water lillies, but getting stuck in the mud, was unable to pull himself out, but continued sinking until he drowned.

New Orleans, 19th.—The Verandah Hotel was destroyed by fire last night. Loss about $100,000; insurance $95,000.

Cotton is easier, but not quotably lower. Flour is considerably lower.

Oswego, July 20th.—The Steamer America ran into the schooner Emblem of Genesee river, to-day; the latter was cut in two, and five persons on board were drowned. The steamer was not injured.

Cincinnati, 19th.—Gov. Medill has ordered the restoration of the arms taken from the Sarsfield Guards by Gen. Sargent. The Governor has also appointed George E. Pugh Major General of the Division to which Gen. Sargent is attached. This appointment gives great satisfaction to the Foreign Legion.

The Regatta at Springfield.—On Saturday afternoon, a large concourse of people assembled on the river bank to witness the boat race between the rival clubs of Harvard and Yale. Four boats were entered for the prize, viz:—The Iris, eight, and the Y.Y. four oars, from Harvard. The Nereid and Nautilus, each six oars from Yale. There was also present the Undine, four oars from Harvard, but she did not engage in the trial. The distance to be rowed was fixed at three miles, starting from opposite the foot of State street, and going down the stream a mile and a half, rounding a stake boat there, and returning to the place of starting. The time of starting was 4h 34m 33s. The Iris came back at 4h 56m 31s., having accomplished the three miles in 22 minutes. The Y. Y. was second behind the Iris. The Nereid two minutes behind the Y. Y., and the Nautilus one minute behind the Nereid. Under the allowance rule, the two Yale boats of six oars each, gave twenty-two seconds to the Y. Y. of four; the Iris of eight oars gave twenty-two seconds to its associate, the Y. Y., that being eleven seconds per oar. The Iris was declared victor by three seconds. The prize purchased by the citizens of Springfield for the boats of the winning college, is a beautiful set of silk flags—a Pennant, Union Jack, and the U. S. flag. A great deal of enthusiasm was manifested by the spectators, of whom there were several thousand present, and when the result was announced, loud cheers were given for Harvard, in which the Yale boys joined heartily.

SAGAMORE HOUSE,
FROST'S POINT, 8½ miles from Postsm. Depots.

THE Proprietor of the above House respectfully announces to the pleasure seeking public that he will open for the season on Wednesday, June 20th.

To those familiar with the locality of the Sagamore House, not a word is necessary in regard to its beautiful and healthful situation.—To strangers seeking rest and recreation by the seaside it affords attractions unequalled. Situated on a point of land on the Atlantic shore, near the Harbor of Portsmouth, the windows on three sides overlook the salt water. From the beach, the broad Atlantic, the Isles of Shoals, the beautiful Piscataqua, and the City of Portsmouth form a charming prospect, and in the background the green fields and leafy woods present a relieving contrast.

The House will be kept in the best manner, and every endeavor will be used to give satisfaction to its guests. The more effectually to do this, the proprietor has secured the services of Mr. John Mack, formerly of the Rockingham House, Portsmouth, whose experience and skill in hotel keeping will be a sufficient guarantee to all who know him that the management will be all that could be desired. The Table will be supplied with all the seasonable luxuries of the sea and land, and every effort used to render a sojourn at the Sagamore agreeable.

A Coach, in charge of an experienced driver, will run between the Sagamore House and the City of Portsmouth, leaving the Hotel at 8½ A.M. and 5½ P.M. Returning, leaves Portsmouth at 10½ A.M. and 7½ P.M., or on arrival of cars from Boston and Concord. Fare 25 cents. All orders left at Wm. R. Preston's, in Portsmouth, will receive prompt attention.

THOS R. CLARK, Proprietor.

PAVILION,
WOLFBOROUGH, N. H.

The House commands a good view of Lake Winnipisseogee, together with the beautiful hills which surround it—from one of which the prospect is said to excel that of Mount Washington—making many beautiful rides in the vicinity, on land as well as on the beautiful lake.

Good horses and carriages are connected with the house, and the beautiful steamboats "Lady of the Lake" and "Dover" make several trips each day up and down the lake. Gentlemen who delight in angling and gunning will find here ample field for their favorite enjoyment. Meals at all hours, without extra charge, for sportsmen.—Good carriages and accommodating porters in attendance on the arrival of each boat.

The boat can be chartered for sea Parties, upon application to the captain on board, giving reasonable notice.

Yacht Sea Ranger,
FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the commodious, fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate Fishing Parties on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer Grace Darling, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.

Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint.

THIS extraordinary substance has now been tested nearly nine years, and its Fire and Water Proof qualities are most extraordinary. Instead of the action of the weather destroying the coating as it does ordinary Paints, it only serves to turn it to a perfect Stone or Stone, protecting whatever covered from the action of Fire or Weather.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

April Term, U. S. Court, New York.

Wm Blake, vs. E. S & J. G. Belknap.—This was an action brought by the Piff. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate, granted 29th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Piff; thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to application to disturb the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 19th of June, 1853, for $1,129 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been sustained by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article.—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such tolerable and not to be endured tormentors; and who has moreover added sweet one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

Prepared by L. L. DUTCHER, St. Albans, Vt.

A SALLY IN FAVOR OF OLD HARRY.

Of all the peers within the House,
(And pretty well I know 'em)
There isn't one with half the nouse
Of gallant Henry Brougham.

If others won't amend the laws,
There's one the way will show 'em;
One who's in earnest in the cause—
The zealous Henry Brougham.

If foolish arguments be raised,
He to the winds will blow 'em;
And dull obstructions fall amazed
Beneath the weight of Brougham.

If difficulties mark his course,
There's none aside will throw 'em
With half the intellectual force
Of gallant Henry Brougham.

We for his equals look in vain,
'Twill take some time to grow 'em;
So let us hope we shall retain
Some long time yet—Old Brougham.

—Punch.

CHANGE IN TACTICS.—There is a world of human nature to be seen in the following anecdote:—

"A workman who was employed in blasting at Halifax, while being wound up out of his hole, after he had lit the fuse, was suffered to slip back again. The man fell close upon the impending danger, and in the sudden view of almost certain death, fell on his knees in prayer. While praying a thought struck him; he drew out the fuse, and commenced swearing at the men at the top."

REMOVAL.

Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,

(FROM LONDON,)

Has arrived at the

WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.

Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. july16 8w

A complete Relief from the Oppressive Heat of a Stove or Range

THE Merits of this Article are too well known to require a lengthy description. It performs the work of Stove and Range quicker than either, and requires but one quarter the fuel. It has a Large Oven, and by an ingenious arrangement the Air is carried around it at pleasure, so that it bakes in the best manner, while at the same time the Boilers are placed directly over and close to the fire. On the top, which is flat, Irons are heated admirably, if required, and kept clean. It is made entirely of Iron, consequently is very durable; requires but little room, may stand in the open fire-place, (in Summer) or be placed parallel with the Range, and work it. It burns either Wood, Bark, Chips or Charcoal, and may be adapted to almost any place. Try it: it is sure to please.

Morning Chronicle.

A DEFINITION.

Our friend of the Christian Era says:

The Portsmouth Chronicle is taking to theology. It is not content with pulling our article to pieces, but it has quite a long article on the phrase, "tottering on the verge of eternity." The editor sees that "tastes differ," some believing the phrase perfectly proper, while he earnestly condemns it. It is a figure, and must be interpreted according to the idea in the mind of the writer, and justified by other parts of the sentence. Eternity is the awful surroundings of time.

The Chronicle is both miscellaneous and independent. It "takes to theology" as naturally as to politics, morals or news, but without any allegiance or any ill will to sect or party. Theology that is without meaning, that is contradictory to itself, or without a basis of scripture or philosophy, is fair game for newspaper discussion.

It is true, that we pull to pieces, articles written by great and good men, as well as those written by boobies. And this is because we like to know what men mean by what they say.

If we are analytical, even elementary, sometimes, we can't help it. When we see a writer blow up a great shining bubble of a sentence, that glitters in the sunshine over a gaping crowd of admirers, we delight to punch a hole through it, that it may come down where the common people can see what there is in it, or perceive that it is more soft soap and water, inflated by the wind.

When the subject is trifling, we merely expose the bad sentence to derision;—but when it is grave and momentous, like Eternity, then it is sometimes necessary to make long articles, unless we are willing to do injustice to the writer or ourselves, or to both.

We have already said enough on the word Eternity, to make our ideas of it plain to the reader, and to place within his reach the entire scriptural usage of the word.

"Tastes differ." Truly they do. Somebody thinks the phrase "tottering on the verge of Eternity" is in good taste;—we deem it bad, because it does not convey a distinct meaning, easily apprehended.

"It is a figure." So it is; and we were trying to see what the figure was, and what it meant. In so doing, we were obliged to do somewhat as certain painters are said to have done with their pictures: write under one figure, this is a man; under another, this is a horse.

Now the Era gives us a definition, viz.: "Eternity is the awful surroundings of time."

We are thankful for the definition, and will look narrowly into the figure in connexion with the definition. Let us see: Amos Kendall is now in Time, but tetters on the verge of the awful surroundings of Time.

The figure here is evidently one of place, as we say the Isles of Shoals are surrounded by water; or the City of Lowell is surrounded by small towns.

We do not say that Wednesday is surrounded by the Week, but we do say it is included in it. We do not say that July is surrounded by the Year,—but included in it. So if we are to make a distinction between Time and Eternity—and if by both we mean duration and not places,—we must say that time is included in eternity. No such distinction, however, can be made by true science or sound philosophy—nor is it made in the scriptures, where the English word Eternity is used but once.

There is a distinction, exceedingly clear, drawn in 2 Cor. 4, 18, between things temporal and eternal, in these beautiful words: "The things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal."

That is, the objects of sight and sense, like our powers of sight and other senses, are temporary—they either pass away quickly from us, or we as quickly from them—but the unseen things on which we fasten the eye of faith, the lofty things which spiritual discernment alone can reach, are as immortal as the mind which conceives, as eternal as the God who inspires them.

In this passage we may see that Eternal, as an adjective, signifying "of boundless duration," is a good word, easily understood: but the word Eternity is not a good noun for any other purpose than to express duration.

If the phrase tottering on the verge of eternity be correct; and if the Era's definition—"Eternity is the surroundings of Time"—be also correct,—then it follows, that by Time the Era here means merely one man's lifetime—and Eternity means all time afterward—so that the same period is eternity to one man and time to another.

We suppose, however, the Era will not agree to this conclusion at all—but that the editor, by the terms time and eternity, really means nothing more nor less, than the present life and the life to come—or in other words, the state of the living and the condition of the departed.

He means neither time nor place, but condition;—and the use of the two words is bad, because it does not convey a distinct idea, but a mixture of figures and confusion of ideas.

We assure the Era, we do not mean to be captious; but we do intend to be plain, and are fond of intelligible writing.

Just at this moment we see the following instance, in a neighbor's paper, of the technical use of Time and Eternity—when the writer merely means, the present and the future life.

TIME AND ETERNITY.—Life is the limited vestibule to the great temple whose threshhold is death, and we shrink back like children, when sickness, the veiled usher, takes us by the hand to lead us in—afraid of the shadow of the door. The general impression of death, as given by nurses, teachers, poets, moralists and preachers, needs both brightening and aggrandizing for truth's sake.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1855.

RUN INTO THE GROUND.

How easy it is to overdo the thing, when a body of men work hard to prop up a bad cause. We have seen this for weeks past, among the mobmen in Portland. At last some of their friends open their eyes to the same view.

A writer in the Argus, July 23, signing his name V. says:

The intense excitement, which, in consequence of the Portland massacre, has so occupied the minds of the public, I fear, has had a tendency to lull, in this State, the minds of the people, with respect to the coming, boding, and most important election of our State officers. This will not do.

Then he thinks they have convinced every body, except the hypocrites and fanatics, "and to them it is no use to talk:"—he adds—

Consequently, I consider, that every column, which is, or will be hereafter devoted to the further consideration of this subject, is, and will be used to no purpose or essential good.

Is it possible, that these old soldiers have been firing blank cartridges all this time? Possible that they have fired so many that the people have gone to sleep from very weariness of the din? Even so.

I think that the removal of the State officers, * * * * is of far greater moment, and, in my opinion, should receive a larger share of press—and public attention.

Yes; that is it. Political capital must be made by all means; if the massacre can't do this, it is a humbug.

As to the massacre, let that do, what it most assuredly will—that is, slide silently into the pages of history—there to be a living witness against the spit-fires of Maine.

Truly it is a sad item of history—but there it is, added to the thousands of similar martyrdoms, to slide silently down the historic stream.

This is surely a most subdued and quiet finale to a piece which was begun by such a tremendous flourish of trumpets.

In Toronto, on a recent Sabbath morning, the creed was chanted in the Church of the Holy Trinity, instead of being repeated in the usual manner. In consequence of this, more than half of the congregation immediately left the church.

This puts Uncle Toby in mind of a story which he heard when he was a youngster.

An old lady, whose memory ran back to the days when Watts's Psalm Book was an innovation, said that an old Deacon in Newbury New Town was highly indignant to think he should deacon off the Psalm no more. His vocation would be gone, his dignity would be wilted, he would become a private individual, a mere nobody. He could not and did not believe that the new thing would succeed. Nevertheless it did.

On a fine Sabbath morning in summer, with the meeting house open and full of people, the deacon took his seat as usual beneath the pulpit and facing the congregation. The minister was in his place; the tardy class of hearers dropped in one by one till all were there, and every thing was still. Then arose the minister, and read one of the new psalms. This was bad enough, but the deacon held on and kept his seat. Presently, up rose the singers, comely young men and maidens, each with book in hand, and began to sing a new and lively tune, of which the deacon had no knowledge. This was too bad. Up jumped the deacon, seized his best beaver with both hands, and put it firmly on his head. Then grasping his trusty staff he descended the steps, and marched out through the broad aisle, with firm and indignant tramp, at every step ejaculating Popery! Popery!! Popery!!!

BURST THEIR BOILER.—The Boston Courier informs us that the Missouri Pro-Slavery Convention, which was holden at Lexington on the 12th, 13th and 14th instant, passed unanimously a series of very strong resolutions in favor of slavery, and denouncing the organized bands of colonists shipped from Massachusetts and other quarters.

The resolution denouncing Massachusetts was not one of the series, but was offered separately by the Committee. It was opposed by the Hon. Mr. Oliver of Ray, who asked the crowd if they were willing to follow the example of Massachusetts, and was answered "No, no, no!" The resolution was modified and passed.

The Convention was addressed by President Shannon, who introduced some extraneous matter into his speech, and upon the question of publishing it as part of the proceedings, the members got up a severe quarrel, and broke up in anger and confusion.

This was a dreadful explosion; but the Union still lives; and no blame is to be attached to the Engineer or Conductor.

RAIN.—From a measurement made at Syracuse, in one of the central counties in the State of New York, for each of the eighteen years last past, fifty per cent. more rain has fallen since the first of May, than for the same period in any previous year during that time. For a month there have been heavy showers, some part of every day in that county, and generally everywhere in the Northern section of the United States rain has fallen. The stereotype grumble of the New York State farmers is now "too wet and too hot." —Courier.

THE LONDON RIOT.

We have already given the best accounts we could find of those occurences, with a few hints at their causes and authors. Now we have the following interesting passage from the London correspondent of the New York Life Illustrated. He makes the case quite plain.

We had a most unusual thing, a sort of riot, in Hyde Park on the afternoon on Sunday last, in opposition to a bill now before Parliament the object of which is to prevent laboring and ordinary trading after 10 o'clock on Sunday morning. Two or three classes of people are opposed to a measure of this kind. The publicans, fearing it will not only form a prelude to total prohibition of their trade on Sunday, become alarmed—under the pretense of zeal for the liberties and rights of the poor. Judas was a great stickler for economy, "not that he cared for the poor," ect.; and the publicans, distillers, brewers, and the whole class who now feed and grow fat and accumulate fortunes off the folly and crimes of the people are alarmed, not that they "care for the people," but because they are afraid that the people may become too wise for them. There is another class who would like, if they could, to obtain seven days' labor for six days' pay. Accordingly they have many active agents at work. Bills full of the most unblushing falsehoods and impudent appeals to the ignorance and prejudices of the masses were posted all over London, and excited some attention; and a call having been made therein to meet at a certain hour on Sunday afternoon in the park, to "see how the aristocracy spent their Sundays," a great crowd consequently assembled, who for some time hooted at parties enjoying their usual ride in the park; but the police were in sufficient force to prevent any actual breach of the peace. The truth is, the bill is a most excellent one. The excuses set up are at once false and ridiculous, but the great brewing and gin palace interest know that Sunday is a day on which heretofore vast numbers of the people for their benefit squandered their means and injured themselves and their families, and hence their so-called zeal for the "liberties of the people." Without reference to any religious views of the question, man requires for the growth of his physical, intellectual, and moral nature one day for rest and innocent recreation out of seven; and had we free ingress to all rational amusements—say the Crystal Palace, the British Museum, the National Gallery, the tendency would be at once to fill the churches and empty the gin palaces. Two enormous wealthy distillers, one Sir John Power, and another whose name I forget, and Mr. Arthur Guinness, a millionaire brewer, have just died in Dublin;—fool's pence—the moneys worse than thrown away by the people—amounts to something in the aggregate. How many thousands of poor Irish have wallowed in crime and wretchedness to accumulate fortunes for these three men!

THE BOTTLE AND DEMIJOHN TRADE.—Since the enactment of the "Maine Liquor Law," the bottle, flask and demijohn trade has increased a hundred per cent in our city. They are sold for country trade, and there is hardly a person or family who leaves home on an excursion, but what takes a pocket pistol, filled with balm no doubt, for a medicine in case of sickness. We hear of one dealer in Washington street who has sold nearly one thousand flasks since the 4th day of July.—Is not this a little dangerous sucking for young folks, and will it promote the temperance cause? We saw a family party the other day in a railroad train bound on a tour, with no less than four flasks labeled 'Cologne', one of them was passed round for a smell, but instead of smelling they nearly all tasted. —Boston Bee.

The above statements, if true, and also some pleas of Boston lawyers, and verdicts of Boston juries, only go to prove what we knew too well before, viz., that a large portion of its citizens are dreadfully besotted.—The condemnation now comes from their own mouths. We are very sorry they are such a set of topers; but we can't dispute the fact when their papers state it, and their own conduct proves it.

DARTMOUTH.—The commencement exercises at this college began on Tuesday, and are to continue for three days, the 24th, 25th and 26th insts. It was expected that an oration would be delivered by Prof. Phelps, of Andover, before the Theological Society, on Tuesday evening.

On Wednesday, Wendell Phillips is to address the literary societies connected with the College, and a poem will be delivered by Park Benjamin. On the same day a dinner is to be provided for the Alumni of the Institution, and an oration is to be delivered by Prof. S. G. Brown; addresses are also expected from many of the most distinguished graduates of the College, among whom may be numbered some of the finest scholars of the country. It is expected that the exercises of the commencement, which begin at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning, will be of unusual interest, and that large numbers of the former graduates will be present. A.

PLAYING POSSUM.—In the attack on the Mamelon fort on the 7th ult., two soldiers belonging to the 2d Zouaves got the start of all the others, and leaped into the first of the three ditches. The return of the Russians to recover the place did not allow them to escape in time, and they had nothing for it but to pretend to be dead. They accordingly waited motionless for twenty-four hours, expecting every hour that an armistice would take place for burying the dead. Their expectations were not disappointed, and great was the astonishment of the first body of French which approached to administer the last rite of the soldier, suddenly to behold the resurrection of their two countrymen from amidst the slain and wounded, and to receive their joyous salutations.

LOCAL.

☞ Jefferson Hall is now occupied as the old cariosity shop. Men are seen bearing doors, sashes, mantel pieces, shutters, &c., up the staircase, and depositing them in the Hall, as relics and mementoes of the old Wentworth House and its occupants.

By a little disagreement between our two Boards of City Council, the Building Committee of the School House have the power to remove the old house by tearing it down, or otherwise, but not to sell it.

Hence, we suppose, we see the odd spectacle of moving and removing old house materials, which should be sold at auction on the spot for true economy's sake.

The destruction of this fine old mansion, is the removing of one of the ancient landmarks of Portsmouth as it was. The apartments were spacious, and their arrangement aristocratic—but they have had their day—the house, to most modern eyes, was dull and gloomy in its aspect, and it is now giving way to a noble and costly edifice for purposes of education.

THE HARVEST.—The good news which continues to reach us from almost every quarter of the country where the wheat crop has been harvested, and of its present condition where it has not, is really gladdening to those of citizens whose incomes are not measured by thousands. The extraordinary high prices which have prevailed for the past year have borne with great severity upon our laboring population, and many, very many, who have been accustomed in years past to gratify their appetites with luxuries, have this year been content with the bare necessaries of life.

The surrounding country now looks magnificently beautiful—such fields of grain, almost ripe for the reaper; trees loaded with fruit; all present in their appearance of abundance, a most cheering sight, and give every promise of an extremely bountiful harvest.—In some few localities around us, and in the neighboring British province, there exists complaints of the fly in grain, but these are only isolated cases.

In the course of two weeks more with the right kind of weather, the farmers will be in the midst of their wheat harvest. That crop secured, down goes the price of flour; and with that, and cheap provisions generally, the poor man will once more think of living, and a slight check will be given to the cry of hard times and to beggary among us.—The rain of yesterday was greatly needed, as the earth was much baked by the hot sun of the few preceding days.—Buffalo Cour. 21st.

SORROWS COME NOT SINGLY.—The widow of the late Admiral Boxer is now suffering from a most dire accumulation of misfortunes. The first of these was the death from cholera of her nephew, at Balaklava. This was followed by the decease, from the same cause, of her husband. The next intelligence she received was to the effect that her house in the country had been burned to the ground.—Scarcely had she been made acquainted with this fact, when the failure of Messrs. Strahan's bank, of London, deprived her of an amount not less than thirty thousand pounds, and, to crown all her misery, she has a son before Sebastopol, who, it was expected, could not long survive.—London paper.

PREPARING FOR A ROAST—BUILDING HOUSES TO BE BURNT.—Arrangements for large and destructive fires are going on all over the city. Almost everywhere that a new building is going up, the devil of heedlessness has a hand in the job. He cheapens the mason's work, and arranges to give an extra inch of room on each side of a narrow house, by making thin flues, and stipulates to carry hot air from the furnaces all over the premises, in tin pipes, for a trifle less than safe cemented brick flues would cost. He is a great friend to men of small means, until a right cold snap comes, and the fires are raked up and replenished often, and then he leaves them to the tender mercies of a meagre fire insurance policy, and vain regrets that in building they had not consulted safety as well as a fine front and imposing appearance.—New York Tribune.

RUMORED LAST APPEARANCE IN THE PULPIT.—Our true blue contemporary, John Bull, perplexes us with the following paragraph:

"Dr. McNeile—It is stated that Rev. Dr. McNeile, having by the death of a near relative come into a handsome competency, is about to retire into private life."

We can understand that the succession to a handsome competency might induce an actor to retire into private life from the stage fast enough; but cannot well conceive it occasioning a clergyman to "cut" the pulpit with similar alacrity.—Punch.

SINGULAR FREAK OF PEAR TREES.—A friend of ours, who delights in a very fine garden, embracing choice pear and other fruit trees, this spring regretted the decay and death of the former. They were cut up and cast beside the fence, to be used for purposes as might be required, and accordingly were levied on for bean poles. After being lopped to suit their new vocation, and stuck in the ground, it was not long ere they gave signs of life, and leaves put forth, and they are now in full bloom. What will be the upshot of this matter, whether a new life or only a last struggle, remains to be seen.—Albany Express, 16th.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY.—The Court of Common Pleas at Concord, Mass., adjourned on Tuesday. Every liquor seller indicted under the new law was convicted, and about five thousand dollars were collected in fines under the old law. Abel Hunt, an old offender, of Watertown, went to jail, rather than pay his fines under the old law, amounting to several hundred dollars; but after waiting in vain for the Watertown people to come and tear down the jail and rescue him, concluded to pay up. He was then tried and convicted under the new law, but some exceptions were taken to the form of the indictment, and he escapes punishment until these are over-ruled. —Boston Telegraph.

Emigration from Europe to New York is on the decrease. Up to the 18th inst. 82,575 less passengers had arrived than during the corresponding period last year.

PROVIDENCE, July 23.—Mr. Brownell Slocum, aged about 60, a native of Portsmouth, R. I., was burned to death in his house on Sunday last.

"Bound, every heart; and every bosom burn!
Oh, what a scale of Miracles is here!"

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The balance in the sub-treasury to-day was $2,101,967.

A large amount of jewelry was seized to-day on board the ship Zurich, from Havre.

The North Carolina Register is authorized to state that the Hon. D. M. Berringer has written a letter which will be printed in a day or two, reasserting and confirming his statement relative to the conversation which took place between himself and the pope's Nuncio, in Madrid, the truth of which the Washington Union has recently denied.

During the investigation to-day by a committee of Aldermen, into the affairs connected with the raising of the ship Joseph Walker, evidence was adduced that two Aldermen had indirectly offered to suppress certain matters upon a receipt of $1000 each.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—A party of seven persons in a pleasure boat, were upset on Saturday, in the Tukahoo River, and five of them drowned. The other two were discovered yesterday, clinging to the bottom of the boat, and rescued. The persons drowned were G. Tully, Chas. F. Watson, wife and child, of Camden, and L. Young, of Philadelphia.

SUICIDE OF A BRIDEGROOM THE DAY AFTER MARRIAGE.—We are called upon to record a sad affair which occurred at Temperance Hill, two miles this side of Lee Centre, in this county, one day last week. The circumstances, as near as we can ascertain, are these:

A man named Boardman, who resides near Como, Whiteside county, had been to Chicago on a wedding tour. He, with his bride, put up to a tavern on Temperance Hill, all night—arose in the morning cheerful, and in his usual good state of mind, with the exception of asking his wife to tie his cravat, and then remarking, as he looked in the glass, that it "looked fine," this being an unusual act.

He then told his wife to lie down and go to sleep, as he would be out some time. He accordingly went out to feed his horse, and was not again seen until a lifeless corpse, hung by the neck to a tree. He had purchased while at Chicago, a stock of goods, preparatory to starting business near Como.

What cause he had for committing the rash deed, no one knows. He was a man of about 35 years.—Dixon (Ill.) Telegraph, of July 11th.

SUICIDE IN WHATELY.—Leander Clark, of Whately, Mass., put an end to his life on Tuesday last, the 17th inst., by cutting his throat with a razor. He was a blacksmith by trade, a man of extensive general information, and had been a representative of that town in the general court. His health was somewhat impaired, and it is supposed that the apprehension of becoming a public charge may have induced the commission of the fatal act.

CHICAGO, July 23d.—A private letter from Kansas states that Gov. Reeder informed the Legislature that he did not recognize them as the Kansas Legislature, and would not meet them at the Shawnee Mission.

Blake's Patent Fire Proof Paint.
THIS extraordinary substance has now been tested nearly nine years, and its Fire and Water Proof qualities are most extraordinary. Instead of the action of the weather destroying the coating as it does ordinary Paints, it only serves to turn it to a perfect Stone or Stone, protecting whatever covered from the action of Fire or Weather.
IMPORTANT DECISION.
April Term, U. S. Court, New York.
Wm Blake, vs. E. S & J. G. Belknap.—This was an action brought by the Piff. to establish the Validity (in the U. S. Court at Law) of his Patent, for Fire and Weather Proof Paint, or Artificial Slate, granted 28th March, 1848. After an able charge by Judge Nelson, the Jury returned a verdict for the Piff; thus establishing the validity of the Patent. The Defendants made no application to application to disturb the verdict, and the Judgment entered on the 16th of June, 1853, for $1,029 67. Costs were paid by the Defts. The fact that the Patent has been sustained by one trial at Law is all that the Court requires to be shown before granting to the Patentee the summary process of Injunction to restrain all persons from Making, Using or Vending the patented article.—The damages already sustained by the Patentee will be taken under the rule of the Court before a Master in Equity. New York, Nov. 1853.

SAGAMORE HOUSE,
FROST'S POINT, 8½ miles from Postsm. Depots.
THE Proprietor of the above House respectfully announces to the pleasure seeking public that he will open for the season on WEDNESDAY, June 20th.
To those familiar with the locality of the Sagamore House, not a word is necessary in regard to its beautiful and healthful situation.—To strangers seeking a place of recreation by the seaside it affords attractions unequalled. Situated on a point of land on the Atlantic shore, near the Harbor of Portsmouth, the windows on three sides overlook the salt water. From the beach, the broad Atlantic, the Harbor of Portsmouth, the beautiful Piscataqua, and the City of Portsmouth form a charming prospect, and in the background the green fields and leafy woods present a relieving contrast.
The House will be kept in the best manner, and every endeavor will be used to give satisfaction to its guests. The more effectually to do this, the proprietor has secured the services of MR. JOHN MACK, formerly of the Rockingham House, Portsmouth, whose experience and skill in hotel keeping will be a sufficient guarantee to all who know him that the management will be all that could be desired. The Table will be supplied with all the seasonable luxuries of the sea and land, and every effort used to render a sojourn at the Sagamore agreeable.
A Coach, in charge of an experienced driver, will run between the Sagamore House and the City of Portsmouth, leaving the Hotel at 8½ A.M. and 5½ P.M. Returning, leaves Portsmouth at 10½ A.M. and 7½ P.M., or on arrival of cars from Boston and Concord. Fare 25 cents. All orders left at WM. R. PRESTON'S, in Portsmouth, will receive prompt attention.
THOS R. CLARK, Proprietor.

Yacht Sea Ranger,
FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.
CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.
The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.
The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.
The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.
A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it exists there up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.
It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a quiet tidy household. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.
SANCHO PANZA
Called down blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be disregarded' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, in Internal or external? HAYES'S

Allied Ointment and Humor Syrup

will cure you just as sure as you use it. Take not our assertion for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it wants is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred, in a single town. Reader, do you ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any of our agents, get a circular, select any one name you please, address a line to that individual—they will speak—they are living witnesses. It will cost but a trifle, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself;

LAWRENCE, June 12, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the Doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy results, affording relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as THE article, and the ONLY one known to us, as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER, A. W. STEARNS,
S. L. THOMPSON, ASA T. SANBORN.

It cures Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly,) Barber's Itch, Fever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In no case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves the sight wonderfully, where the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

Price of the Ointment, $1. Syrup 50 cents.

CHARLES H. KENT, General Agent for the United States and Canadas, Lawrence, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed.

Sold in Portsmouth, by Jos. H. Thacher, at the Good Samaritan Store, and W. B. Preston; and by Agents everywhere.

FRENCH CLERGY.

Prof. J. C. Pitrat, formerly a Priest of the Roman Church, gives to the public, through the Boston Bee, the following information as to the Material Strength of the Romish Clergy in France.

Though the freedom of worship is consecrated by the Constitution, two denominations only, among the Protestants, are supported by the government and allowed to worship—the Lutherans and the Reformed Church. The Romish Church is the only great association authorized, protected and paid in the Empire. It is a nation in a nation, a state in a state; a society distinct from the civil society, and almost as numerous as the people itself. It has an administration avowed and mixed, half ecclesiastical, half civil, with its provincial demarcations—the bishoprics; and its territorial subdivisions—the parishes. It has six high dignitaries, the cardinals, paid and accredited by the State to the conclave. It has two sovereigns, the one temporal, the Emperor; the other spiritual, the Pope; and in claiming now the protection of the Emperor against the Pope, as Bossuet did, and then the protection of the Pope against the Emperor, as the Archbishop of Cologne did, it is enabled to intimidate the one by the other, and to extend its privileges, as for instance the liberties of the Gallicane church.

In France the Romish church has a personal of 82,000 ministers of public worship, including the curates who are to be found on each inhabited point of the soil, where they christen those coming to life, implant in their minds as they grow the Romish creed, accompany them through life to keep that creed alive in their souls, and stand by their death bed, thus leaving them no chance to seek the truth for themselves—including the missionaries who are perpetually traveling all over the land to preach Retreats, Novenas, Missions, Indulgences and Jubilees to revive the Catholic faith wherever it is languishing—including all the Orders of Monks and of Nuns, who form an uninterrupted chain of teachings and influences from the cars of the great down to the filthy couch of the indigent, as the Jesuits, and the Friars who boast of their being called Ignoramuses.

The Romish clergy have all their temples, all their cathedrals, all their chapters, all their archbishoprics and bishoprics, and all their seminaries given, endowed, repaired and supported at the expense of the State. They are authorized to assemble and to instruct any number of students in their ecclesiastical seminaries. They have preparatory seminaries where they predispose the children of poor parents to the priesthood or to subordinate offices of the church, at that early age when they are not mature enough to choose a calling.

J. C. PITRAT.

CAN HEADACHE BE CURED?—We suppose that the human family suffer more from headache than all other diseases. Indeed, most other ailments bring that with them, but headache alone rules the physical and mental powers of many an invalid for weeks together. Abating the taking of a cup of strong tea, or bathing the forehead, headache has generally been permitted to take its own course, and scatter suffering, despondency and bitterness over the face of the earth. But, can it be cured? We begin to think it can. A few days ago we were at Goffstown Centre, (some four miles from this city,) where lives Dr. J. W. Poland, whose name stands more than an even chance to go down to posterity, as the greatest alleviator of woes, by compounding his "Headache Killer." He lives in a nice, snug cottage house, on the banks of the Piscataquog river, generally at home compounding medicines and searching out the mysterious powers hidden in the arcana of the vegetable kingdom. We called to see him, and visited his Medicine House. From innumerable sources, from friends and strangers, we had learned how successful he had been in curing the headache, but we never before knew why it was left for Dr. Poland to discover it.

B. F. Palmer of Philadelphia, invented in 1845 a self-acting leg, which is in some respects superior to the natural one, (it will not freeze, and you cannot hurt it,) by which thousands of cripples have been made to walk as well as ever, and, what is right, Palmer has become immensely rich out of it. We once asked him why he could not invent an arm on the same principle. He replied, "I never lost an arm. I lost a leg, and for fifteen years my mind was constantly at work for a remedy for that loss. I have got it, and am at ease. No man will ever invent a good arm, except some one who has lost his own." Was that not sensible? Just as sensible is the why Dr. Poland compounded the "Headache Killer." He must find a remedy for his own sufferings. For forty years a sufferer by headache, twenty-five years of that time a teacher or preacher. He studied medical works, made chemical experiments upon roots and plants, and finally made what is now called the "Headache Killer," which cured himself, and has since cured thousands. He was then, as he had been for years, a settled clergyman of excellent repute among the Baptist denomination. Some of his parishioners and brethren in the ministry applied for the remedy, and he made a few bottles, not thinking that such an act would compel him to be one physician of the body, rather than physician of the soul. So it was—the news flew, and orders came from every quarter for his medicine, till he was obliged to resign his pastoral charge over the church at the place where he lives, and devote himself to medicine, though he generally now preaches every Sabbath. He has been in the business some two years, attending personally to the compounding and putting up his medicines, and everything about them is clean as wax work. It is wonderful how the sale for it increases from month to month, orders coming in for it from all States, from the Atlantic to the Pacific shores.

He has also a medicine called the "Humor and Cough Doctor," which has less reputation than the "Headache Killer," (though longer in use,) from the fact, probably, that so many remedies for these are advertised.—Among those who have used it, it is considered invaluable, and is always kept in their families.

Dr. Poland has been experimenting for the last five years on something to cure colds and coughs, his mother and other relatives having been long afflicted with the latter. He thinks he has at last discovered a remedy, though not perfectly certain. Sure he is that in every case in which it has been tried it has produced a cure. If he succeeds according to his expectations, it will be the most wonderful act of the age. What gives a charm to this whole matter is, that the Doctor is a high-minded, honest man, never designing to practice out of his own parish, or to leave the ministry, and that the ingredients of his medicine are no secret, nothing but the proportions of each.—Manchester Mirror.

ENGLISH LAWS.

A letter from London, to Life Illustrated, contains this passage:

Our Sunday Public House Closing Bill of last session hardly pleases anybody. It don't at all please the publicans, because it restricts their trade on what had heretofore been their business day; and it don't please the great majority of the moral reformers, because it don't go far enough and close such places altogether; and it don't please another class, because it interferes with their enjoyments, as they call them, and they hope to get the act repealed, and trust to the chapter of accidents to better their condition. Accordingly, the member for Bristol has moved, in a long speech, for another committee of inquiry, which has been granted, but which can not sit during the present session of Parliament.—The friends of the measure readily concurred in the request for a committee, assured that it will only end in an accumulation of evidence which it will be impossible for Parliament long to resist.

The bill above referred to, is not the bill about which the London riots occurred, but a separate law.

JURIES JUDGES OF THE LAW.—Yesterday, the state of affairs in the Municipal Court was certainly novel and extraordinary. The most zealous care, extreme vigilance, and powerful eloquence of the District Attorney, during the last term of the Court, in prosecuting liquor cases, having been so fruitless, still greater care has been taken in framing indictments, and more powerful argumen and eloquent speeches have been made the present term by the prosecuting officer; but, some how or other, the juries, in judging of the law, as well as the evidence, do not yet look upon the cases in the light in which he presents them, and thus far not a single conviction has been rendered. Three cases have been given to the juries, but in all these they have been unable to agree.—Boston Chronicle.

These cases were clear enough. In one of them the fact of sale was admitted.—Yet the jury did not agree. Reason, part of them deem it unconstitutional to restrict the traffic. Juries in other parts of the state may see with different eyes.

Under the old law, Alexander Lang and Henry Harris were fined $100 and costs each, as common sellers—amounting in the first instance to $112.63, and in the latter to $120.13.

Charles Abbott, keeper of a saloon in Merrimack street, convicted of being a common seller a year and a half since, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs—in default of which, sixty days in jail. Being unable to pay the fine Mr. Abbott goes to jail.

Abbott's Counsel, S. D. Parker, Esq., made a silly but ineffectual plea to keep his client out of jail.

THE WILL OF MR. WILLIS.—The South Carolinian states that Mr. Joliffe, the executor of the will of the late Mr. Willis, who died in Cincinnati, leaving all his property to his slaves, is now on a visit to Barnwell, in South Carolina, the recent residence of Mr. Willis, for the purpose of commencing the proper legal proceedings in relation to the execution of the will. The South Carolinian says that "if he is, as he is alleged to be, an abolitionist, he has been foolhardy in risking his person among a population who have good cause to be wary of entertaining such arch agitators among them." He has deposited notes and bonds to the amount of $22,000, which were found on Mr. Willis's person after his death, with the commissioner at Barnwell, to await the final decision of the case.

Mr. Joliffe says that a meeting was held by interested persons near Barnwell, who wished to frighten him off, and sent two men to see him at the hotel. He locked them into his chamber with himself, telling them, in answer to questions, that he was an abolitionist, that he should proceed according to law, and declining to leave till he got ready. Presently two men of another sort called, and told him he should have the privilege of staying a reasonable time to do his business. He thanked them for their kindness, but claimed to stay as a right—and did stay, till he had taken the needful legal steps required by the laws of South Carolina.

SACRAMENTAL WINE.—The following incident goes to show the extreme difficulty of obtaining pure wines, for any purpose whatever. Four or five years ago, the pastor and deacons of one of the largest and most respectable churches in New Hampshire, became convinced that the liquid they used at communion was a vile compound, not deserving the name of wine. Accordingly a committee composed of good judges of the article, was appointed, and after a long and careful search, succeeded in finding what they supposed to be a lot of pure wine. A large cask of it was purchased, and pronounced extra nice by all who tasted it. After the lapse of some time the wine was consumed, and the deacons on examining the settings in the bottom of the cask, were horrified to find a goodly dose of logwood! T.

DROWNED.—Sunday morning, Charles O. York, aged 15 years, was drowned in the Merrimac river, a little above Granite Bridge, in Manchester, N. H. He was a son of Mr. A. York, of Raymond, worked in the Stark Mills, and was a very steady boy. He was in company with another boy and was trying to learn to swim at the time.

THE FAILURE OF FREEDOM.—The Richmond Enquirer is going to do great things in the name of democracy—things which will overset the whole tribe of historians, moral philosophers, and political economists. Hear what they are:

"We mean to show up free society, to show that the little experiment made in a corner of Western Europe has signally failed.—Then we will invade our North, where a similar experiment is making, not made. We will point to a thousand premonitory symptoms of ultimate failure, and always adduce the abolitionists themselves as our witnesses. In fine, we intend, from time to time, to institute a searching comparison between slave society and free society—and to prove that the former is old, almost universal, normal and natural condition of civilised society.—All this we can do with propriety, because the democratic party has always been directly hostile to abolition."

If the man will come this way and lecture, we will warrant him one Temple full of hearers. He shall convert the whole of us, if he can, to his views of the failure of freedom.

STRINGFELLOW.—Some months ago, we received a sort of extra newspaper from Missouri, containing a brief appeal to slaveholders and others, in favor of slavery. From this paper we published some brief extracts. Now, within a few days, we have received a pro-slavery essay, by the celebrated Gen. Stringfellow, in which he tries to show that Negro Slavery is No Evil. This is republished in Boston by the New England Emigrant Aid Co. with another tract as an offset, by D. R. Goodhue of North Carolina, on the question, Is it expedient to introduce slavery into Kansas?

GOV. BAKER'S CARRIAGE.—The N. H. Patriot states that a beautiful carriage and a pair of magnificent grey horses, were presented to Ex-Governor Baker, on Thursday last, by a few of his numerous warm friends and personal admirers. The carriage was of the most elegant and luxurious description. It was made at Baker's celebrated manufactory on Federal st. Boston, and was valued at $350. The cost of the harnesses was $75, and the horses, on account of the purpose for which they were designed, were obtained for $600, though said by good judges to be worth much more.

THE WAY TO PUNISH HER.—The New York Express, in reply to a severe article in the Richmond Enquirer, 'sassing' Massachusetts, remarks:

The way for Virginia to punish Massachusetts, New York, and all of us—and to help herself—is to diversify her own pursuits, and thus to cease to want Yankee notions. There is no reason why Accomac and Lower Virginia in general, should be content with sending us fire wood, water melons, blackberries, tomatoes, sweet potatoes, and other such things,—and Upper Virginia 'pig tail,' &c., &c.,—taking our hoes, shovels, wooden clocks, shoes, &c., altogether in return. All these things, or the most of them, she should make herself, and in order so to do, she must not think and breathe, and have her being in the Resolutions of '98—but in the spinning-jenny, furnace-blowing Resolutions of 1854. Less agriculture, and more manufacturing at home, is what she wants. Then Virginia wives and daughters must dress in home-spun—not in muslins, laces, ribbons, &c., &c., of Yankee or Foreign manufacture.

For the Chronicle.

EARLY RISING.

The morning dawns—awake! arise!
Lose not the precious hour;
It will not tarry, quick it flies,
And 'scapes beyond thy power;
And sighs nor tears can ought avail
To bring it back again,
Thy utmost efforts all will fail,
And all thy griefs be vain.

Then rise, lest at reflection's time,
Guilt will thy conscience sting,
And virtue, wounded by thy crime,
Her sudden flight shall wing;
Rise and prevent a sorrow deep
For heaven's gift misspent,
Shake off unseasonable sleep,
And leave the sluggard's tent. S.

Extract from a letter dated London, June 8, 1855, says:

"The fire annihilator rises in reputation.—Very lately two emigrant ships, the Lloyd and Hilton, have been saved from certain destruction by the use of it, and a railroad depot has also been rescued from the flames by it. Unfortunately, ships preserved by the annihilator are generally far from home at the time of their preservation, so that months elapse before the facts are known. Moreover, some ship owners and ship masters have a singular disinclination to have it known that their property has ever been jeopardized by fire. Hence many ship fires are never heard of, and risks are run because the real value of the annihilator is concealed."

The notorious "Bristol Bill," who has reached his 16th year of infamous life, now in Prison in Vermont, rests his hope of pardon on the plea of piety. This is a common trick in our prisons—make love to the Chaplains and be converted, and then appeal to foolish Governors. If he has really come to a sense of his sins, he needs the remainder of his life free from the disturbance of the world, where he can reflect and repent; and if he has not come to himself yet, he ought not to be out.—Newburyport Herald.

LOCAL.

LECTURES ON GEOLOGY.

This evening at the Temple, Dr. Boynton will commence the delivery of his admirable Lectures on Geology.

Dr. Boynton's first lecture will be upon Mechanical Astronomy, and will be illustrated by a series of beautiful experiments, showing the laws which govern the form, motion and situation of the heavenly bodies.

The following request, from gentlemen of this city, who heard his former course, will serve to show, in some measure, the strong and valuable impression which he made upon his audience.

PORTSMOUTH, July, 1855.

The undersigned, residents of Portsmouth, would respectfully and earnestly invite Dr. Boynton to repeat, in this city, his course of Lectures upon Geology, and exhibit his beautiful Illustrative Paintings.

From the interest which these lectures excited, when delivered here two years since, the crowds which attended them, and the great desire manifested to have them repeated, we cannot doubt that our citizens will hail Dr. Boynton's appearance as the promise of a high intellectual entertainment.

The course was delivered in New Haven, upon the invitation of the following gentlemen:

His Excellency, Henry Dutton, LL. D.
Hon. Chauncey Jerome, Mayor,
Pres. Jeremiah Day, D.D., LL.D.,
Pres. Theodore D. Woolsey, LL. D.
Rev. Harry Croswell, D. D.,
Rev. Leonard Bacon, D. D., and thirty-eight others.

JUGS, DEMIJOHNS AND FLASKS.—An intelligent trader of this city informs us, that the item about the great sales of these articles in Boston, which we copied from the Bee, is just as true of this place as it is of that.

His own sales of them for the last six months, have been equal to similar sales for two or three years: and we have seen so much of the same thing, that we must quote demijohns active; jugs firm; bottles buoyant.

As a consequence it must follow, as we set it down for Boston, that topers abound here as well as there; and that they are about laying in a supply of their favorite beverages, and so preparing to stand a siege.

We suppose it does not follow, that all the men who buy jugs are just beginning to drink. The bottle trade, with the new occasion which makes it active just now, does not make drinkers. It only shows where they are.

EASTERN RAILROAD.—The adjourned meeting of the Stockholders of the Eastern Railroad Company, will be held at Chapman Hall, in Boston, on Monday 30th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Stockholders will be expected to pay their fare in the cars, which will be refunded to those who attend the meeting, together with a ticket to return.

THE LIQUOR LAW IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The Boston Traveller of Tuesday says:

The liquor cases in the Municipal Court, have brought the controversy on the prohibitory law to the crisis which has been anticipated from the first. The other, simultaneous law, constituting juries judges, is working, side by side, to destroy the vitality of the liquor law. There are now two cases before juries, clear cases as to facts, in which this new body of judges delays justice and will in all probability completely nullify and defeat the object of the law, by interposing their objections to its constitutionality. Meanwhile the business of the Court is suspended.

The Newport, R. I. News of Monday says: "We learn that Mr. Brownell Slocum of Portsmouth, aged about 70 years, perished in the flames of his dwelling, which was consumed on Monday about 12 o'clock. The origin of the fire we have not learned."

CLUB BOAT RACE IN BOSTON.—This race, on Thursday week, was between the "Maid of Erin," manned wholly by Protestants, and the "T. F. Meagher," manned wholly by Catholics. The former beat handsomely.—The race was for ten miles.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Observer, in writing in New Orleans, says of Matt Ward: "At the St. Charles Hotel, last winter, at the balls, every lady who knew who he was refused his hand in dancing, and no father or brother would introduce him to their relatives.

He is considered here as a murderer, and an outcast, with the mark of Cain branded on his brow."

The "fatal accident" on the Portsmouth Railroad, which we spoke of last week, was not quite so bad as was represented. Instead of a man being killed and another badly injured, it was an old mare killed and her colt injured!—N. H. Patriot.

The new homestead law of Massachusetts exempts a man's implements or tools from the law's clutch. This is supposed to cover the libraries of lawyers and scholars, as well as the adzes and squares and planes of carpenters.

A Protestant lady in St. Louis, with seven of her children, has joined the Hebrew congregation there.

THE GREYTOWN AFFAIR.—The New York Herald says that the sufferers by the bombardment of Greytown have arrived at Washington to present their claims before the Court of Claims, and that those claims amount to about five millions of dollars!

"Bound, every heart; and every bosom burn!
Oh, what a scale of Miracles is here!"

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchits, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only wyile it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE STAR OF THE WEST.

NEW YORK, 25th.

The steamship Star of the West arrived this morning. She brings $1,000,000 in specie, and dates from California to the 30th of June. The news is unimportant. Markets generally dull, but flour firmer. Money stringent. Mining news encouraging.

The weather in San Francisco has been mild and pleasant for the past ten days, while at times excessive heat has been experienced. Business has been lively, and we have no more heavy failures or defalcations to recount.

The village of Angel's Camp, Calavera county, was destroyed by fire. The loss was $50,000.

$170,000 of Adams & Co's assets were missing. Alvin Adams has entered charges of fraud against his partners, Wood and Haskell.

In Utah, the crops have been almost totally destroyed, and the farmers have commenced planting another crop.

The ship Harriet Hoxie has sailed for St. Bartholomew bay, Lower California, for a cargo of guano from the Ceres Islands, which are said to abound in the pure article.

BURGLAR SHOT.—The New York Herald tells us that on the 20th, in the small dark hours of the morning,

MRS. Lindsay, of No. 126 Eighth avenue, was awoke by the noise, as she supposed, of burglars. She intimated her suspicions to her husband, but he told her it was all imagination and that she should not be scared so easily about nothing. Mr. Lindsay then fell asleep, but his better half remained wide awake, as she felt convinced that her suspicions were correct. In about an hour or so after the first alarm, Mrs. Lindsay heard a noise quite plainly in the room adjoining that in which she slept. And on going out to the landing cautiously, she saw two fellows in the room, who with a lighted candle, were ransacking every nook and corner of the place in searching for plunder. The mistress of the house being a woman of strong nerves, without saying a word returned to her bedroom noiselessly, and in an instant, without letting her husband know anything of what was transpiring, seized a loaded revolver that hung at the head of the bed, and then going out on the landing again, took deliberate aim at one of the burglars, and firing off the weapon, succeeded in hitting him, for he immediately cried out "My God, Bill, I'm shot," and then retreated along with his companion down stairs, and made good their escape. The plunder that was intended to have been carried off, consisting of fine clothing and jewelry, was found on the floor, packed up in a neat little bundle, where it was left in the confusion of the moment. Spots of blood were also perceptible, showing evidently that Mrs. Lindsay's aim was by no means an indifferent one under the trying circumstances of the case.

Probably the sleepy husband woke up about that time—but the paper don't say.

PHILADELPHIA, July 24th.—Yesterday the abolitionists succeeded in kidnapping and spiriting away another negro slave, who had just arrived here from Cuba, with his master, a young Cuban recently a prisoner in Cuba for his connection with the Filibusters, but who managed to get on board the brig Gen. Taylor at Cardenas and escaped to this country.

About 300 persons assembled in the Exchange this evening to witness the sale of the main line of our public works. Governor Pollock and other State Officers were present. The auctioneer stated the terms of the sale, and that no bid less than $7,500,000 could be received. He then proposed $15,000,000, and gradually descended to $7,500,000, without receiving a single bid. After a delay of some time, the sale was adjourned sine die.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.

THIS House is now open for public accommodation. As everybody is, or ought to be, cognizant of the natural advantages of this purely OCEAN RETREAT, the public will not be bored with real or imaginary descriptions. Suffice it to say that every facility for the promotion of the happiness and quiet enjoyment of visitors may be found here.

SAGAMORE HOUSE,

FROST'S POINT, 8½ miles from Postsm. Depots.

THE Proprietor of the above House respectfully announces to the pleasure-seeking public that he will open for the season on WEDNESDAY, June 26th.

To those familiar with the locality of the Sagamore House, not a word is necessary in regard to its beautiful and healthful situation.—To strangers seeking rest and recreation by the seaside it affords attractions unequalled. Situated on a point of land at the Atlantic shore, near the Harbor of Portsmouth, the windows on three sides overlook the salt water. From the beach, the broad Atlantic, the Isles of Shoals, the beautiful Piscataqua, and the City of Portsmouth form a charming prospect, and in the background the green fields and leafy woods present a relieving contrast.

The House will be kept in the best manner, and every endeavor will be used to give satisfaction to its guests. The more effectually to do this, the proprietor has secured the services of MR. JOHN MACK, formerly of the Rockingham House, Portsmouth, whose experience and skill in hotel keeping will be a sufficient guarantee to all who know him that the management will be all that could be desired. The Table will be supplied with all the seasonable luxuries of the sea and land, and every effort used to render a sojourn at the Sagamore agreeable.

A Coach, in charge of an experienced driver, will run between the Sagamore House and the City of Portsmouth, leaving the Hotel at 8½ A.M. and 5½ P.M. Returning, leaves Portsmouth at 10½ A.M. and 7½ P.M., or on arrival of cars from Boston and Concord. Fare 25 cents. All orders left at WM. R. PARSONS, in Portsmouth, will receive prompt attention.

THOS R. CLARK, Proprietor.

PAVILION,
WOLFBOROUGH, N. H.

THE subscribers beg leave to inform their friends and the public that they have leased the above spacious Public House, which contains over one hundred well furnished rooms, which have been put in good order, for permanent and transient boarders. The House commands a good view of Lake Winnipisseogee, together with the beautiful hills which surround it—from one of which the prospect is said to excel that of Mount Washington—making many beautiful rides in the vicinity, on land as well as on the beautiful lake.

Good horses and carriages are connected with the house, and the beautiful steamboats "Lady of the Lake" and "Dover" make several trips each day up and down the lake. Gentlemen who delight in angling and gunning will find here ample fish for their sports—game. Meals at all hours, without extra charge, for sportsmen.—Good carriages and accommodating porters in attendance on the arrival of each boat.

The Boat is fitted with all the modern improvements for a Passenger Boat; and her double Engines are of the most approved pattern, and all her appointments are superior.

Towing done on reasonable terms. For particulars apply to the captain, or to Capt. Marshall at Pier wharf.

The boat can be chartered for sea Parties, upon application to the captain on board, giving reasonable notice.

je23 THOMAS MAKINNEY, Captain.

Yacht Sea Ranger,
FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased the Yacht Ranger for the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would be consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "Tired Nature's sweet restorer."

DR. J. W. POLAND'S HEADACHE KILLER!

PREPARED BY

DR. J. W. POLAND

Goffstown Centre, N. H.

THIS Wonderful Medicine for the Sick and Nervous HEADACHE, as well as for Tic Doloreux, Neuralgia and all forms of Nervous Diseases, after an impartial trial of more than six years, has established its reputation as a Sick and Remedy. Other Headache Remedies have "waxed and waned" since this was introduced to the public, but the Genuine DR. POLAND'S HEADACHE KILLER has been, and is now increasing in sales every year.

Within three months, more than seven tons in weight of the Headache Killer have been sent over the Railroads to fill orders for it.

Please to read the Circular, which the Agents have, and you will get the history of the Medicine.

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, internal or external? HAYES'S Allied Ointment and Humor Syrup will cure you just as sure as you use it. Take not our assertion for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it wants is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred in a single town. Ask those who do it, ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any of our agents, get a circular, select any name you please, address a line to that individual, and he will speak—they are living witnesses. It will cost but a trifle, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself:

LAWRENCE, June 12, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy results, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as THE article, and the ONLY one known to us, as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER, A. W. STEARNS,
S. L. THOMPSON, LASA TAPPAN.

It cures Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly,) Barber's Itch, Fever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In no case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves sight wonderfully, where the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

Price of the Ointment, $1; Syrup 50 cents.

CHARLES H. KENT, General Agent for the United States and Canada, Lawrence, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed.

Sold in Portsmouth, by Jos. H. Thacher, at the Good Samaritan Store, and W. R. Preston; and by Agents everywhere.

PAINTING A WILD BEAR.—A person who kept an inn by the roadside, went to a painter and inquired for what sum he would paint him a bear for a sign-board. It was to be a real good one, that would attract customers.

'Fifteen dollars,' replied the painter.

'That's too much,' said the innkeeper; 'Tom Lakin will do it for ten.'

'Is it to be wild or tame?' inquired the painter, not wishing to be unbid by his rival.

'A wild one, to be sure.'

'With a chain or without one?' again asked the painter.

'Without one.'

'Well, I will paint you a wild bear without a chain for ten dollars.'

The bargain was struck; the painter set to work, and in due time sent home the sign-board, on which he had painted a huge brown bear, of a most ferocious aspect. It was the admiration of all the neighbors, and drew plenty of customers to the inn.

One night there arose a violent storm of wind and rain, which led the innkeeper to look anxiously after his sign in the morning.

There it was sure enough swinging to and fro, but the bear had disappeared. He immediately hurried to the painter, and related what had happened.

'Was it a wild bear or tame one?' inquired the painter, coolly.

'A wild bear.'

'Was it chained.'

'I guess not.'

'Then,' said the painter, triumphantly, 'how could you expect a wild bear to remain in such a storm as that of last night without a chain? No bear would have done it.'

The innkeeper had nothing to say against so conclusive an argument, and finally agreed to give the painter fifteen dollars to paint him a wild bear with a chain, that wouldn't take to the woods in the next storm.

It is only necessary for us to add, that the first bear was painted in water colors, which the violent rain washed away, while the second was painted in oil colors.

A little boy about five years of age, was sent to the grocery store at the corner, on some trifling errand, and while there his bright eyes lighted on a barrel of pippins exposed temptingly to view, just outside the door. In going out it appears he took one, and returned to his mother munching it.

'Where did you get that nice apple, Willie?' inquired his mother.

'Got it at the grocery,' replied Willie.

'Did the man give it to you?'

'No, I took it.'

'Why, Willie, that was naughty; you should not take apples or anything else without permission.'

'But nobody saw me.'

'Oh, yes, Willie, there was one who saw you do it.'

'Who saw me?'

'Why God saw you.'

Willie stopped a moment to consider, and then with a good deal of excitement expressed in his face, replied:

'No, he didn't see me; there was an awning over the store door!'

The first Emperor Napoleon is reported by his faithful friend, Count de Montholon, to have expressed himself as follows concerning Jesus Christ: "Jesus is not a philosopher, for his proofs are miracles; and from the first his disciples adored him. In fact, learning and philosophy are of no use for salvation; and Jesus came into the world to reveal the mysteries of heaven and the laws of the spirit.—Alexander, Cæsar, Charlemagne, and myself founded empires; but on what foundation did we rest the creations of our genius? Upon force. Jesus Christ founded his empire alone upon love; and at his hour millions of men would die for him!"

BARNUM'S FARM ELEPHANT.—Mr. Barnum writes to the New England Farmer, in answer to an inquiry of the editor, that his working elephant eats on an average one bushel of oats and one hundred pounds of hay per day, Sundays and all! His weight is 4,700 pounds; he will accomplish any kind of work set before him, and uses ten times better judgment than three fourths of the 'help' which Barnum is obliged to employ on his farm, and above all things, he is not an eye-servant, but once set at work piling wood, picking up stones, or any thing else, he may be left without fear of his playing 'old soldier.' He adds, however, that he can not conscientiously recommend elephants as the cheapest workers on a farm, for they can not work in cold weather, and of course would eat themselves up, trunk and all, in a single winter.

UNCLE TONEY.—Toney Proctor, a free man of color, died at the residence of H. L. Rutgers, Esq., Tallahassee, Florida, on the 16th ult. The Tallahassee Sentinel says that he must have been at the time of his death at least one hundred and twelve years of age, and the probabilities are that he was several years older. It is known as a historical fact that he was at the battle of Quebec, on the 13th of September, 1759, some ninety-six years ago. His recollections of that event were clear and distinct. He was in the vicinity of Boston at the time the tea was thrown overboard, and afterwards at the battle of Lexington. He came to Florida long before the exchange of flags, and settled in St. Augustine, where he purchased his freedom, married, and reared a large family. He complained of no pains, no sickness, no aches of any kind. Being asked on Saturday morning how he felt, he replied, "Ah, Ben, I'm going." His extremities felt cold, and his breathing began to grow short, and gradually continued to grow shorter, until he breathed no more. Death seemed to come upon him like falling into a gentle sleep.

FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1855.

THE GIRL AND THE SNAKE.—The exhibition in this city last week, (says the Manchester Democrat,) of the girl and black snake from Gilmanton, did not prove a money-making business. Our people were disgusted with the idea of making a speculation out of a show so unnatural and revolting, and from which no possible good can be derived.

It is believed by many that the affair is a hoax, and that the child has been trained and the snake tamed by the parents of the child. The black snake has no fangs, and being a harmless reptile, can no doubt be tamed; yet from the evidence of reliable persons in the neighborhood of the affair, we have no doubt that the child without the knowledge of any one, became familiar with the snake, and fed and petted him for weeks before the discovery was made by her parents. The theory that the child is so charmed by the reptile that its death would be fatal to her, is mere fancy.—While here, no such attachment was manifest, and the child exhibited more vanity than fondness in twining it about her neck and arms.

It was reported that Mr. Barnum, through an agent sent for the purpose to Gilmanton, had secured this novelty as a new attraction to his museum. The report was premature. The father of the child, a worthless man of intemperate habits, had sold the snake to two neighbors at Gilmanton for $75, before coming to this city. A legal friend of ours informs us, that on Thursday he made out a bill of sale by which "all right and title to a certain black snake" was, for the sum of $500, cash, transferred to a Mr. Potter, of Boston, who on Friday morning departed with the snake and family for that city, where they are now on exhibition. If the child has any friends, they ought to save her from this loathsome disgrace.

The Boston Chronicle, whose reporter was present at Cochituate Hall on Wednesday, informs us that the snake bit the girl, and that Hill, the miserable father, is arrested.

The Chronicle says:—

Yesterday afternoon being announced as the last day for the exhibition of the "charmed girl" and her snake, some three hundred persons assembled in Cochituate Hall, and there witnessed the revolting spectacle of a beautiful, innocent child of about six years, in the coils of a loathsome, angry reptile. Our reporter entered the hall at half-past two, and furnishes the following account:

The spectators were standing upon chairs, forming a hollow semi-circle in front of the platform, upon which the child was seated, and holding in her lap the black, disgusting reptile, his head and neck protruding through her hands several inches, and its body occasionally wriggling and then at rest, while the angry flashing of its eyes, and its twisting and turning, created some apprehension that the snake would escape, but the wonderful stories told by the mother and others interested attracted the attention of the spectators. It was announced that that exhibition would now close, and be repeated in fifteen minutes. The snake having manifested extreme irritability and anger, the child seemed dreadfully frightened. The father of the girl attempted to take the snake in his hands, and succeeded with considerable difficulty in putting him into the box in which he is usually kept. The interim expired, and a call was made for another exhibition. The father, Lyford C. Hill, ordered his child to perform with the snake again, and she approached the box with an expression of horror on her infant face, and with extreme reluctance. The lid of the box was raised by the father, and by his direction the child took it from the cage, the snake appearing as ferocious as before, and was only restrained from biting by the firm hold of the tiny hand which grasped the upper part of its body; in changing hands, although the audience were quiet, and the change was made as gently as possible, the reptile seized the thumb of the child's left hand, and coiling about her arm, bit it, inflicting bad wounds. The poor child shrieked with pain and fear, and tried to free herself from the folds of the snake; the spectators were horror-struck; the father succeeded with great difficulty in getting the snake into the cage. We examined the wounds inflicted while the child was yet crying, and wiped the blood from her hand.—There was a general expression of indignation at this wonderful "fascination," and persons present seemed inclined to end the cruel, barbarous exhibition by killing the snake. The exhibition was continued, however, after a long interval, the child being induced by persuasions to take the snake again. At the close of this revolting exhibition there was an unequivocal expression of indignation and cries of "humbug, outrage, cruelty, &c." Thus closed the performance of the "charmed girl and her pet snake." A more disgusting, revolting spectacle never sickened a parent's heart or outraged every feeling of humanity.

During the time the exhibition has been open in this city, the snake has not for a moment, so far as we have been able to learn, evinced the least degree of docility, and there has been nothing like fondness on the part of the child or the snake for each other. We wonder that such a brutal exhibition should have been permitted for a single moment.

The case came before the Police Court on Thursday forenoon, when Justice Cushing held that an aggravated and brutal assault had been made out, and refusing to take jurisdiction of the case, ordered the defendant to recognize in $500 for trial at the Municipal Court in August.

UTICA, July 24th.—The Liquor Law.—Judge Congar has discharged a person prosecuted for a violation of the liquor law, on the ground that the law itself is unconstitutional.

The judges in New York are chosen by the people. Perhaps at the next election the judge himself may be discharged, as an unconstitutional judge. Who knows?

SEIZURE.—The police yesterday seized a quantity of liquor, which arrived here in a small sailing vessel.—Portland Argus, 26th.

WILTED JURIES.—When we have told temperance men, during the last three years, how strong the rum power was in Boston, they have been ready to think we overrated its comparative strength. Now they see it, by its money and by its social and political influence, buying the lawyers by dozens, and wilting the juries.

The Boston Telegraph of July 26, says,

The result of the liquor trials in the Municipal Court for the last few days, renders it probable that there will be no jury convictions under the law in this city. Jurors have failed to convict under the most simple and constitutional provisions of the law. * * *

An immediate resort to the seizure clause is indispensable in Boston. There has been no decision adverse to it, and no opinion expressed against it worth a moment's notice. The way is clear and the course is plain. Officers are protected in the discharge of their duty by a special provision of the law, and we see no reason whatever why the work of seizing liquors may not be commenced immediately and with entire success. Liquors once in the possession of the proper authorities cannot be easily recovered. There must be a jury trial before a rumseller can recover, and our friends, the liquor sellers, will find in placing their cases before a jury, that "the boot will be on the other leg." "It is a poor rule that don't work both ways." This disagreement among juries in Boston will then tell for our side. If a hundred barrels of liquor should be seized, there must be twelve men to say that it belongs to the claimant and must be restored to him, before he can lay his hands upon it.

A LADY DECORATED ON THE FIELD OF BATTLE.—While the attack on the Mamelon was going on, an English lady, the wife of one of the officers, was present, and displayed great coolness and courage. General Pennefather observing this, went up and cut off a medal from the coat of a dead Russian officer, and in the most gallant manner and with a pretty compliment pinned it on her shawl, saying she had fairly earned it. The general is a great favorite with the army, and the lady, who has great personal attractions, is the daughter of an old general officer, and highly prizes the medal, which she literally obtained on the field of battle.

The whole thing strikes Uncle Toby as horrible. General Pinfeather robs a dead man of his jewelry on the field, and a lady receives the stolen goods most gracefully, looking all the time on blood and carnage with composure! What next?

FAST WOMAN.—A silly old man from Maine, named Joseph Perley, has been robbed of $1900 in Charlestown, through the conspiracy of a man and woman, the latter of whom promised to marry him on condition of his purchasing a farm in Somerville, for which purpose he drew $1900 from the Blackstone Bank, Boston, which she appropriated while the old man was asleep at her house in Charlestown, and decamped. Miss Lucy A. H. Robinson, and an old fellow named De Lan Libbey, are charged with the larceny, and ordered to give bail in $3500 each for examination. A portion of the money was seen in Miss Robinson's hands. The bills were taken from his wallet, and slips of brown paper of the size of bank notes substituted.

BOWDOIN COMMENCEMENT.—The commencement of Old Bowdoin, which comes off next week, bids fair to be of even more than ordinary interest.

On Wednesday the exercises of commencement proper take place. On Wednesday afternoon, the President gives his annual levee. In the evening a grand ball is to be given by the graduating class. On the same evening, probably, an address will be delivered before the Maine Historical Society by Rev. Dr. Burroughs, of this city. Thursday forenoon, the Bowdoin Alpha of the Phi Beta Kappa hold their annual meeting, and will listen to an Oration from Rev. Dr. Thompson of New York.

SUDDEN DEATH.—John M. Gannett, Esq., of Walpole, only brother of Rev. E. S. Gannett, D. D., of Boston, fell dead upon the steps of the Boston Athenæum on Wednesday, about one o'clock. He was 71 years of age, and had lately been in declining health. He was ascending the steps of the Athenæum, and remarked to a companion that he could not get along as fast as when a boy, when he almost immediately fell, and died.

SAD.—A mother and child went into a daguerreotype saloon in Boston, on Wednesday, for a miniature of the infant. After it had been taken, and while awaiting its insertion in the case, the child fell from a stool on which it was standing, through the window to the brick pavement below, and died of its injuries soon after. The infant was about two and a half years of age, and fell from the third story.

COMMISSIONERS FOR COURT OF CLAIMS.—A. R. Hatch, Portsmouth; Benj. F. Thayer, Manchester; W. L. Foster, Concord; J. D. Sleeper, Haverhill; H. Hubbard, jr., Charlestown: have been appointed Commissioners of New Hampshire, to take depositions, &c. to be used in the Court of Claims.

The Halifax papers state that mackerel are selling in that market at one penny per dozen. They don't tell us how large the mackerel are, though.

LOCAL.

CITY COUNCIL.

THURSDAY, July 26.

ALDERMEN.—John W. Fernald and Oliver P. Kennard petitioned to be appointed agents under the new liquor law—laid on the table.

The committee to whom was referred the subject of continuing the sidewalk from Mr. Ball's House east to Mr. Jarvis's, reported that it be done, provided the abutters pay a certain proportion of the expense.

The resolution from the Council asking information as to the authority for taking down the building in Daniel street, was received, and the Mayor was requested to give the information asked.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The Council held a special meeting at the call of the Mayor.

The resolution offered two weeks ago, allowing the building committee to take down and sell the buildings on the school house lot, was taken from the table. A substitute was offered, to which an amendment was proposed which declared the illegality of the action of the board of Aldermen—pending which the whole matter was laid on the table, and a committee appointed to obtain the opinion of the City Solicitor.

A resolution passed, calling on the Aldermen for their authority for destroying the property of the city, without a concurrent vote of the Common Council.

ISLES OF SHOALS.

The readers of the Chronicle are, undoubtedly, the most intelligent portion of this community; still, astonishing as it may appear, many of them are not very well "posted up" in regard to our own romantic Isles of Shoals, as we know from numerous inquiries made of us concerning them. The following sketch of the islands we have gathered from various sources, during a number of visits, and it may be relied on as substantially correct.

The Isles of Shoals are a cluster of islands, eight in number, situated twelve miles south east of Portsmouth. For more than a century previous to the revolution, these islands were populous, containing from 300 to 600 people; but at present the permanent inhabitants number only about 175.

The largest of the group is Appledore, now owned by Hon. Thomas B. Laighton, and on which is his commodious Appledore House, well known to the travelling public as a favorite summer resort. Appledore contains 350 acres, a small portion of which is cultivated; the remainder serves as a pasture for 100 sheep and 6 or 8 head of cattle, that, with the exception of about two months in each year, get their own fodder. Mr. Laighton cuts hay enough to feed his stock the rest of the season. Quite a variety of birds and flowers are found on this island. We are not aware of any mere pleasant or healthful way of spending a few days, than by paying Mr. Laighton a visit. His charges are moderate, and if there is any virtue in pure air and good living, a guest at the Appledore will come away better than he went. It was on this island that Dinah Rollins, well remembered by many readers, took up her abode, sixteen or seventeen years ago. She went there after hidden treasure, it being rumored that Capt. Kidd had buried money thereabouts. Dinah was as black as the ace of spades, and used to frighten off the superstitious fishermen by appearing before them as a spectre.

The next in size is Star Island, containing 150 acres. The permanent residents number between 120 and 130. The public buildings consist of a church and school house;—Rev. Mr. Mason preaches at the former, and until recently his wife has taught at the latter.—Many anecdotes are told of the inhabitants of this isle, but we have room for only one. A woman of the name of Pusley, died in Gosport, in 1795, aged 90. In her life time she kept two cows. The hay on which they fed in winter, she used to cut in summer, among the rocks, with a knife. Her cows, it was said, were always in good order. They were taken from her, but paid for, by the British, in 1775, and killed, to the no small grief of the good old woman.

Of the other six islands not much can be said. The largest contains 100 acres, and the smallest 1 acre. On Smutty Nose Island are two dwelling houses, and on White Island is the lighthouse and a house for the keeper to live in. The others are uninhabited.

The steamer Silver Star runs between this place and the Shoals, leaving Pier wharf soon after the arrival of the trains on the Eastern and Portsmouth & Concord Railroads. We have been to the Shoals in her three times, this season, and do not desire a better mode of conveyance. She usually makes the trip in about an hour. T.

A SINGULAR GUN.—Dr. Colton, the agent for Dr. Boynton, showed us a gun yesterday, of a novel construction. It is called an "air gun." It has the appearance of a common straight cane, though somewhat longer. The upper half is hollow, into which air is forced by a small force pump. The expansive force of this air drives the ball. The lower half of the cane contains the barrel, in which a bullet is placed. The gun is cocked by placing a small key, somewhat like a large watch key, into a hole, turning it to a certain point, when it cocks, and at the same time throws out a pin. By pushing in this pin, the lock is made to drive back the valve holding the air, allowing a portion to escape sufficient to drive the ball. One charge of air, or one loading of the air-chamber, is made to throw fifteen balls, and will throw ten of them through an inch board at a distance of twenty-five yards. We saw him shoot five times through an inch and a half board,—and he said he could shoot a distance of fifty yards, and hit a mark three inches in diameter, nearly every time.

A gentleman came into our office yesterday, and presented us a bruised and battered cent, the only one he had. Upon inquiry, we learned that it had been shot at by Dr. Colton, with his air gun.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchits, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only wyile it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The steamship Atlantic, Capt. West, has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 14th inst.

The accounts of the crops from all parts of England are favorable.

Liverpool cotton market depressed, and 1-8 d lower, but closed more steadily. Wheat and flour were firm, owing to the small stock on hand, but Indian corn was 4s lower.

The British Parliament is to be prorogued on the 10th of August.

THE WAR.—Sebastopol had again been subjected to two days heavy fire without effect. The besiegers were erecting immense works against the Malakoff and Redan, and the beseiged were erecting equally formidable earthworks behind those defences.

Trifling operations in the Baltic are reported.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH FROM LONDON.—A despatch received at Liverpool on the moment of the steamer's departure, stated that Lord John Russell had resigned.

The circumstances which led to his resignation were the disclosures made by him of his course at Vienna, which disclosures led to the debate in the House of Commons on Friday the 13th. At the close of the debate Sir Lytton Bulwer moved that the conduct of the Minister, charged with negotiations at Vienna, and his continuance in office as a responsible adviser of the Crown, have shaken the confidence which the country should place in those to whom the administration of public affairs is entrusted. Previous to Lord John Russell's resignation, it was reported that if he did resign he would take the Grey section of the Cabinet with him, and that Lord Palmerston would fill their places with more decided men out of the liberal ranks, and also that Lord Derby was the coming man with another coalition cabinet.

FROM THE CRIMEA.—Another general assault is not far off. 30,000 men are employed on the works of attack. The Russians, in addition to other defences, are throwing up a formidable star fort behind the Redan. A weak fire was kept up on the 10th and 11th.

Cholera was decreasing, and the health of the allied army was satisfactory.

The Russians made a sortie on the night of the 7th on the works in front of the Mamelon, but effected nothing.

Committee to examine the affairs of the State Prison.—Nicholas V. Whitehouse, Rochester; William Haile, Hinsdale; Samuel Herbert, Rumney.

CROPS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Manchester Democrat of July 25th, says:

The crops never looked more promising.—The grass which the last of May looked as if a famine must stare us in the face next winter, is both abundant in quantity and excellent in quality. The wheat and rye crops are better than have been known in New Hampshire within fifteen years. Corn is growing beyond all precedent. As to potatoes, we heard a Weare farmer offer to deliver 400 bushels on Elm street in November, for 33 cents per bushel. Garden produce will be very plenty; so will fruit of all kinds. The present high prices of provisions must come down.

THE HARVEST.—The Buffalo Republic estimates that the increase of the crop of wheat this year will be twenty-two millions of bushels more than in 1850, and forty millions more than last year. According to this calculation, the yield will be 114,500,000 bushels in the grain-growing States.

A Convention of the Cotton Planters was held at Cooper's Well in Mississippi, on the 4th inst. The notable plan for the establishment of a foreign depot or agency abroad for the sale of southern cotton does not seem to meet with favor in Mississippi. The Vicksburg (Miss.) Sentinel suggests that the Dutch creditors of the State of Mississippi, if they found five or six millions worth of property belonging to Mississippi citizens in their own ports, would be likely to seize it, and it might be hard to get it back again.

RUM WORK.—A woman about seventy years of age, named Esther Morrow, who had two bottles of rum upon her person, was run over by the freight train on the Worcester and Providence Railroad on the 24th and killed.

SAGAMORE HOUSE,
FROST'S POINT, 3½ miles from Postsm. Depots.

THE Proprietor of the above House respectfully announces to the pleasure-seeking public that he will open for the season on WEDNESDAY, June 20th.

To those familiar with the locality of the Sagamore House, not a word is necessary in regard to its beautiful and healthful situation.—To strangers seeking rest and recreation by the seaside if affords attractions unequalled. Situated on point of land on the Atlantic shore, near the Harbor of Portsmouth, the windows on three sides overlook the salt water. From the beach, the broad Atlantic, the Isles of Shoals, the beautiful Piscataqua, and the City of Portsmouth form a charming prospect, and the fine background the green fields and leafy woods present a relieving contrast.

The House will be kept in the best manner, and every endeavor will be used to give satisfaction to its guests. The more effectually to do this, the proprietor has secured the services of MR. JOHN MACK, formerly of the Rockingham House, Portsmouth, whose experience and skill in hotel keeping will be a sufficient guarantee to all who know him that the management will be all that could be desired. The Table will be supplied with all the seasonable luxuries of the sea and land, and every effort used to render a sojourn at the Sagamore agreeable.

A Coach in charge of an experienced driver, will run between the Sagamore House and the City of Portsmouth, leaving the Hotel at 8½ A.M. and 5½ P.M. Returning, leaves Portsmouth at 10½ A.M. and 7½ P.M., or on arrival of cars from Boston and Concord. Fare 25 cents. All orders left at WM. R. PRESTON'S, in Portsmouth, will receive prompt attention.

Yacht Sea Ranger,
FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the season for fishing is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills flies.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such tolerable and not to be endured tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

A WORD TO LITTLE GIRLS.— Who is lovely? It is the girl who drops sweet words, kind remarks, and pleasant smiles as she passes along; who has a kind sympathy for every boy or girl she meets, and a kind hand to help her companions out of difficulty; who never scolds, never teases, nor seeks in any way to diminish, but to increase their happiness. Would it please you to pick up a string of pearls, drops of gold, diamonds, or other precious stones, as you pass along the street? But these are precious stones which can never be lost. Sympathize with those in trouble. Strive everywhere to diffuse around you sunshine and joy. If you do this, you will be sure to be beloved.

UPRIGHT MEN.—We love upright men.—Pull them this way or the other, and they only bend, but never break. Trip them down, and in a trice they are on their feet again. Bury them in the mud, and in an hour they would be out and bright. You cannot keep them down—you cannot destroy them.—They are the salt of the earth. Who but they start any noble project? They build our cities, whiten the ocean with their sails, and blacken the heavens with the smoke of their cars. Look at them, young men, and catch the spark of their energy.

REMOVAL.

Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,

(FROM LONDON,)
Has arrived at the
WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.
Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by that Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. jaly16 3w

A complete Relief from the Oppressive Heat of a Stove or Range.

THE Merits of this Article are too well known to require a lengthy description. It performs the work of Stove or Range, and Bakes quicker than either, and requires but one quarter the fuel. It has a Large Oven, and by an ingenious arrangement the Hot Air is carried around it at pleasure, so that it bakes in the most perfect manner, while at the same time the Boilers are placed directly over and close to the fire. On the top, which is flat, Irons are heated admirably, if required, and kept clean. It is made entirely of Iron, consequently is very durable; requires but little room, may stand in the open fire-place, (in Summer) or be placed parallel with the Range, and work it. CONVICTION OF THOMAS HALL.—In the Court of Sessions, on Saturday, Thomas Hall was tried and convicted on an indictment for grand larceny, and sentenced to two years' hard labor in the Auburn State Prison. This was a peculiar case. Hall is the individual who several months since picked up a package of $1600 in bank notes, which had been dropped by a messenger of Messrs. Breck & Perrin, bankers, while on his way to the express office. Hall took the package to his boarding house. Breck & Perrin recovered the most of their money, and Hall was held to answer for larceny. The evidence did not show that he had appropriated a single dollar to his own use; but he neglected to take the proper steps, when he found the money, to find an owner, and he must now suffer the consequences. Though many in court sympathized with the prisoner, his punishment is probably just. Let it be a warning to others who may be placed in similar circumstances. Let all remember that to appropriate the lost property is quite as bad, both morally and legally, as to steal the same.—Rochester Union.

A PAIR OF LUNATICS.—In a case of lunacy in the Police Court on Monday, the former Superintendent of the Lunatic Hospital gave the party a note, and said to the officer, "if you will let him go, he will go directly to the hospital." The officer hesitated, but upon the assurance of the physician, who had long known him in his periodical attacks of insanity, that there would be no risk, the unfortunate man was set at liberty, took the omnibus to South Boston, and presented himself at the hospital with the note. "But where is your commitment?" inquired the attendant. "That will be all right," said the lunatic; "the commitment will be brought over in the afternoon." In another case in the same hospital, a lunatic was informed by his brother that considerable property had fallen to the family, and asked what disposition should be made of his portion. "You let me out, and I'll take care of it," was the prompt reply.—Boston Post.

Five of the negroes implicated in the rescue of Mr. J. H. Wheeler's slaves, have been held for trial. In the meanwhile, says the New York Express, the question is asked where are the slaves? but beyond the conjecture that they were persuaded to take the underground railroad, nobody pretends to answer it. There need be no alarm on this point. If the slaves were as reluctant to go, as is represented, they will of course make their way back by the earliest train. Having been kindly taken by Mr. Wheeler, "at their own request," for a pleasure trip to Nicaragua, it is not likely that they will allow their journey to be interrupted by the Philadelphia fanatics. Depend upon it, they will return the first opportunity.—Boston Telegraph.

PRICE OF FLOUR.—Accounts from different parts of the country indicate that breadstuffs will soon be had at cheaper rates than at present. The Indianapolis Journal of the 6th inst. says that a large dealer in that city offers to give bond for the delivery of 5000 bbls. of flour by November next $5.50 per bbl. The Mobile Tribune of the 19th ult. says that new flour is selling there at $5 per bbl. It predicts that three weeks hence flour will be had at that place for $3.50 per bbl. New flour will soon be in the market in abundance.—The recent rains throughout the country have raised the mill streams, and milling is going on with all possible dispatch, each miller being desirous of getting ahead of his competitors before the prices recede to lower figures.

ROSE WITHOUT A THORN.—There is in the garden of B. B. David, Esq., in this village, a floral curiosity, being a perfectly formed rose, growing up in an apple-tree, and upon a natural limb. There is also a similar bud on the same limb, notwithstanding the tree had been out of blossom a week.—Amherst Cabinet.

BARNUM'S FARM ELEPHANT.—Mr. Barnum writes to the New England Farmer, in answer to an inquiry of the editor, that his working elephant eats on an average one bushel of oats and one hundred pounds of hay per day, Sundays and all! His weight is 4,700 pounds; he will accomplish any kind of work set before him, and uses ten times better judgment than three fourths of the 'help' which Barnum is obliged to employ on his farm, and above all things, he is not an *eye*servant, but once set at work piling wood, picking up stones, or any thing else, he may be left without fear of his playing 'old soldier.' He adds, however, that he can not conscientiously recommend elephants as the cheapest workers on a farm, for they can not work in cold weather, and of course would eat themselves up, trunk and all, in a single winter.

CHILDREN ATTACKED BY RATS.—A correspondent writes us that three or four children who were playing in the yard of No. 3, Wooster street, yesterday afternoon, were attacked by four enormous rats. Each rat selected a victim and sprung squealing upon the little girls. The girls ran to the house, but one little boy of two years was followed by a rat, which caught him by the right knee and held on until the child's grandfather went to his assistance. The rat would not run, and so he was killed. Attempts have been made to poison these rats previously, and it is feared the bite upon the child's knee may prove serious. It is a singular affair.—New Haven Cour.

WOMAN IN THE WOODS.—A young woman was on Monday forenoon found wandering in the woods in the suburbs of Bath, Me., and is said to have been roaming in that vicinity for three weeks, entirely without any shelter. She stated that her name was Emily Ann Rollins—that she belongs in Dover, N. H. She was sent home.

SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1855.

MANUFACTURING PROFITS IN MAINE.—The Boston Post says:

The Hill Mill, at Lewiston, with a capital of $350,000, has earned $22,000 net, in the three and a half months in which it has been in full operation. It produces fine cottons. The capital is to be increased to $400,000, and it is probable that by January next its profits will be sufficient to allow of this increase by a stock dividend to the proprietors. We learn that in making up the accounts the manufactured goods on hand were reckoned at one and a half to two cents per yard below the price that could have been obtained for them; and yet the profits of three and a half months were $22,000. New machinery, shrewd management, and no bad debts, will do wonders in manufacturing.

Very true; so they will: but this story, taken as a whole, is almost incredible. Let us see, 20 to 25 per cent. profit per annum, is rather more than cotton mills commonly pay. If there is not some little humbug about this stock, it must command a premium and will sell quick. Possibly this item is made to sell it. Who knows?

APOLOGETIC.—The Boston Bee says, that our remark about the Demijohns, was "too fast," and adds:

Now the fact is notorious that about all this 'demijohn' trade is carried on out of town. There are hundreds who come in from the country, buy liquors, and often get drunk here, as the arrests show. It is unfair on this account, to call our people 'besotted.'

We beg pardon for the error; as it appears from the above, not that some people in Boston are themselves 'besotted'—but rather that by their trade they besot their neighbors in the country.

Apropos of this matter, the Boston correspondent of the Newburyport Herald says:

From present appearances, the liquor law of 1855 will be as powerless as the liquor law of 1852 in the Sebastopol of the liquor trade. It is very doubtful whether a jury can be found here who will convict liquor dealers under the present stringent law, and the friends of temperance must therefore patiently wait until the pressure from without forces the citadel to surrender. The people of the country towns have already begun to appreciate the advantages of prohibitory laws in an economical point of view; and when the citizens of Boston become aroused to the fact that a cessation of liquor selling would reduce their pauper and criminal expenses more than one half, they will demand that the traffic shall be stopped.

SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY.—This beautiful principle seems to have run mad in the Kansas Legislature. On the 18th July,

Mr. Anderson introduced a bill providing that no person be permitted to take a seat in the Legislature without taking an oath to support the fugitive slave law, and that all persons convicted of propagating, or in any way circulating contrary sentiments or opinions, be ineligible to any office of honor, trust, or profit in the Territory. The bill was read for the first time.

It was unanimously voted that the Sergeant at Arms furnish the House with a copy of the laws of Congress of 1850, and the laws of Massachusetts of 1855.

The evening session was prefaced by a rough and tumble fight between Mr. Miller, editor of the Westport News, and Mr. Brady, public printer to the Territory. Both are pro slavery men, and the fight is supposed to have originated in the difference of their intensity of hate for abolitionists.

Mr. Woodson, Secretary of the Territory, is reported to have said he would assume the reins of government in case Governor Reeder refused to recognize the Legislature.

POLITICAL 'DRY ROT.'—The Hon. Mr. Stephens of Georgia, in a speech on the present state of political parties, has the following in regard to the national Democrats:

The only basis of party organisation is an agreement among those who enter into it upon the paramount question of the day. And no party can last long without bringing disaster and ruin in its train, founded upon any other principle. The old national Whig party tried the experiment when there were radical differences of opinion on such questions, and went to pieces. The national Democratic party are now trying a similar experiment, and are experiencing a similar fate. This is what is the matter with it. Its vital functions are deranged—hence that disease which now affects it worse than dry rot.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for August, contains, as embellishments, an engraving of the Young Widow and her children,—colored Fashion Plate, and the Organ Grinder. The table of literary contents is rich.

Some scamp of a Dutch printer has borrowed $15 of Mr. Godey, on pretence of being an editor,—but he is at least a cousin to Signor Jeremy Diddler—so Godey advertises him. His name is John B. Potts, alias John S. Strumph. Pass him round.

LOST BAGGAGE.—On the 14th of July, at Rochester, N. Y., there was a convention of baggagemen. Delegates were present from all the railroads between the Atlantic and the Mississippi. Each delegate brings with him a description of the unclaimed baggage in possession of his company, and also a description of the missing baggage inquired for on his road. In this way much baggage is found and means taken to restore it to its owners.

ANOTHER MARTYR.—A few days ago we published the brief statement, that a man named Brownell Slocum was burned to death at Portsmouth, R. I., on Sunday, July 22d. Now we learn from the Providence Journal that he was a man of somewhat intemperate habits, aged nearly seventy years; and that he lived alone in a small house, which was seen by a neighbor, about noon, to be smoking; the neighbor hastened thither, and found the whole interior a mass of flames. The door of the house standing open, he called to learn if any one was within. To his surprise Slocum proved to be there, answering, "Put out the fire." It was found impossible to enter the house by the door, and a place was stove through the opposite side, but so intense was the fire that no one could venture in, and everything was burnt. As Slocum was seen by several neighbors a short time before the smoke was discovered, it is supposed that in attempting to light his pipe or kindle a fire, he accidentally set fire to some of his furniture, and was intoxicated, and unable to escape.

DEATH BY A FALL.—On Wednesday, just before twelve o'clock, a man named Doyle, residing in Minot street, Boston, either jumped or fell out of the third story window to the sidewalk, and striking on his head, was so badly injured that he died in a few minutes. The man was undressed, and a fan was found by his side.

It is supposed that he either arose from his bed and walked out of the window in a somnambulic fit, or that he seated himself in the window for the purpose of becoming cool, and going to sleep, fell out. The wife of the deceased went out of town the previous afternoon, and no one in the house could give any information in regard to the unfortunate affair.

☞ Our readers remember a storm of wind and dust which occurred here on Thursday evening, July 19. In Maine, they had more of it, with rain and thunder.

A little girl of six or seven years, named McLucas, was killed by lightning at Brownfield, Me. She was playing on the floor, and was struck by the fluid which passed into the room by way of the iron stove funnel. A woman was also killed in Limington, and a yoke of oxen in Limerick. In Westbrook, the wind in its course took a barn on the farm of Joseph Reed, Esq., seventy feet long by thirty in width, completely demolishing the whole, throwing boards and timber in all directions. There were three loads of hay in the barn, two of which were not unloaded, neither of which were injured.

ROBBER SHOT.—The Cleveland, Ohio, Plaindealer of July 17th, says:

The firm of Clemens & Caughee, of Erie, has experienced for some months the visitations of an adroit burglar. Their store has been opened several times, and money of different amounts taken. Six hundred dollars was taken at one time. The robber had keys to the door and safe, and was so skilful as to evade all watchers. Last night, however, one of the firm watched, having secreted himself in a loft, the floor being scuttled so that he could see down to the store. He was successful. A light appeared in the store below. He saw the burglar was about to leave, when Mr. C. called to him to stop, and told him that if he moved toward the door he was a dead man. He hesitated, but finally plunged for the door, and Mr. C. fired. He however escaped, was tracked a short distance by his blood, and was at last found at a neighboring house, nearly dead, the whole charge of the rifle having entered his shoulder and passed down into his body. He proved to be a man by the name of Mark Miner, and confessed his crimes. He was just alive when the cars left this morning.

THE NORTH PROVIDENCE POWDER OUTRAGE.—Justice Earle of Providence, on Tuesday, decided to hold Henry M. Tucker to bail of $10,000, on the charge of blowing up his father's house on the night of the 12th inst.—The principal evidence before the examining magistrate was that one witness saw him on the 30th of June in a hardware store in Boston, which had a sign of "licensed to keep and sell gunpowder"; that a woman saw a man, whom she supposed to be him, on the evening of the 12th in a street in Providence, having what she took to be a keg under his arm; and that he was seen and spoken to going into his residence ten or fifteen minutes after the explosion took place, and afterwards to his father's shattered house. The powder dealers of Boston could not remember any particular transaction made in the hurry of business just before July 4th, but they recognized pieces of the keg of Whipple's brand.—Boston Courier.

A NEW DODGE.—A day or two ago one of the Custom House officials discovered a person coming across the river, with what was apparently an oil can, holding about a gallon. He had a little curiosity to examine its contents, and asked the holder what he had inside of it. 'Nothing but water,' said he, and pulled the cork out and let the official 'take a smell'—and sure enough it was water. But as he had seen similar looking 'oil cans' passing frequently, he concluded to examine it closely, when he found that the cork communicated with a small chamber in the top of the can, which was filled with water, but that the side spout connected with the 'milk chamber,' or lower apartment, which was filled with the 'real critter.' This side spout pulled out, and the lower end was stopped tight with a cork to prevent the contents getting out, only as the spout was taken out.

LOCAL.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE LIQUOR LAW.

City of Portsmouth, Mayor's Office,
July 26, 1855.

To the Citizens of Portsmouth:

The subject of the intemperate use of ardent spirits—the evils which have resulted from the temptations which the free sale has afforded to the inebriate—the suffering, crime and pauperism attendant upon intemperance, have long awakened a deep interest interest among you, and an earnest desire to check the evil.

About two months since, a petition on this subject was presented to the City Council, signed by a large number of our most respectable and influential citizens, representing that the good order, industry and prosperity of the city would be greatly promoted by the suppression of drinking-houses and tipplingshops, praying that the proper means might be used for their suppression under the the then existing laws of the State and ordinances of the city. The City Council, regarding the subject as important to the moral as well as to the pecuniary interests of the city, in both branches passed a resolution directing the Mayor to instruct the City Marshal to enforce the then existing law. But as a new law for the suppression of intemperance in the State was then maturing, the execution of the old law was not enforced.

That new law has now been passed, is before the people, and will be in force on the 13th day of August next. Its first section makes the sale of intoxicating liquors, except for particular purposes and under certain restrictions, not only unlawful, but criminal.—The 20th section makes it the duty of the Mayor and Aldermen of every city to prosecute at the expense of the city every person guilty of the violation of any of the provisions of this act.

The members of the city government are bound by their official oaths to observe and execute the laws of the State. The spirit of the law just passed by our Legislature being in full accordance with the prayer of the petitioners, on which the recent resolution of the City Council was adopted, the Mayor feels confident that the wishes of a large majority of his fellow citizens will be answered by a strict observance of the requirements of the Statute; and feels confidence of their full co-operation with him in the discharge of his duty, so plainly pointed out.

If the law in its operation is oppressive, and proves to be detrimental to the best interests of the city, and to the peace and welfare of the community, it is clearly in the hands of the sovereign people, and may be repealed. But the Mayor regarding it as unquestionably his duty to see that the law is executed, earnestly requests all good citizens to give him their aid and influence in its enforcement.

The Mayor gives public notice that he shall instruct the City Marshal to enforce the recent Statute law for the suppression of intemperance, on and after Monday, the 13th day of August, 1855, faithfully, fearlessly and impartially. All citizens of Portsmouth will therefore take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

HORTON D. WALKER, Mayor.

POLICE COURT.—Before Justice Bennett—Geo. E. Smart was charged by C. Robinson with rescuing cows from drivers who were taking the animals to Pound. The case was postponed, but was settled out of court by the defendant's giving bonds to keep the cows away from the complainant's premises, without the ground included between the South Mill, the Depot and Auburn street,—the defendant to pay the costs.

SALES TO-DAY.—Geo. W. Towle offers at auction a span of first rate horses and harnesses, at 11 o'clock, in front of his room.

The sale of Real Estate on Water Street, by H. F. Wendell, takes place to-day at 12 o'clock.

Various other articles are also to be sold by Messrs. Wendell and Towle, at their sales rooms.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Friday forenoon, Walter Rowe, a lad of 12 years, son of Mr. Alexander H. Rowe, fell about twenty feet through two scuttles in a building on Hanover street, striking on his head, rendering him insensible. Under medical aid he has revived to some extent.

☞ Henry, a little boy two years old, only son of Robert Simpson, of this city, on Thursday morning fell backwards into a tub of boiling water, scalding him so as to make one blister from his hair on the back of his head to his thighs; he went into convulsions in about six hours, and died the next morning.

☞ Dr. Boynton's Lecture on Mechanical Astronomy, delivered in the Temple on Thursday evening, was attended by a fair audience for a rainy evening.

The lecture was clear and instructive; simple, yet profound and logical. It is the first of eight,—and having attended his former course throughout, we are prepared to recommend the present as a rare opportunity to gain instruction by listening to most agreeable lectures.

The Second Lecture is to be on Tuesday evening next. Subject, the Crust of the Earth. (See Advertisement.)

☞ The bunch of dirt near the north western corner of the new North Church, has become one of our institutions. We hope not a permanent fixture, however; but would thank some Know Nothing to remove it secretly; and if he should at the same time mend the pavement and sweep the crossing to the Brick Market, we will agree not to expose him.

CITY COUNCIL.

FRIDAY, July 27.

An adjourned meeting of the Common Council was held to hear the opinion of the City Solicitor, on the legality of the action of the Board of Aldermen in taking down the building on the high school lot, without a concurrent vote of the Common Council.

The Solicitor gave it as his opinion that the action of the Aldermen had been illegal, but thought that the Council, after having voted to build the school house and raised the money for the purpose, they should without delay have concurred with the Aldermen in a vote to remove any obstruction to the execution of plans adopted.

A communication was received from the Mayor, in answer to a resolution passed on Thursday evening, giving the authority of the Board of Aldermen for taking down the building on the high school lot, which he stated to be founded on several concurrent votes of the city council.

A motion to print the two documents was lost by a vote of 14 to 6, and they were laid on the table.

The original resolution authorizing the destruction and sale of the buildings, and the proposed amendments were taken up.

The first of the amendments was the following, offered as a substitute for the original resolution:

Whereas, By virtue of several resolutions heretofore passed by concurrent votes of both branches of the City Council, the Board of Aldermen have claimed and exercised the power, without a special concurrent vote of the Common Council, to take down the buildings on the lot purchased for the new High School House; and

Whereas, The said buildings are now valueless for the purpose of habitation, therefore

Resolved, If the Board of Aldermen concur, that the Building Committee be authorized to sell the lumber, &c. taken from the buildings on the high school lot at auction, to the highest bidder.

It was proposed to amend the preamble by adding after the word "power," in the first sentence, the words, "and in our opinion and belief, illegally."

The amendment was rejected, 11 to 9.

The yeas and nays were called on the questions of laying on the table, indefinite postponement, and amendment by striking out the resolution, each of which were negatived by vote of 13 to 6.

The preamble and resolution were then adopted as a substitute for the original resolution by a vote of 10 to 9.

Pending their final passage, it was proposed to amend by substituting the following resolution, for the one above:

Resolved, If the Board of Aldermen concur, that a special committee of three from the Common Council and two from the Board of Aldermen, be appointed to dispose of the lumber, &c. on the school house lot in Daniel street, in such manner as they may deem most for the interest of the city.

The amendment was adopted and the preamble and resolution finally passed, by a vote of 16 to 3.

An ordinance from the board of Aldermen, fixing the compensation of the Superintendent of Lamps, was read and referred.

A resolution passed, requesting the Mayor to order the City Marshal and Assistants to make quarterly reports to the City Council, in accordance with the provisions of ordinance No. 8.

BRING OUT YOUR LAMPS.—The Agent of the Gas Company gives notice that after Monday next the supply of gas will be cut off for about two weeks.

TO BE CLOSED.—The Dry Goods dealers in this city will on and after Monday evening next, close their stores at 7 o'clock P. M., the arrangement to continue so long as the supply of gas is cut off.

EASTERN RAILROAD.—The adjourned meeting of the Stockholders of the Eastern Railroad Company, will be held at Chapman Hall, in Boston, on Monday 30th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Stockholders will be expected to pay their fare in the cars, which will be refunded to those who attend the meeting, together with a ticket to return.

RESPONSIBILITY.—A correspondent suggests, that the President of the Eastern Railroad Corporation, who signed the certificates of stock issued fraudulently by the Treasurer, is, or ought to be responsible for their issue—not that he intended to aid him in committing fraud, for the correspondent esteems the president as honest and honorable—but because he was culpably negligent in not applying a simple and effectual check on such issues.

We are not acquainted with the manner of issuing, and therefore cannot judge accurately; but if there are checks, by all means apply them.

☞ The Rev. Albert Case is expected to preach in the Universalist House, in this city, next Sunday.

Notice.

MY Customers in the city and country are respectfully informed, that I will close my Store, corner of Daniel street and Market square, every day at 7 o'clock, P. UNCLE REMINDER.—The N. Y. Herald, an arch-lover of slavery, raps both the dominant party in New Hampshire and their opponents as follows:

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

The House commands a good view of Lake Winnipiseogee, together with the beautiful hills which surround it—from one of which the prospect is said to excel that of Mount Washington—making many beautiful rides in the vicinity, on land as well as on the beautiful lake.

Good horses and carriages are connected with the house, and the beautiful steamboats "Lady of the Lake" and "Dover" make several trips each day up and down the lake. Gentlemen who delight in angling and canning will find here ample field for their favorite enjoyment. Yacht Sea Ranger,

FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished herself with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING, alias Silver Star, in eventide, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.

For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SOMNO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first juvented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Ready Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forms of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

DAVIS'S YEAST CAKES—an excellent article for raising Bread, Cake, &c. For sale by je18 ALBERT A. PAYNE.

NOT QUITE CORRECT.—At the anniversary of the American Bible Society in May, held in New York, one of the speakers related that Bunyan said he once found a lady reading the Bible with Scott's notes, and he asked her if she understood it. She said she understood the Bible, but did not quite understand the Notes. What spoils the above is, Bunyan died 106 years before Scott's Notes were published. Public speakers should be cautious about what anecdotes they relate.—Many of them pass from one to another, and sometimes gain a little by the way, so that finally they are a great way from being correct.—Exeter News-Letter.

PATENT "DICKEYA."—A man in New York has invented, patented, and introduced a paper "dickey" which he sells at three cents and warrants to stand with the mercury at 90 degrees in the shade. He makes the article by machinery, at the rate of 1000 per hour, starches and polishes them until they are as brilliant as if made of linen.

GENERAL EMANCIPATION.—In the late revolution in Peru, the slaves were all set free. Echenique, one of the leaders, promised to free all who would join his banner, but Castilla beat the former at his own game, and promised freedom unqualifiedly to all. He was successful, and Echenique had to save himself by flight.

New England Blacking.

THIS new and elegant composition is the result of eight years' experimenting, to attain the end of combining in one composition, ease and, which will render Boots and Shoes soft and pliable, and a

can be produced sooner which will retain its beauty longer than any other article of the kind in this or any other country.

The great beauty of my NEW ENGLAND OIL PASTE BLACKING arises from the use of the very best materials in compounding, which are manufactured to order, together with a scientific and an effective combination, the result of long practice, and expensive experimental trials.

A complete Relief from the Oppressive Heat of a Stove or Range.

THE Merits of this Article are too well known to require a lengthy description. It performs the work of Stove or Range, and Bakes quicker than either, and requires but one quarter the fuel. It has a Large Oven, and by an ingenious arrangement the Hot Air is kept at your pleasure, so that it bakes in the most perfect manner, while at the same time the Boilers are placed directly over and close to the fire. On the top, which is flat, Irons are heated admirably, if required, and kept clean. It is made entirely of iron, consequently is very durable; requires but little room, may stand in the open fire-place, (in Summer) or be placed parallel with the Range, and work it. It burns either Wood, Bark, Chips or Charcoal, and may be adapted to almost any place. Try it: it is sure to please.

A SUGGESTION TO FISHERMEN.—The Collector of this Port has received a Circular from Hon. W. L. Marcy, Secretary of State, calling attention to certain Acts of the British North American Colonial Legislatures, and Municipal regulations, intended to prevent the wanton destruction of the fish which frequent the coasts of the Colonies, and injuries to the fishing interests.

There is no provision in the Reciprocity Treaty for the observance of these laws by our fishermen, yet as they operate equally to their advantage, it is deemed reasonable that they should observe them strictly. It is certainly for their own interest to do so.

One of these is that proper "gurry grounds" shall be marked out and designated by the County Wardens, and no person shall cast overboard, from any boat or vessel, the offal of fish into the waters near any parish, at any place except the said gurry grounds.

Another is, that within the parishes of Grand Manan, West Isles, Campo Bello, Pennfield, and St. George, no seine or net shall be set across any haven, river, creek or harbor, nor in such place extending more than one third the distance across the same, or be within forty fathoms of each other, nor within twenty fathoms of the shore at low water mark.

Yet another is, that no herrings shall be taken, between the 15th of July and the 15th of October, on the spawning ground at the Southern Head of Grand Manan, to commence at the Southern part of Seal Cove, at a place known as Red Point:—thence extending westerly along the coast and around the head of Bradford's Cove, about five miles, and extending one mile from the shore—under penalty of the forfeiture of all nets or engines so used, and the punishment of every person so offending as guilty of a misdemeanor.—Eastern Argus.

NOTICES TO MARINERS.—A lighthouse has been erected on the outer end of Portland Breakwater. The structure is of wood, and the plan octagonal. The centre of the light is 23 feet above the breakwater, and 25 feet above ordinary high water. The illuminating apparatus is Fresnel Lens, of the sixth order. The light is fixed, red; and should be visible in the ordinary states of atmosphere 10 3 4 statute miles, or 9 3-4 nautical miles.—The color of the lighthouse is white. Bearings from the lighthouse.—Buoy on Spring Point Ledge, SE by E 1-2 E, distant 7-8 mile; Buoy off Breakwater, N by E 1-4 E, distant 300 yards. The light will be lighted for the first time at sunset, August 1, 1855, and will be kept burning every night thereafter, from sunset to sunrise.

The Honolulu New Era and Argus says:—We are informed by Capt. D. P. Penhallow, of Honolulu, that about three miles westward of Koloa, Kauai, and about 1 1-4 miles from the nearest shore, lies a large and dangerous rock, with about five feet of water upon it.

The poetical effusions first introduced by Martin Luther, A. D. 1517, were chiefly sung to German melodies. These ancient airs, so expressive of religious solemnity, were originally applied in the French court to licentious songs; and "Old Hundred," written long before Martin Luther's time, was a love ditty. The queen of Henry II. sung her favorite psalm, 'Rebuke me not in Thy indignation,' to a fashionable jig; and Anthony, king of Navarre, sung 'Stand up, O Lord, to revenge my quarrel,' to the air of a dance of Poitou. These gems are still in use in our churches.

Rev. Dr. Bellows stated at the Unitarian festival, that Florence Nightingale was a Unitarian. The Churchman corrects Mr. B., and says that she is not only not a Unitarian, but is an earnest member of the Church of England, and has been much occupied in works of mercy in connection with the Episcopal church.

ACCOMMODATING.—It is said that one of the deputy keepers in the New York Tombs has been complained of for taking from his cell the notorious Pat McLaughlin alias Paugene, one of the parties under indictment for the murder of the late Bill Poole, and escorting him to houses of prostitution, drinking saloons, and giving him a fine time about town. The process on which Pat took his airing was an "examination paper." Perhaps the other prisoners indicted for the same offence are also occasionally taken out for the benefit of their health. The case is to be investigated.

HORSE FASCINATION.—George Shank, who lived as hostler with Dr. Oelig, in Waynesboro', Pa., hung himself on account of grief for the death of a favorite horse of the doctor's named 'Fox,' during whose sickness Shank was heard to say, 'When Fox dies I want to die too.' After the animal's death, when removing its halter, he remarked, 'this halter will do me a service some day,' and verified the remark by ending his own life with it.

ORATOR AT THE STATE FAIR.—Prof. Charles B. Haddock, of Hanover, will deliver the address before the N. H. State Fair, to be held in Manchester the middle of next September. The society has been fortunate in securing him. He was Charge D'Affaires to Portugal under the administration of Taylor, and is considered the most finished scholar New Hampshire ever produced. He is the Everett of our State, and his oration is sure to be a rich one. Hon. John M. Botts, also, will be present to make some remarks at the close of the regular address.—Manchester Mirror.

One of the Commissioners of Hamilton county, Ohio, has recently been convicted on an indictment for official misconduct. The testimony, it is alleged, showed that he had paid $700 for building a bridge that cost but $110, and that the contractor to whom he gave the job promised him a present of one hundred dollars.

The Pastoral Letter of the archbishop of Cincinnati, signed also by the bishops of Cleveland, Louisville, Vincennes, and Covington, and the vicar and coadjutor of Michigan, recently issued, contains an earnest warning against using or trafficking in spirituous liquors.

MONDAY, JULY 30, 1855.

MAINE.

Our editorial friends in Maine, are together by the ears in a political "scrimmage." The grand question appears to be, rum or no rum. Slavery and the administration of President Pierce, are treated as side issues, by some,—nevertheless others will put them in and contend against them.

The Argus says that "the only charge against the Democratic party of Maine by its opponents is, that of being the Rum party. This is the solitary issue they present." And then it goes on to show that the democracy alone are sound, are reliable and trustworthy upon the "sacred cause of temperance!"

The Argus supports Judge Wells for Governor. So does the Expositor,—and the latter says,

We admonish all true friends to the welfare of the State—to eschew all national topics in this election. We say, that voting for or against Judge Wells, carries with it no moral or political force either for or against the national administration, or Mr. Pierce.

The Argus, in the only well directed and sound article which we have ever seen in that paper on this subject—puts the pending election exclusively on this Maine Law issue, and ignores the whole and every phase of the slavery question in it. Let this fact be remembered by all sides. The only issue pending, "the issue" says the Argus, is the liquor law. We say amen to all this.

It is a remarkable fact that every paper in Maine which applauds the present federal administration, and which publishes the laws and advertisements of the U. S., also supports Judge Wells. It is another remarkable fact that the Bangor Journal urges the straight whigs to do nothing else but defeat Morrill and the intensified law. It says:

The cry of Nebraska, so frequent, is not only a false alarm, but the people are justly considering it ludicrous. They know it has nothing to do with them this year. It is no more an issue than the cry of Cuba. Rum hunkers is another abusive reproach heaped upon the honest part of the temperance people of this State. Endorsement of Frank Pierce is another of those false alarms to frighten Whigs from their consistency. We take it that the Whigs of Maine know their own sentiments of Mr. Pierce. This endorsement of Frank Pierce is a family quarrel among the Democrats, and let them have it out.—The Whigs will not meddle with it—if they do, they will probably come off about as well as the benevolent individual does who interferes in the quarrels between a man and wife. Let the Fusionists do this if they wish for sore heads, but the Whigs must on to the work before them.

The Augusta Age speaks against the intensified law, as—

Denying to Christian churches the privilege of obtaining that wherewith for eighteen centuries they have celebrated the Eucharist, and compelling them either to violate law, in its procurement, or to use, in its stead, the juice of currants.

It also says—

This cry of "Morrill and temperance" is the merest clap trap for political effect. The cry of "Wells and Rum" is one of those coarse, unmanly and vulgar modes of carrying on a warfare, which this "Reform party" has lately introduced.

All the above extracts, on which we offer no comment, are from papers which oppose Gov. Morrill.

Per contra, he is supported by many papers, among which is the Augusta Journal.

The contest is, according to the Journal, between Morrill, Temperance and Freedom on the one side, and Wells, Rum, and Slavery extension on the other.

Senator Jones, of Tennessee, has written a letter, in which he expresses the opinion, that, unless the Southern States unite for the promotion and protection of their own interests, some person who is opposed to slavery will inevitably be elected to the presidency. He accordingly recommends the abandonment of all party ties and relations, and the union of the whole South, to avert so dire a catastrophe.

It is quite uncertain who the next President will be: but in our opinion a Southern man, of sufficient character and force to command votes in his own section, and yet of sufficient moderation and conservatism not to be offensive to the North or West,—will stand the best chance.

It is common to select the President from one section, and the Vice President from another. Perhaps the West may furnish the Vice President.

The reader remembers that Taylor, a slave holder from the South, was supposed to hold the missionaries of slavery in check: but he died, and Fillmore, a professed friend of the slave from the North, signed the fugitive bill of 1850.

President Pierce is from the North; and he not only signed, but pushed through the Nebraska bill. V. P. King, from the South, could have done no more, had he lived and Mr. Pierce died.

We deem the Union, and everything else, quite as safe in the hands of a good moderate Southern man, as in any hands whatever.

With a Congress having a majority of honest and firm men, we need not fear sectionalism.

SOUTH KINGSTON.

The Portsmouth Chronicle copies the death of Mr. Samuel Hall of South Kingston, N. H., from the Villager, and then asks the following question:—"Where is South Kingston?"

South Kingston is all the way from "Deer-Brook," the outlet of Kingston pond, and the head of Powow River, to the Plaistow line. As the Chronicle is not posted up in the local history of that section of New Hampshire, we will just inform him that the town is divided into three parts, Kingston, or Kingston Plains, East Kingston and South Kingston. South Kingston is the most flourishing village, containing a cloth dressing and carding mill, saw mill and grist mill, and those other essential signs of civilization, a meeting house and post office. There is also a post office at the Plains and one at East Kingston.

The late warden of the N. H. States Prison, Gideon Bartlett, was formerly post master in the South office. If the Chronicle desires any further information concerning the precise locality of this place, we would advise him to take a trip on the Boston and Maine Railroad, which will carry him within one mile of South Kingston.—Amesbury Villager.

We have travelled over the whole of Kingston and East Kingston, more than once, and spent many days in the former. Both these places are towns:—but South Kingston, as we learn above, is only the name of a post office. So the Villager's history is not strictly accurate; yet, as it is useful, we are duly grateful therefor.

Now, as we wish to be accurate in publishing deaths, marriages, &c., will the Villager please to say what we shall understand by its notice of a death or marriage "In this town"? The imprint of the Villager reads "Amesbury & Salisbury Mills."

We generally reprint the notices, locating them at Amesbury—but we never feel sure we are right. We know the locality perfectly—but we cannot locate the notices understandingly.

THE WHEELER SLAVE CASE.—The Washington Union is lachrymose and indignant at the treatment which Mr. Wheeler has received at the hands of the Philadelphia abolitionists. It propounds the following question:

The questions naturally arise, have the people of the South the constitutional right to the possession and use of a certain description of property, and, this right being conceded, what measures should be adopted to force those Northern cities and States now under the joint domination of Know Nothingism and Abolitionism, into a prompt recognition and observance of a paramount obligation of the federal compact? In Philadelphia and Boston, where Know Nothingism has full and almost undisputed sway, no Southern gentleman is safe from ruffian violence if he has the temerity to bring with him his servants.

The questions are easily answered; and the remarks are mere nonsense. If a slave runs away from a slave State into a free State, he does not thereby become free—but if the master brings him here, he is legally freed.

Southern gentlemen, such as are truly so, need not fear. Some such have visited this place, knowing the law, and bringing servants who knew it. But these servants were attached to their masters and homes, and went back in quiet content.

These masters had no legal power in the premises, but they had something far better, viz.: the affection and confidence of the servants.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27th.—In the District Court this morning, Judge Kane ordered the commitment of Passmore Williamson, for contempt of Court, in making a false return to the writ of habeas corpus, issued in the recent slave case rescue.

THE GOOD TIME COMING.—The Portland Expositor (a liberal advocate of intoxicating liquors) says:

We say then, for we know that of Judge Wells' administration the State will have no cause for shame. The character of the State will be under him disrobed of the sins of fanatics, and religion will be separated from the prejudices and contaminations of politics, to work out its appropriate moral reforms, among the people; and politics will in turn be suitably limited to temporal affairs, and no longer be made the instrument of corrupting or distracting the religious affinities of men.

There can be no doubt whatever, that religion and politics will be separated widely, when the Expositor's millenium is ushered in. But this limiting of politics to temporal affairs is something new and rich. Do they now act on things spiritual? or eternal? Do tell.

We have the idea, that if Wells should be elected and Morrill defeated, the federal administration presses all over the country would hail it as a Victory of their own; even though the Expositor is determined to have but one plank to its platform, viz. abundance of strong drink.

PASS THEM ROUND.—The Eastern Argus says;

Political priests are getting to be as thick as blackberries, and their preaching as little palatable to the taste of their auditors, as blackberries when green.

One political priest, Rev. R. J. Breckenridge, a Presbyterian minister of New York, has lately written a poor defence of slavery, addressed to Charles Sumner.

DROWNED.—One Michael Flood, a man of intemperate habits, was drowned in the Blackstone river, at Woonsocket, on Thursday.

LOCAL.

LOSS OF THE SHIP WATER WITCH.—A despatch from New Orleans states that among the vessels lost in the recent gale at Mazatlan, on the Pacific coast of Mexico, was the ship Water Witch, of Boston, Capt Plumer. The Captain was drowned.

☞ The Shoe Dealers in this city, on and after this evening, will close their stores at seven o'clock precisely. This arrangement will continue so long as the supply of gas may be suspended.

The Tailors and Clothing Dealers have also entered into a similar arrangement.

The summer term of Mr. Lamprey's juvenile dancing school closed on Wednesday afternoon last. A large number of spectators were present, and the great improvement made by the pupils was universally acknowledged and commented upon. Mr. Lamprey is an admirable teacher, and deserves as he receives the public confidence and patronage in his profession.—Gazette.

☞ Putnam's Monthly for August 1, 1855, is just received from Fetridge & Co., Boston, via J. F. Shores, jr., of this city. It contains an interesting Letter on Mormon Life, written, as we presume, by a woman. The other contents are:

Turkish Wars of Former Times, as illustrated by the adventures of Capt. John Smith, President of Virginia and Admiral of New England; My Lost Youth; The Bell Tower; Unknown Tongues—the Language of Animals; The River Fisheries of North America—The Artificial Propagation of Fish; Cape Cod—The Beach; First Friendship; Living in the Country; Sir John Suckling; Twice Married (Continued); The Armies of Europe; Editorial Notes.

AN IRRESISTIBLE PLEA.—The New York Knickerbocker Magazine, tells the following:

Speaking of "little folks," we have them at our house—Frank, three years old, and Ada one year. They have a very kind and indulgent mother, and persuasions and rewards, in the shape of bon-bons, frequently take the place of the more severe discipline that once was considered indispensable.—Ada was a 'little out of sorts' one day, and crying lustily; her mother, handing her a cake, said, 'Take this, and stop your crying.' Frank, who had been playing merrily a moment before, suddenly burst into a terrible fit of grief: 'Mamma, give me a piece of cake to stop my crying!'

A NOVEL OBSTRUCTION.—This morning, upon the Boston and Worcester Railroad, as the Saxonville train for this city was in the vicinity of the covered bridge between Newton and Brighton, it suddenly came to a stand still. As this is rather a dangerous locality for a collision, the track being some thirty feet above the main road below, a number of the passengers rushed out to ascertain the cause, when it was found that the engineer had pulled up to allow a number of goats who were upon and in the vicinity of the track, to be driven away.—Boston Traveller, 27th.

The Cuba slave affair, which was said to have transpired at Philadelphia, a few days ago, was the manufacture of a member of the Diddler family, who managed to get a suit of clothes and some money out of a gentleman to whom he told his tale. The captain of the Gen. Taylor, from Havana, brought over no Cuban refugee "who escaped from Havana in a cask," and the rogue who borrowed the capital of the Wheeler case made a pretty good investment.—Courier.

RECOVERY OF STOLEN MONEY.—Since the arrest of De Lau Libbey and Miss Lucy A. H. Robinson, on the charge of robbing Joseph Penley of $1900, the sum of $948,50 has been found deposited in one of the Savings Banks of this city. About $900 of the money is yet missing. Miss Robinson remains in jail, unable to obtain bail. Libbey has procured bail, and is at liberty.—Boston Bee.

LATER FROM KANSAS.—We have Kansas dates of the 26th. The Committee appointed by the Legislature to draw up a memorial to the President for the removal of Governor Reeder, reported yesterday. The memorial sets forth the various complaints against Gov. Reeder, calling him a clog to the wheels of Government, and praying for his speedy removal.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—New York, 27th.—Mr. John Thomas, who was formerly of the firm of Thomas & Franklin, of this city, was killed by lightning yesterday while at work on his farm near Irvington, on the North river.

His son was also badly though not fatally injured. Mr. Thomas was a native of Massachusetts, and his remains will go on this evening by the Fall River boat.

ST. LOUIS, July 27th.—Major Andrew McDonald, a member of the Kansas Council, and formerly a resident of Virginia, was yesterday appointed Bearer of the Memorial to the President, requesting the removal of Gov. Reeder. He intends starting immediately.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A LABORER.—A man named John Pendergast, aged about sixty years, fell down in Custom House street, yesterday morning, about 5 o'clock, and died shortly afterwards. He was a laborer about the wharves, and lived with a Mr. Lynch, in South Boston. He had long been of intemperate habits.—Boston Bee.

THE POPE AND CIVIL POWER.—O. A. Brownson writes to the N. Y. Times, that the Pope is the proper authority to decide whether the Constitution of this country is or is not repugnant to the laws of God. In other words, the Pope shall say whether the Constitution shall be respected and obeyed, or not.—Bee.

There scarcely ever was a year, for many years past, that there have been so few visitors at Niagara Falls, as at present. The hotels, on the American side especially, are nearly all empty.

GOOD MEDICINES.

It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause.—There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand on thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchits, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak, but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once and you will never be without them.

Price 25 cts. per Box—5 Boxes for $1.

jy20 RAYNES & NEIL.

BALTIMORE, June 27th.—By the bark Lapwing, arrived this morning from Rio Janeiro, we learn that Capt. Frazer, of the clipper ship Sea Witch, was murdered at sea, on board that vessel, on the night of the 5th of June, while the first mate had charge of the deck. His skull was beaten in by three distinct blows, evidently from a marlin spike, which was afterwards found in the mate's room.—Dr. Brolasky, the surgeon of the ship, who suspected the mate, insisted on having the vessel taken into Rio. The latter refused at first, but was finally overawed by the Doctor, who accused him of the murder, and threatened to shoot him if he resisted longer. On arrival at Rio, the American consul, after an examination of the affair, ordered the arrest of the mate. Before being taken ashore, he made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide. Messrs. Maxwell, Wright & Co., have charge of the ship, and have appointed Capt. Long to the command. The body of Capt. Frazer is to be brought home in the ship Unicorn, about leaving for New York. The mate's name is Sylvanus M. Spencer.

ATTEMPT TO ROB BOSTON MEN IN NEW YORK.—Two Boston traders, returning from the West, reached New York a few days since with trunks containing money and goods valued at $5000. During their stay in the city, a fellow, who probably followed them from Philadelphia, called at the railroad station and asked if his trunks had arrived, at the same time describing those of the Bostonians. The baggage-master, supposing all to be right, gave him checks for the trunks, which he ordered to be sent to the Worcester boat directed to Boston. Subsequently the real owners of the property appeared and claimed the trunks, giving satisfactory proofs that they were the actual owners, and that the person who had taken those checks was a rogue.—Having obtained duplicate checks they hastened to Boston, and found their baggage undisturbed. The impostor had not accompanied his prize on its journey; but when the steamer returned to New York, he went on board and told the captain he was disappointed in regard to going to Boston, and asked him to telegraph on and have his trunks detained till his arrival. Of course the captain took occasion to detain him, instead of the trunks, and he was handed over to the officers of the law.

ELOPEMENT AND ARREST.—The Newark Advertiser says that a German, J. W. Schmidt, and a lady, Henrietta Prenze, were arrested in that city on the 14th inst., as fugitives from justice in Chicago, charged with adultery and grand larceny. An affidavit from the husband stated that on the 4th of June, Henrietta left his house during his absence, taking $2000 in gold, besides the furniture, valued in all at $5000. Search was made at Newark for the lost property, and $1450 of the gold, besides a large portion of the furniture and goods were recovered. The parties were committed to jail to await a requisition.

A New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, says: "Amusements in New York are at a low ebb. The fact is, money is scarce. Few persons travel. The watering places, and all the summer resorts, are not doing any business scarcely and will not pay expenses. All parties connected with travel by land or water affirm that business was never so dull, and so few persons afloat.—The people of New York who can afford to travel have gone to Europe.

DEATH FROM LOBSTERS.—A fortnight ago a load of lobsters from Plymouth were peddled out in one of the Bridgewater villages, and every one who ate of them was sickened. Twelve were taken down in one house, and Mr. Harrison Holbrook, of Stoughton, died after an illness of 36 hours.—Courier.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.
The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, fishing and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever sailed from this port.
The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer "Celia Dame, alias Silver Star, to venture forth, the Yacht will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.
The commander of the Sea Ranger confidently appeals to those who have in past seasons patronized the SPY under his command, for the continuance of their patronage for his new Yacht, pledging himself to use every exertion to give them and all new patrons entire satisfaction.
For further particulars apply to JACOB WALDEN, No. 9 Water street, or to the Master on board, at Pier Wharf, foot of State street.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.
A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it certainly will stop and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.
It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.
SANCHO PANZA
Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such tolerable and not to be endured tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

An old lady, looking at the curiosities in Barnum's Museum, came to a couple of large seadogs, and after gazing at them with wonder, inquired of a wag who stood near, if they ever barked. 'No, madam,' said he, 'not now, their bark is on the sea.'

A person reading funeral service at the grave, forgot the sex of the deceased, and asked one of the mourners, an Emeralder, 'Is this a brother or a sister?'

'Neither one nor the other,' replied Pat, 'only an acquaintance.'

A soldier on trial for habitual drunkenness, was addressed by the President—'Prisoner, you have heard the prosecution for habitual drunkenness—what have you to say in defence?'

'Nothing, please your honor, but habitual thirst.'

A wag seeing a lady at a party with a very low necked dress, and bare arms, expressed his admiration by saying that she out-stripped the whole party.

Ah! said a mischievous wag to a lady acquaintance of an aristocratic taste, I perceive you have been learning a trade!

Learning a trade! indignantly replied the lady; you are very much mistaken.

O, I thought by the looks of your cheeks, you had turned painter.

REMOVAL.

Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,

(FROM LONDON,)

Has arrived at the

WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.

Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. jaly16 3w

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, internal or external? HAYES'S

Allied Ointment and Humor Syrup

will cure you just as sure as you use it. Take not our word for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it want is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred in a single town. Reader, do you ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any agent, get a circular, select any name you please, address a line to that individual—they will speak—they are living witnesses. It will cost but a trifle, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself:

LAWRENCE, June 12, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having need the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office quickly and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy results, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as the article, and the only one known to us, as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER. A. W. STEARNS,

S. I. THOMPSON, ASA T. SANBORN.

It cures Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly,) Barber's Itch, Fever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth so frequent from the face, leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In no case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves the sight wonderfully, where the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

Price of the Ointment, $1; Syrup 50 cents.

TRAINING.—The First Division of Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, had a great training at Quincy, last week. The soldiers and military movements are well spoken of, but the outsiders were numerous and horrible.

The Boston Telegraph says, that on Thursday

The number of booths, shows and the like, had greatly increased over that of the previous day. Liquor was plenty everywhere—indeed, it was freer than water. It was boldly carted through the village, and freely sold or given away on every hand. In the bushes, in the rear of the camp, gambling tables and prop-boards could readily be found. All the "fancy men," and many of the dissolute woman of the city, were on hand for victims.

The breaking up of a dancing and drinking establishment, which was situated near the camp, created some excitement at two o'clock in the afternoon. The selectmen of the town, having learned that certain persons of both sexes had established themselves there for the most infamous purposes, notified them in the morning to leave, giving them till eleven o'clock to pick up their goods. Twelve o'clock passed, and there were no signs of moving. The selectmen then applied to Maj. Gen. Edmands for military aid, when he ordered the Independent Cadets and National Lancers, with one of the Flying Artillery's field-pieces, to aid the selectmen in destroying the place. Messrs. Seth Adams and W. M. French, constables, with the aid of the selectmen and some special policemen, attempted to pull down the establishment, but were badly bruised by the rowdies. Gen. Edmands addressed a few words to the transgressors, but they were fighting the town's force, and paid no attention; the Cadets were then ordered to load with ball cartridges, which was immediately and promptly done; Maj. Cobb's piece was then loaded and brought into range. The Lancers were then ordered to charge upon them, which was done, the Cadets following with bayonets at "charge!" The result was the flight of the belligerants, among the number twelve or fifteen young women from the worst purlieus of Ann street, and the complete demolition of the nuisance. It is said they subsequently established themselves in another locality.

The Boston Courier says:

We regret to learn that Mr. Robert Howard, of Roxbury, died at his residence on Friday morning at two o'clock, from the effect of a paralytic shock with which he was attacked while on duty at camp on Thursday.

On Friday, Mr. Webster, a policeman, of Boston, who was attached to the Flying Artillery, was severely injured in consequence of the premature discharge of a cannon which he was loading. His face and arms were severely burned.

The troops were reviewed by Gov. Gardner Friday afternoon.

Towards the evening, there was an altercation between the gamblers, who were present in very large numbers, and the military. The gamblers threw stones and bricks, and other missiles, at the soldiers, and Mr. Luther Frazer, of the Braintree Infantry, and Alonzo Barnes, of the Standish Guards, were struck—the first in the eye, and the other on the head—and both were badly injured. The military thereupon charged upon their assailants, arrested five of the ringleaders, and conveyed them to the guard tent. This led to a good deal of excitement, and it having been feared that a riot would take place in the town, the military remained late in the night for the purpose of protecting the peace.

Gambling and drunkenness prevailed to a great extent without the tent lines during the encampment, but within the camp the best discipline was observed.

Query.—Would it not be unconstitutional to prevent these beautiful scenes by law?

LONDON PORT.—The London Times publishes the evidence of a London wine Merchant, named Osborne, giving the particulars of the manner in which condemned sour wines are made into fine old Ports in the London docks. The whole manufacture of the wine is carried on in the docks, and the company make a regular charge for the use of the vats in which the manufacture is carried on.

A clergyman who has recently visited Spain in order to know whether copies of the Bible may be freely introduced there, says that he visited Malaga, Granada, Madrid, Seville, and Cadiz, and that he was not only kindly received, but found a general desire to possess the Scriptures, and great facilities for distributing them

The New School of Presbyterians have just held there General Assembly at St. Louis. They report 107 Presbyteries on their roll, and a great increase of churches and members. They complain of a want of ministers, especially in the South and West.—One Presbytery has but nine preachers for twenty-four congregations, and another but six for seventeen societies.

MR. WARD, OF TEXAS.—We learn that the Matthew Ward named in Texas as a candidate for Congress, is not the Kentucky murderer, but a well known merchant, formerly residing in Jefferson, Texas. He is a very good man, with a very bad name.

Mr. John Kerr, an old, wealthy and highly respected citizen of Fayette county, Ky., committed suicide on Monday morning last. Rich, he still labored under the hallucination that his family would come to want, and in this state of feeling he committed the act.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1855.

JUDGE KANE.—On the 27th of July, Judge Kane of the U. S. District Court, at Philadelphia, in the Wheeler slave case, made the following order:

Let Mr. Williamson, the respondent, be committed to the custody of the Marshal without bail or mainprize, as for a contempt of Court in refusing to answer to the writ of habeas corpus, heretofore awarded against him at the relation of Mr. Wheeler.

Judge Kane puts Uncle Toby in mind of the Royal Governor Cranfield, who in days of yore committed Parson Moody to prison at Great Island, now New Castle, N. H.

Nothing can come of the Habeas Corpus. No jury will convict the man of perjury, or of anything else, except it may be some sort of constructive riot.

When Judge Kane has vented his spite against a quaker who fears neither him nor the slave power, Williamson will come out of jail with a more hearty hatred of slavery, and a more supreme contempt for its minions than ever before.

FROM HAVANA.—The correspondent of the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer in a letter dated July 23d, says:

The cholera is here. There have been numerous deaths among the military, and I have heard of the decease of two Sisters of Charity in one of the public hospitals. But no death has, to my knowledge, taken place amongst our citizens as yet; but with the experience which the history of this dread disease affords us, I much fear that thousands of the inhabitants of Havana will be swept away before it takes its departure.

Senor O'Farrell, the extensive planter, is reported to have stopped payment a few days since, owing, it is stated, $1,700,000. One or two of our principal mercantile houses, are understood to be his principal creditors. As he is known to possess an immense amount of property (real estate,) the hope is entertained that some arrangement will be made to enable him speedily to resume payment without the sacrifice of any of his beautiful plantations.

VALUABLE INFORMATION.—A correspondent of the Boston Chronicle says:

"One person in a thousand in this Commonwealth drinks ardent spirits to excess."

This remarkable estimate would give about 20 drunkards to Salem, and about 140 to Boston.

The police and watchmen of Boston sometimes pick up this number of street drunkards in a week.

The argument of the piece is equal in value to the above mentioned statement.

This being the season of snakes, and snake charmed children, read the West Chester (Pa.) Jeffersonian's account of a thrilling escape from a monster:

On Monday last, several children, among whom was an interesting daughter of Joseph Hemphill, Esq., aged about ten years, were enjoying a sociable pic nic in the woods about a mile south of West Chester, and were thrown into a panic by a large black snake. Miss Hemphill, lingering behind her comrades at some blackberry bushes, espied a nest of young snakes, and immediately started to run towards the clearing. She succeeded in crossing the fence when her progress was impeded by a large black snake that had wound itself twice round her thighs, on the outside of her garments, and bound her so tightly that she could not move. How or when it got there she could not tell, her ideas being so confused by fright on seeing the nest from which she ran. She was released in her locomotion by the snake taking a higher position, when she threw up her arms and ran, using her basket to fight the reptile, which clung to her and bit incessantly at her dress. She was finally relieved from her perilous situation by a gentleman who was attracted to the spot by her cries, and who killed the snake. We have heard a marvellous story about a very large snake—say ten feet long—having been repeatedly seen in that section. However exaggerated the size, we have it pretty straight that those who have seen it have been fearful to attack it without a gun.

The editor of the New Hampshire Democrat, referring to the present to Ex-Governor Baker, of a pair of horses, harnesses and carriage, very sensibly says:

If our friends have any idea of complimenting us in any such way, we beg of them that the gift may be a span of cows, as we could not afford to support horses.

BRUTAL ASSAULTS.—Wm. P. Whitney of New York, was stabbed in a Boston bar-room on Saturday night. He will probably die.

Thomas Tassell was arrested in East Boston on Saturday, for cruelly beating his wife. Tassell was locked up, and the wounds of his wife were dressed.

DULL TIMES AT NAHANT.—The Boston Bee of Monday says:

The Nahant House is equal to any hotel in this country. The cool weather of late has had a serious effect upon the number of its guests, and we regret that Messrs. Stevens are so illiberally paid for their exertions to accommodate the travelling public.

The truth is, that many people cannot afford to pay such prices,—and many others do not wish to stay at such places.

A bear weighing 376 pounds, was shot at Colebrook, N. H., on the 21st inst.

MECHANICS.—St. Paul was a mechanic—a maker of tents from goat's hair; and, in the lecturer's opinion, he was a model mechanic. He was not only a thorough workman at his trade, but was a scholar—a perfect master, not only of his native Hebrew, but of three foreign tongues, a knowledge of which he obtained by close application to study during his leisure hours while serving his apprenticeship. It was a custom among the Jews to teach their sons some trade—a custom not confined to the poorer classes, but was also practiced by the wealthy; and if a father did not teach a son a mechanical occupation, he taught him to steal. This custom was a wise one; and if the fathers of the present day would imitate the example, their wrinkled cheeks would not so often blush for the helplessness and not unfrequently criminal conduct of their offspring. Even if a father intended his son for one of the professions, it would be an incalculable benefit to that son to instruct him in some branch of mechanism. His education would not only be more complete and healthy, but he at some future time, in case of failure in his profession, finds his trade very convenient as a means of earning his bread; and he must necessarily be the more competent in mechanism from his professional education. An educated mechanic was a model machine, while an uneducated mechanic was merely a mechanic working under the superintendence of another's brain. Let the rich and the proud no longer look upon mechanism as degrading to him who adopts a branch of it as his calling. It is a noble calling—as noble as the indolence and inactivity of wealth is ignoble.—From a recent Lecture by Rev. Dr. Adams.

SILVER COINAGE.—A letter from Washington says that the Treasury is now burdened with the custody of over five millions of dollars in small silver change, from half dollars to three cent pieces. Two or three years ago there was a universal complaint of the scarcity of small coins, either American or foreign. Mr. Hunter's coinage bill was passed, slightly reducing the actual value of our silver coin, and providing for its more rapid manufacture. The expected results have followed. The wants of circulation have been fully supplied; but another less desirable consequence has issued, to wit, this small change has become a drug. People will not take it, and the law makes it a legal tender in sums not over five dollars. Though the inconvenience of an inadequate supply of small change was a serious one, prudent financiers expressed doubts of the soundness of the remedy adopted, at the time it was proposed. Orders have been issued to suspend the coinage of quarters and halves, and the operations of the Mint are much reduced.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Boston publishes 113 papers with an annual circulation of 54,000,009. New York has 104 papers with a circulation of 104,000,000.—Philadelphia has 51 papers with a circulation of 48,000,000. Our example has had its effect in England, and through her will on the world. Heretofore the English have had a few papers with a limited circulation—the stamp duty rendering newspapers a luxury too expensive for the poorer classes. Recently the Stamp duty has been repealed, and as a consequence newspapers have sprung up on every side. The first ha'penny-cent paper has just started in London by Charles Willmer, and in the first week obtained a circulation of 10,000 daily. With a cheap and unbridled press the reformers will make the old order of things bend in Britain.—Newburyport Herald.

DISBANDED.—The Rochester N. Y. Union says, according to the Democrat the Know Nothing Council in Union has disbanded and will sell their chairs, tables, carpets, gavels, and black and white beans at auction, next Saturday. For the information of those who may not recollect where Union is, we will state that it is the youngest town in this county, and located away up the Lake shore toward the "Devil's Nose," a place where it won't do to put cayenne.

Justice James R. Newhall of Lynn, a few days since, fined an employee of the Eastern Railroad $7,22, including costs, for assault and battery upon a passenger. The assault and battery consisted in forcibly compelling a man who was lying on a cushioned seat in the depot to remove his boots from contact with the cushion. The Justice himself ought to be set in the stocks for such a decision. The manner in which some men use the cushions of railroad cars, as can be seen every day, is in a style of barbarism which deserves to be thrust out of all civilized society.—Newburyport Herald.

ANECDOTE.—A gentleman was once riding in Scotland by a bleaching ground, where a poor woman was at work watering her webs of linen cloth. He asked her where she went to church, and what she had heard on the preceeding day, and how much she remembered. She could not even tell the text of the sermon. "And what good can the preaching do you," said he, "if you forget it all?" "Ah, sir," replied the poor woman, "if you look at this web on the grass, you will see that as fast as ever I put the water on it, the sun dries it all up, and yet, sir, I see it gets whiter and whiter."

NEW YORK LIQUOR LAW.—It is stated that Gov. Clark of New York has demanded the opinion of Ogden Hoffman, the State Attorney General, upon the unconstitutionality of the liquor law of that state, and that the law expositor has transmitted an opinion to the capitol, which coincides with the opinions of Messrs. Bronson, Gerard, Lord, Hill, and others, that the law is in substance unconstitutional.—Boston Cour.

NOT AN ELOPEMENT.—Wm. Coker, of East Boston, who, it was reported some days since, had eloped with the daughter of a respectable citizen of that section of the city, has returned, and denies that he eloped. He states that the parents of the young lady were notified that she was going to New York to be married. There is no romance, after all.—Boston Bee.

On Saturday last the city crier of Buffalo, who is black as Ham's first born, was married to a buxom Irish girl.

LOCAL.

TO OUR READERS.—With this morning's issue, we complete the third year of the publication of the Daily Chronicle. We have not much to offer respecting our past course and success, save to repeat our sincere thanks for the liberal and increasing patronage which has been bestowed upon us by our fellow-citizens from the start. Nor have we new promises to make for the future,—only to endeavor to merit a continuance of the same favor, and to improve the appearance and increase the circulation of the Chronicle, as circumstances warrant. But for the rise in the price of paper and labor since our commencement, we should probably have enlarged our sheet ere this.

We shall be pleased to settle, forthwith, all bills against the Chronicle or the proprietors thereof; and to square on our books the accounts of all who are in our debt.

NOVA SCOTIA TRADE.

A merchant of this city suggests that we used to have a much larger number of vessels from Nova Scotia, visiting this port, than we now see at our wharves.

He presumes that they left us because of the pilotage, which was more favorable in ports to the west of us. And he wishes us to state for the information of our friends in the Provinces, that by a new law of this State, passed in accordance with a petition from this city, vessels of less than 150 tons need not employ a pilot unless they choose to do so.—Vessels of less than that tonnage, with plaster, wood, &c., may now look into our port and try our market, as cheaply as in any other place on the coast.

☞ We understand there will be a Grand Hop at the Ocean House, Rye Beach, on Wednesday evening next and every Wednesday evening throughout the season. As Mr. Jenness has a good Band of Music engaged, there will no doubt be a pleasant time. We expect there will be a large number from our City present, as it will be a beautiful ride to return by Moonlight after a pleasant dance.

GAS.—The Salem Gas Works have reduced the price of gas fifty cents per 1000 feet. If our Gas Works here would do the same, the people would rejoice in the light thereof.

DIVIDEND.—The Great Falls Manufacturing Company have declared a dividend of eight dollars per share, payable Monday, August 6th.

☞ We understand that the Male and the Female High Schools were privately examined on Monday. The scholars will, during the coming five weeks, have an opportunity to so far recruit themselves as to commence with renewed vigor the duties of another year. B.

For the Chronicle.

A CHARADE.

Sappho has taught in golden rhymes
Sweet music of the spheres,
Her idol seated by my first,
Covers her blank career.
The Indian warrior used my next—
A deadly sermon—from the text,
"Stop! white man, your career!"
And read my whole by gentle hand,
A relic was of Hebrew land.

BOILING ROCK.

POLYGAMY.—A fellow named Jeremiah Curtis, about 30 years old, was arraigned in the Boston Police Court, last week, on a charge of polygamy. Several years ago he married in England, and leaving his wife and three or four children in Liverpool, he came to Boston, where last November he married Margaret Norton. His first wife learned the fact and came out last spring, to assert her rights over "Mrs. Curtis No. 2," but he altogether ignored her claims; and she then obtained a warrant against him. He anticipated this proceeding by fleeing to New Hampshire, but returning back to Boston, he was arrested, and in default of bail in $500 was committed.

POTATOES.—It is reported that the potato crop of this country was never more than two thirds what it will be this year. In this section, certainly, the vines were never so vigorous and promising; and those who have paid attention to the matter say, that the blowings indicate entire freedom from all diseases.—The early varieties already press into the markets in great abundance, and an Albany paper states that contracts have been made in the interior of New York for 14 cents per bushel.—Newburyport Herald.

SEBASTOPOL.—Letters from the English army before Sebastopol, relate the hanging of a Greek who informed the Russians that a storming party would attack that city on the 18th of June at 3 A. M., and thus caused the Allies to be defeated with great loss.

The parliamentary library of the late Joseph Hume, Esq., was bequeathed by him to the London University College.

On Wednesday last there were shipped from Norfolk to New York, by the Jamestown, 3000 baskets tomatoes, and about 1200 barrels apples and potatoes.

TEMPERANCE PAPERS.—The Boston Bee calls the Portland Argus a temperance paper.

Three cases of yellow fever are reported at Portsmouth, Va., and two deaths.

High Schools.

IT has been common to hold an examination of candidates for admission to the High Schools in the month of August. But as one member of the Committee is absent from the city, and as there are other considerations which seem to make it desirable, it has been decided to defer the examination till the first of October. Due notice will be given to the Schools, and through the papers, when the day has been fixed upon.

LOSS OF A BOSTON SHIP.—A telegraphic despatch from New Orleans says that the fine clipper ship Water Witch, of Boston, Capt. Washington Plumer, which was at Ypala, Mexico, loading dye-wood for New York, is reported to have been lost about the 15th ult., and Capt. Plumer is said to have been drowned. The account is received from Vera Cruz, per steamer Orizaba, at New Orleans, and comes thence by telegraph. It had previously been reported that an American clipper ship, of 1500 tons, was lost at "Iguala," during a severe gale from the coast of Mexico June 1st, and this may be the correct date.—The Water Witch was a fine ship of 1204 tons, built at Portsmouth, N. H., a little over two years old, valued at $68,000, and with her freight money ($24,000) is fully insured in this city, with the exception of $12,000 at a New York office. Capt. Plumer belongs to Portsmouth, N. H., where he has a family. He was an accomplished gentleman and shipmaster, and there is hope that the report of his death is not correct.—Boston Courier.

NEW HAVEN, July 28th.—Two Irishmen, one named Blakely and the other Sheridan, were killed this afternoon by the poisonous gas of a well in St. John street. One being overcome, fell into the water, the other descended to his relief, when he also was prostrated. A third was near sharing a similar fate. Both have families; one leaves seven children, the other five.

NEW YORK, July 29th.—Yesterday, while two men named Dougherty and John Lane were painting the outside of the New York Hotel in Broadway, they fell from the scaffolding to the side-walk, a distance of seventy feet. Dougherty was instantly killed, and Lane taken to the hospital in a dying condition.

BELLIGERENT.—General Pillow and Major Donelson were at a political meeting in Tennessee, a few days ago, when the latter said the men who composed the Nashville Convention were a body of traitors, whereupon Pillow said Donelson was a liar. Donelson replied that Pillow was a fool. Soon after, another dispute occurred, and Donelson struck Pillow on the arm, and Pillow punched Donelson in the head, and then they were separated.

CANAJOHARIE, July 28th.—A severe tornado passed over this village on Thursday evening, which blew off the roof of the new Latheran church, and did other damage.

In the recent capture of Mamelon Hill, before Sebastopol, there was found upon the lifeless body of a Russian Colonel, among other papers, a letter to his daughter in St. Petersburg, announcing the receipt of a decoration from the King of Prussia, who it was stated had transmitted a number of decorations and many snuff boxes, for distribution among the Russian officers engaged in the defence of the city.

VANDALISM PUNISHED.—Edward Denie and Michael McGinnicliu, two Irishmen, who were arrested on Sunday last for cutting down trees on the farm of Edward Fuller, in Malden, were brought before Justice Hill, of that town, on Wednesday, and fined $3 and costs each. They procured the trees to decorate a church in East Boston, and thought to compromise a bad deed by its perpetration on a good day.

Acting Mayor Baker of New Bedford, has issued a proclamation, declaring the ports of Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., to be infected districts, and ordering all vessels from those places arriving at that port to be quarantined.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Grenada, states that among the dead of Col. Walker's expedition, were recognized the bodies of Mr. Jules De Brissot and Capt. Hornsby, who were both recently attached to the American Legation in Central America.

On Friday telegraphic communication was perfected between Boston and Plymouth.—The entire length of wire, 38 miles, was substantially put up in thirteen working days. Mr. E. O. Laughton, of Portsmouth, N. H., the contractor, will continue the line forthwith to Holmes's Hole, and the Cape.

The United States was the first nation to establish a regular decennial census, and of late years many of the States have provided for an intermediate census, which will, of course, come this year. Massachusetts, by her late law, is among these States; and with her are New York, Virginia, Florida, Wisconsin, Ohio, and Minnesota territory.

SAD.—The editor of the Manchester American for the past few days has been absent, on account of the illness of his only child. It is but a few months since he was called upon to part with his young and beautiful wife. Now the child follows the mother to the spirit land, leaving his house entirely desolate.

Eight fugitives from slavery reached Syracuse on the 20th inst., and were pushed forward to Canada.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

REMOVAL.
Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,

(FROM LONDON,)
Has arrived at the
WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.
Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. july18 3w

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, in ternal or external? HAYES'S
Allied Ointment and Humor Syrup
will cure you just as sure as you use it. Take not our assertion for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it wants is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred in a single town. Reader, do you ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any of our agents, get a circular, select any 6 names, call upon any one of the line to that individual—they will speak—they are living witnesses. It will cost but a trifle, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself:

LAWRENCE, June 12, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most satisfactory results, after seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as THE article, and the ONLY one known to us, as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER, A. W. STEARNS,
S. I. THOMPSON, ASA T. SANBORN.

It cures Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly,) Barber's Itch, Fever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In this case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves the sight wonderfully, where the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

Price of the Ointment, $1; Syrup 50 cents.

CHARLES H. KENT, General Agent for the United States and Canadas, Lawrence, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed.

Sold in Portsmouth, by Joe H. Thacher, at the Good Samaritan Store, and W. R. Preston; and by Agents everywhere.

Morning Chronicle.

SHE CHANGED HER MIND.

There are some persons who never sick without thinking themselves verymuch worse off than they really are. Of this class was Mrs. Haskins, a young married lady, and the mother hf two fine boys. On one occasion, being visited with a fever, the consequence of imprudent exposure, she gave itself up to the melancholy fancies which usully assailed her, and persuaded herself that she was going to die.

In consequence of this melancholy presentiment, she assumed so woe-begoneon appearance, that even her medical attndant was startled into believing that she was really much worse than from her symptoms he had judged her to be.

Under these circumstances he advised her to make what earthly preparation she had yet to make, while there was yet me to do so.

Mrs. Haskins was an affectiona mother, and the thought of parting from th children to whom she was so warmly attched, at a time when, more than at any ther, they needed a mother's care, was pecularly distressing.

"Their father will be kind tthem, no doubt, and see that they are amply provided for, but nothing that he can do willupply to them the loss of a mother."

Gradually the idea of a step-mher suggested itself to the lady's imagination, and such was her care for the happiss of her children, that she became reconci to the idea so repugnant to most wives, anactually began to consider who among her iquaintances was best fitted to become a seond Mrs. Haskins.

At length her choice fell upon a Ms Parker, an intimate friend of her own. Feeling anxious to have this matter satisfactly settled, she despatched a messenger pd haste to Miss Parker, who, after a brief terval, made her appearance at her friend's hside.

"My dear friend," said Mrs. Hasks, in a feeble voice, "I have sent for you what perhaps you will consider a singular ason. But believe me, it is a mother's anxy for her children that prompts me. I a very sick, and shall not live long. So thedoctor tells me, and my own feelings tell mest it must be so. The situation in which shall leave my poor boys, who will be td deprived of a mother's watchful care, dissses me beyond measure. There is only ot way in which my anxiety can be relieved, ad this it is which has prompted me to send foyou. Promise me that when I am gone yo will marry Mr. Haskins, and be to them a tond mother. Do not refuse me; it is my la request."

Desirous of comforting her friend, Miss Parker assented to her request, adding

"I will comply with your request, at the more willingly, for I always liked Mr Haskins."

"Always liked Mr. Haskins!" exclmed the dying wife, raising herself upon hr elbow, her feelings of conjugal jealousy r a moment overpowering her maternal affeion. "You always liked my husband, did yo?— Then I vow you shall never marry himif I have to live to prevent it."

And Mrs. Haskins did live. The revulsion of feeling resulting from Miss Parker's unexpected declaration, accomplished, in her ase, what the skill of physicians had been unble to effect.

There is an old saying, which, like mst old sayings, has in it not a little truth; nt when a woman wills, she will, depend ot; and when she won't, she won't, and there'sn end on't. So it was in the case of Mrs. Haskins. She has determined that if Mr. Haskins ever does have a second wife, it shall nt be Miss Parker.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1855.

THE EASTERN RAILROAD MEETING.

The adjourned session of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern Railroad Corporation, was held in Boston on Monday.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Hon. Albert Thorndike, of Beverly, at 10 1-4 o'clock, at which time the Hall contained some 300 persons. Among the audience were six ladies, stockholders, one of whom was Mrs. M. J. Kenney, of Salem, well known as officiating at Anti-Slavery conventions, &c.

Mr. Thorndike read a brief statement from the Board of Directors, announcing that they had concluded not to withdraw themselves as candidates for re-election.

They were conscious that the misfortunes of the road were not justly chargeable to their conduct, but to circumstances over which they had no control, in the unexpected and unparalleled depression in railroad interests, and the heavy defalcation by the late Treasurer.

Mr. Wm. Richardson, chairman of the Examining Committee appointed at the last meeting, then proceeded to read their report, which went into a history of the road from its opening to the present time, and reviewed the several operations undertaken by the company in addition to the legitimate business of the original line.

The loan to the Essex Railroad Company was referred to as the first unfortunate mistake. This amounted to about $257,000, besides subsequent interest on bonds, and the road last year paid only $1000 towards cancelling its debt. Its property must soon belong entirely to this corporation.

The 1000 shares of the Grand Junction Railroad stock, owned by the Eastern Corporation, and three fourths of which were paid for by labor and materials, cost about $80 per share, and are now valued at $30.

The total embezzlements of Tuckerman are estimated to be about $245,000, and his property surrendered amounts to $59,000; leaving a net loss by defalcations of $185,808.

The report says that Tuckerman's books were kept in the most careless manner; he kept no cash book, but made his entries on loose papers, memoranda, &c. The over issue, it is thought, will not exceed 663 shares.

The only way to ascertain the precise amount is to call in all the old certificates and issue new ones—a measure which is recommended.

The whole debt of the road at present is estimated at $3,119,380, and property is held which may be disposed of to reduce the same $1,224,994. This would leave a balance of debts to the amount of about $1,894,475.—One year's net income is estimated at $670,000; running and depot expenses, $345,000; interest on the above debt, $110,000; leaving $215,000.

The purchase of the South Reading Branch Railroad is estimated to have cost $300,000, and that branch has never paid its running expenses. The Saugus Branch Road cost $80,000, of which $10,000 is unpaid. The Company holds nearly 500 shares of the Gt. Falls and South Berwick Road, which cost $100 each, and has also guaranteed the bonds of the road for $60,000, upon which there will be a loss. The extension to Causeway street has been paid for, and cost $778,304. There is no cause to fear further depreciations in the business of the road by rival lines.

The report alluded to the fact that some of the salaried officers of the corporation had been engaged in other business. The Superintendent had been a member of a public body four months, (the Legislature,) and engaged in a business elsewhere, and while he is believed to be a man of principle and honor, it is evident that had he not other business, he might give more time to the road.

As to rumors against him, there was not the slightest thing proved, and it was to be expected that such rumors would always be the effect of such enmity as any superintendent who did his duty firmly and unflinchingly would be the object of along the line.

The committee recommend that dividends be not declared till their payment is certain; that the price of season tickets be raised, and measures taken to prevent competition between this and the Boston and Maine Railroad; that the books be re-constructed; that the division of the treasury department cease, and be united under one head; that no free tickets be granted to any members of families, but be restricted to directors, and certain other persons under limitations; that all officers be under the direct scrutiny of the President.

In view of all the facts, the Committee estimate the present actual worth of the stock at $79 a share.

The report concluded by recommending the following ticket for election as Directors:

George M. Brown, Boston; Nathan D. Chase, Lynn; John Howe, Brooklyn; Samuel Hooper, Boston; Henry H. Ladd, Portsmouth; Micajah Lunt, Newburyport; John C. Lee, Salem; G. Howland Shaw, Boston; Albert Thorndike, Beverly.

H. A. Hildreth made a disclosure that Dr. Morton, of the Ether controversy, last winter drew $20,000 from a broker in Washington, on a note given by W. S. Tuckerman.

This somewhat startled the meeting, and several voices were heard asking for inquiries into this and other rumored proceedings of Tuckerman, which had not been mentioned by the Committee.

Mr. Richardson said there were some things which could not be made public by the Committee without great prejudice to the interests of the Corporation, and no further disclosures would at present be made, under advice of counsel, even if the meeting should unanimously instruct them so to do.

Mr. Huntington, of Salem, and Col. Adams, of Newbury, made speeches in favor of leaving such matters to the discretion of the Committee and the Directors.

Capt. Gregory, of Marblehead, made a long and rambling speech, to the effect that those whom he represented—"700 widows and fatherless"—wanted the Directors to be practical mechanics, instead of lawyers, doctors, ministers, &c.

He asked if W. S. Tuckerman was present, and gave him an imaginary lecture upon his evil deeds, and advised him to apply to the State Prison as a place for repentance.

The meeting, which was now crowded, was convulsed with merriment during this speech, and the greatest confusion prevailed.

The question recurring upon the acceptance of the report, the vote was UNANIMOUS, with the exception of the indomitable Gregory.

On motion of Mr. Swasey, the following votes were then passed:

That the President and Directors consider and report upon a revised method of railway management and accounts, including greater checks upon disbursing officers, and a better system of compensation.

That the Directors hereafter be held at least morally responsible for any great delinquencies occuring during their administration.

That the Superintendent of the road shall make no contract exceeding $500, without a vote of the Directors.

Mr. Richardson referred to the ticket for Directors recommended by the Committee, and pointed out the peculiar qualifications of every gentleman named.

Mr. Rogers moved that the election be postponed for one week. Negatived.

The election was then proceeded in by stock ballot, and the Committee's Ticket was chosen, having about 6400 votes. Five of the former directors, not on that ticket, received from 126 to 176.

The Newburyport Herald says:

John Howe, Esq., of Brookline, was subsequently at a meeting of the Directors, chosen President, and Mr. Thorndike, the late President, was chosen Treasurer. Mr. Howe, is well known as having been for some time at the head of the Boston and Maine Railroad, where his urbane, and at the same time energetic administration, gained for him a deservedly high popularity.

Mr. Thorndike will make an excellent Treasurer, for which station he is better fitted by temperament and education than that of President, which requires a more minute acquaintance with out of door business, and a keener insight into human nature.

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.—Crosby, Nichols & Co., of Boston, have published, for the Sunday School Society, a neat volume of 190 pages, with the title:

Beginning and Growth of the Christian Life; or the Sunday School Teacher.

After a suitable introduction, the author discusses the Wants of Sunday Schools; the True Object of Sunday School Instruction; and the Qualifications of the Teacher. These he describes, as Faith in Christ, and Self Consecration; Interest and Perseverance in the Work, and a true love of souls; hopefulness; mental endowments and special preparation.

The remainder of the book treats of the duties of the teacher, classification, manuals, order, libraries, the Lord's Supper, relation between the child and the church, and the Christian Standard of Character.

It is a serious, well considered book, throughout. Trifiers will not read it. In some parts, with extreme simplicity it is yet profound. Superficial readers will not understand it. But minds of another cast, souls of another habit, will not only read the book, but study and profit by it. All christians may not agree with the author on every point, as he states it; but all will agree in admiring its excellent spirit and truly Christian tone.

The work is for sale in this city, by J. H. Foster.

EXETER.—In rusticating last week, we chanced to visit Exeter, and found the old place jogging on about as usual. The new town house is now in process of erection, and from present appearances will be a fine looking building. A new boarding house for the pupils of Phillips Academy, is just being completed. It is four stories in height, built of brick, with freestone caps and sills to the front windows; and presents a more respectable appearance than the Academy itself. Four or five small dwelling houses have also been recently put up in Exeter. T.

PHILLIPS ACADEMY.—The anniversary exercises at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., took place on Tuesday of last week. The exercises consisted of several addresses and a poem; the latter being the production of Mr. William W. Dow of this city, who is a student at this institution.

The graduating class numbered twenty-five young gentlemen. The Academy is now in a highly prosperous condition.

☞ MR. Robinson the female swindler, at Charlestown, who secreted the money of an old simpleton named Penley, has been committed to jail for trial in October. DeLan Libbey, her accomplice, being bailed, has cleared out and forfeited his bond.

☞ The President has removed Governor Reeder, of Kansas, and appointed in his stead, Hon. L. Dawson, of Pennsylvania, a supporter of the Nebraska Bill in the last Congress: he was a candidate for re-election, but was defeated.

BABY SHOW IN BOSTON. — Barnum and Wood's great National Baby Show will open in Boston about the 1st of September. Premiums amounting to $2,400 are to be offered—the highest being $500. We have no doubt that the mothers of New England will rally upon the occasion, and the display of young folks, though small, will be great.—Bee.

LOCAL.

THE CHRONICLES.—With this number we commence the fourth year of the issue of our Daily. Cheered by the continued confidence and support of all our original patrons,—we are encouraged at each successive starting point, like this, by the new names constantly being enrolled on our subscription books, and gathering in our advertising columns. Our enterprise has succeeded as well as we could wish; and we enter on a new volume, with brighter prospects and greater expectations than ever.

NEW BANK.

In our advertising columns to-day, may be found the Notice of a new bank, lately chartered in this city, viz. the Bank of New Hampshire. This is an old fashioned bank, like the Rockingham, Portsmouth, Union and others, free from the individual liability clause,—and of course not exclusive as to the character or standing of its stockholders: but every person who can pay for a share can have it, and vote on it, in the choice of directors. We formerly had six such banks—and had besides, a Branch of the U. S. Bank.

For several years we have had three banks only: with somewhat larger capitals. And it is supposed by business men, that there is a good opportunity at present, to establish such a bank as is now proposed.

It is said there is plenty of capital here, in small sums, seeking investment, to start it at once: and business enough to make banking profitable.

For the Chronicle.

OUR FRUIT MARKET—WHERE IS IT?—In days of yore, while yet the Old Spring Market with its out door look, stood invitingly open to the crowds with empty baskets that were to be filled; in the days of Hight and Wherrin, with each of whom I had regularly a quarterly youthful account of some seventy five cents, more or less, that must be settled before another bunch of cherries or molasses gibraltar could find its way to my loving mouth; in the days when rocking chairs, naps and knitting were the order with the regular and permanent dealers in fruits and vegetables, and the bright rosy faces of the fair country girls were on exhibition in the early morning hours, with fruits as fresh looking as the complexions of the sellers; in those days Uncle Toby will remember that we had a plenty of strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, and blackberries, in their season, for sale at the aforesaid stalls by the aforesaid fair stallers. It is now the season for raspberries, and our appetites are as keen as ever for the delicate flavor of this fine fruit—but where are the raspberry girls gone? The drops of red sweetness seem to hang as thickly as ever upon the bushes, and little fingers and baskets are passing their time on pleasant days like humming birds, "from sweet to sweet still gathering," but beyond this we lose sight of these gatherings altogether. They take up their line of march in some other direction than to our market, as in days gone by. I am afraid that the Railroads have something to do with this change in our supplies,—some of them have done worse things than this—they have actually picked our pockets of the means whereby we live. Perhaps these berries go to feed the ethereal citizens of the "Athens of America," who, notwithstanding their great intellectuality, can, I venture to say, eat as many berries smothered in cream, to say nothing of the pieces de resistance, as an equal number of the citizens of any town or city less Bostonian. When I think of the present state of our raspberry market, it brings a deep sigh for the days gone by, and liberates a fervant wish that those good days might come back again. MARKET STREET.

For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors:—On Tuesday evening last, between 10 and 11 o'clock, the people who live on Hanover street, between High and Vaughan streets, were disturbed by cries of watch! watch! The outcry was caused by a "family jar" in the old Goodrich house, on Hanover street, now occupied by unnumbered Irish. The same thing has occurred repeatedly,—in fact, it is a weekly, if not daily, annoyance to the whole neighborhood. I would like to know if this nuisance cannot be abated some way, legally. The closing of our low groggeries would no doubt put a stop to most of the family brawls, so characteristic of a drunken household. HANOVER STREET.

☞ Don't forget the grand "Hop" at the Ocean House, Rye Beach, to-night. A good band of music will be in attendance, and the lovers of the terpsichorean art should improve this opportunity. There will be a good moon, this evening, to light the guests on their way home.

From careful investigation of the different despatches in relation to the loss of the ship Water Witch, we are strongly inclined to the belief that the report of Capt. Plummer's death arose from telegraphic inaccuracies, or from the despatch having been misunderstood at some points.—Boston Advertiser.

St. Louis, July 30th.—We are in receipt of late advices from the Plains. Mr. Holman, District Attorney for Utah, was at South Platte, en route for Washington, with despatches from Col. Steptoe to the War Department. He met no Indians or Whites until he reached Sweet River Waters, where he found a large party of Mormons exploring for gold. They were damming and turning the bed of the river. A letter from a gold seeker says that they have found large quantities of silver. One man in the vicinity of Sweet Water took $40 worth of gold in one day.—Gold had also been discovered on Medicine Bow, South West of Fort Laramie.

200 Indians were encamped a short distance from this river and were peaceable. They say if a war takes place between the Sioux and the troops, they will join the stranger party.

A war party of Sioux, at Lelonf creek, above Fort Laramie, were awaiting the arrival of troops, and threatened that if they did not arrive in ten days, they would kill every white person between Fort Laramie and the Devil's Gate.

Several trains of Mormons from Texas had been fallen in with between Carney and the Blues; they had lost twenty by cholera, but the balance were in good health.

Fatal stroke by lightning.—An extraordinary and most distressing case of death by a stroke of lightning, occurred near Irvington, N. Y. on the North River. Mr. John Thomas, formerly of the firm of Thomas & Franklin, of N. York, was at work in an open field, turning swaths of hay with a fork, when a thunder shower passed over, and a streak of lightning struck the end of his fork, shattered the handle, entered his side, inflicting a wound like a gun-shot wound, about two inches in diameter, and passed through the crown of his head, leaving an aperture about one inch in diameter in his skull. Of course his death was instantaneous. This occurrence took place in an open field, at a considerable distance from any tree or building, and it is supposed that the electric fluid was attracted by the steel prongs of the hay fork which the deceased held in his hand. His watch was stopped precisely at 8 minutes past 12; and its case was partly melted by the electric heat.

The wife of Mr. Thomas was absent from home at the time, on a visit to the family of professor Silliman in New Haven. She was immediately summoned by telegraph, and returned home to find her husband dead.—This mournful event has excited the most heartfelt sympathy.

On Friday afternoon, is the Nashua train was passing from the station of the Boston and Worcester Railroad to the Junction station, while going at a moderate speed, a brakeman named Thomas Edwards jumped from the engine with a flag in his hand, and stepping where a slimy sediment had been deposited by the rain, he slipped and fell, face downward, between the wheels of the engine and tender, directly upon the railroad track. Finding himself in this position he "hugged the ground" as closely as possible, and the train passed over him, without inflicting any severe injury. The brake raked his back and tore his clothing, but neither broke a bone nor drew blood. The escape was a very remarkable one.—Worcester Spy, Saturday.

St. Louis, July 30th.—Gov. Reeder furnished a copy of his answer to Secretary Marcy's last letter to him to the Lawrence Tribune. He says in relation to the charge of having purchased half breed Kansas lands, that he purchased no such lands, and he thinks that he has been treated unfairly, because the President has called on him for a defence of violation of rules, which are not specified, and he asks for a specification.

New York, July 30th.—The schooner Flying Arrow, hence for Navy Bay, 28th inst., returned this morning, and anchored in the Lower Bay, in consequence of head wind.—At half-past 7 o'clock, a seaman named H. Eckles, of Lincolnville, about 18 years old, fell from the foremast head on deck and was instantly killed.

Five Lawyers on a Stump.—A case in law was tried in Stockbridge a few days since, in which five lawyers were engaged for the purpose of testing a claim to ownership in an old pine stump. The case stands appealed to the Court of Common Pleas to be holden in Worcester in September next.

A Word to Persons in Delicate Health
DR. HOLMAN'S BITTERS,
Compounded from the Original Recipe of
DR. CHARLES HOLMAN.
THESE well known and much used BITTERS are composed of Roots and Herbs, such as Sarsaparilla, Pyrola, Yellow Dock, Dandelion, Wild Cherry, Prickly Ash, &c. highly prized for their HEALING, STRENGTHENING AND RENOVATING PROPERTIES.
They are warranted to be unsurpassed in the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Headache, Loss of Appetite, Giddiness and Weakness of the Stomach.
They are remarkable for giving a tone to the Digestive Organs, assisting Nature, and preventing the various Bowel Complaints, so frequent and so dangerous during Summer and Autumn.
No Family should be without them.
Price 25 cents for a single Bottle, or five bottles for one dollar. Quite the cheapest as well as the Best Medicine that can be used.
Dr. J. F. HOLMAN, Proprietor, Boston, Mass.

Also for sale by R. K. Oxford, S. W. Moses, W. B. Laskey and Lafayette Laighton. je22 3mis

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.
A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it cuts them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.
It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.
SANCHO PANZA
Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the DEAD SHOT, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."
Prepared by L. L. DUTCHER, St. Albans, Vt.

New England Blacking.

THIS new and elegant composition is the result of eight years' experimenting, to attain the end of combining in one composition, raw oils, which will render Boots and Shoes soft and pliable, and a

can be produced sooner which will retain its beauty longer than any other article of the kind in this or any other country.

The great beauty of our NEW ENGLAND OIL PASTE BLACKING arises from the use of the very best materials in compounding, which are manufactured to order, together with a scientific and an effective combination, the result of long practice, and expensive experiments to trial.

REMOVAL.
Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,

(FROM LONDON,)

Has arrived at the

WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.

Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. jly16 3w

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) desires to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for presentation of this kind, to foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries, besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most faithful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

PIANOS.

HALLETT, DAVIS & CO.

MANUFACTURERS of GRAND AND SQUARE

PIANO-FORTES.

☞ Particular attention is solicited to our PATENT SUSPENSION BRIDGE—also our PATENT GRAND ACTION, as applied to both Grand and Square Pianos.

WAREROOMS,

NEW FREESTONE BLOCK,

No. 409 WASHINGTON STREET,

NEAR BOYLSTON STREET.....BOSTON.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Piano.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

Morning Chronicle.

VIE IN ENGLAND.—Notwithstanding the immense sums of money spent by England for the purpose of disseminating premature clergymen throughout 'Central Africa,' there is a deal of work still left unfinished—not in Bariboola Gha, perhaps, but in Great Britain. According to the Rev. H. S. Brown there is annually spent in England in "the support of brothels" £20,000,000, or a hundred millions of dollars! Of this large sum for the whole country, £10,000,000 is allotted to London, and £500,000 to Liverpool. We find that, out of the amount spent in London, £2,000,000 goes to the wretched women, while the remaining £8,000,000 is swallowed up by the brothel keepers. Here is an astounding fact. The poor creatures who barter their bodies and souls for lucre, are cheated out of their earnings, and held in a state of thraldom such as we can form no conception of. Five years is the maximum of their vicious career, and if we take two thousand as the number known to the police in Liverpool, we find that in five years a generation of immortal beings are sacrificed, or one victim immolated daily.—And all this takes place in England—that England which 'takes on' so about the vices of Paris and Madrid! What a delicious old hypocrite Mr. Bull is! In the way of self-righteousness and iniquity he takes down any gentleman in Europe.—Boston Mail.

All this is horrible. Something like it, on a smaller scale, is true of Paris, Madrid, and all cities on the European continent. Aye, and on the American also. It is true, also, and will not be denied by men who know the world, that all these wretched women are tipplers; all the keepers of the houses ditto; and that nine tenths of the whole are drunkards.

☞ We have received from some unknown friend in Portland, a pamphlet of 50 pages, entitled, Report of the Committee appointed by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Portland, to investigate the causes and consequences of the Riot, on the evening of J une 2d, 1855.

This is published by a vote of the City Authorities. It contains the following paragraph.

The statute of Maine provides, that "if any such magistrate or other officer, having notice of any such unlawful or tumultuous assembly in the city or town where he dwells, shall refuse or neglect immediately to execute his duty, in relation thereto as provided in the fifth section of this chapter, he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $300." And if such rioters, "or any person present as spectators or otherwise, shall be killed or wounded, the said magistrates and officers, and persons acting with them, &c., shall be held guiltless and justified in law."

And now, as we wish to keep a fair record of both sides, we trust the State of Maine or some other friend will send us also the pamphlet containing proceedings of the Coroner's Inquest. We wish to bind them together.

MUSIC IN THE HOUSE.—A house without music is like a nursery without children—silent, gloomy, and desolate. Music is the harmonic soul of life, breathed or suggested every where in nature, and only absent from the lips and souls of those who are "fit for treason, stratagems and spoils."

The influences of music are not only soothing and delightful to the ear, but refining, purifying, and exalting to the mind and heart. The soul lives its rarest hours in the atmosphere of melody and song, and we contemplate Paradise not unfittingly, as realizing our supremest dream of felicity, with its musical enchantments—its hymning seraphs who 'adore and burn" with extacies that can find utterance only in song. Experience attests that the habituation of childhood to music—as to the presence of flowers—is one of the surest means of toning down harsh temper and evil passions in the bud.

SUICIDE IN PATERSON, N. J.—About 8 o'clock on Thursday morning, July 26, the Rev. S. Dutton, a colored preacher of the Baptist denomination, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. Deceased had been for some months in an insane state of mind, arising from domestic afflictions and some recent pecuniary losses. He was about 70 years of age, and has lived with his family for a long time in Paterson, and bore an irreproachable character.—N. Y. Tribune.

JUDGE KANE'S DECISION.

The readers of almost all the daily papers in New England, have seen abridged statements about Judge Kane's Decision, by virtue of which he sent Friend Williamson to jail for contempt.

From all the abridged statements of the matter, we supposed that Judge Kane had made some decision, which, to the extent of his authority, sustained slavery. But on reading a full report of the Decision, so called, we perceive that he has not decided one single question.

To show that this is so, we copy the summing up, without abridgement.

The case was submitted to me by the learned counsel for the respondent, without argument, and I have therefore found myself at some loss to understand the grounds on which, if there be any such, they would claim the discharge of their client. One only has occurred to me as perhaps within his view; and of this I think it right to express my opinion. I will frankly reconsider it, however, if any future aspect of the case shall invite the review.

It is this; that the persons named in this writ as detained by the respondent were not legally slaves, inasmuch as they were within the territory of Pennsylvania when they were abducted.

Waiving the inquiry, whether for the purpose of this question they were within the territorial jurisdiction of Pennsylvania while passing from one State to another upon the navigable waters of the United States—a point on which my first impressions are adverse to the argument—I say:

1. That I know of no statute, either of the United States, or of Pennsylvania, or of New Jersey, the only other State that has a qualified jurisdiction over this part of the Delaware, that authorizes the forcible abduction of any person or anything whatsoever, without claim of property, unless in aid of legal process.

2. That I know of no statute of Pennsylvania which affects to divest the rights of property of a citizen of North Carolina, acquired and asserted under the laws of that State, because he has found it needful or convenient to pass through the territory of Pennsylvania.

3. That I am not aware that any such statute, if such a one were shown, could be recognized as valid in a Court of the United State.

4. That it seems to me altogether unimportant whether they were slaves or not. It would be the mockery of philanthropy to assert that because men had become free they might be forcibly abducted.

I have said nothing of the motives by which the respondent has been governed. I have nothing to do with them; they may give him support and counsel before an infinitely higher tribunal; I do not impugn them here.

Nor do I allude on the other hand to those special claims upon our hospitable courtesy, which the diplomatic character of Mr. Wheeler might seem to assert for him. I am doubtful whether the Acts of Congress give to him and his retinue and his property that protection as a representative of the sovereignty of the United States, which they concede to all sovereignties besides. Whether under the general law of nations, he could not ask a broader privilege than some judicial precedents might seem to admit, is not necessarily involved in the course before me.

It is enough that I find, as the case stands now, the plain and simple grounds of adjudication, that Mr. Williamson has not returned truthfully and fully to the writ of habeas corpus. He must, therefore, stand committed for a contempt of the legal process of the Court.

As to the second motion of the District Attorney, that which looks to a committal of perjury, I withhold an expression of opinion in regard to it. It is unnecessary, because Mr. Williamson being under arrest, he may be charged at any time by the Grand Jury; and I apprehend that there may be doubts whether the affidavit should not be regarded as extra judicial and voluntary.

Let Mr. Williamson, the respondent, be committed to the custody of the Marshal without bail or mainprize, as for a contempt of Court, in refusing to answer to the writ of habeas corpus heretofore awarded against him at the relation of Mr. Wheeler.

The careful reader will perceive that Judge Kane's points, No. 1, 2 and 3, are mere truisms, which no one disputes; but they do not touch this case, because slave property in Pennsylvania is no property at all, unless the slaves were fugitives, which these slaves were not.

His No. 4 is partly a truism, and partly nonsense. If the people were held as slaves by Wheeler, then the abductors did a worthy act in rescuing them from false imprisonment. If they were free, then they were abducted from themselves and from their mother;—and Wheeler should have brought a suit only as their friend, and not as their master.

The reader will perceive that Judge Kane waives the only question of any importance, viz., whether they were within Pennsylvanian jurisdiction, and therefore free: That he does not impugn Williamson's motives: And that, though he puts him in jail for a false answer on oath, he expresses no opinion on the perjury question; but doubts, whether after all the falsehood may not be judicial!

O, most learned judge! O, Solomon! O, Daniel!

This decision beats the Portland Inquest all hollow. Even the decisions of our late Police Justice, (of blessed memory,) are no touch to it.

THE NEBRASKA SWINDLE.—The Boston Advertiser remarks, that

Events follow one another in rapid succession in the remarkable history of the Kansas outrage. It is disclosed that it is a part of the Atchison and Stringfellow scheme, to annex to Kansas, Platte county and five other counties of Missouri, having a sufficient population, including a number of slaves and slaveholders, to make a pretext for an application for the admission of Kansas into the Union as a slave State. This bold plan will need the assent of Congress for its consummation. The President has removed Gov. Reeder, and appointed John L. Dawson of Pensylvania, in his place. "His speculations in Indian reserves" are alleged as the pretext for the removal of Governor Reeder.

No one need to be surprised in the least, at any description of fraud and falsehood in regard to this matter, or any amount of tricks and shams to carry out the swindle.

The bill itself contains gross and palpable falsehoods; it was enacted by dishonest means—and the object at which the authors aimed, being in itself a wrong,—no scruples of law or conscience stand in their way.—Their object is to make fortunes, and get places, by the domestic slave trade, directly or indirectly. To accomplish this, they pretend to be great friends of religion and liberty;—to be dreadfully afraid that the pulpits will be desecrated, the Union dissolved, and the people demoralized and oppressed.

But while this is their pretence, what is their action? An armed force of lawless borderers, armed to the teeth and brutalised by whiskey, control elections by driving resident voters from the polls;—and then the chapter of abominations is continued as above. How it will close, does not yet appear.

SLAVERY IN NEBRASKA TERRITORY.—We find in the Nebraska City News the following announcement, from which it would seem that slavery is becoming an institution in that quarter:

Negroes for sale at this place.—We call attention to the advertisement of negroes for sale, which appears in another column. A company of gentlemen from Missouri, who have large interests here, have imported them for the benefit of our young and growing city. Nebraska City is now about twice or three times larger than any other town in the territory. Help is much needed and but little to be had; and for this reason slave labor is required. We are authorized to state that the same company have twenty more in Missouri, which will be brought to Nebraska City, if sufficient inducements are held out.

Messrs Editors:—A few days since we happened to take up the printed report of the "proceedings of the first meeting of the general committee appointed by the World's Temperance Convention," published in 1854, and in casting our eyes over the pages we saw a short account of the presidential declaration (one in favor of total abstinence, which it is proposed shall receive the signatures of the successive Presidents of the United States,) in which account it was stated that nine of them had already done so; and then followed a list of their names, commencing with Mr. Madison and ending with "Benjamin F. Pierce." Shall we suppose that it was an error of the types—that any printer could have made such a blunder? L.

A blunder of somebody's,—or a fabrication. President Pierce has no such name as Benjamin. His name is Franklin: and he more commonly signs his name, Frank.

The colporteurs have been adopting the practice of patent medicine men, and now print scriptural injunctions on walls and fences. A gentleman was lately startled by reading upon a fence, "Take Hobensack's Liver Pills," and directly beneath it, "Prepare to meet thy God!"

We cut the above item from the Newburyport Herald; and we have seen the same thing for substance in the State of Maine and many other papers.

Uncle Toby would respectfully suggest to all his nephews in the editorial line, that the sentence about the liver pills is found in the same chapter and verse with the other, Prepare to meet, &c.,—and one is just as good scripture as the other. That is, neither of them is scripture at all. Nothing is found in the Bible like either of them.

☞ Federben & Co., of Boston, and J. P. Morse, of this city, have received Harper's New Monthly for August.

We have, as the first article, another instalment of Virginia Illustrated, the story being well told, with at least twenty fine cuts.—Next comes Scott's Battles in Mexico; then Sketches in the East Indies; and then the Newcomes,—all fully illustrated.

The Punchy Leaf, is Mr. Slim's Aquatic Experience, in 16 parts.

We have also received a copy of Harper, from Fetridge & Co., via J. F. Shores, Jr. of this city.

Mr. Smart's paper at Belfast, Me. gives the opinion that the growing popularity of Frank Pierce will give a great many votes to the administration candidate, Judge Wells.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT IN TRENTON, ME. While William Haynes, Esq., was milking one of his cows on the evening of the 25th, he was kicked by her in the abdomen, and survived but about 36 hours. His age was 52 years. He was one of our best citizens and much respected.—Argus.

LOCAL.

For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors:—In your paper of yesterday morning, you say the Legislature passed a law at its last session, doing away with certain pilotage on Nova Scotia vessels. Permit us to say, the Legislature has no authority to pass such a law, until they first repeal the law we act under.

GEOLOGICAL LECTURES.—We are requested to state that in consequence of the sickness of Dr. Boynton's child, and the heat of the weather, he has concluded to postpone his course until September. Tickets will be redeemed at the Book Stores, where purchased.

☞ Capt. Plamer, of ship Water Witch, is not drowned, as reported, but is safe, and has arrived at New Orleans. So say the telegraphic reports of Wednesday.

JUSTICE.—In the Report of the Eastern Railroad, made by the former Directors, they say:

The removal of the depot from East Boston to Boston was undertaken by the direct vote of the stockholders, and they have carried it through under peculiarly unfavorable circumstances. This they had nearly done when the astounding developements of crime were brought to light.

We could never see the slightest cause of complaint against the ferry: and have always supposed the clamor in the newspapers, (which finally induced the stockholders to change the route,) was got up by some interested persons, with a sinister design.

The Traveller is informed that the United States ship-of-war Preble, with the Naval School of Annapolis, Md., now on a cruise off our coast, has reached Eastport, Me., and is to touch at the principal towns on the coast.

THE WHEAT HARVEST, &c.—We are receiving bad news from the wheat harvest on account of the late wet weather. Along the Hudson, through western New York to Detroit, the reports are very unfavorable. The rain commenced in Michigan on the 19th inst., and continued until the 26th almost without interruption. The intelligence from the South and West is still extremely favorable. The New York Shipping List says:—

The sales in advance that have transpired are 1000 barrels common state for September, 1000 for October, and 5000 for November delivery, all at $7. The receipts are moderate, as usual at this season of the year, but judging from the fact that the arrivals at tide-water during the third week in July were considerably in excess of the corresponding period of last year, holders at the West, evidently taking alarm at the fall in prices consequent upon the abundant crops in store for us, are forwarding their stocks to the sea board with more than the usual degree of alacrity. It is a little singular that, despite the reports so freely circulated last fall about the failure of the corn crop from drought, there have been received at tide-water since the opening of navagation last spring upwards of four millions of bushels, against only two millions nine hundred thousand to the same date last year.

We presume that the time sales adverted to above are like time sales of January stocks, and are mere gambling transactions to keep up prices.—Boston Cour.

INJURY TO THE WHEAT CROP.—Extract from a letter received by a Flour dealer in Portland dated Rochester, N. Y., July 26th.

"Since I wrote to you on the 24th, the destruction of the wheat crop in western New York, as to quality has been completed, as I fear, and as representations from every direction with the many exhibitions in the city of wheat heads seems to prove, all is grown, very badly grown, both cut and uncut. It would now seem that we are not to have a bushel of sound wheat in all this region and consequently not a barrel of good Genesee flour except what little is left of the old crop."

The letter of the 24th stated that "we have had most unfortunately, daily rainy weather here for five days past, with no prospect of ceasing."

A NOBLE EXAMPLE.—The New York Times states that at the recent anniversary of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity of Yale College, there was no wine drank — not anything stronger than coffee. Of course, it is not necessary to add, that there was not, throughout the night, a word said, that a cool head would have deemed unguarded, not a solitary headache discoverable next morning.

There is at Dartmouth College (N. H.), a silver punch-bowl, presented by Gov. John Wentworth and the friends who accompanied him to the first Commencement in 1771, as a token of gratitude for the hospitalities of the occasion, and their good wishes for the College. This punch-bowl descends to each successive President—but in these days, nothing stronger than lemonade would ever be found to wet its lips.

WHAT A MAN OF SENSE SAYS.—A large merchant and importer says that we are paying more duty on artificial flowers than on railroad iron. He says the women are not educated right. They are going to bankrupt the country, unless there is a change. More is thought of show than of substance. We pay millions of scores annually for ladies' ornaments which are of no use. We cannot afford it. It is worse than sinking the gold in the sea.

☞ M. J. P. Parker, of Salem, is Treasurer of the Eastern Railroad, and Albert Thorndike, late President, Auditor and General Agent of the Directors.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, Mrs. Isabella Pratt, wife of Edward Pratt, of "Prattville," Chelsea, met with an accident of a serious nature. She was, as usual, going towards the cow, for the purpose of milking her, when the animal broke her stanchions and ran furiously at her, throwing her down and injuring her severely. Her loud cries attracted the neighbors to the spot, when the furious beast was secured. Mrs. Pratt was conveyed to her house, when it was discovered that a wound some four inches in length had been inflicted across the abdomen by the cow's horn. Dr. Otis of Chelsea was immediately sent for, sewed up the wound, and yesterday the patient was quite comfortable. On Friday evening last, the same cow ran at the daughter of Mr. Pierce, head caulker at the Navy Yard, who is boarding at Mr. Pratt's, threw her down, and bruised her face considerably.—Courier.

Such a cow as this, should be consigned to the butcher forthwith.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

HALIFAX, Ias.—The steamship Asia, Captain Lott, arrived here this morning. She left Liverpool on Saturday, July 21st.

The week's intelligence exhibits no event of special importance either in the Crimea or Baltic.

In Parliament, Mr. Roebuck's motion of censure upon the government was defeated by a majority 100. The Palmerston ministry therefore remain in office.

Sir Wm. Molesworth was prominent before the public as Lord John Russell's successor in the Colonial Secretaryship.

Flour and wheat essentially unchanged, and steady at about former rates. Corn had further receded to the extent of 3s per quarter.

NEW YORK, July 31st.—Mr. Wheeler's Slave in New York.—The female slave of Mr. Wheeler, whose disappearance at Philadelphia led to the arrest of Mr. Williamson, is now in this city. She denies that she was taken away from Mr. Wheeler by force. She says that she wished to be free, but was closely watched by her master, but she finally got opportunity to make her wishes known to some colored woman, who undertook her rescue, and she rejoices that the attempt was successful.

It is rumored that the cashier of a Wall St. bank, who is also an officer in the finance department of the city government, is a defaulter to considerable amount, variously estimated at from 25 to $100,000. The particulars have not yet transpired.

NORFOLK, July 31.—The aggregate number of cases of yellow fever in this city up to to-day, is twenty, deaths four. In Portsmouth the number up to last evening is 68, deaths 26. In the latter place there is great excitement, the inhabitants of the infected district have all removed, and the locality has been fenced in.

The frigate Potomac sailed on Saturday, and the Constellation dropped down to the Naval anchorage.

Yacht Sea Ranger,
FOR THE SHOALS AND A MARKET.

CAPT. JAMES W. GOODWIN respectfully gives notice to the pleasure seeking public that he has purchased for their accommodation the present season, the safe, commodious and fast-sailing Yacht SEA RANGER, of 45 tons burthen, with which he is now prepared to convey parties to the Shoals, Boar's Head and other places in the vicinity; and having furnished her with all the necessary materials, will accommodate FISHING PARTIES on reasonable terms.

The SEA RANGER will outsail any vessel on the Piscataqua or of any neighboring ports, in light or heavy winds; is fitted with excellent berths; is well supplied with sails, boats, chairs and cooking apparatus, and is in every respect the best vessel for the accommodation of parties who desire a few days enjoyment on the briny ocean that ever hailed from this port.

The SEA RANGER will make occasional trips to the SHOALS for the accommodation of such persons as desire safe conveyance thither; and when the bosom of old ocean is too much agitated for the steamer GRACE DARLING alias Silver Star, to venture forth, she will bear passengers safely o'er the bounding billow.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.

A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it curls them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.

It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.

SANCHO PANZA

Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would be considered the inventor of the Dead Shot, who, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

REMOVAL.
Dr. Turnbull, Oculist & Aurist,

(FROM LONDON,)
Has arrived at the
WINTHROP HOUSE, BOSTON.
Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M

From the London Times.

A number of scientific gentlemen assembled at the house of Dr. Turnbull, to witness the results produced by a process recently discovered by the Doctor, and applied for the cure of deafness and blindness.

Between twenty and thirty patients attended, many of whom, it was stated by their parents, had been born deaf and dumb. They were submitted to various tests, by which it was proved that their deafness had been cured by the application of Dr. Turnbull's remedies; and what appears most singular is, that whether the disease depended on paralysis of the auditory nerve, rupture of the tympanum, or obstruction of the internal passages, relief had been obtained, or complete cure effected without delay, pain or inconvenience. Several patients, who represented that they had been completely blind, said that they could now see perfectly well. July16 3w

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT TO INVENTORS.—TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on application, prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct models of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

"PATENT OFFICE,
"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agency. I am very respectfully,

PIANOS.
HALLETT, DAVIS & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF
GRAND AND SQUARE
PIANO-FORTES.

☞ Particular attention is solicited to our PATENT SUSTAINING BRACE—also our PATENT GRAND ACTION, as applied to both Grand and Square Pianos.

WAREROOMS,
NEW FREESTONE BLOCK,
No. 409 WASHINGTON STREET,
NEAR BOYLSTON STREET.....BOSTON.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

"BETTER LATE THAN NEVER," PERHAPS.—The following is an item of foreign intelligence recently received:

"The Russian Government has ordered the distribution of 8,000 silver roubles to the poor of St. Petersburg, in order that they may pray for the soul of the late Czar."

It would perhaps have been as well for the 'late Czar,' to have seen to the 'poor of St. Petersburg' while living. The 'silver roubles' would have been very acceptable any time along, undoubtedly. It is a good thing for the poor, that a Czar dies once in a while, for it makes the Russian government very benevolent. It is to be presumed that more bread and clothing will be bought with the 'roubles,' than efficacious prayers for the soul of the departed Autocrat. Seriously, it is but sorry business for the Russian government to be encouraging thus, such a puerile religious superstition.—Reporter.

The roubles will do good, nevertheless:—and if the poor Russians benevolently pray for their dead ruler, the act and the feeling will do them good, if not him.

PRACTICAL PRAYER.—In the vicinity of B——— lived a poor, but industrious man, depending for support upon his daily labor. His wife fell sick, and not being able to hire a nurse, he was obliged to confine himself to the sick bed and family. His means of support being thus cut off, he soon found himself in need. Having a wealthy neighbor, he determined to go and ask for two bushels of wheat, with a promise to pay as soon as his wife became well enough to leave, so that he could return to his work. Accordingly he took his bag, went to his neighbor's, and arrived while they were at family prayers.

As he sat on the door stone, he heard the man pray very earnestly that God would clothe the naked, feed the hungry, relieve the needy, and comfort all that mourn. The prayer concluded, the poor man stepped in, and made known his business, promising to pay with the avails of his first labor. The farmer was very sorry he could not accommodate him, but he had promised to lend a large sum of money, and had depended upon his wheat to make it out; but he presumed neighbor A——— would let him have it.

With a tearful eye and a sad heart, the poor man turned away. As soon as he left the house the farmer's little son stepped up and said:

'Father, did you not pray that God would clothe the naked, feed the hungry, relieve the distressed, and comfort the mourners?'

'Yes—why?'

'Because, father, if I had your wheat, I would answer that prayer.'

It is needless to add, that the Christian father called back his suffering neighbor, and gave him as much as he needed.

Now, Christian readers, do you answer your own prayers.

COOL IMPUDENCE.—'Will you oblige me with a light, sir?'

'Certainly, with the greatest pleasure,' says Stranger, knocking off the ashes with his little finger, and presenting the red end of the cigar with a graceful bow.

Smith commences fumbling in his coat pocket; takes out his handkerchief; shakes it; feels in his vest with a desperate energy; looks blank. 'Well, I do declare, I haven't got one, true as the world. Have you another you could spare?'

'Certainly,' says Stranger, with a smile, 'and I beg you will accept it.'

There is a puff-puffing till the fresh cigar ignites, when they separate with a suave bow and wave of the hand. Smith chucks his friend, who was near splitting with laughter, under the ribs, with—'There! didn't I tell you I would get it? That's the way to get along in the world. Nothing like cool, polite impudence!' We thought so too.—Chicago Tribune.

BOOKS.—Books themselves are of various classes; some are good, some are bad, and many are neither good nor bad. Some are to be studied, some to be read, and some to be thrown into the fire. The profusion of books at the present time, and the ease with which they may be procured, I look upon as by no means an unmixed good. There is a great deal of trash current in the form of cheap literature, which, like cheap confectionery, is at once tempting and pernicious. Cheap as these books are in appearance, most of them would be dear at nothing at all. Especially is this true of the swarms of novels, of English and French manufacture, which come wafting upon every eastern wind, most of them worthless, and many of them worse than worthless. If you have any purpose of self-culture, one of your first duties is resolutely to abstain from such books, as you would from opium or brandy. But the promiscuous reading, without purpose and without method, of books in themselves good, is little better than an intellectual pastime.—Geo. S. Hillard's Mercantile Library Address.

In Professor Taylor Lewis' new work on the Creation and on the Habitability of the Planets, the Hebrew text and chief versions, the Targums, the Apocrypha, and even the Koran are laid under contribution, and the Professor, thus prepared, presents creation as revealed, and not as manifested by inductive science. The six Mosaic days he says are indefinite periods, and not measurable by any earthly time table. All which is founded on an elaborate investigation of the Hebrew and Biblical Aion, and the connection of eternity with the world.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1855.

We see that in Democratic conventions held in the counties of Kennebec, Penobscot and York, resolutions were passed, condemning in the strongest terms the policy of the present administration on the slavery question, and advocating the fusion of the Democratic and Republican parties.—Washington Organ.

All mass conventions of the people are Democratic Conventions. In this sense, the statement may be true. But if the writer intends that portion of the Democratic party led off by the papers that print the U. S. Laws and Advertisements, he mistakes the matter entirely.

The Morrill Democrats, who sustain the Maine Law, go for fusion with the Republicans, or anti-slavery politicians.

But the regular Democratic party, led on by the Argus, Age, and Maine Democrat, &c., all U. S. advertising papers, are for quite another fusion, viz.: with the Expositor or liquor party, and the straight whigs,—who all go against the new Maine law.

The organ must revise its classification and nomenclature of parties in Maine.

☞ The Boston Telegraph, temperance organ, speaking of the failure of the liquor law in Boston, says:

The cases recently tried at the Municipal Court were good, and no blame can be attributed to the government for the failure. It is now left for somebody to try the seizure clause. There is no hope that the government will do it. Will anybody do it?

The rumsellers were never doing a better business than at the present time. The toddy stick was never more active. Screens have been removed from bars, and there is nothing secret about the infamous traffic. Rum is almost as free as water in Boston. New shops have been opened, and every liquor-seller, from the three-cent underground den in Broad street to the Revere, has taken new courage, and presses with vigor on. Money is pouring into the life-destroyer's till, and this grandest scheme to destroy the race is now the best business in Boston.

The law throughout the State has not proved a failure. It has been generally enforced, and its beneficent operations have astonished even its friends. Quiet, order and sobriety have taken the place of rows, disorder and drunkenness. Thousands of families are rejoicing at the result. Let Boston foster the rum-traffic, if she will; let this be the central grog-shop of the State; let the sons and the daughters of our merchants fall victims to the murderous traffic; the country will protect herself, and in due time will defend herself against the groggeries of the capital.

☞ There was a great rum meeting, at Watertown, Mass., on Wednesday evening. Bond's Cornet Band, in a sleigh on wheels, followed by twelve omnibus loads of people, went out from Boston. The Reverend Mr. Lovejoy was the orator. The Boston Chronicle says:

The meeting was very enthusiastic, and, from what was evidenced by the people in attendance, augurs well for the friends of non-prohibitive legislation.

Death of Father Lamson.—The Boston Herald contains the following account of this singular but harmless monomaniac, who made work for the Boston police for several years. It should be stated that the old man's life was morally without reproach, though mentally erratic. His race is run; peace to his ashes. Let those who can, run better.

Mr. Silas Lamson died in Shelburne Falls, at the home of his son, on the morning of the 29th inst., aged 79, after an illness of five days. His disease was bilious colic, which after two days turned into dysentery.

Father Lamson was a native of Boylston. In youth he became a resident of Sterling, where he married and settled in life. A few years after he embraced religion and united with the Baptist church in Holden. He soon began to feel it his duty to preach—but after weighing the matter for some time, decided that the Bible did not require educated ministers.

From that time he embraced some peculiar views relative to Christ and religion,—began to wear his beard and dress singularly, which he continued to do to his death.

He has been a man of large inventive powers, having originated many valuable things, and patented many articles; but scythe snaths have claimed most of his attention.

He came back to reside with his wife and sons about one year ago, after a stay in Boston and other places for several years, and has during that time been very quiet and laborious, affording great consolation to his family.

The Governor of South Carolina has returned to the Governor of Massachusetts, certain resolutions which were passed by the Legislature of Massachusetts, and copies ordered to be sent to the Governors of all the States, to be laid before their Legislatures.—The South Carolina Governor accompanies the returned documents with a laconic note, in which he simply says, "I cannot consent, under existing circumstances, to be the medium of communicating any action of the Legislature of Massachusetts to the State over which I have the honor to preside."

Offended dignity—wounded chivalry—and gubernatorial donkeyism.

The Veiled Murderess.—Mrs. Robinson, "the veiled murderess," expresses no thanks to Gov. Clark for commuting her sentence to imprisonment for life. It is said that she goes so far even as to call him an old fool.

THE SLAVE'S OWN STORY.

The following story is published in the New York papers of Aug. 1, as the affidavit of Jane Johnson, who left her master, Mr. Wheeler, in Philadelphia.

My name is Jane Johnson; I was the slave of Mr. Wheeler of Washington; he bought me and my two children about two years ago, of Mr. Cornelius Crew of Richmond, Va. My youngest child is between six and seven years old—the other between ten and eleven. I have one other child only, and he is in Richmond; I have not seen him for about two years; never expect to see him again. Mr. Wheeler brought me and my two children to Philadelphia, on the way to Nicaragua, to wait on his wife. I did not want to go without my two children, and he consented to take them. We came to Philadelphia by the cars—stopped at Mr. Sallye, Mr. Wheeler's father in law, a few moments, then went to the steamboat for New York, at 2 o'clock, but were too late; went into Bloodgood's Hotel. Mr. Wheeler had told me in Washington to have nothing to say to colored persons, and if any of them spoke to me, to say I was a free woman, travelling with a minister. We staid at Bloodgood's till 5 o'clock. Mr. W. kept his eye on me all the time, except when he was at dinner. He left his dinner to see if I were safe, and then went back again. While he was at dinner, I saw a colored woman, and told her I was a slave woman, that my master had told me not to speak to colored people, and that if any of them spoke to me, to say that I was free, but I am not free, but I want to be free—she said, "Poor thing, I pity you." After that I saw a colored man, and said the same thing to him. He said he would telegraph to New York, and that two men would meet me at 9 o'clock, and take me with them. After that we went on board the boat. Mr. Wheeler sat beside me on the deck; I saw a colored gentleman come on board; he beckoned to me; I nodded my head and could not go—Mr. Wheeler was beside me and I was afraid; a white gentleman then came and said to Mr. Wheeler, I want to speak to your servant and tell her her rights. Mr. Wheeler rose and said—If you have anything to say, say it to me; she knows her rights. The white gentleman asked me if I wanted to be free—I said, I do, but I belong to this gentleman and cannot be free. He replied—Yes, you can; come with us; you are as free as your master; if you want freedom, come now; if you go back to Washington you may never get it. I rose to go.

Mr. Wheeler spoke and said—I will give you your freedom, but he had never promised it before, and I knew he would never give it to me. The white gentleman held out his hand and I went towards him. I was ready for the word before it was given. I took both the children by the hands, who both cried for they were frightened, but stopped when they got on shore. A colored man carried the little one, and I led the other by the hand. We walked down the street until we got to the hack. Nobody forced me away, nobody led me. I always wished to be free and meant to when I came north. I have been comfortable and happy since I left Mr. Wheeler, and so have the children. I don't want to go back.

I could have gone in Philadelphia, if I had wanted to, I could go now, but had rather die than go back. I wish to make this statement before a magistrate, because Mr. Williamson is in prison on my account, and I hope that the truth may be of benefit to him.

Resignation.—Moses G. Farmer, Esq., of Boston, for some time Superintendent of the Fire Alarm Telegraph in that city, has resigned. The salary recently was reduced from $1200 to $1000, and Mr. Farmer considered that there was too little pay and too much work. We learn from the Advertiser, that the past and present operators of the Alarm Telegraph presented to him, on Wednesday last, a very highly finished compound microscope of great power. The gift was selected as appropriate to the scientific researches of Mr. Farmer.

Distressing Homicide.—The Denton (Md.) Journal records the death of a wealthy and most estimable lady of Caroline county, from the effects of poison administered by her servant girl, aged about 14 years. The victim of this diabolical act was Miss Mary Reed, who resided with Miss Elizabeth Baynard, a few miles above Greensborough.—The Journal says:—

Miss Reed had occasion a few days previous to the occurrence, to correct the girl for some misconduct, and report says that the girl at the time made a declaration that she would "make a change there before long," or words to that amount. It appears that on Saturday last, the girl—not the regular cook in the family—volunteered her services to prepare the dinner for the family, and according to her own subsequent admission, put arsenic or some other poisonous substance in the coffee, which was attended by the fatal result above indicated.

A Colored Emeute.—There has been a negro excitement at Saratoga Springs for several days. The rules are, that no negro shall drink from the glasses used at the Springs by the white folks. On the 27th, about forty negroes, from the various hotels, mustered in a body, marched to one of the Springs, snatched a glass from the hand of a white lady and drank from it. Mr. Sheppard, a New York lawyer, drew a revolver, and demanded that no such impertinence should be repeated.—This brought matters to a stand, and the negroes on the arrival of a justice disappeared.—Boston Chronicle.

The blacks and whites both made fools of themselves; that's all.

Coming Down.—A heavy provision dealer of this city, just returned from an extensive business tour at the West, says there are "no two ways about it; prices have got to come down; not only flour, but provisions of all kinds will soon be lower than they have been for several years."—Boston Post.

LOCAL.

POLICE COURT.

Wednesday.—Before Justice Bennett,—Catherine McCarthney, for assault on Matilda Keith, fined $2,00 and costs $4,77—paid and discharged.

Matilda Keith, for making brawl and tumult, sent to House of Correction for sixty days.

Common Council.—Mr. Freeman in the chair. A message was received from the Board of Aldermen, stating that they had concurred in the resolution that a joint special committee be appointed to dispose of the lumber, &c., upon the lot on Daniel street. Adjourned, there being no further business.

In Board of Aldermen no quorum was present.

Fast Driving.—Furious riding in our streets is much too common, and deserves the attention of the police. On Tuesday evening last a party of seven fast young men on horseback dashed about town at such a rate as to greatly endanger the lives of children in the streets through which they passed. Coming up State street at a rapid pace they frightened the horse of Wm. P. Jones, Esq., which ran away, and dashed the carriage to pieces, and fell down and considerably injured himself.—A lady passing along the street at the same time was considerably injured by fright. Considerable surprise has been expressed that Uncle Toby of the Chronicle has not made the occurrence the text for one of his edifying discourses.—Ballot.

Well, brethren; here is the discourse.

1. If the young men on horseback went faster than the law permits, then by all means, Uncle Toby would say, make them pay their fines: the law is good and wholesome.

2. Moreover, he reflects, as in duty bound, that fast men, fast women, and fast horses, are all dangerous creatures, especially when they get agoing too fast. Therefore, he recommends moderation.

3. A fast horse frightened, is very bad indeed; a lady injured by fright is much to be pitied for an amiable weakness; and a frightened man or animal of any sort is at once pitiable and dangerous.

Loss of the Water Witch.—A letter received from Captain Plumer, by the owners, says:—The Water Witch, at the time of the disaster, was on her second voyage to California. A violent hurricane blew her near to Ypala, on the west coast of Mexico, and on the first of June last, after dragging her anchors and cutting away her masts, she struck upon hidden rocks, which knocked a hole in her bottom, when she soon went to pieces. All the officers and crew were saved. What was saved of the wreck was sold for $500. There was insurance on her freight of $24,000, and on the ship $60,000, in New York and Boston offices. She was only half loaded. Everything was lost by those on board—they barely escaping with their lives.

Ocean House, Rye Beach.—This pleasant and fashionable watering place, is doing a good business, in spite of the "hard times" which have so seriously affected the houses at Saratoga, Nahant, &c. Mr. Jenness, the proprietor, informs us that the difference in his receipts, between this season and last, is scarcely perceptible. About one hundred and forty boarders are at present there; and with the daily arrivals and departures, the house presents a lively appearance. The Ocean House is one of the largest and most elegantly furnished hotels in this vicinity, and its visitors have every possible facility for comfort and enjoyment.

For the amusement of his guests, Mr. Jenness every Wednesday evening has a grand "Hop," or dance, in his dining hall. He has a good band of music, under the direction of Mr. Lamprey, a gentleman well known to the lovers of the terpsichorean art in Portsmouth. All who were present and entered into the "Hop," last Wednesday evening, appeared to enjoy it much; and our citizens seldom have a better chance of engaging in the healthful and delightful exercise of dancing, than is afforded by these weekly "Hops."

Those who have visited Rye Beach on a hot day, need not be told of the refreshing coolness of the sea breeze, or of the pleasure to be derived from bathing in, and a "ducking" by, the rolling billows of the broad Atlantic; and those who have not been there, should improve their first opportunity of doing so. T.

We dropped a letter into the Post Office for Portsmouth, N. H., and it arrived there safe in eighteen days. Expeditious that, when we remember that the distance travelled was fifty-four miles.—Charlestown Advertiser.

It is quite probable the letter went to half the Portsmouths in the country.

A Big Fish.—A Horse Mackerel, weighing over fourteen hundred pounds, was caught near the Isles of Shoals last week, by some of our fishermen, and exhibited here in this town on Saturday. Very probably he has formed a joint of the tail of the Sea Serpent for a good many years past.—Dover Enq.

☞ Uncle Toby was wrong, and his nephews right, about the scripture. "Prepare to meet thy God, O Israel," is found in the prophecy of Amos, 4, 12; and was pointed out by a friend.

WAR NEWS BY THE ASIA.

The general view of the war at home and abroad, is not very encouraging. Partial successes before Sebastopol, have, however, revived the drooping spirits of the army, although the small reported losses of the Allies show that the successes were not of importance.

Gen. Pellissier, whose character suffered much after the repulse of the 18th, is regaining confidence, and from the strength of the French works now closely advanced to the Malakoff, there is an early probability of its capture.

A despatch is published from Gen. Simpson, giving an account of the embarkation of the body of the late Lord Raglan for England.

Gen. Pellissier placed a garland of Immortelles on the coffin, and the French troops formed an avenue of men, from the tent to the sea, a distance of six miles.

July 16th—11 P. M.—Gen. Pellisier telegraphs:—

"The enemy, who had for some days in vain endeavored to stop our left approches, in front of the Malakoff tower, attempted last night to drive us back, but were repulsed by the first division of the second corps. Three times the Russians threw themselves upon our trenches, with their usual shouting. After each attempt, they were compelled to retreat by the steady fire and calm attitude of our soldiers, leaving behind them many of their slain."

July 17th.—Gen. Simpson telegraphs:—"Nothing of importance. The army is in good health."

July 18th.—Gen. Simpson telegraphs:—"A sortie made on the left attack was repulsed with only three causalities on the British side."

July 19th.—The Paris Patrie says, according to the news received this morning, the Russians attempted another sortie last night, about 10 o'clock, against the batteries of the Careering Bay, and were vigorously repulsed.

Letters say that the Russian ships begin to suffer from the French mortar battery on the side of the Quarantine Bay, and deserters say that the rations of the shipping are reduced to one half.

The French have cleared Kamiesch of all suspicious persons, and have established a municipality.

Gen. Tyre has had his leg amputated.—Gen. John Campbell died within Sebastopol, and a flag of truce returned his sword.

THE ARMY IN THE FIELD.—The Sardinian and Turkish forces have again withdrawn from the valley of Baidar and Balaklava.—This may indicate either another manifestation in a plan of a campaign, or that field operations against the Russians have been abandoned.

It is confirmed that the Russians have received considerable reinforcements. Gortschakoff writes to St. Petersburgh acknowledging their arrival.

☞ Steamer Washington, arrived at New York, brings Southampton dates to July 18. A despatch from Gen. Pelissier states that the Russian Admiral, Nachimoff, was killed in the attack on Sebastopol of the 11th.

In the attack on Nystadt by the English frigate Harrier, on the 24th of June, forty-seven Russian merchant ships were destroyed, amounting in the aggregate to 20,000 tons.

There was a destructive fire at the Verandah, in New Orleans, on the 20th ult., by which property was destroyed to an amount in the neighborhood of $200,000.

The fire broke out at 2 o'clock in the morning, and at that time the steam fire engine was entirely out of order. By great effort, however, she was got in working condition and on the ground at half past four o'clock. She soon relieved all the hand engines, and alone kept the fire under, throwing four streams with great force and steadiness, although working under a pressure of only 44 pounds. Her regular power is 120 pounds. The hose would not have stood this; they burst several times as it was. The New Orleans papers give the engineer who managed her, great credit, for the constancy with which he worked against all sorts of difficulties.—The engine played until 11 o'clock A. M. —seven hours.

NEW YORK LIQUOR LAW.—The Albany State Register says:—"It is stated that Gov Clark, having demanded the opinion of the Attorney General of the State, Mr. Ogden Hoffman, on the liquor law, he transmitted an opinion to the capitol, that the law is in substance unconstitutional.

FIRE.—A large barn in Framingham, Ms., belonging to Mr. McIntire, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. This is the seventh fire in that town within ten days—all evidently the work of incendiaries. Nearly two weeks have elapsed since even an alarm o fire has been given in Boston.

PRICES IN NEW YORK.—In the New York cattle market, the quotations for beeves range from $8.50 to $11.50 per 100 lbs., and henceforward a steady reduction in price is looked for. Cows and calves sold at from $25 to $60; veals 4 to 7c; sheep and lambs $2.50 to $7.

NEW ORLEANS DOOMED.—The Memphis Eagle predicts that, 25 years from this time, grass will be growing in the streets in New Orleans, and the completed railway system of the South will have transferred the mouths of the Mississippi to Savannah and Charleston. It says that the dangerous navigation of the Gulf must and will be avoided.

On Tuesday of last week, the Court House in Taylor county, Virginia, was struck by lightning, while the Court was in session, and one person killed and another injured. The person killed was the Rev. Hezekiah Dunham, a young minister who had recently been ordained over the Baptist church in Prunytown.

Dr. Wm. J. Walker, of Boston, was badly wounded on Tuesday, by a cartman with whom he had some altercation, and who struck him on the head with the butt end of his whip.

DEAD SHOT FOR BED BUGS.
A SURE death to these noxious disturbers of our nightly rest. Apply it to insects and it twits them up and lays them out as readily as Sulphur Fumes kills Bees.
It has no equal in the market. The whole world cannot produce a substitute of similar value to the comfort of a neat tidy housewife. Its application is of little trouble, while the benefit which may be derived from a single night's undisturbed repose is incalculable.
SANCHO PANZA
Called down "blessings upon the head of the man who first invented sleep." How much more worthy such honorable distinction would he consider the inventor of the Dead Shot, by his Pungent and Deadly Preparation, has rendered utterly impossible the ancient bloody forays of such 'tolerable and not to be endured' tormentors; and who has enabled every one to guarantee to himself his own particular share of "tired Nature's sweet restorer."

JEFFERSON PARTAKING OF THE COMMUNION.—A writer in Hackensack, N. J., says a minister who was born and spent the greater portion of his life in Virginia, told him that Thomas Jefferson, in his old age, when he had quietly retired to Monticello, visited on Sabbath a country church. It happened to be Communion on that day, and an invitation being given to all who sincerely repented of their sins and exercised faith in Christ, to partake with the Church in that ordinance, Mr. Jefferson availed himself of the opportunity, and went forward and partook of the Communion. This fact was related to the writer by the Methodist Episcopal minister who administered the ordinance, and can now be substantiated by some of the people in the neighborhood of Monticello, and members of that church.

The Ithaca (N. Y.) Journal says: "The wife of Mr. Foster Evry residing in Newfield, this county, gave birth to four children—3 girls and 1 boy—weighing 5lbs. 3oz. each, on Sunday, the 22 inst. The whole family are doing well—not only the four late comers, but also the eight children that preceded them."

A week ago it was a popular rumor at Madrid that the image of the Savior, in the Church of St. Francis, at Madrid, had sweat blood out of grief for the sale of the church property. Some persons affirmed that they had wiped off the blood from the image; others declared that they had seen its eyes move.

New England Blacking.

THIS new and elegant composition is the result of eight years' experimenting, to attain the end of combining in one composition, new oil, which will render Boots and Shoes soft and pliable, and a

can be produced sooner which will retain its beauty longer than any other article of the kind in this or any other country.

The great beauty of my NEW ENGLAND OIL PASTE BLACKING arises from the use of the very best materials in compounding, which are manufactured to order, together with a scientific and an effective combination, the result of long practice, and expensive experimental trials.

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, Internal or external? HAYES'S

Allied Ointment and Humor Syrup

will cure you just as sure as you use it. Take not our assertion for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it wants is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred in a single town. Reader, do you ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any of our agents, get a circular, select any name you please, address a line to that individual—they will speak—they are living witnesses, and will tell you the truth, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself:

LAWRENCE, June 13, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other nostrums in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy results, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as THE article, and the ONLY one known to us, as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER, A. W. STEARNS,
S. I. THOMPSON, ASA T. SANBORN.

It cures Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly,) Barber's Itch, Fever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes all those vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In no case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves the sight wonderfully, where it has been troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

Price of the Ointment, $1; Syrup 50 cents.

PIANOS.
HALLETT, DAVIS & CO.
MANUFACTURERS of
GRAND AND SQUARE
PIANO-FORTES.

☞ Particular attention is solicited to our PATENT SUSPENSION BRIDGE also our PATENT GRAND ACTION, as applied to both Grand and Square Pianos.

WAREROOMS,
NEW FREESTONE BLOCK,
No. 409 WASHINGTON STREET,
NEAR BOYLSTON STREET.....BOSTON.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Transcript.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar features of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing these merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

Morning Chronicle.

LAGER BIER—HOW IT IS MADE.—An interesting lager bier trial came off in Petersburg, Va., on Saturday, in which interesting lager bier statistics were brought out on oath, and may therefore be believed. Mr. Solomon Keyser was the defendant, and was charged with keeping a disorderly bier saloon. A very respectable German witness in the case defined what lager bier was. He said it was manufactured of malt and hops, and to make it bitter, an extra amount of the latter was thrown in—that was bier. This compound was placed in a barrel, lined with a casing of rosin, and was laid in a cellar, from which laying in store was derived the name lager. This was lager bier, or "stock ale." The witness thought it might burst a man, but would not make him drunk. He had known German ladies in New York and Philadelphia to put seventeen to twenty glasses (pints) under their waistbands, in one day, and never feel the effects.

A LARGE FIELD OF RYE.—On the 'dark plains' in Concord, N. H., less than two miles east of the State House, may be seen a field of winter rye, of at least one hundred and fifty acres. It is owned by different persons. There are other fields of rye on those plains, amounting in all, it is said, to about five hundred acres. The crop is very fine and now ready for harvesting.

In the town of Concord, it is estimated that the rye crop of this season will exceed 20,000 bushels. One farmer has over a hundred acres in a single field upon the 'dark plains,' and several others have over fifty acres each. In Hillsborough, Bradford, and Washington, we noticed last week large fields nearly ready for the sickle, all of which were unusually thrifty. It is probable that the entire rye crop in the State, the present year, will reach 600,000 bushels.—Manchester Democrat.

AN ELOPEMENT.—A man named Alanson B. Stevens, who had been a barber in the city some time past, eloped from this city a few days ago with his niece, Josephine M. Woodward, a girl sixteen years old, whom he induced to leave her parents and home. They went to McHenry county and were married, since which, no trace can be found of the fugitives. The girl's father, Lorenzo Woodward, Esq., offers a reward of $200 for their apprehension, in order to procure the conviction of Stevens for perjury, in swearing that the girl was of age, to procure the marriage license. Stevens is about thirty years of age, and the girl is described as being very handsome.—Chicago Press.

FEAT OF A CAT.—A strange cat came into the Journal of Commerce printing office the other night, (doubtless in pursuit of rats, of which there are a plenty, very fat and sleek,) and at first seemed disposed to make herself at home, but on a little reflection she took fright, and darted through one of the open windows into thin air. Down, down she fell, from the fifth story to the stone pavement, a distance of fifty or sixty feet. The men naturally looked out to see if any portion of her tail was left after such a smash; instead of which they beheld a whole cat, apparently uninjured, and she immediately ran off to her lair, as if nothing had happened.—N. Y. Jour. of Com.

A FEMALE FOOT RACE.—Three splendid prizes, the least of which is $25 in gold, will be offered to the ladies of Seneca county, Ohio, at the next annual fair, October, 1855, for the swiftest running at foot-race. Bloomer dresses are not proscribed. Apropos—they have a Miss Bently in Cincinnati who has been walking a match against a famed pedestrian. After walking for 39 hours it was agreed that they should settle the match by a race of six times up the Hall. Miss B. gained the race by a few steps, and received the prize, when she sang several songs in her clear, sweet, and rich-toned voice, the great fatigue of walking not having impaired it the least."

The "Shanghai drill" at the Fort on Old Point Comfort, Va., is ludicrous in the extreme. It is performed by the recruits bracing their arms up against their bodies, and rapidly raising the legs as if they were at work in a tread-mill. The object aimed at is to train soldiers for ascending mountains and declivities of any kind. By practising in this way it is said that they are enabled successfully to compete with the horse in running up hill.

In a Methodist Church at Mount Salem, Ohio, directions for the minister are framed and hung up in the pulpit—such as: "Be short and lively, devout and in earnest; beware of being tedious or prosy," &c., and it is expected that preachers will govern themselves accordingly.

A NEW QUALIFICATION FOR THE PRESIDENCY.—A Washington correspondent of the New York Mirror, speaks of a Western gentleman as "fitted as well by his ability and education, as in his connection with one of the most refined and excellent ladies in the republic, to fill the presidential chair."

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—An Irishman was detected in Lawrence, Mass., a few nights since, girdling and mutilating the shade trees on the Common. He was arrested and carried before Judge Stevens, who sentenced him to twelve months' imprisonment in the House of Correction.

It is stated that a deputation from the Shaker village of Lebanon, N. Y., visited Randal's Island on Tuesday last, and by permission of the Ten Governors, selected twenty children, (eleven boys and nine girls) to be taken to Lebanon, and there brought up as Shakers. Some of the New York papers censure the Governors very severely.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1855.

CROPS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—A letter from Walpole, in the western part of New Hampshire, dated July 30, gives a good account of the crops and prospects there. It was communicated to the Boston Journal.

The crops in this vicinity now look admirably well, and are of excellent growth.—There are stalks of corn here which measure full nine feet in height—one nine feet and seven inches. Full one-fourth more acres are planted with corn, the various cereal grains and potatoes, than there was last year.

Because of the unfavorable weather since the 20th for harvesting, there is now a great quantity of grass and grain in the field ready for cutting. Considerable of the rye is cut, which as yet is uninjured; though the air has been moist, it has not mildewed, and there has not been a shower attended with so strong a wind to hurt the growing grains. In Westminster, Vt., bordering upon the Connecticut river, the crops are of unsurpassed fullness and richness. It is said by those who have long been familiar with those fields that they never have known the crops to look better, or the planting to be more extensive.

THE CROPS IN EUROPE.—Horace Greeley writing to the New York Tribune, under date of July 5th, thus speaks about the harvest prospect in Europe. It would seem that it is excellent, which varies somewhat from antecedent accounts.

"As I hear vague reports of indifferent harvest prospects in this or that quarter, let me say that, having travelled pretty extensively of late, I feel satisfied that the wheat crops of Europe for 1855, will be a full average, while that of hay (already for the most part secured) will exceed the usual yield. I think I never saw potatoes more thrifty and vigorous than those of France and Switzerland now appear, wherever they are not stifled by the insane practice of close planting, which is too common. Nearly every variety of vegetables is also looking well. The weather is variable, but generally dry and cool—and I know not what could be better for the maturing grain. Rye (now nearly ripe) looks well in Switzerland, but not so well in France; oats are late but generally of a good color; Indian corn is often yellow and slender: but neither this nor rye is extensively grown in the sections I have traversed. The great staples are grass, wheat and potatoes, and all these in the main promise well. I am assured that the prospect is equally good throughout Germany."

WATERTOWN, MASS.—We have already made a brief note of the great Rum Meeting at Watertown on Wednesday evening. We now give some farther items from the Boston papers:
